Your INVITATION to understand
... and enjoy ... the SCRIPTURES

The Dartmouth Bible

Edited by Roy B. Chamberlin and Herman Feldman. Designed to give you a wider and more enlightened understanding of the Bible

... edited for all readers, regardless of faith or church connection. This Bible offers a wealth of valuable material for the intelligent layman as well as the more serious Bible student. It is an abridgment of the best-loved version, the King James, and contains the Old Testament, the Apocrypha (which is missing in most Protestant Bibles), the New Testament, with introductions, prefaces, explanatory notes and annotated guide maps. It is handsomely bound, printed on Bible paper in clear, legible type; 6x9 inches in size and contains 1,257 pages. A Bible you'll read, enjoy, understand ... and cherish through the future years. (HM) $7.50

The 1950 Journal of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church is gratefully dedicated to the memory of JAMES ADDISON JONES, Christian business man and builder, philanthropist, churchman, servant of the Kingdom of God, father of worthy sons and daughters and the spiritual father of the Charlotte Mission Society.

STANDING RULES, 1948-1951

Rules of Order and Procedure for the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church

I. RULES OF ORDER

1. The rules of the preceding Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference insofar as they may apply, otherwise Roberts' Rules of Order, Revised, shall govern the procedure of this Annual Conference.

II. ORGANIZATION

2. (1) The official roll call shall be the roll call cards signed by the Clerical and Lay members present.
3. (2) The Secretary: The Secretary of the Annual Conference shall be elected quadrennially by the Conference, at the first session following the General Conference, and on nominations arising from the floor.
4. (3) Assistant Secretaries: The Secretary shall nominate his assistants annually and the Conference shall elect.
5. (4) The Treasurer: The Conference Treasurer shall be elected, on nomination of the Commission on World Service and Finance, at the first session of the Conference following the General Conference. He shall serve for the quadrennium, or until his successor shall be elected and qualified. Discipline 1948, Paragraphs 790-92.
6. (5) Statisticians: The Conference Statistician shall be elected by the Conference on nomination of the Cabinet at the first session of the Conference following the General Conference; and shall serve for the quadrennium or until his successor is elected. The Conference shall elect annually an assistant statistician. There shall be district statisticians selected annually from the several districts, nominated by the District Superintendents, after consultation with the Conference Statistician, and approved by the Cabinet as a whole. It shall be the duty of the Conference Statistician, in keeping with paragraph 630, Discipline 1948, to compile and report the statistics of the Conference.
7. (6) Auditor: The Auditor shall be elected annually by the Conference on nomination of the Commission on World Service and Finance. Discipline 1948, Paragraph 1188.

8. (7) Conference Stenographer: The Conference Secretary shall employ the Conference Stenographer.
9. (8) Compensation: The Commission on World Service and Finance shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given the above officers for their services and also the method and/or amount for meeting the expenses of said offices. The Conference Treasurer shall pay these amounts from the Conference Expense Fund.
10. (9) Boards, Commissions and Committees: The Bishop and his Cabinet shall determine the size of and nominate the members to all Boards, Commissions and Committees of the Conference as authorized by the General Conference, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference and this Annual Conference, except in those cases in which the Discipline directs otherwise. The Cabinet is the Nominating Committee of the Conference. The recommendations and nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Conference.
11. (10) Board of Missions and Church Extension (1282): The District Superintendents, the District Missionary Secretaries, and the Chairman of the Conference Town and Country Commission shall be members of the Board of Missions and Church Extension.
12. (11) Board of Evangelism (1559): The District Secretaries of Evangelism shall be ex-officio members of the Board of Evangelism.
13. (12) Committee on World Peace (1581): The Committee on World Peace shall be constituted at the first session of the Annual Conference following the General Conference and shall serve for the quadrennium.
14. (13) Program Committee: There shall be a Program Committee of the Conference consisting of the Resident Bishop, the Conference Secretary, the Chairman of the Conference Entertainment Committee, the host District Superintendent and Pastor, and the Conference Lay Leader. This Committee shall determine the compensation and expenses for speakers invited by this Committee and the Treasurer shall pay expenses out of the Conference Expense Funds.
15. (14) Entertainment Committee: There shall be a Conference Entertainment Committee, composed of four ministers and three laymen. This Committee shall be elected at the first session of the Conference following the General Conference and shall serve for the quadrennium. It shall be the duty of the Committee to advise with the local entertainment committee; and, as the Conference shall direct, to determine the place and method of entertaining the Annual Conference sessions. The Conference Secretary shall be an ex-officio member of this Committee.

16. (15) (a) Committee on Memoirs: The ministers who are selected to prepare memoirs for deceased members of the Conference shall constitute the Committee on Memoirs for the year. The Cabinet shall appoint a chairman of this committee.

(b) The Memorial Service: There shall be held annually a memorial service at the time which the Program Committee shall determine. There shall be a printed memorial service program including the memoirs and the names of ministers and ministers' wives who have died during the year. The memoir shall be printed in the Conference Journal. There shall be one speaker, selected by the Program Committee, to deliver the memorial address.

17. (16) Committee on Daily Minutes: A Committee of three members shall be elected annually to cooperate with the Secretary in examining the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference before they are read to the Conference for final correction and approval.

18. (17) Courtesies and Introductions: At the first session of the Conference annually there shall be elected a Committee on Courtesies and Introductions.

19. (18) Resolutions: The Conference shall elect annually a Committee on Resolutions and all resolutions to be presented to the Conference shall clear through this Committee.

20. (19) Conference Journal: At the first session of the Conference, following the General Conference, there shall be elected a quadrennial Committee on the Publication of the Conference Journal. This Committee shall be composed of three ministers and two laymen. The Editor of the Conference Journal shall be an ex-officio member of this committee but without vote. The Committee shall consult with the Editor of the Conference Journal, accept bids for printing the Journal, and make recommendations to the Conference regarding the publication of the Journal.

21. (20) Bible Board: The Conference shall constitute a quadrennial Bible Board at the session of the Conference following the General Conference.

22. (21) Appeals: There shall be a quadrennial Committee on Appeals composed of five members, two ministers and three laymen, with one minister and one layman as reserves. This Committee shall hear appeals of Quarterly Conferences from decisions of District Boards of Location and Building and from decisions of arbitration committees constituted to make allocation of parsonage assets when a circuit is divided, and shall make recommendations to the Annual Conference. (Paragraph 258, 1948 Discipline.)
23. (22) Rules: At the first session of the Conference, following the General Conference there shall be elected a quadrennial Committee on Rules composed of three ministers and two laymen. The report of this Committee shall be made at the first session of the Conference annually, and as often during the sessions as necessary.

III. REPORTS AND RESOLUTIONS

24. (1) All reports and resolutions presented to the Conference shall be written, typewritten if possible, in triplicate. Two copies of the reports shall be given to the Secretary as soon as the report is completed by the Board or Committees. Two copies of all resolutions shall be in the hands of the Secretary before the resolution can be presented to the Conference for consideration. [See also rule 19 (18).]
25. (2) All reports of Boards, Committees and Commissions of the Conference shall be placed on the calendar of the Conference in order the reports are received by the Conference Secretary; and the reports shall be presented to the Conference for consideration in the order of the calendar.
26. (3) Any amendment offered to any report or proposal and all motions of more than a single sentence must be in writing and a copy in the hands of the Secretary when presented to the Conference for consideration.

IV. MINISTERIAL CHARACTER

27. Ministerial Characters shall be passed in open Conference, provided that the Conference may order an executive session of the ministerial members to consider questions relating to matters of ordination, character and Conference relations. Discipline 1948, Paragraph 646.

V. LAYMEN AND LAY MEMBERS TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

28. (1) The District and the Associate District Lay Leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on nomination of the District Superintendents and the Conference Lay Leader. Discipline 1948, Paragraph 1499.
29. (2) Lay members, regular and reserves, Discipline 1948, Paragraph 146 (8), from the pastoral charges to the Annual Conference shall be elected annually by the Quarterly Conference at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting of the Annual Conference.
30. (3) The District Superintendent shall complete the list of lay members elected to the Annual Conference from the charges of his district at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting of the Annual Conference and shall transmit the list to the Conference Secretary immediately.

VI. PASTORS' REPORTS TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

31. (1) Each pastor shall complete table I of his annual report to the Conference and send the report to his District Superintendent not later than fifteen days before the Conference convenes.
32. (2) Table II shall be completed and turned in to the Conference Treasurer on the first day of the Conference session.
33. (3) Both tables shall be filled in by individual churches with totals for the charge.
34. (4) Finances shall be reported in even dollars only.
35. (5) Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal only by charges.
36. (6) A third table of individual church reports, as approved by the Annual Conference, shall be compiled by the Conference Statistician from the other table, and this shall also be printed in the Conference Journal.

VII. THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

37. (1) Editor: The Conference Secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing the Conference Journal in keeping with the regulations of the General and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conferences and under the direction of the Conference Committee on the Publication of the Journal.
38. (2) Number printed: The number of copies ordered for the current year by the pastors and District Superintendents shall determine the number of copies of the Journal to be printed for the year.

39. (3) Bids for Printing: The Committee on the Publication of the Journal shall get at least three bids from reputable printers before letting the contract for the printing of the Journal. [See also Rule 20 (19).]
40. (4) Journals shall be shipped to the charges only on current order of the pastor or District Superintendent; and orders must be received by the Conference Secretary not later than thirty days after the adjournment of the Annual Conference.
41. (5) Each pastor or charge treasurer shall remit for the entire shipment of Journals promptly on the receipt of the same, except as provided by rule 43 (7).
42. (6) Each charge shall remit the fund received from the sale of Conference Journals directly to the Conference Treasurer.
43. (7) Each ministerial member, conference claimant, and lay member of the Annual Conference shall be sent one copy of the Journal each year without charge. All other copies, except those used strictly in official Conference business and those sent to Boards, Commissions and Committees, shall be sold at 50c each, or single copies by mail 60c each.

VIII. DISTRICTS

44. (1) There shall be ten Districts in this Annual Conference.
45. (2) A District Conference shall be held annually in each District.
46. (3) The Committee on Records of each pastoral charge shall examine the Quarterly Conference Records of that charge and submit a written report to the District Conference, which report shall be referred to a special committee of the District Conference. Discipline 1948, Paragraphs 669 (12) and 147 (7).
47. (4) Each pastoral charge shall elect annually four delegates to the District Conference. These shall be in addition to those named by the Discipline as ex-officio members of the District Conference.
48. (5) The Superintendent of each District shall be required to furnish the Bishop, the Conference Treasurer, and the Conference Statistician, as early in the Conference year as possible, an official copy of the apportionments to the charges for World Service and Conference Benevolences and the amount accepted by the charge and by each church on the charge.
49. (6) The District Superintendent, as early in the Conference year as possible, shall furnish the Bishop in Charge and the Conference Treasurer a schedule of the salaries of the pastors and associate pastors, as set by the first Quarterly Conference.

50. (7) All District Treasurers shall be elected by the first District Conference, following the General Conference, on nomination of the District Superintendent, and shall serve for four years.

IX. LOCAL PREACHERS

51. (1) No candidate for license to preach shall receive that license until he shall have passed by written examination the prescribed course of study. [Journal 1943, page 56 and Discipline 1948, Paragraph 302 (1) (c).]
52. (2) No local preacher or preacher on trial unless ordained Elder can administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.
53. (3) A local preacher shall work only under the supervision of his pastor and/or District Superintendent. Any violation of this provision of the Discipline constitutes mal-administration and shall forfeit the right for the renewal of the license until the District Conference shall be satisfied that the local preacher will obey the law of the church. (Discipline 1948, Paragraphs 306, 308). This Provision does not supersede the law applicable to Accepted Supply pastors.
54. (4) The Annual Conference shall provide entertainment for Accepted Supply pastors and for other local preachers serving as supply pastors on the same basis as for ministerial members.

X. AMENDMENTS

55. These Standing Rules may be, by a two-thirds vote, amended on the next day after an amendment has been presented in writing; provided, the rule fixing the number of districts and concerning the Conference Journal may be amended by a majority vote; provided further, a change in the number of districts cannot be made later than the second morning of the Conference session.

XI. WHEN THESE RULES BECOME EFFECTIVE

56. (1) These Standing Rules of the Western North Carolina Conference shall become effective immediately upon passage by the vote of the majority of the members of the Conference present and voting.
57. (2) These rules, as they may be amended from time to time, shall be effective for all the sessions of this Conference during the quadrennium 1948-1951.

EXCUSED—C. W. Bates was excused for the day to conduct a funeral. C. C. Benton was excused for the duration of the conference because of illness.

Secretarial Staff: On nomination of the Secretary, the following members of the secretarial staff were elected: W. L. Sherrill, Secretary Emeritus; C. W. Bates, Credentials and Roll Call; George B. Ehlhardt, Journal; W. Kenneth Goodson, Reports; John R. Hamilton, Calendar and Announcements, as associate secretaries; and A. M. Faulkner, J. J. Powell, and M. V. Thumm, assistant secretaries. Mrs. K. Henry Koestline, Jr., was elected conference stenographer.

Rules Adopted: W. A. Stanbury, chairman of the Committee on Rules, presented the report of the committee and asked that the rules adopted for the 1949 session be adopted as the rules for this session of the Annual Conference. The motion was adopted. (See Rules, page 4.)

Program Adopted: On motion of the Conference Secretary, the program as printed and distributed was adopted. (See page 11.)

Nominations: Edgar H. Nease, secretary to the Cabinet, presented the following nominations from the Cabinet, and the Conference elected:

Committee on Memoirs: C. W. Bates, C. C. Benton, Harlan L. Creech, Jr., E. P. Billups, W. A. Stanbury, W. Kenneth Goodson, Walter B. West, Harold M. Robinson, and J. C. Cornette.

Committee on Courtesies and Introductions: R. Dwight Ware, E. H. Blackard, C. D. White, W. D. Corriher, and W. J. Huneycutt.

Committee on Resolutions: C. E. Rozzelle, S. B. Moss, A. A. Kyles, B. J. Ramsaur, and Paul R. Ervin.

Committee on Daily Minutes: S. B. Biggers, J. A. Lindsey, and J. C. Stokes.

Committee on District Conference Records: R. E. Bell, J. E. Caldwell, Thomas C. Harrell, and L. F. Strader.

Welcome: E. H. Blackard, pastor of Central Methodist Church, presented Bishop Harrell a gavel made from a part of a chancel constructed by Robert Strawbridge at Sams Creek. The Bishop responded. Dr. Blackard then welcomed the members of the Conference to the Methodist Churches of Asheville, after which he presented C. S. Brown, chairman of the local entertainment committee, who spoke briefly. W. D. Corriher told the Conference of the interest of H. A. Dunham in The Methodist Church and that Mr. Dunham is following his tradition of furnishing apples for the Annual Conference meeting in Asheville. Dr. Blackard then presented Mayor Clarence E. Morgan who welcomed the Conference to Asheville. Dr. Greer Davis, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Dr. Perry Crouch, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Dr. John Tuton, pastor of the Trinity Episcopal Church, were presented to the Conference; and Dr. Crouch spoke briefly for the Asheville ministers. Bishop Harrell responded to the words of welcome.

Dr. Elmer T. Clark, editor of World Outlook, and Rev. W. T. Broome, member of the East Oklahoma Conference, were presented to the Conference. The Conference united in singing Hymn No. 248, "Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross."

Memorial Service: Led by Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the annual Service of Commemoration was conducted. (See program, page 176.) The Canticle of the Word was led by E. H. Blackard; the Record of Remembrance was given by the Conference Secretary; and the Pastoral Prayer was made by Harlan L. Creech, Jr. The choir of Central Methodist Church, assisted by the conference quartet, sang the anthem, "When They Ring Those Golden Bells" by DeMarbelle.

E. M. Graham, T. M. Johnson, J. M. Morgan, T. A. Plyler, B. A. Sisk, Edward Snits, G. W. Vick, D. P. Waters, and Beverly Wilson, ministerial members; Mrs. A. S. Abernethy, Mrs. W. M. Boring, Mrs. W. B. Davis, Mrs. A. G. Dixon, Mrs. R. L. Forbis, Mrs. A. G. Loftin, Mrs. O. B. Mitchell, Mrs. Ebenezer Myers, Mrs. H. E. Stimson, and Mrs. Edward Suits, heroines of the parsonage; and J. A. Jones, lay member-elect, have died during the past conference year.

The Memorial Sermon, "Candles of the Lord," was preached by R. Dwight Ware. The Conference joined in singing Hymn No. 531, "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand."

Holy Communion: The Bishop, assisted by Superintendents R. Dwight Ware, Edgar H. Nease, W. A. Stanbury, Herman F. Duncan, John W.

Hoyle, Jr., Walter B. West, J. H. Armbrust, George B. Clemmer, C. N. Clark and H. G. Allen, and E. H. Blackard, host pastor, administered the Holy Communion. The Bishop pronounced the benediction and the morning session was adjourned at 12:42 p. m.

Afternoon Session

Preaching Hour: Bishop Costen J. Harrell called the afternoon session to order at 3 o'clock and after the Conference had joined in singing several gospel hymns, the conference quartet, composed of J. B. Hurley, E. H. Nease, Jr., M. V. Thumm and A. M. Faulkner, sang "I Want a Principle Within." W. J. Huneycutt led the prayer. Bishop Harrell presented to the Conference Dr. Roy L. Smith, Junior Publishing Agent of The Methodist Church, and Dr. Smith preached a sermon on The Transfiguration. The benediction was given by Bishop Harrell and the afternoon session was adjourned at 4:11 o'clock.

Evening Session

Hour of Evangelism: Bishop Harrell presented Ralph A. Taylor, president of the Conference Board of Evangelism, to preside for the evening session. The report of the Board of Evangelism was read by James B. McLarty and unanimously adopted. (See Report, page 142.) The choir of the West Asheville Methodist Church, under the direction of Miss Viola Ownbey, sang the anthem, "Create in Me a Clean Heart." The sermon on "The Secret of Evangelism" was preached by Dr. Roy L. Smith. The Conference united in singing the hymn, "Rise Up, O Men of God." The benediction was given by D. M. Nifong, and at 8:43 o'clock the evening session was adjourned.

SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1950

Morning Session

Bishop Harrell Leads Devotions: The morning session, Thursday, September 21, 1950, was called to order at 9 o'clock by Bishop Harrell. The Conference joined in singing the hymns, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Take Time to Be Holy." The morning prayer was made by Dr. Roy L. Smith, and the conference quartet sang "My Gracious Lord, I Own Thy Right." Bishop Harrell gave the devotional address on the Scripture, "Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you," after which the conference quartet sang, "My Jesus, I Love Thee," and the Conference joined in singing "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

Privilege Matters: On motion of E. H. Blackard, the main floor of the sanctuary was set as the bar of the Conference. Also on motion of Dr. Blackard, the Conference Secretary was ordered to send greetings to the Holston Conference now in session in Knoxville, Tennessee. Dr. Blackard presented Miss Mary Beth Joyner, promotional secretary of Greensboro College.

Journal Dedicated: The 1950 Journal of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, on motion of E. H. Blackard and seconded by many members of the Conference, was ordered dedicated to the sacred memory of James Addison Jones.

Resolution: Robert M. Hardee presented a resolution which was adopted. The resolution follows:

RESOLVED: that

1. The Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church now in session in High Point, North Carolina, takes a firm stand against Communism;

2. Wherever Protestantism is strong, Communism has not been able to get a foothold;

3. Protestantism is our greatest bulwark against Communism;

4. We are proud of the firm stand Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam has made in behalf of individual freedom and we deplore the unfounded false rumors which have been circulated seeking to undermine the influence of the Protestant Clergy.

Signed:

ROBERT M. HARDEE

G. RAY JORDAN

JULIAN A. LINDSEY

White, Reed Wilson, and J. N. Youngblood. (37)

RESERVE LAY MEMBERS—Mrs. A. T. Abernethy, Orton Boren, L. A. Love, Mrs. Glenn Palmer, Mrs. John Pittillo, J. H. Sink, Miss Beulah Smith, and H. E. Wright. (8)

Daily Minutes: For the Committee on Daily Minutes, J. A. Lindsey reported that the daily minutes for the Wednesday and Thursday sessions of the Conference have been examined and found correct and in order. The Conference approved the report.

Introductions: Bishop Harrell presented to the Conference Dr. James Cannon III, acting Dean of the Duke Divinity School; Dr. Frank P. Cartwright, representing the Council of Secretaries; and F. W. Paschal, transferred to this conference from the North Carolina Conference. Dr. Cannon spoke briefly and brought greetings from Duke University. Dr. Cartwright thanked the Conference for its response to all the calls of the church.

Resolution Amended: W. A. Stanbury asked the Conference to grant permission to include in the resolution regarding a representative to the Vatican State, which resolution was adopted yesterday, the direction to send copies of this resolution to the two North Carolina Senators and to Vice-President Barkley. By common consent this was granted.

Privilege Matters: E. H. Blackard announced that a telegram greeting has been received from Rev. and Mrs. Paul Hardin, Jr. Dr. Blackard then presented Mrs. Costen J. Harrell to the Conference.

Order of the Day: The time having arrived for the order of the day, C. C. Herbert, Jr., read the report of the Commission on World Service and Finance. On motion of W. B. West, the Conference decided to consider the report as a whole. E. J. Harbison expressed his opposition to the proposal to divide any part of the surplus in the District Superintendents' Fund among the ten District Superintendents who have served this past year. Mr. Herbert explained that this money had been raised for the District Superintendents and, he felt, should go to them. There was a call for the question, and the report was adopted. (See report, page 91.) Mr. Herbert announced that the report will be mimeographed and ready for distribution on Saturday.

Introductions: Bishop Harrell presented Dr. Herbert Herring, Vice-President of Duke University; Dr. J. W. Sells, Extension Secretary of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council; and Dr. A. T. McIlwaine, St. Louis office of the Board of Pensions. These men spoke briefly to the Conference.

Excused: E. A. Cook was excused to return home because he was ill, and W. C. Sides, Jr., and E. M. Avett were excused to return to their charges to perform weddings.

Resolutions: The following resolutions presented by Judge Guy Weaver, C. N. Clark, G. B. Clemmer, H. F. Duncan, and W. B. West were adopted.

1. WHEREAS the Hillside-Merrimon Methodist Church of Asheville, North Carolina, has heretofore, through its official board and congregational approval, duly changed the name of said church and congregation from Hillside-Merrimon Methodist Church, to that of ST. PAUL'S METHODIST CHURCH,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE of the Methodist Church, in annual session duly assembled, that the change of the name of said church and congregation from that of Hillside-Merrimon Methodist Church, to ST. PAUL'S METHODIST CHURCH, be and the same is hereby duly ratified and confirmed.

Submitted by GUY WEAVER, Lay Leader, Asheville District.

2. Whereas this Conference has ordered the Wolfe Mountain property sold and the proceeds used for a proposed Spring Creek project, and whereas the said Wolfe Mountain property has been sold but the Spring Creek project was not carried out,

Be it resolved, that this Conference authorize the Conference Trustees to execute all necessary papers relative to the sale of the Wolfe Mountain property; and

Be it also resolved, that the proceeds of the Wolfe Mountain property be directed to a parsonage for Shooting Creek except five hundred dollars given the expense account of the Waynesville District, the above to be handled by the executive committee of the Board of Missions. (Signed) C. N. CLARK.

3. Whereas certain properties were sold about two years ago by the Superintendent of the Waynesville District and this Conference directed that the proceeds of such sale be used for the building of the Meadow Grove Church on the Pigeon Valley Circuit, and whereas it seems the Meadow Grove Church will not be built,

Therefore, be it resolved, that said proceeds be given to the Clyde and Louisa parsonages and certain expenses paid for by the Waynesville District. This is to be carried out by the District Superintendent of the Waynesville District and the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions. (Signed) C. N. CLARK.

4. RESOLUTION CONCERNING FAIRGROVE METHODIST CHURCH IN THE THOMASVILLE DISTRICT

WHEREAS Fairgrove Methodist Church on the Seagrove charge in the Thomasville District has to all practical intents and purposes been an abandoned church for several years, most of the members having moved away from the community, while others have transferred their membership to Seagrove; and

Whereas there does exist the Why Not Memorial Association, composed of former residents and former members of said Fairgrove Methodist Church, which is interested in the perpetual upkeep of the cemetery, part of which is owned in fee simple by the said Why Not Memorial Association; and

Whereas said Memorial Association desires to maintain the church property in a decent state of repair so that same may be used as a chapel for funerals and as a place for the annual gatherings of said Memorial Association; and

Whereas the Quarterly Conference of the Seagrove charge is agreeable to such an arrangement;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Fairgrove Methodist Church be declared an abandoned church and that the trustees of said church be authorized and empowered to deed the church lot, and the cemetery lots, to the Board of Trustees of the Why Not Memorial Association, and their successors in office, for use as a chapel in connection with the cemetery and as a place for the annual gatherings; however, in the event that said Why Not Memorial Association should cease to function in maintaining the property, or in using it as agreed upon, the title would revert to the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church. (Signed) GEO. B. CLEMMER.

5. WHEREAS that portion of the real estate conveyed by Caleb Jones to Thomas Chance and others, Trustees for Pennial Meeting House by deed recorded in Box 2nd K, Page 108, Office of the Register of Deeds of Rockingham County, North Carolina, owned by Pennial M. E. Church, South, on November 4, 1911, has not been used as a Church since 1912 and has been abandoned; and

WHEREAS a portion of said property was and is used as a cemetery; and

WHEREAS, said Pennial Church when it was abandoned, was a part of the Ruffin Charge of the Greensboro District of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; and Ruffin Methodist Church of said Ruffin Charge is now engaged in building an EDUCATIONAL UNIT to their church, and it is appropriate that said Ruffin Church should receive such sum of money as might be derived from the sale of said property,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That the property hereinbefore referred to as the property of Pennial M. E. Church, South, be and it is hereby determined to be abandoned church property and the ownership declared to be in the Trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Inc., under the provisions of paragraph 255 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church.

2. It is expedient that the property be conveyed to the Trustees of Ruffin Methodist Church in order that the cemetery of said church be held intact for the protection of the graves of those persons already buried there, and for the graves of any persons who may hereafter be buried in said cemetery; and that the other portion of said property may be sold and the proceeds used in its building project.

3. That the trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Inc., be and are hereby authorized and directed to convey said property to the Trustees of Ruffin Methodist Church, Greensboro District of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church by deed fee simple in form but without warranty.

4. That said conveyance shall indicate what portion of the property shall be held for cemetery purposes; and what portion may be held and conveyed free of any use as a cemetery; and the description of the property shall be in accordance with a map or sketch hereto attached, and the portion of the land represented by the area on the map marked cemetery shall be held, kept, and used for cemetery purposes only. (Signed) HERMAN F. DUNCAN.

6. WHEREAS W. H. Nolly and wife, L. T. Nolly, executed to J. P. Martin, R. A. Dwiggin, and W. H. Nolly, Trustees, a deed dated February 2, 1888, and recorded in book of deeds 72, pages 33-34 of the office of the Register of Deeds for Rowan County, North Carolina, conveying to the grantees therein named one and one-half acres of land to be used as a place of Divine worship, said deed containing the trust clause as set forth in the Discipline of The Methodist Church, and

WHEREAS the grantees in the above mentioned deed were trustees of the Evergreen Methodist Church of the Woodleaf, North Carolina, charge, and

WHEREAS subsequent to the above mentioned conveyance, said Evergreen Methodist Church ceased to exist, and

WHEREAS the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church held during the year 1947, passed the following resolution which appears in the Journal of the Ninth Session of said conference on page 55:

EVERGREEN METHODIST CHURCH

In Rowan County and within the bounds of Woodleaf Charge, Salisbury District, Western North Carolina Conference, is a plot of ground on which formerly stood the Evergreen Methodist Episcopal Church. For many years there have not been any church services nor a church building at this place. The deed for this plot of ground is recorded in the Register of Deed's office in Rowan County, book 72, pages 33, 34.

The quarterly conference of Woodleaf Charge requests the Western North Carolina Conference to authorize and instruct the Trustees of the Conference to sign the deed conveying this plot of ground to S. A. Rheudasil of Rowan County, for the sum of $150.00. This amount to be applied to improvement of the Woodleaf parsonage.

R. M. Courtney, D.S.

AND WHEREAS, pursuant to the resolution above mentioned, a deed was executed on October 9, 1947, to S. A. Rheudasil conveying said property by "The trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, composed of the following Trustees, to-wit: W. D. Painter, H. D. Bailey and O. M. Click," said deed also being signed by J. B. Ivey, President, and George D. Finch, Secretary-Treasurer, (see book of deeds 340, page 139, office of the Register of Deeds for Rowan County, North Carolina), and

WHEREAS said deed has been improperly executed to legally convey title to the property therein described, and

WHEREAS it is the desire of this Conference that such steps be taken as might be necessary to correct the above mentioned defective conveyance.

NOW THEREFORE, be it resolved, that the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church duly assembled does hereby authorize and instruct the Trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference to make and execute a new deed to S. A. Rheudasil, conveying to him the following described real estate:

BEGINNING at a stone in the old Nolley and Wagoner line, and running with said line S. 63 W. 20 poles to a stone in said line; thence a straight line 12 poles to a stone; thence parallel with first line 20 poles to a stone; thence 12 poles to the BEGINNING corner, containing $1\frac{1}{2}$ acres, more or less. (Signed) W. B. WEST.

Wesley Foundation Report: W. A. Stanbury made the report of the Wesley Foundation Commission and it was adopted. Dr. Stanbury asked for permission to file the Treasurer's report later and that it go to record in the Journal. This request was granted. (See reports, page 155.)

Lake Junaluska: Bishop Harrell spoke of the Lake Junaluska Assembly development program and thanked the Conference for the fine response to this cause. He then presented H. G. Allen, the new Superintendent-elect for the Assembly. Dr. Allen asked the co-operation of the Conference in the work of the Assembly.

Methodist Theological Schools: Bishop Harrell called Dr. James Cannon III to sit in the pulpit and presented Dr. Ray C. Petry, professor of church history, Duke Divinity School, who as the speaker for the Methodist theological schools, spoke on "Eyeless In Gaza." The Bishop spoke briefly of the importance of this cause. The following resolution was presented by Wilson O. Weldon and adopted:

RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS

From Joint Meeting of Board of Education and Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.

This Conference, having heard the statement made by Dr. Ray C. Petry, representing the General Conference Committee on Theological Education, desires to go on record as expressing its very great interest in the campaign to make the whole Methodist Church more aware of the importance of training more and better ministers. The Western North Carolina Conference pledges its wholehearted and prayerful co-operation in this effort.

To the furtherance of this end, the Conference urges that pastors and district superintendents should not only seek out recruits for the ministry, but when young men and young women have expressed a desire for advanced theological education, should seek to have the home churches of such young people provide adequate scholarships for them at the school of their choice.

Signed by: W. A. KALE, WILSON O. WELDON.

Wilson O. Weldon made the motion that the Board of Education and the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications be authorized and requested to have the address of Dr. Petry printed for distribution throughout the bounds of the Conference. This was ordered by vote of the Conference.

Historical Society: Bishop Harrell asked C. Moody Smith, president of the Conference Historical Society, to preside. After the Conference had sung the hymn, "The Morning Light Is Breaking," Mr. Smith presented Dr. Elmer T. Clark, representative of the International, the Association of American Methodist and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Historical Societies. Dr. Clark spoke briefly of the significance of history and of plans of the Historical Societies. Chairman Smith appointed E. P. Billups, L. B. Hayes and G. B. Ehlhardt as a committee on nominations. M. A. McLean, pastor of Asbury Memorial Church, brought to the pulpit the chair which was used by Bishop Francis Asbury in his visits to Daniel Killians. J. C. Stokes read the report of the Executive Committee of the Society and it was adopted. Dr. Stokes also presented the Treasurer's report and it was ordered to record. George B. Ehlhardt spoke of the annual meeting of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Historical Society held last summer at Lake Junaluska and told of the Wesley and Asbury window in the Memorial Chapel at Lake Junaluska. An offering amounting to $73.03 was taken to apply on the cost of the window. The conference quartet sang as an offertory quartet, "Holy, Holy, Holy."

E. P. Billups presented the report of the Committee on Nominations and the following officers were elected: President, John H. Carper; Vice-President, George B. Ehlhardt; Secretary-Treasurer, J. C. Stokes; and Executive Committee, C. C. Benton, E. P. Billups, J. H. Carper, G. B. Ehlhardt, L. B. Hayes, E. H. Nease, C. Moody Smith, H. C. Sprinkle, Jr., and James C. Stokes.

Adjournment: The benediction was given by C. M. Pickens and the morning session was adjourned at 12:25 p. m.

Afternoon Session

Devotions: Bishop Harrell called the afternoon session to order at 3 o'clock and the Conference sang "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord," and "Am I a Soldier of the Cross?" C. E. Rozzelle led the prayer, and the conference quartet sang "Fling Out the Banner." The dedication hymn, "Take My Life and Let It Be," was sung by the Conference.

Deacons Ordained: Edgar H. Nease, Conference Secretary, presented to Bishop Harrell: D. B. Alderman, H. L. Blackwelder, D. W. Charlton, Jr., J. H. Coleman, R. P. Crawley, C. W. Faulkner, C. Y. Ingram, J. T. Ingram, Ralph Miller, K. R. Moore, J. A. Mote, E. D. Page, R. C. Putnam, W. T. Ratchford, and G. W. Rudisill to be ordained deacons. In the ordination service, Joseph Owen read the Epistle, the Bishop examined the deacons-elect and ordained them, and the Secretary presented the certificate of ordination. The Conference united in singing "Break Thou the Bread of Life."

Sermon: On the Scripture basis, "I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ . . .," Dr. Joseph Owen, pastor of Main Street Methodist Church, Gastonia, preached the afternoon sermon. The quartet sang "Savior, Thy Dying Love."

Adjournment: After the Bishop had thanked the conference quartet, the organist, the pianist, and the director of the choir, for their effective services during the Conference, the benediction was given by Joseph Owen and the Conference was adjourned at 4:28 p. m.

Evening Session

Devotions: Bishop Harrell called to order the evening session of the third day of the 1950 session of the Conference at 7:30 o'clock. The congregation sang "Majestic Sweetness Sits Enthroned," and the evening prayer was made by President George B. Ehlhardt, Brevard College.

Presentations: Bishop Harrell presented B. Joseph Martin, Executive Director of the Methodist College Foundation of North Carolina, Inc. Dr. Martin presented to the Conference President L. L. Gobbel of Greensboro College, Vice-President Herbert Herring, Duke University, President George B. Ehlhardt, Brevard College; President Samuel Holton, Louisburg College; President Dennis H. Cooke, High Point College; W. A. Kale, Chairman of the Conference Board of Education, and Edwin L. Jones, President of the College Foundation. Mr. Jones spoke briefly in interest of the Foundation.

Greensboro Choir: The Greensboro College choir sang three numbers.

Address: Dr. Martin introduced Dr. John O. Gross, Executive Secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions General Board of Education, and Dr. Gross addressed the Conference on "The Educational Outlook Is the Long Look." Dr. Martin responded. The Greensboro College Choir sang four numbers, the benediction was given by C. C. Herbert, Jr., and the evening session was adjourned at 9:15 o'clock.

FOURTH DAY, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1950

Morning Session

Devotional Service: At 9 o'clock Saturday, September 23, 1950, Bishop Harrell called to order the morning session of the fourth day of the 1950 Annual Conference. The Conference sang "Thou, My Everlasting Portion," and "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone?" The conference quartet sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd," and John H. Carper gave the morning prayer. The quartet then sang "Spirit of God."

Admitted into Full Connection: The Secretary presented D. B. Alderman, H. L. Blackwelder, W. W. Blanton, J. P. Brown, F. H. Edwards, C. W. Faulkner, J. T. Frazier, Jr., R. H. Hipps, C. Y. Ingram, and J. D. Murray to be admitted into full connection. Basing his address on the Scripture account of the temptations of Jesus, Bishop Harrell spoke on "The Temptations of the Ministry." The Bishop asked the class the Questions for full membership, and by vote of the Conference the men were admitted into full connection. The Conference united in singing "More Love to Thee, O Christ."

Council of Churches: Miss Frances Query of the North Carolina Council of Churches was presented to the Conference and spoke of the work of the Council.

Greetings: A telegram of greeting from the Holstein Conference was read by the Secretary, a similar greeting having already been sent to that Conference. The Secretary announced that messages have been received from A. R. Bell, G. I. Humphreys, M. L. Chappell, R. J. Parker, A. Burgess, A. G. Dixon, H. E. Stimpson, and W. M. Curtis, members of this Conference who because of illness and age could not attend.

1951 Session: Bishop Harrell recognized E. H. Blackard, chairman of the Conference Entertainment Committee, and Dr. Blackard presented E. C. Few, pastor of West Market Street Church, Greensboro. Dr. Few invited the 1951 session of the Conference to meet in that church, and the Conference gave its hearty approval by a standing vote.

Privilege Matters: E. H. Blackard announced that a number of the members of the Conference would preach in the Asheville churches tomorrow. William R. Locke, professor in High Point College, and Dr. D.

Stewart Patterson, Secretary of the Methodist Commission on Chaplains, were introduced. Dr. Patterson spoke on the importance of the chaplaincy and thanked Bishop Harrell and this Conference for the fine attitude and response.

Board of Education: Bishop Harrell asked W. A. Kale, chairman of the Board of Education, to preside for the time allotted the cause of education. Report No. 1 of the Board of Education was read by E. K. McLarty, Jr., and adopted. Mr. McLarty also read Report No. 2 from this Board and this report was adopted. (See Reports, page 119.) Carl H. King was presented and spoke of the work of Christian education and announced that the debt on the camp has been paid in full. Mr. King presented Mrs. W. R. Reid, director of Children's Work, and Miss Marion Craig, director of Youth Work for the Conference, and they spoke to the Conference on their particular fields of work.

Miss Helen Terry, new director of the Wesley Foundation at Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, was introduced to the Conference. Mr. Kale then presented B. Joseph Martin, who spoke of the work of the Methodist College Foundation. It was announced that because of illness A. G. Odell is not able to attend the Conference and that he has resigned from the Board of Education. Prayer was made for Brother Odell.

Missions and Church Extension: W. J. Miller was called to preside, and he presented Report No. 1 of the Board of Missions and Church Extension. This report was adopted. The Conference authorized the Board to complete No. 2 later for printing in the Journal. I. L. Roberts read Report No. 3 of this Board and it was adopted. (See Reports, page 103.)

Hospitals and Homes: L. B. Abernethy, chairman of the Board of Hospitals and Homes, was asked to preside. W. Reid Wall, Superintendent of The Methodist Home, was presented and he spoke in interest of the Home. O. V. Woosley read Report No. 1 of the Board of Hospitals and Homes and the report was adopted. (See Reports, page 126.) Mr. Woosley presented as Report No. 2 the following resolution which was adopted:

Whereas the Board of Trustees of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital in their annual meeting held September 12, 1950, unanimously requested it,

Be it resolved, that the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church herewith authorizes the Directors and/or Trustees of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital and the Western North Carolina Conference to deed unto a corporation and/or the doctors of the Elkin community sufficient land belonging to said Directors and/or Trustees upon which to erect an office building and clinic at such time and if in the opinion of the Directors and/or Trustees of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital and Western North Carolina Conference such action is deemed advisable in the opinion of said Directors and Trustees. (Signed) L. B. ABERNETHY, Chairman and O. V. WOOSLEY, Secretary.

Reports: The reports for the Board of Temperance, the Committee on World Peace, the Board of Conference Claimants, the Commission on Christian Vocations, the Committee on Accepted Supply Pastors, and Committee on District Conference Records were read by N. C. Williams, J. H. Carper, J. H. Armbrust, R. P. Gibbs, Fred H. Price, and J. E. Caldwell. All these reports were adopted except the last one, and it was ordered to record. See Reports.

Resolution: The following resolution presented by Harry Williams was referred to the Committee on Rules:

1. In order to give the members of our Conference a better opportunity to properly consider a complex report, we move the 1951 annual report of The Commission on World Service and Finance be presented in mimeographed form to the Conference at least one business session prior to its being officially voted upon.

2. We move further that the above resolution be presented by the secretary of the Western North Carolina Conference in correct form and according to Conference law for inclusion in the Standing Rules of the Western North Carolina Conference at the beginning of its 1951 session.

Signed by: MARK Q. TUTTLE, JAMES G. HUGGIN, H. S. WILLIAMS.

Excused: T. A. Groce was excused for the remaining sessions of today in order that he might be away to conduct a funeral.

Retired: The Secretary announced that through some error regarding the date of the birth of E. O. Cole, he was retired last year but that he should not have been officially retired until this year. Mr. Cole is due annuity credit for the last Conference year. The Conference approved.

Adjournment: Chaplain P. L. Green gave the benediction and the morning session was adjourned at 12:28 p. m.

Afternoon Session

Devotions: Bishop Harrell called the afternoon session to order at 3 o'clock, and after the Conference had sung "How Tedious and Tasteless the Hour," M. W. Nesbitt, Jr., led the prayer.

Bible Board: The report of the Bible Board was read by R. L. Reed and adopted. (See report, page 144.)

Re-Admitted and Transferred: Wilson O. Weldon reported that because of the urgent request from the Illinois Conference the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications is recommending for re-admission R. Odell Brown, who has given a complete statement of confession and repentance. The Conference voted to re-admit Mr. Brown, and he made a public statement of repentance and pledged that he would be faithful as a minister of Jesus Christ. Bishop Harrell announced that R. Odell Brown is transferred as of this date to the Illinois Conference.

Withdrawn: W. A. Stanbury announced that M. B. Shives has surrendered his credentials under complaint. (Mr. Shives claims that he has lost his Deacon's Orders and this certificate was not surrendered.)

Town and Country Work: The report of the Town and Country Commission was presented by M. W. Nesbitt, Jr., and adopted. (See Report, page 145.)

World Service Commission: C. C. Herbert, Jr., proposed an amendment to the report of the Committee on World Service and Finance, which report was adopted this morning. Motion was made that the report be reconsidered, and the Conference approved. The amendment was adopted and the report as amended was adopted.

Treasurer's Report: Herbert M. Wayne, Conference Treasurer, made his report and it was received and ordered to record. (See Report, page 95.) On motion of R. Dwight Ware, the Conference expressed its appreciation for the services of Mr. Wayne by a standing vote.

Resolution: The following resolution was presented by W. A. Kale, and unanimously adopted:

RESOLUTION

The business of the Western North Carolina Conference is expanding rapidly. Already we have passed beyond the period and stage when our affairs can be handled by relatively few committees and boards and in a short time. Ours is a large and complex organization requiring attention week by week through each year. It can be forecast that in both complexity and size we are destined to increase.

We are handicapped today because we do not have adequate facilities for offices, conference rooms, and headquarters for our boards and important committees. It is often a waste of time and money to attempt to conduct our affairs under present conditions.

In view of this growing need we request that a commission consisting of the following persons be instructed to study the possibilities of establishing a Methodist Center, or headquarters building, in the city of Charlotte or some other appropriate place, and report their findings to the next annual session of this Conference: Dr. E. H. Nease, Secretary of the Conference; Rev. C. C. Herbert, Jr., President of the Commission on World Service and Finance; Rev. W. J. Miller, President of the Board of Missions; Rev. W. A. Kale, President of the Board of Education; Mr. Edwin L. Jones, President of the Methodist College Foundation; Mr. Paul F. Evans, Conference Lay Leader; Mrs. J. W. Payne, Conference President, W.S.C.S.; Mr. Oscar Merritt, of the World Peace Commission; Ralph H. Taylor, President of the Board of Evangelism; O. V. Woosley, of the Board of Hospitals and Homes; Paul R. Ervin, President of the Board of Temperance; Wilson O. Weldon, President of the Board of Ministerial Training; Garland R. Stafford, Commission on Town and Country Work; J. B. Ivey, Chairman, Conference Trustees; J. H. Armbrust, of the Board of Conference Claimants; J. C. Stokes, President of the Bible Board; and the following ministers and lay members of the Conference: Clarence E. Morgan, Orton Boren, Reynolds Cuthbertson, J. Frank McCrary, Marshall I. Pickens, C. P. Bowles, E. K. McLarty, Jr., Carl H. King, and Reid Wall. Signed by: W. A. KALE, R. H. STAMEY, RAYMOND SMITH, H. C. WILKINSON.

Reports: The reports of the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., and No. 2 of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications were read by W. O. Weldon and H. R. Simpson, respectively. The reports were adopted and C. W. Robbins spoke urging the Conference to increase the subscriptions to the Advocate.

The Statistician's report and the reports of the Roberts Bequest, E. M. Cole Foundation, Conference Trustees, and the Trustees of the Superannuate Endowment were ordered to record. The trustees, as recommended, were elected. (See Reports.)

E. P. Billups made the report for the Committee on Conference Relations. (See Report.) The character of R. V. Martin was passed and at his own request he was granted voluntary location. The character of John W. Carter was passed, and the Secretary announced that he has withdrawn to enter the ministry of another denomination.

Duke Student Center: The Secretary read to the Conference a telegram from John Christy, president of the Duke Methodist Student Fellowship, urging the Conference to support the student work at Duke University and the proposed student center. On motion of George B. Ehlhardt the Conference instructed the Secretary to respond pledging the support of this Conference.

Moving Dates: On motion of W. A. Stanbury, the Conference voted to designate October 4 and 5 as the dates when the ministers should move.

World Communion Sunday: Bishop Harrell asked that each pastor return to his charge of last year and observe World Communion Sunday, October 1. If the minister is not qualified to administer the Communion he should at least take an offering for the causes recommended for that Sunday.

Resolutions: Edgar H. Nease presented the following resolutions which were adopted:

Whereas Oak Grove Church, Unionville Charge, Charlotte District, has been discontinued and abandoned; be it resolved, that the Western North Carolina Annual Conference declare the church abandoned and authorize the trustees of said church property to sell to the highest bidder the church building and apply the proceeds to the building of a parsonage for the Unionville Charge. The cemetery on the said Oak Grove property is to be maintained under the control of the Trustees of the said church property as now constituted and as they shall be elected in conformity with the Discipline of The Methodist Church. Signed: EDGAR H. NEASE, Superintendent.

Whereas Harmony Church, Peachland Charge, Charlotte District, has been discontinued and abandoned; be it resolved that the Western North Carolina Annual Conference declare the church abandoned and authorize the trustees of said church property to sell the property and use the proceeds for the Peachland parsonage. Signed: EDGAR H. NEASE, Superintendent.

Nominations: Edgar H. Nease, Secretary of the Cabinet, presented the following nominations from the Cabinet and the Bishop and the nominees were elected:

Daily Minutes: S. B. Biggers for the committee reported that the minutes for the sessions of yesterday are correct and in good order and the Conference approved his report. By common consent, the Conference authorized the Committee on Daily Minutes to examine and approve the minutes of this session.

Resolutions: For the Committee on Courtesies and Resolutions, Sam B. Moss presented the following resolution which was enthusiastically and unanimously adopted:

RESOLUTIONS OF APPRECIATION TO ASHEVILLE AND ITS PEOPLE

We, the laymen and ministers of the Western North Carolina Conference, take this means to express our deep and sincere thanks and appreciation to the multitudes of splendid people of Asheville and vicinity for their most cordial and hospitable entertainment of our Conference during the session now ending. Never have a people been more generous in their expressions of cordiality and their manifestations of kindness than these of this church and city.

To Dr. Embree H. Blackard, pastor of Central Church; to Mr. C. S. Brown, chairman of the Entertainment Committee; to Dr. R. Dwight Ware, Superintendent of the Asheville District; to Mr. J. Francis Griffith and his choice choir of Central Church; to the various churches and pastors of the city of Asheville and their good people, both Methodist and others; to the conference quartet of our own ministers; to the staff workers of Central Church along with the janitors here; and to the unfailing women who have served such delicious refreshments during the days of the Conference; and to Mr. H. A. Dunham for his continuing generosity in providing apples for all delegates, and to many others who have made our stay in Asheville one to be long remembered, we the members of the committee say Thank You with emphasis in capitals and underscored.

To all those visiting ministers and laymen who have come to us with their words of inspiration, uplift, and encouragement, namely, Dr. Roy L. Smith, Dr. B. G. Childs, Dr. Ray C. Petry, Dr. Joseph Owen, Dr. B. Joseph Martin, Dr. John W. Gross, and Dr. J. Wallace Hamilton, as well as many others too numerous to mention, we express our gratitude for every word spoken and every impulse given our Conference in its forward looking programs of material and spiritual advance. We will carry in our hearts blessed memories of their coming into our midst and gracious thoughts of such associations. We pray for each of these brethren in their great ministries in this and other states.

We desire to thank the various churches and denominations of Asheville, their ministers and congregations, for such a welcome as they have given us and for such a noble spirit of co-operation and fraternal love in our meeting here. Regardless of church and creed, they have been most unselfish in their greetings and most brotherly in their attitudes. God bless them every one.

We thank the West Asheville Methodist Choir, the Brevard College and Greensboro College Glee Clubs, and the Lee Edwards High School Band and Choir of this city for music unsurpassed and melodies that will accompany us as we depart. Our Conference appreciates the services of all these chosen ones in the realm of the artistic.

We thank the hospitable ladies of Central Church for their consideration of our wives, and especially Dr. and Mrs. William Ray Griffin of this city for the tea given by them for all the wives, mothers, and daughters of the parsonages of this great Conference. Blessings upon the many homes of Asheville and the hosts therein who have caused us to regret having to say the word GOODBYE.

Finally, to Bishop Costen J. Harrell for his understanding sympathy of every problem, for his poised and well-balanced leadership, for his prayerful spirit at all times and under all circumstances, and for his masterful administration of this Conference in all its infinite details, we joyously, sincerely, and affectionately speak our thanks in the closing hours of this mid-century Conference, asking the continued benediction of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit upon him and Mrs. Harrell in their marvelous ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference.

May the peace of God forever abide in all our hearts and sustain us in these days so filled with peril and yet great challenge.

Respectfully submitted, SAM B. MOSS, C. EXCELLE ROZZELLE.

Appendix—Reports

COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE, 1950-1951

Your Commission is pleased to observe that this great Conference is adjusting itself wisely to the rising cost of living. It is clear that there is a continuing determination on the part of our preachers and laymen alike to see to it that the work of our Blessed Lord shall not suffer as the value of the dollar declines. It is gratifying to note that pastors' salaries are being increased, that a number of charges have overpaid their apportionments on World Service and Conference Benevolences, that mission specials are being assumed and supported with glad hearts, that the needs of our hard-pressed colleges are being recognized and the growing purpose of our people to give them adequate support is becoming increasingly manifest, that the agencies of our tender ministry to the sick, the aged, and the homeless are receiving devoted contributions, and that the amount of money given to the Kingdom of God through our regular channels is at an all-time high.

Permit your Commission to exhort that we be not weary in well-doing, but that, as the Lord has prospered us, so let us give.

We recommend that the total apportionments be divided as follows:

World Service	$148,561.00
Conference	114,140.00
	<hr/>
	$262,701.00
Jurisdictional Conference	9,847.82
Annual Conference Expense	15,000.00
General Administration Fund	7,848.00
	$295,396.82

The General Administration Fund, the Jurisdictional Conference Fund, and the Annual Conference Expense shall be prior claims.

We recommend the following apportionments to the various districts:

Asheville	$ 21,387.01
Charlotte	40,752.96
Gastonia	33,664.06
Greensboro	46,057.22
Marion	17,433.33
Salisbury	35,802.02
Statesville	30,421.12
Thomasville	25,339.61
Waynesville	12,772.57
Winston-Salem	31,766.92
	$295,396.82

We recommend the following appropriations:

1. Christian Education, College Section	$ 30,000.00
2. Christian Education, Local Church Section	23,000.00
3. Church Extension	12,000.00
4. Conference Missions	34,000.00
5. Lay Activities	700.00
6. Wesley Foundations	7,440.00
7. Board of Temperance	4,500.00
8. Board of Evangelism	700.00
9. North Carolina Council of Churches	1,000.00
10. Board of Ministerial Training	500.00
11. Committee on World Peace	300.00
	$114,140.00

OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That all monies for World Service and Conference Benevolences, Minimum Salary Fund, Episcopal Fund, District Superintendents' Fund, Conference Claimants' Fund, College Sustaining Fund, and Town and Country Fund be handled through the Conference Treasurer.

2. That all Boards and Commissions whose Annual Appropriations are $5,000.00 or less shall use the Conference Treasurer as fiscal agent, in order to save expenses of separate audits and bonds (Discipline, par. 792.).

3. That the Episcopal Fund shall be an amount equal to $1\frac{3}{4}\%$ of the salary of the pastor and ministerial assistants for the current year.

4. That an amount equal to $4\frac{3}{4}\%$ (being a reduction of $\frac{1}{4}$ of 1%) of the salary of the pastor and ministerial assistants for the current year be assessed for the support of the District Superintendents, and that the salary of each District Superintendent be fixed at \$6,000.

Because pastors' salaries have risen steadily to meet the rising cost of living, the surplus in the District Superintendents' Salary Fund has been increasing, even though the percentage of assessment has been steadily reduced year after year. Your Commission feels that the surplus in this fund is adequate. The 5% assessment during the year just ended has yielded $3,000 to $4,000 more than is needed to pay the fixed salaries, which have remained the same now for the past two years. We, therefore, further recommend that the Conference Treasurer be authorized and instructed to pay to each of the ten District Superintendents for the year now closed (1949-50) the sum of $300 in addition to the salary fixed by the annual Conference of 1949; provided, that it be understood that this additional payment is only for the past year, and is not to be construed as a continuing policy.

5. The Board of Conference Claimants is asking for an apportionment of an amount equal to $17\frac{1}{4}\%$ of the pastor's salary. We call attention to paragraph 1624 of the Discipline, which states that the percentage for Conference Claimants shall apply to the salaries of the pastor and all ministerial assistants.

6. That each charge pay to the Minimum Salary Fund an amount equal to $3\frac{1}{4}\%$ of the amount raised by the charge the preceding year on the following items:

- (a) Paid Other Current Expenses and Incidentals (Including Interest, etc.) (Item 44 of pastor's report.)
- (b) Paid for Church School Administration, Supplies, etc. (Item 45 of pastor's report.)
- (c) Paid Minister and Associate Minister(s) (Item 47 of pastor's report):

That we approve the recommendation of the Board of Missions and the Town and Country Commission that the schedule of Minimum Salary for the ensuing year be $2,500 for effective Conference members, including members on trial; $2,100 for full-time accepted supplies; and $1,900 for other full-time supplies, including retired supplies; and that salaries for part-time supplies and student pastors be on an adjusted basis.

Based on the investigation and recommendation of the Board of Missions, it is deemed that the $3\frac{1}{4}\%$ assessment as shown above will be adequate to meet this schedule.

We recommend further that the Board of Missions administer the Minimum Salary Fund.

7. That each charge pay to the College Sustaining Fund an amount equal to a minimum of 3% of the amount raised by the charge the preceding year on the following items:

- (a) Paid Other Current Expenses and Incidentals (Including Interest, etc.) (Item 44 of pastor's report).
- (b) Paid for Church School Administration, Supplies, etc. (Item 45 of pastor's report).
- (c) Paid Minister and Associate Minister(s) (Item 47 of pastor's report); and that the Board of Education distribute the College Sustaining Fund among our colleges on the basis of 30% to Brevard College, 30% to Greensboro College, 30% to High Point College, and 10% to Duke University. We recommend that our churches observe College Day the first Sunday in December, at which time information about our colleges shall be presented and an offering taken which shall apply on the apportionment for the College Sustaining Fund for the charge.

8. We have an urgent request from the Presidents and Trustees of each of our colleges for capital funds that are desperately needed. The Methodist College Foundation which was authorized at the 1949 conference, joins in their appeal for the funds and certifies that their requests are the minimum immediate requirements. This request is also recommended by the Board of Education.

We, therefore, recommend (1) that during the next two conference years (1950-51 and 1951-52) a campaign be entered into jointly with the North Carolina Conference, with a minimum overall goal of $2,500,000 for Greensboro, High Point, Brevard, and Louisburg Colleges; that the minimum goal for each college be as follows:

Greensboro College for Buildings	$600,000
High Point College	800,000
(a) For Buildings	$500,000
(b) For Endowment	300,000
Brevard College for Buildings	700,000
Louisburg College	400,000
(a) For Buildings	250,000
(b) For Endowment	150,000

(2) We recommend that quotas be set at 60% for Western North Carolina Conference and 40% for North Carolina Conference.

(3) That the organization and personnel of the Methodist College Foundation be used in the actual handling of this campaign.

(4) That the Bishop and his Cabinet, together with the Executive Committee of the Methodist College Foundation be and are authorized to determine the proportions or amounts that are to be allocated to each District, and that the Methodist College Foundation District Committee together with the District Superintendent, are to determine how the District goal is to be allocated and raised on each charge.

9. That we approve the request of the Board of Education that every church observe "Church School Rally Day" with an offering on April 15 or as near thereto as possible.

10. That we approve the request of the Inter-Conference Wesley Foundation Commission for the privilege of soliciting from individuals who desire to make special gifts for the benefit of the Commission's work.

11. That the apportionment for The Children's Home in Winston-Salem shall be an amount equal to 10% of the pastor's salary for the current year, and that each charge voluntarily adopt a total charge goal, including the 10% apportionment, on the following basis:

- 12% for charges paying the pastor less than $1,500
- 15% for charges paying the pastor from $1,500 to $2,499.
- 18% for charges paying the pastor from $2,500 to $3,499.
- 21% for charges paying the pastor from $3,500 to $4,499.
- 25% for charges paying the pastor $4,500 or more.

12. That Mother's Day be set as a time when all churches are to receive special free-will offerings for the Methodist Home for the Aged.

13. That the month of April be designated as Golden Cross month, during which time our churches are urged to receive an offering, to be expended at the direction of the Board of Hospitals and Homes.

14. That any overpayment on World Service and Conference Benevolences be distributed equally between College Place Church, Greensboro, and Fairmont Church, Raleigh, for use in the construction of buildings to serve Methodist students attending Woman's College of the University of North Carolina and State College of the University of North Carolina; provided that and to the extent that the North Carolina Conference participate on the basis of $40.00 for each $60.00 paid in the Western North Carolina Conference; otherwise the surplus or any part thereof shall be distributed equally between the Church Extension section of the Board of Missions and the College Section of the Board of Education, of the Western North Carolina Conference.

15. That Herbert M. Wayne be heartily commended for his consecrated, faithful, and efficient service as Conference Treasurer.

16. That H. C. Northup be designated Conference Auditor.

17. That out of the Annual Conference Expense Fund the following expenditures shall be made:

- (a) An all-inclusive salary of $2,700 for the Conference Treasurer and necessary clerical help.
- (b) $300 salary, plus postage and extra clerical help for the Conference Secretary.
- (c) $200 salary, plus extra clerical help, for the Conference Statistician.
- (d) $300 remuneration for the Conference Auditor.
- (e) $200 remuneration for travel expense for the Board of Hospital and Homes.
- (f) $15 remuneration for each District Statistician.
- (g) Necessary expenses, for Conference Treasurer, Conference Secretary, and Conference Statistician to attend Jurisdictional meeting of these officers held at Lake Junaluska.
- (h) We recommend that the Treasurer be authorized to pay any deficit in Annual Conference expenses from the reserve on hand.

18. The books of the following treasurers have been audited or are in the process of being audited and each treasurer is bonded by his institution as follows:

Brevard College	$10,000.00
Greensboro College	35,000.00
Assistant bonded for	10,000.00
High Point College	25,000.00
Assistant bonded for	10,000.00
Children's Home	30,000.00

The World Service Commission has a position bond for the Treasurers in the following amounts:

Board of Education	$10,000.00
Board of Missions	35,000.00
Assistant Treasurer	10,000.00
Board of Church Extension	10,000.00
Conference Claimants	25,000.00
Charlotte City Mission Society	10,000.00
Conference Treasurer	35,000.00
Assistant to Conference Treasurer	10,000.00
Methodist Home for the Aged	25,000.00
Eugene M. Cole Foundation	10,000.00

This blanket bond covers up to $10,000 all who handle funds for the various boards and agencies of the Conference.

Because the Conference session is held before the end of the fiscal year of quite a number of the Conference Boards and Agencies, we do not now have audited statements. We have, however, been assured that these audits will be submitted to us as soon as possible.

19. SUMMARY OF ITEMS APPLYING TO LOCAL CHURCH BUDGET:

- (1) World Service and Conference Benevolences (get from District Stewards).
- (2) Other Ministerial Support:
 - (a) Episcopal Funds an amount equal to $1\frac{3}{4}\%$ of pastor's salary.
 - (b) District Superintendent's Fund; an amount equal to $4\frac{3}{4}\%$ of pastor's salary.
 - (c) Conference Claimants; an amount equal to $17\frac{1}{4}\%$ of pastor's salary.
- (3) Minimum Salary Fund: $3\frac{1}{4}\%$ of local church expense for previous year (items 44, 45, and 47 of pastor's report).

(4) College Sustaining Fund: 3% of local church expense for previous year (items 44, 45 and 47 of pastor's report).

(5) Children's Home: 10% to 25% of pastor's salary, (see item 12 above).

Adopted 9-22-50, morning session; reconsidered 9-23-50, afternoon session; amended 9-23-50, afternoon session; adopted as amended 9-23-50, afternoon session.

Ordered to Record 9-23-50, afternoon session.

I hereby certify that I have examined the reports of Herbert M. Wayne, Conference Treasurer, for the Conference year 1949-1950 and have tested them in comparison with the financial books and records of the Conference Treasurer and, in my opinion, the foregoing statements are in accordance with said books and records and represent the true facts relative to the Conference transactions for the Conference year 1949-1950.

BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

REPORT NO. 1

It is encouraging to note the excellent response which our Methodist people are giving to "The Advance for Christ and His Church." Our own Conference is moving forward under the consecrated leadership of our bishop and his cabinet. We are confidently looking forward to next year's achievements as being the best our Conference has attained. We cannot afford to rest on our laurels—we must continue to advance in a world that so desperately needs the gospel.

MISSION SPECIALS

We express our gratitude for the hearty response made by the churches to the Mission Special feature of the Advance, and recommend its continued expansion until every church in the Conference has accepted a special. We feel that this program is one of the most effective measures yet undertaken by the General Conference, not only because of the increased financial assistance secured for the work of missions, but because of the educational and spiritual value of relating directly the work of the local church at home with a local church or an agency in the mission field.

THE CHEROKEE MISSION SPECIAL

Last year our Conference Board called attention to the great need of our mission in the Cherokee Indian Reservation. At that time we suggested that it become both a conference special and a jurisdictional or general special. We are happy to say that this project has appealed to our people, and that more than $11,000 has been contributed to it. Recently the Bishop and the president of our board made a close survey of the situation and they heartily recommend that the work of building a church proceed as rapidly as possible. The general development of that section of our State, the unusual development within the Reservation and the unforgettable lessons of our past history portrayed in the drama, "Unto These Hills," all deepen our sense of obligation to our Indian friends who were the first citizens of America. Again, we sincerely recommend this project to the churches of our conference, since more money will be needed if the work is completed.

FULL-TIME LIFE SERVICE

Recognizing that there is a desperate struggle between the differing ideologies of life, the outcome of which will largely depend upon Christian leadership, we recommend that more of our youth be enlisted and trained for full-time Christian service in the mission fields, the field of religious education, and the Christian ministry, all of which are desperately needed.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE AND THE WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

We note with much pleasure that the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild continue to make progress. They led the entire Woman's Division in the number of new societies organized last year. They are earnestly striving to have a society in every church in our Conference. Our pastors are urged to promote this part of our program and assist in organizing new societies in churches that do not now have them.

WORLD OUTLOOK

Since the spiritual life, liberality, and efficient activity of our churches depend in no small degree upon the missionary spirit and world vision among the people, it is imperative that missionary information be widely disseminated through our congregations. This can best be accomplished by placing the official general missionary organ of Methodism, WORLD OUTLOOK, in the homes of all our people. The already large circulation of this periodical is confined almost exclusively to our woman's organization, and this leaves thousands of homes without any missionary cultivation of any kind.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that we undertake during the month of November each year, with the second Sunday in this month to be designated as "World Outlook Sunday," to secure an increase in the circulation of WORLD OUTLOOK in the conference, that our pastors and churches be urged to co-operate in this movement, and that efforts to this end be correlated with the similar work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

DISTRICT MISSIONARY SECRETARY

The office of the district missionary secretary, one of the links in the chain reaching from the local church to the many fields of missionary activity, provides a very personal means of adding understanding and vitality to the missionary program of the local church. In order that the effectiveness of the district missionary secretary might be increased and that the local church might become more keenly alive to the imperatives of missions, we make the following recommendations:

1. That the district superintendents use the district missionary secretaries more fully in planning and carrying out the program of missionary emphases in the districts.
2. That the district missionary secretary work toward a closer relationship with the local church boards of missions and church extension.
3. That the district missionary secretaries attend the missionary conference held annually at Lake Junaluska.
4. That the district missionary secretary, together with the district superintendent adopt a plan which will insure that the mass of available missionary literature and visual aids shall receive adequate distribution to every congregation in the district.
5. That the district missionary secretary promote to the fullest extent the annual district missionary institute, in order that the largest possible attendance may be secured.

LOCAL CHURCH BOARDS OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

We urge every pastor to see that a strong board of missions and church extension be organized in each local church; that regular meetings be held; that literature and information be provided to promote the cause of missions in the local church; and that by every means possible he help these boards to be live and vital organizations.

FOURTH SUNDAY PROGRAMS AND OFFERINGS

We urge that fourth Sunday missionary programs be presented interestingly and appealingly in all our church schools, and that the offerings on these days be sent to the conference treasurer as world service offerings.

CITY MISSION SOCIETIES AND COUNTY BOARDS

Reports of the various city mission societies and county boards of missions and church extension indicate that these are very effective types of organizations to promote church extension and increase the effectiveness of our evangelistic efforts. The reports received from the organizations are:

1. Asheville City Board of Missions and Church Extension: The Asheville City Mission Society has promoted the cause of missions within the district. Special attention was given to the Advance program and studying the gains in population in several communities for the purpose of establishing new churches. Five hundred dollars was given to the Sardis Methodist Church and the same amount to the St. Paul's Methodist Church. Plans are being made for future expansion in church building and assistance in the promotion of mission specials in the district.

2. The Charlotte Mission Society: The Charlotte Mission Society "consolidated its positions" during this conference year and is now ready, beginning with the new conference year to launch its ninth new church in Charlotte. This will be in a rapidly growing new residential section in the northern sector of the city.

Our efforts this year were largely directed toward strengthening the churches which we had already started. During this year St. Johns and Purcell began using their new sanctuary buildings which the Charlotte City Mission Society aided in financing. Kilgo Church conducted a very successful campaign and raised over one hundred thousand dollars for their new sanctuary which they expect to build next year. A lot is being acquired in the northeastern section where we expect to plant our tenth new church, and a valuable lot owned on Providence Road for our eleventh new church.

Seven of our eight new churches are now self-supporting and average membership is now nearly 300 members per church. All had a substantial growth since the last conference.

During the year, Duncan Memorial began the building of an entirely new church and educational building to cost when finished nearly $60,000. Of this, over $25,000 was raised by the Society.

We are most grateful for the help and encouragement that the Board of Missions has given us. Their help has made possible the enlargement of our program. The Charlotte Methodist Churches provided, as customary, an operating budget of $5,000.

3. The Greensboro City Mission Society: The Greensboro City Mission Society was recently organized, and promises to be one of our most active societies. An organization known as "the Methodist Men of Greensboro" formed the nucleus of the city mission society. They are now looking toward the establishment of new churches in rapidly growing areas of the city.

4. The High Point City Mission Society: The High Point City Mission Society adopted two projects for the year. (1) Aiding a Negro Methodist Church in the erection of a new edifice. (2) The organization of a new church in Sherwood Village, a new development in the city. A budget of $20,000 was adopted, $10,000 for each project. A total of $16,758 has been paid to date. A well-rounded program of church activities is being carried on in the new church, even under the handicap of very limited facilities at present.

5. Salisbury District Mission Societies: The Salisbury District has three mission societies—the Cabarrus County Board of Missions and Church Extension, the Rowan County Board of Missions and Church Extension, and the Stanly County Board of Missions and Church Extension. Each of these societies was organized this year. Careful study is being made concerning the establishment of new churches and the promotion of missionary activities in all the churches within the district.

6. The Surry County Board of Missions and Church Extension: For four years the Surry Board of Missions and Church Extension has been active in a co-operative program of co-ordinating and advancing the work of Methodism in Surry County and the surrounding territory. It represents forty-four churches making up fourteen pastoral charges.

During this period there have been added to the rolls of the church 567 by profession of faith and 462 by certificate. The church school enrollment has increased from 3,764 to 4,106. Through its budget, to which all churches in the county make a contribution, the board has contributed to the support of pastors and has paid parsonage rent where necessary. Though the board has not contributed directly to any building program, it has given its sanction and moral support to the building of six new parsonages and purchasing another, representing a property value of $90,000, and to the building of ten new churches and the renovation of at least eight others, representing an expenditure of $224,100.

During the past conference year the Mountain Park, Maple Springs, Mt. Zion, Level Cross, and Whitakers Chapel Churches have been completed. New parsonages have been built at Franklin Heights and Pilot Mountain. A new church building is under construction at Charity.

7. Thomasville District Boards: Two boards of missions have been organized in the Thomasville District this year: The Asheboro City Board and the Davie County Board. Under the auspices of the Asheboro Board a new church—Calvary Methodist Church—was organized on Easter Sunday with fifty-four charter members. A new lot, strategically located, valued at $8,000 has been purchased. A parsonage has been rented and a full-time pastor will be appointed to serve this new charge. Plans are under way to erect at least a temporary building on the lot early next year.

The Davie County Board has made a study of Davie County Methodism and has led in reorganizing the four six-point rural charges into six charges. Two lovely new parsonages have been built and will be ready to be occupied upon the adjournment of this annual conference. Other forward steps are in the making.

8. The Winston-Salem Board of Missions and Church Extension: The Winston-Salem Board of Missions and Church Extension guided the Methodists of the city during 1949-50 in a program of Methodist expansion.

The Board successfully closed a building fund campaign to raise $30,000 for the new Trinity Methodist Church, sponsored by the Board and organized in 1948.

The Board employed the Reverend Arthur Chamblee to survey the Konnoak Hills area of the city during the months of July and August. After the survey was completed, the Board requested the organization of a new Methodist Church to be known as the Konnoak Hills Methodist Church, and the purchase of a lot upon which to erect a church building. This brings to a total of two the number of new Methodist congregations formed in the city during the past two years.

MINIMUM SALARY FUND

We approve $2,500 as the minimum salary for all effective members of the annual conference, including those on trial; $2,100 for full-time accepted supplies; and $1,900 for all other full-time supplies, including retired supplies; and that salaries for part-time supplies and student pastors be left to the decision of the executive committee of the Board of Missions and Church Extension; provided that the minimum salary fund shall not pay more than 25 per cent of the minimum schedule for the ensuing year for any charge, except by vote of the executive committee of the Board of Missions and Church Extension after recommendation by the district superintendent of the claimant; and provided further, that where a charge provides an expense allowance for the pastor, the said expense allowance or other monetary compensation shall be counted among the resources making the total minimum.

We recommend that appropriations from the General Board of Missions and Church Extension, the Duke Fund, and special funds of city or county mission societies may be applied after the minimum salary has been paid either by the charge or by the charge and the minimum salary fund.

DISTRICT MISSIONARY INSTITUTES

After consultation with the bishop and his cabinet we recommend that the District Missionary Institutes be held on the following dates and at the following places, with Bishop Paul N. Garber, of the Geneva Area, as the inspirational speaker:

Asheville—November 26—Central, 11:00 a. m.

Charlotte—November 21—First.

Gastonia—November 19—Main Street.

Greensboro—November 13—West Market, 10:00 a. m.; Wesley Memorial, 7:30 p. m.

Marion—November 22—Morganton, First.

Salisbury—November 15—Salisbury: First, 7:30 p. m.

Statesville—November 17—Statesville: Broad Street, 7:30 p. m.

Thomasville—November 16—Lexington, 6:00 p. m. (Dinner Meeting.)

Waynesville—November 27—Waynesville, 11:00 a. m.

Winston-Salem—November 14—Centenary.

FURTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

We recommend that all applications for aid from both sections of our Board be made on appropriate application blanks.

We further recommend that all applications for aid customarily made at annual conference be in the hands of the executive committee of the Board at least two weeks before conference convenes.

We recommend that where aid is given for church or parsonage buildings that adequate insurance of these buildings be required.

We recommend that in the immediate future our Board concentrate its giving to the building and strengthening of churches and parsonages in strategic areas.

We recommend that the two sections of our combined Board act as a unit in every project possible, and that in no case should appropriations be made without the knowledge of the other.

We respectfully request that the Bishop reappoint Dr. L. B. Abernethy as Conference Missionary Secretary.

ENABLING ACT

The Executive Committee of the Board of Missions and Church Extension is authorized to make such changes in the appropriations as, in keeping with the established policies, are necessitated by the appointments when read by the presiding Bishop, and to include in the report to be published in the Journal such appropriations from the Minimum Salary Fund as are necessary to meet the minimum salary levels.

CHURCH EXTENSION

REPORT 3.

Since the meeting of the last Annual Conference, the Section of Church Extension has suffered the loss of its chairman, Brother James Addison Jones. For many years he was a member of this Board and rendered great service to it. This Conference has lost one of its best friends and one of its most generous servants. This Section is writing his widow and family a letter to express something of our appreciation for the help he has given, and our sorrow in having him no more with us.

The treasurer's report of Church Extension for the year just ended shows that we received at last Annual Conference a larger than usual amount of money for appropriation. The increase came from the Church Extension share of the overpayment of World Service askings. Seven parsonages were given a total of $3,300, while 43 churches received a total of $13,000.

Since any overpayment on World Service this year will be given to College Place Church, Greensboro, and Fairmont Church, Raleigh, the Church Extension Section will have much less money for distribution and therefore finds it necessary to make smaller donations to churches and parsonages.

We want to voice our regrets that losses by fire continue to show that church buildings in our Conference are not being adequately protected by fire insurance. Once again, we urge pastors and trustees to see that their churches and parsonages are properly insured.

At the risk of becoming monotonous in our report, we again call attention to the fact that donations can be made only to those buildings that are erected on property held by deeds that contain the "trust clause" as found in paragraphs 248 and 249 of our Discipline.

In keeping with the best information afforded of the aims and needs of the applicants we have tried conscientiously to help as many projects as we can just as liberally as possible.

The following donations have been approved at this time:

TO PARSONAGES

St. Paul's, Asheville	$2,000
Linwood, Linwood	200
Concord-Liberty	400

TO CHURCHES

Oak Grove, Huntersville	$ 250
South Point, Belmont, RFD	400
High Shoals, High Shoals	250
Friendship, Brown Summit	250
Hopewell, RFD, Boone	300
Carson's Chapel, Old Fort	300
Rock Grove, Salisbury	600
Rural Hall, Rural Hall	250
Union, Lewisville	250
Imogene, Surry County	600
Golden Valley, Sunshine	300

A small amount of capital is being reserved for emergency needs that may arise during the year.

Applications prepared for the General Board have been duly recommended.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. FITZGERALD, Chairman

IVAN L. ROBERTS, Secretary-Treasurer

Adopted 9-23-50, morning session.

AUDIT REPORT

September 16, 1950
Charlotte, N. C.

Board of Missions and Church Extension
Western North Carolina Conference Methodist Church
Charlotte, North Carolina
Dear Sirs:

In accordance with instructions an audit has been made to determine the accuracy of receipts and disbursements from September 15, 1949, through September 15, 1950, and the financial position at September 15, 1950, of R. E. Kerr, Treasurer, Board of Missions and Church Extension, Western North Carolina Conference, Methodist Church, Charlotte, North Carolina, Minimum Salary Fund.

All records were checked and found to be mathematically correct.

The balance shown in checking account in American Trust Company, Charlotte, North Carolina, was reconciled and the amount shown is the correct available balance.

Respectfully submitted,
J. K. SANDERS

BOARD OF EDUCATION

REPORT NO. 1

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES SECTION

The Board of Education received reports from the trustees or presidents of Duke University, Greensboro College, High Point College, Brevard College and Pfeiffer Junior College. The following statistics have been recorded:

For the year ending June 30, 1950, the president of Duke University reported an enrollment for the academic year 1949-50 of 5,548; summer school, 1949, 1,515; officers and teachers not including assistants, 564. Total assets of the University, including the value of the plant, were listed as $61,509,243.19.

Greensboro College reported statistics for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, as follows: Number of officers and teachers, 49; students enrolled, 361; value of property, $756,271.10; no indebtedness. The following trustees are nominated to represent the Western North Carolina Conference for the terms indicated: Rev. Wilson O. Weldon for a term expiring December 31, 1952; J. C. Cowan, Jr., for a term expiring December 31, 1953; George D. Finch, whose term expires December 31, 1950, is recommended to succeed himself for a term expiring December 31, 1954.

The president of High Point College reported an enrollment for the year ending May 31, 1950, as follows: Officers and teachers, 45; summer school, 498; extension, 75; regular sessions, 748; making a total of 1,321 different enrollments. Value of lands, buildings and equipment was listed at $933,031.51; endowment at $517,983.91. No long-term indebtedness. Request for the confirmation of the following trustees was made: Terms to expire in 1954: Clyde Auman, Horace S. Haworth, Vernon Hodgins, G. Ray Jordan, G. H. Kearns, H. A. Millis and Ernest W. Teague. Confirmation is also requested for W. F. Womble, elected to fill an unexpired term closing in 1952.

The president of Brevard College reported an enrollment of 370 for the 1949-50 session, with a faculty of 32 members. The endowment of Brevard totals $501,112.53 and the property is valued at $669,069.09. The Trustees request the confirmation of the following Trustees for terms to expire in 1956: Flake Sherrill, Clarence E. Morgan, Col. W. B. Moore, Lee F. Tuttle, Guy Weaver, H. C. Sprinkle, Sr., Richard Johnson, James B. McLarty, George F. Ivey, Cecil G. Hefner, and Frank Jordan.

The president of Pfeiffer College reported the following facts: 287 students, 21 faculty members, $401,500 endowment, $1,750,000 as the value of buildings and land, and there is no indebtedness.

The Board recommends the election of the following to the Board of Managers of the Duke Pastors' School, terms to expire in 1953: M. T. Hips, W. A. Kale, W. G. McFarland and W. O. Weldon.

Kenneth Goodson, president of the J. B. Cornelius Foundation, Inc., submitted the Annual Audit of the books of the Foundation for the year ending May 31, 1950. He reported 46 young women in Methodist Colleges of our Conference will receive assistance during the academic year of 1950-51.

The Board of Education rejoices in the church's growing sense of responsibility to its colleges as shown by (1) the creation of the Methodist College Foundation, Inc., (2) the adoption of the College Sustaining Fund and (3) the adoption by the Conference of the new program of assistance to the colleges involving the raising of $2,500,000.

We recommend the following appointments:

J. H. Phillips, Director of Religious Activities, Duke University.

Kenneth W. Clark, professor in Duke University.

George B. Ehlhardt, President, Brevard College.

Raymond A. Smith, professor in Greensboro College.

C. E. Roy, professor in Brevard College.

P. E. Lindley, professor in High Point College.

Henry I. Ridenhour, Counselor of Men, High Point College.

Norman A. Huffman, Professor of Religion, Willamette University.

George M. Schreyer, professor in Baker University, Kansas.

M. B. Stokes and G. Ray Jordan, professors in Emory University.

W. R. Locke, professor in High Point College.

R. W. McLain, professor, Kentucky Wesleyan College.

Concord, North Carolina
September 17, 1950

Mr. F. Paul Wiles, Treasurer, Local Church Section
Methodist Board of Education,
Concord, North Carolina
Dear Sir:

Pursuant to engagement we have made an audit of the books and records of F. Paul Wiles, Treasurer, Local Church Section, Methodist Board of Education, Western North Carolina Conference, for the period beginning September 17, 1949, and ending September 12, 1950, and submit herewith our report consisting of the following-named Exhibits;

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| EXHIBIT A | Statement of Cash Receipts
and Cash Disbursements—
General Fund |
| EXHIBIT B | Statement of Cash Receipts
and Cash Disbursements—
Youth Camp Fund |

The cash receipts of record were traced to deposit in the bank and the disbursements were represented by approved cancelled checks which were examined by us, with the exception of those outstanding at September 12, 1950. The cash in bank was reconciled with statements furnished by the depository.

During the year the State Trust Company, Hendersonville, North Carolina, was paid in full for the balance on the Youth Camp Fund Mortgage of $5,416.66. This indebtedness was brought over from the fiscal year 1948-49.

In our opinion, the Exhibits enumerated above, together with our comments on them, present correctly the Cash receipts and the Cash Disbursements of F. Paul Wiles, Treasurer, Local Church Section, Methodist Board of Education, for the period beginning September 17, 1949, and ending September 12, 1950.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK P. BUCK COMPANY

THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

The Board of Temperance proposes the following program of action for the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church:

1. The Board of Temperance encourages the people of our Conference to support the Allied Church League in its program. We commend the Allied Church League for all of its efforts and we are proud of the success which has been wrought under its direction. We recommend that the Bishop reappoint the Reverend R. M. Hauss as Executive Secretary of the Allied Church League for next year.

2. The Board of Temperance is convinced that Commitment Day should annually be observed in every church in the Conference. This day should be preceded by a period of promotion and cultivation from the pulpit, in the church school, by personal contacts and by the distribution of available temperance literature. The wisdom of requesting the membership to sign Commitment Cards is a matter which must be left to the sound judgment of each individual pastor, but it is the opinion of the Board of Temperance that at least once each year the members of our churches should have this important matter presented directly to them and that on such occasions they should be urged to consecrate their lives more fully to Christ by making a covenant with themselves that they will avoid the harmful results incident to the use of beverage alcohol. It is the opinion of the Board of Temperance that the signing of a Commitment Card may tend to impress upon the individual the importance of such a decision.

3. It is the request of the Board of Temperance that each District Director of Temperance Advance promote Temperance Retreats and Rallies among the young people of his district.

4. It is the desire of the Board of Temperance to co-operate with the educational forces of our Conference in spreading information concerning the dangers of alcoholic beverages.

5. The Board of Temperance plans to conduct clinics throughout the Conference during the coming year to train ministers and Christian laymen alike in the art of counseling alcoholics. These clinics will be conducted under the leadership of men trained in this particular field such as Dr. Russell L. Dicks and the Reverend Leon Couch. It is the purpose of the Board in undertaking these clinics to give guidance to ministers and laymen in the problems of appropriately dealing with alcoholics in our charge, to the end that the church through its ministry may rescue those whose lives have been blighted by the curse of alcoholism. These clinics will be a new procedure in our conference which is now proposed by the Board because of the oft-expressed need for a more intelligent approach to this vital problem.

6. It is the goal of the Board of Temperance through the District Director of Temperance Advance, pastors, and the local church temperance committee to organize and promote "Fellowship Prayer Cells" in each church throughout the Conference. This group should consist of selected and trained individuals who believe that understanding fellowship and prayer can redeem alcoholics. This selected group of trained temperance leaders should understand why people drink, what may be done to deter those who are inclined to drink, and the most modern techniques of rehabilitating, reclaiming and redeeming the confirmed alcoholic.

To the support of this program we call the entire membership of our church, ministers and laymen alike.

Respectfully submitted,

THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

PAUL R. ERVIN, President

W. L. LANIER, Secretary

Adopted 9-23-50, morning session.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

As we have worked on the third phase of our program The Advance for Christ and His Church, "Our Faith," we have come into fuller understanding of the meaning of Faith. Our faith has been strengthened and our determination to follow through on the next phase has been increased.

Our efforts through the year have revealed much training in lay speaking, a new eagerness to serve well, a deeper desire for religious expression and a sincere desire to bring others into the Christian Fellowship. There is evidence of new interest and optimism and increased loyalty to the church. We believe the Advance for Christ and His Church has opened another door of Christian service through which our laymen have carried the banner of Christ to new heights under the wise guidance of a consecrated ministry. With this great team, ministers and laymen, much progress has been accomplished toward the objectives set up a year ago. Not all have been reached in full, but much effective work has been done in striving to reach them, and working at a Christian job helps to make a good layman.

In almost every pulpit in this Conference a layman was speaking on "A Layman's Faith," at eleven o'clock, February 26, 1950. That means a good minister had given up his eleven o'clock hour to some layman. Realizing the importance of this hour to a minister it meant the layman should give his best. He did just that. Several hundred laymen speaking at the same hour on the same subject is an indication that a small army of Christian laymen were receiving valuable training to speak on other occasions and on other phases of our program.

Training lay speakers is a part of our work. Many of our laymen responded cheerfully to the calls coming from rural pastors to speak to congregations they could not reach every Sunday. More of this type of work should be done and pastors on circuits are urged to call upon the laymen for more work of this type. This source of service has hardly been tapped. Early Methodism prospered by using lay speakers. There is a definite place for in Methodism today. Trained Christian laymen are invaluable to a successful ministry.

Evangelism is the very heart of religion. Many rich spiritual blessings have come to the laymen in their participation in Visitation Evangelism. In addition to the blessings received many souls have been saved. We pledge our support to the Board of Evangelism in its program.

Stewardship has been, is and always will be one of the major objectives of our Board. We have been trying, since the Crusade for Christ, to point out that Stewardship is a way of living as well as a way of giving. Possessions involve Stewardship, but so do talents, service, time, conduct and every area of one's life. Our observations and experience prove that progress is being made in this phase of our work. We see it in increased World Service giving, Mission Specials, new Parsonages, new Churches, in Christian service, in time, and various other ways. To succeed well Stewardship in all its phases must be kept constantly before the local congregations.

Our Laymen's Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction held at Lake Junaluska July 20-23 was one of the highlights of the year. One of the best, if not the best, lay programs ever held was worked out by Dr. B. G. Childs, Duke University, chairman of the Program Committee. The three days were full of inspiration and information for the several hundred laymen from nine states and sixteen annual conferences. The theme of the Conference was "Our Church" and discussions centered around: (1) "Lay Activities of the Church;" (2) "Educational Activities of the Church;" and (3) "Loyalty to the Church." Forty-four laymen from the Western North Carolina Conference registered and took part in this great Conference. Those who attended went back to their local churches with a new zeal and determination to put into practice some of the new ideas brought out in the forums and in the wonderful addresses by such speakers as Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, Mr. Robert G. Mayfield and others. This Laymen's Conference held annually is too important for our leading laymen to miss. An effort will be made to get a larger number to attend next year.

The aims of Methodist Men are: (1) Through the Charge Lay Leader to strengthen the hand of the pastor in the development of his own local church program; (2) To give unreservedly their assistance to the other boards of the church. The job of Methodist Men is to give enthusiasm and strength to the Advance for Christ and His Church in every local church in Methodism. Living and acting religion inspires others to accept it. We are not interested in Methodist Men attached to the Church and its program, but we are vitally interested in Methodist Men tied in with the church and its program. To that end we shall work to increase the number of Methodist Men's Organizations. The man power in our church needs harnessing and this is one way to do it. These clubs are invaluable in building new churches, in service to weak churches and in various other fields when they work in co-operation with the pastors and district superintendents.

Attention has been given to the matter of increased number of subscribers to the N. C. Christian Advocate and the Methodist Layman. Some success has been achieved but not enough. Nothing can mean more to our Church than well informed Christian laymen. Our Advocate is one of our best sources of information. Some of its editorials have drawn favorable nation-wide attention. Its news items, its well written articles on the various phases of the Advance for Christ and His Church, its editorials and other Methodist information make it worthy of an important place in every Methodist home. It will continue to be emphasized by our Board along with the Methodist Layman and the use of our own church literature in all our churches.

We shall continue to give our full support to the Children's Home, the Home for the Aged, the Golden Cross, the Brotherhood, the Board of Temperance and to every Commission, Board or Agency of the Church.

OTHER OBJECTIVES FOR 1950-1951

1. Observance of Laymen's Day in every Methodist Church, February 25, 1951, with a layman in every pulpit, using the subject assigned.
2. Special emphasis on Stewardship and Evangelism.
3. Two hundred laymen in attendance at our Laymen's Conference at Lake Junaluska in 1951.
4. Training and using lay speakers for church services where the minister is unable to preach every Sunday.
5. Organization of more Methodist Men's Clubs.
6. A sound financial program in every church.
7. More emphasis on district and sub-district organization.
8. Aid in the organization of new churches in areas where they are needed.
9. More emphasis to attendance upon church services and church schools.
10. Definite emphasis upon the third phase of the Advance for Christ and His Church, "Our Ministry."
11. A larger financial support of our Methodist Colleges.

The Board of Lay Activities pledges its full support to program outlined by the General Board of Lay Activities.

Nominations:

Conference Lay Leader, Paul F. Evans.

Associate Conference Lay Leader, L. L. Gobbel.

Elected Secretary, T. C. Hoyle.

Member of Commission on Town and Country Work, Gordon L. Goodson.

Respectfully submitted,

PAUL F. EVANS, Chairman

THOS. C. HOYLE, Secretary

Adopted 9-21-50, morning session.

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

The Board of Hospitals and Homes of the Western North Carolina Conference has general oversight of three outstanding Conference agencies of humanitarian helpfulness: The Children's Home, Inc., at Winston-Salem, the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital at Elkin, and The Methodist Home for the Aged, Inc., at Charlotte. All three of these institutions are serving to the fullness of their capacities.

The Board is further charged with the responsibility of cultivating and encouraging our Methodist people in contributing Golden Cross funds to be used through your Board at the direction of the Conference. We recommend that the month of April be used for the cultivation and raising of Golden Cross funds.

Dr. J. S. Hiatt has been elected director of the Golden Cross and his appointment to this position and that of superintendent of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital is respectfully requested of the Bishop and his cabinet.

Julius L. Hall has been elected treasurer of the Golden Cross funds for the ensuing year.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME

Five hundred children, 247 boys and 253 girls, ranging in age from two to twenty years, were enrolled in our Children's Home during the past year. Since the capacity of the Home is only 415, there were at no time more than this number enrolled. The average enrollment was 405.5. The total operating cost for the year amounted to $250,783. This was $12,278 less than the average annual cost for the six largest child-caring institutions in North Carolina, The Children's Home included. The total amount of money received from our Methodist constituency during the past year was $220,750.

The Children's Home has again operated throughout the year without incurring debt. As in years before, some surplus was recorded, this being made possible through endowment income and contributions from individual friends.

Work is now in process on the construction of a $180,000 gymnasium, a gift from James G. Hanes and John W. Alspaugh of Winston-Salem, as a memorial to their distinguished fathers, John W. Hanes and John W. Alspaugh.

Work is also proceeding on the construction of the T. F. Wrenn Memorial Building, a dormitory for boys, the total cost of which, including furnishings, will amount to around $120,000. Two-thirds of this amount, or $80,000, will come from our surplus funds, the other third being provided for from proceeds from the T. F. Wrenn estate. Both the gymnasium and the Wrenn Memorial Building will be of fire-proof construction and will supply a long felt need.

Partial funds are in hand for the construction of an additional fire-proof building for pre-school age children, these funds having been provided some years ago by W. N. Reynolds of Winston-Salem. Construction of this building will proceed as soon as additional funds have been provided for and tentative plans have been agreed upon.

The health of our family has been remarkably good during the past year. Our children have been wisely and constructively led and the record they are making in and out of the Home is outstandingly good. Grateful appreciation is herewith expressed to our Methodist people for their continued support of and regard for those children who have a right to look to them for a chance to make good in life.

THE HUGH CHATHAM MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Before Christ was crucified, He commissioned His disciples to go about doing His work. This was to include healing the sick, caring for the dying, and giving loving care to the aged and little children.

The cross on which our Lord gave Himself has become the Symbol of Service. Throughout the world the Cross is the shining light which says, here is love, kindliness, a refuge. In The Methodist Church the Golden Cross is the symbol through which last year the Methodist Home and the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital were able to render comfort and care to many thousands of needy and worthy people.

The Golden Cross funds are used for the following services: First, they pay for the hospitalization of the needy. Second, they replace old and worn equipment. As progress in new medicines is developed modern equipment must be added. Third, a maximum of twenty-five per cent of the Golden Cross funds is available at the discretion of the superintendent for charity work in any hospital in the Western North Carolina Conference.

Last year at the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital 3,539 patients were admitted and 4,288 out-patients were treated, making a total of 7,827. During the year 1,396 operations were performed. Seven hundred and eleven babies were born in the hospital. One hundred and seventy-five patients received aid from the Golden Cross, 122 being treated in the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital and 53 in other hospitals.

The following trustees have been elected, subject to confirmation, for a term of three years and are herewith submitted for confirmation: L. B. Abernethy, W. M. Allen, Charles G. Ashby, A. L. Butler, Hugh G. Chatham, and J. F. Yokeley.

THE METHODIST HOME FOR THE AGED

Your home for the aged, known as The Methodist Home, has been in operation for two years. Within this time it has been fully accredited and has received high recognition on state and national levels.

The first responsibility of the Home is for the welfare and happiness of the people who are members of the Home. An exceptionally competent staff of well trained, spiritually consecrated persons has been developed for this purpose. The staff members use the excellent buildings and equipment provided by the Conference to develop a program that is interesting and creative. Equal to our responsibility to the members of the Home family is the responsibility to serve the older people of our Church who need and deserve the security and care of our Home.

Forty per cent of the members of the Home have no capital assets. In the case of half of these relatives assist the Home in the cost of their care. The other half, or twenty per cent, are served on a straight charity basis.

The 1949 Annual Conference set aside Mother's Day, 1950, as a special day for free-will offerings for the Home. The sum of $99,182.64 has been contributed by the churches for the building fund. We recommend the continued use of Mother's Day for securing funds for further enlargement of the Home.

The Home is now ready to embark upon two building enterprises:

1. A group of efficiency apartments. These will be financed by the persons who will live in them.

2. The third unit, to contain a chapel, additional hospital facilities, administrative offices, social and recreational areas and residence quarters. This must be financed by contributions from our constituency.

The cost of medical care has been $22,993.08. With this we have given 5,430 days of hospital care and 3,600 additional days of treatment to members. On the average 33.2% of our members receive medical care per day and 19.8% receive hospital care per day. This skillful service results in a high standard of health. Our death rate is only 33% of the actuarial expectancy.

We respectfully ask the appointment of the following: Rev. Reid Wall, superintendent and minister of The Methodist Home, and Rev. C. M. Pickens, counsellor of The Methodist Home.

The following have been elected, subject to confirmation, and are herewith submitted for confirmation as members of the board of managers of The Methodist Home for the Aged, Inc., for terms of three years: J. S. Hiatt, W. B. Love, Guy Weaver, John R. Rankin, Oliver S. Anthony, George D. Finch, Orton A. Boren, Tom Little, Ralph Edwards, Ross Puette, W. A. Kale, Mrs. J. W. Payne, G. B. Pendleton, A. W. Lawing, C. M. Pickens, R. T. Greer, and Charles H. Litaker.

O V. WOOSLEY, Secretary

Adopted 9-23-50, morning session.

BOARD OF MANAGERS OF PASTORS' SCHOOL

The 1950 session of the Pastors' School was held again as a part of the Duke University Christian Convocation. A marked increase was noted both in attendance and interest. Courses were offered in Vacation Church School, Rural Evangelism, Parish Problems, Preaching, Bible Manuscripts, Biblical Interpretation, and other fields of religious interest. The faculty included Mrs. W. W. Reed, Dr. James Cleland, Dr. Arthur Hewitt, Dr. H. A. Bosley, Dr. William Brownlee, Dr. A. J. Walton and others.

The James A. Gray Lectures were delivered at this session of the Convocation. Six lectures were given by Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, pastor of Christ's Methodist Church, New York. The morning devotionals were conducted by Bishop Costen J. Harrell.

BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

Your Board reports a steady increase in the support of our Claimants. While the number of years of service has increased the liberality of the people called Methodists has made it possible to meet the needs of our Claimants.

The disciplinary requirements relative to the Reserve Fund have been met and the five per cent heretofore set aside for that fund will now be channeled through the current funds. However, the interest accruing from the invested Reserve Funds will be added to that fund thus increasing the holdings therein.

From all sources our Claimants will receive the highest annuity in the entire Methodist connection. This is not a matter of boasting but of gratitude.

The Board requests the Conference's permission to omit the reading of the allotments to the Claimants and that they be approved as printed in the Journal.

Adopted 9-23-50, morning session.

J. H. ARMBRIST, Secretary

REPORT NO. 2

With emphasis upon "Our Ministry" in the Advance for Christ and His Church, the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications plans to promote an active program of recruitment for the ministry. As one significant feature of this we expect to sponsor a special conference on "The Call to the Ministry." This will be for juniors and seniors in high schools and for college students.

A special leaflet prepared by the chairman of the board entitled "Joining the Western North Carolina Conference" is meeting a need in giving answers to many questions from candidates for the ministry.

Your board is ever eager to counsel with any persons who contemplate entrance into our holy ministry. We continue to hold up the standards set forth in the Discipline and we hereby call upon every one to join with us in seeking to carry out not only the letter but the spirit of these standards.

Attention is being given to the Course of Study for our Accepted Supplies. A conference was held at Sunny Acres in connection with the Commission on Town and Country Work. We feel that this was quite worth while and we desire to continue this program next year.

Draft Board Questionnaires are being signed. They should be sent to the registrar of this board.

COMMITTEE ON ACCEPTED SUPPLIES

Over a period of several years now we have used in the Western North Carolina Conference quite a large number of Accepted Supplies. These men and women have taken up the work of the church and have carried on in a fine way. On the whole they have been very acceptable and effective in the work. Much of the progress made by our Conference has been due to the effort of our Accepted Supplies.

It has been the purpose of the Committee on Accepted Supplies to encourage and help these men and women as much as possible. During the past year an Institute was conducted at Sunny Acres which was designed to give help and information about the more practical side of the work of a pastor. Quite a number of the Accepted Supplies enrolled for this Institute. It has also been our purpose to encourage them in doing the courses of study, the responsibility for which is now in the hands of the Board of Ministerial Training.

A study of the reports of these men and women reveals that they have been in a great measure successful during the year in their evangelistic efforts and in the material progress made on the charges they have served.

The committee recommends the following persons as Accepted Supplies to serve in our Conference during the year ahead if they are needed:

1. V. N. Allen Route 1, Waynesville
2. James G. Allred Rosman
3. W. C. Anderson Mocksville

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

"Our Ministry" is the emphasis this year in the Advance for Christ and His Church. In the great need of the Kingdom for ministers attention focuses on the fact that God is still calling young people into His service. What a local church can accomplish in this challenge to youth is indicated in the second of the current series in The Christian Century on "Great Churches of America." The highlight of this article is the statement that The Evangelical and Reformed Church of New Knoxville, Ohio, a church having some over 1,000 members has sent 42 persons into the Christian ministry, most of them from the past generation. Similar results can be duplicated in many churches of the Western North Carolina Conference. That 23 new men are offering themselves in service through our Conference this year is most heartening. Prayers and labors to this end are bearing fruit. The need for still more laborers is apparent from the appeals here and abroad to "Come over and help us." Bishops Oxnam and William C. Martin have voiced this need by declaring that our church needs personnel and that we do not have an adequate supply of trained and competent ministers and that the shortage is increasing. Those who respond should do so in the knowledge that they are called by God himself.

Your Commission on Christian Vocations urges that continued emphasis be placed on the recruitment of volunteers for this sacred calling. We have sought to keep this important matter before the church through articles in The North Carolina Christian Advocate, correspondence, and distribution of literature.

1. The Commission is grateful to the Conference Program Committee for the emphasis given the call to preach by including the Conference youth night program with Doctor J. Wallace Hamilton speaking on the topic, "How God Calls Men."

2. We commend the Conference Board of Education, under the leadership of The Reverend Carl H. King, for offering vocational guidance courses in our youth assemblies and for additional co-operation in planning the emphasis on the choice of Christian careers. We believe that a second series course on vocational guidance would be helpful.

3. We commend the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications for supplementary leadership in offering guidance to candidates and prospective candidates for the Christian ministry. We recommend that plans be continued for the holding this year, at the convenience of the Bishop, the guidance conference for prospective ministerial candidates from western North Carolina.

4. We recommend that May 17, 1951, be designated as Life Service Sunday and that on this day, or as near thereto as possible, our pastors lay on the hearts of our Methodist youth the high importance of seriously considering the call to full time Christian service.

5. For the effective help already given we offer to our active pastors our commendations. That the call to preach may be heard and answered by as large a number of youth as possible we further recommend that our pastors, during the revival services, issue the challenge to youth to declare themselves for full time Christian work, and that each pastor preach at least one sermon on the call to preach.

6. We remind our pastors of their responsibility of sending to our Conference related educational institutions the names of high school seniors, indicating those who have expressed intention of going into full time Christian work.

7. We urge the continued offering of training classes on choosing vocations for our local churches and training schools, and that special stress be given to the full time Christian service.

8. There is an ever increasing volume of printed materials giving guidance in the choice of careers. Of special significance is the booklet, "Service Projects" which lists a large number of immediate openings for those wishing to enter fields of work through The Methodist Church. Audio visual and other guidance materials are available. We urge their use.

9. The Conference Board of Education is compiling a list of the names and addresses of candidates in our conference. We urge our pastors to send in the names of such persons from their parishes.

10. Church school teachers, counselors and other workers with youth are urged to give emphasis to this important matter as they have opportunity.

11. Finally, an important approach to youth in this matter is afforded through the local church, sub-district and district youth meetings. We urge that these opportunities be utilized by those in position to help youth in their response to the Divine call.

Respectfully submitted,

J. ELWOOD CARROLL, Chairman

ROLLIN P. GIBBS, Secretary

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

The Board of Evangelism recommends that the Conference accept the following program for the year 1950-1951:

1. That two Conference Evangelistic Advance meetings be held—

a. On January 8, 1951, beginning at 10:00 a. m. in Central Methodist Church, Asheville, to cover the Asheville, Marion, and Waynesville districts.

b. On January 9, 1951, beginning at 10:00 a. m. in Broad Street Methodist Church, Statesville, to cover the Charlotte, Gastonia, Greensboro, Statesville, Salisbury, Thomasville, and Winston-Salem districts.

The above meetings to be attended by Pastors, Lay Leaders, Superintendents of Church Schools, Presidents of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and Lay Evangelistic Visitors.

2. That during the month of January thorough community surveys be made by every church, for the purpose of locating all un-churched people. We recognize that a careful survey is essential before a successful evangelistic program can be undertaken.

3. That February 1-15 be devoted to the training of laymen in the skill of personal evangelism.

4. That the week of February 18-24 be designated as a week of simultaneous lay visitation by districts, sub-districts, or charges.

5. That there be simultaneous Preaching Missions with particular emphasis on pulpit or mass evangelism during the period, February 26-March 16, or as near thereto as possible.

These Missions to be set up by districts as follows:

a. February 26-March 2—Gastonia, Statesville, and Greensboro.

b. March 4-9—Asheville, Charlotte, and Winston-Salem.

c. March 11-16—Marion, Waynesville, Thomasville and Salisbury.

It is recommended that ministers of the Conference exchange pulpits during these preaching missions.

6. We recommend and urge that every pastor give diligent attention to the training of preparatory members, in compliance with paragraphs 121, 123 of the 1948 Discipline, and that Bishop Harrell's book, "A Methodist Child's Membership Manual" be used in preparatory classes for children.

7. We recommend that the following ministers be re-appointed as approved evangelists: John R. Church, Roy Houts, and John Groce.

8. We recommend that W. A. Rollins be appointed Conference Secretary of Evangelism, without salary.

RALPH TAYLOR, Chairman

JAMES B. McLARTY, Secretary

COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE

I

During the year, your committee has promoted the following projects:

1. Annual peace emphasis program at Lake Junaluska Assembly; feature address delivered by Professor Henry Brandis, Jr., Dean of the School of Law of the University of North Carolina.
2. Two mailings of peace literature to pastors and local church committee chairmen.
3. Secured and made available to local churches 35 mm. film strips on peace subjects.
4. In co-operation with the Board of Education, promoted the teaching of courses on peace at Youth Assemblies at Junaluska.
5. Held joint meeting with North Carolina Conference World Peace Committee.
6. Sent two delegates to Regional Peace Seminar held at Atlanta, Ga.

II

We plan to continue the above activities during the coming year. In addition, we are planning One-Day Peace Institutes to be held at Asheville, Charlotte, Greensboro, and Winston-Salem.

III

"Living under tension" is a graphic phrase vividly describing the sad plight of the peoples of the world today. The fear of war is the creator of universal tension. The mission of the Church of Christ is not to justify evils after they arrive, but to remove their cause; not to justify, but to rectify. Christianity is not a fair-weather religion empty-handed in the face of tensions and evil.

Jesus Christ came to a people living under tension. The early church proclaimed His peace to a people living under tension. Likewise, the church today must present the Prince of Peace to all mankind. His Spirit alone brings peace to individuals, to nations, and to the world. As a church, we must speak with authority on issues which affect human destiny.

IV

We condemn the idea of a preventive war as being unrealistic, immoral, and unChristian.

We reiterate the findings of our General Conference of 1948, Paragraph 205 of the 1948 Discipline as follows:

"We commend to the churches wider study of the structure of the United Nations organization, confidence in its potential usefulness, and the undergirding of its delegates, with prayer and moral support in their efforts to create a functional international organization for peace and justice.

"Believing that permanent peace requires the taking of steps toward a federated form of world government, we look beyond the United Nations organization to the development of world government through a more effective use of the machinery now available. A world of absolute national sovereignties competing with one another leads inevitably to tension and conflict."

That there may be effective action in the promotion of the cause of World Peace in the local church, we recommend:

1. That in each local church of the Western North Carolina Conference there be a Committee on World Peace, as provided in the 1948 Discipline, Paragraphs 148 (7) and 1582.
2. That the Committee on World Peace in each local church be active throughout the year in the promotion of peace education through the observance of great days of the calendar year such as: World Order Day, October 23; Armistice Day, November 11; The Christmas season; Brotherhood Week and Race Relations Day in February; and Independence Day, July 4; Also through the systematic dissemination of approved peace literature and through the encouragement of the High School World Peace Study and Speaking Program, conducted by the University of North Carolina Extension Division; and that a concern for just and righteous peace be cultivated painstakingly and patiently among those of all ages in the local church.

3. That each local church seek to have representation at all conferences, conventions, etc., in their area in which the cause of peace is the prime consideration.

4. That each local church recognize that as desirable as is World Peace, actually peace is not an end in itself, but a blessed by-product of right relationships among men and nations. Hence, that a truly Christian social order may become increasingly a reality in our world, local churches are urged to pray earnestly and continuously that the members may live daily as sincere followers of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. And that living thus, they stand ready and eager to co-operate in Christian brotherliness and material support, with all reputable agencies working toward a brotherhood and peace that are world-wide.

5. Thousands of homeless peoples are looking to America for a chance at life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Millions of refugees the whole world round need our unselfish and generous support. Therefore, your committee urges our local churches to provide opportunities, create openings, and share Christian fellowship with those refugees coming into our communities under the immigration provisions for Displaced Persons. Any person, group, or church interested in this worthy undertaking should contact Dr. Gaither Warfield, Executive Secretary of the Methodist Commission for Overseas Relief, 150 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. CARPER, Chairman

OSCAR K. MERRITT, Secretary

BIBLE BOARD

As our Annual Conference convenes, we are nearing the end of a year that marks the transition to the last half of the twentieth century. The first half of the century has brought us two global wars and a devastating economic depression. It has been a time of almost unbelievable scientific and material progress; and yet a time of unprecedented suffering, confusion and upheaval.

As we consider the future, our minds are seized with the fearful and disturbing conviction that the years ahead might be even more perilous and tumultuous than the last ten decades. Professor Kenneth Latourette reminds us that ours is a "fluid" and "urgent" world—"fluid" because it contains almost unimaginable possibilities of prosperity and plenty, "urgent" because it contains almost equal possibilities of destruction and death.

In such a time it is imperative that the church hold high the light of the revelation of God and Christ's Gospel found in the Holy Scriptures. If there is to be abiding message of guidance and hope for our times, it must come from the only unfailing fount of light and truth, the Word of God.

In a time when the message of the Word of God is so desperately needed in individual, national, and world life, the Bible Board wishes to impress on our ministers and laymen alike, the tremendous responsibility resting on the church as a bearer of the eternal light.

It is the opinion of the Board that we should stress the task of the laymen as a fellow-laborer with the pastor in encouraging the use and distribution of the Scriptures. An awakening of the laity to a renewed sense of the high place of the Bible in the study and devotional life is necessary to undergird the total program of the church. We are also convinced of the need to replace the haphazard and superstitious reading of the Bible, indulged in by some, with a systematic approach in the light of the best modern day scholarship.

We reaffirm our faith in the use of the Bible in family instruction and devotions. It is well to give thought to the proper method and material demanded to make Bible teaching effective in the church school; but in addition we must endeavor to make it an open book in the home. Appreciation for the Bible must begin in the home, and be sustained in the home, if we are to have an adult generation who love and obey the Bible.

In the hope that we may become more zealous in using the Bible, we present the following recommendations, for the careful consideration and, we hope, favorable action of this Annual Conference.

WE RECOMMEND:

1. That Universal Bible Sunday, as promoted by the American Bible Society, be observed on the appointed Sunday, December 10th, in every charge; and that the program of Bible reading between Thanksgiving and Christmas, also sponsored by the American Bible Society, be promoted vigorously. We urge all our ministers to order the splendid promotional materials offered free by the Society.

2. That the District Director of the American Bible Society and the lay and clerical members of the Bible Board from each district meet with the District Superintendent as soon as possible to devise plans for a program designed to increase the use, study and distribution of the Bible on a district level; and that the District Director of the American Bible Society strive more earnestly to bring the many fine services of the Bible Society to the Methodists in his district.

3. That we work unceasingly to have courses in Bible, taught by qualified instructors, in public schools wherever practical. It is suggested that we co-operate with other denominations in bringing this service to our youth.

4. That those who plan standard training schools include a course on the Bible or a related subject; and that each pastor teach the Bible by means of a special course or by using Wednesday and Sunday evenings for this purpose. Such Bible study should not merely be instruction about the Bible or textual criticism, but should include a study of the actual content of the Bible and interpretation of its deeper meaning for us today.

5. That we strongly urge ministers and laymen of the church to study to show themselves approved unto God, workmen that need not be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth; that we earnestly endeavor to strengthen our grasp on the fundamental teachings of the Word; and that we preach and teach the Scriptures with renewed interest and vigor.

We note with satisfaction the increased use of Bible-centered materials in the educational literature sponsored by The Methodist Church as reflected especially in the Vacation Church Schools for this year and in the study courses of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES C. STOKES, President

COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

The Commission on Town and Country Work reports among other things the following activities for the conference year:

1. It co-operated with the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Ministers' Wives Association, and the Board of Lay Activities in conducting a study of the building and furnishing of parsonages.

2. It co-operated with the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and the Committee on Accepted Supply Pastors in a Training Conference for Supplies held at Sunny Acres February 7-9. Eighteen supplies attended.

3. The observance of Rural Life Sunday was promoted by mailing suggested programs and procedures to each pastoral charge.

4. Three Conferences on Town and Country Work of the Church were held on a district or subdistrict basis, at Cherryville on April 30 and at Madison and Bethlehem on the Reidsville Circuit May 7.

5. In co-operation with the Board of Education two Duke Divinity School students, Robert P. Crawley and Frank B. Cook, worked in rural areas, assisting in Vacation

Church Schools, Training Classes, and Youth Programs. Seven young people dedicated their lives to full time Christian Service in these services.

6. It made a study of Miss Lelia Tuttle's property near Lenoir for the Statesville District Conference and presented a report to that Conference.

The Commission recommends:

1. That the Western North Carolina Conference give its full support to the National Methodist Conference on Town and Country Work to be held in Sioux City, Iowa, July 21-23, 1951, by:

a. Sending all the recommended delegates with each district sending its own delegates and the various Board and Commissions sending their representatives; the rural layman and the rural preacher from each district to be selected by the Steering Committee of this Commission upon nomination by the Superintendent of each District.

b. Holding a conference in each district to consider the same areas of study as the National Conference.

c. Holding a conference-wide study group to consider the same areas with delegates to this to be selected by the district superintendents from those attending the district meetings.

2. That the Commission continue to co-operate with the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and the Committee on Accepted Supply Pastors in promoting training conferences for Supply Pastors, especially those who are not students in college.

3. That: a. The Minimum salary for the ensuing year be $2,500 for effective conference members, including members on trial; $2,100 for full time accepted supplies; and $1,900 for other full time supplies, including retired supplies; and that salaries for part time supplies and student pastors be on an adjusted basis; provided that the minimum salary fund shall not pay more than 25 per cent of the minimum schedule for the ensuing year for any charge, except by vote of the executive committee of the Board of Missions and Church Extension after recommendation by the District Superintendent of the claimant; and provided further, that where a charge provides an expense allowance for the pastor, the said expense allowance or other monetary compensation shall be counted among the resources making the total minimum.

b. That the Board of Missions and Church Extension continue to administer the minimum salary fund.

c. On recommendation of the Board of Missions and Church Extension, the Commission on World Service and Finance fix a percentage apportionment on the present base, sufficient to produce enough revenue to meet all the claims on the minimum salary fund.

4. That, in recognition of the long established practice in other conferences and the evident need for it, pastoral charges be urged to pay the actual moving expense of the pastors coming to them; and that pastoral charges are urged to set aside an amount equal to one per cent of the annual salary of the pastor for this purpose.

5. That small churches and circuits consider organizing on the Commission Plan as outlined in the 1948 Discipline, paragraph 152.

6. That this Commission along with the Board of Missions and Church Extension and the Board of Supplies explore the advisability and possibility, financially and otherwise, of establishing a rural life department at High Point College beginning with the academic year of 1951-52; this department to have a director who may serve a nearby circuit, be an instructor in rural church work in the college, supervise the work of student pastors and carry on extension work among rural churches.

7. That the Commission give its support to the Program of the N. C. Rural Church Institute, which co-operates in sponsoring the "Christian Convocation at Duke University" each year; that $50 be contributed by the Commission to its support; and that Wilson Nesbitt and Mrs. Cicero Groome be nominated to serve on the Board of Directors of the Institute.

8. That the Commission continue to co-operate with the Board of Education in the promotion of Training Classes in small churches of Town and Country.

9. That the Woman's Society of Christian Service of this Conference seek to have more women rural workers employed in this Conference.

10. That Rural Life Sunday be observed in every pastoral charge April 29, 1951.
11. That Wilson Nesbitt be appointed part-time secretary of Town and Country Work.
12. That the following report entitled "The Parsonage Home" be adopted by the Western North Carolina Conference as a guide in the matter of building and furnishing parsonages. (This report is the result of a study made by a committee representing the W. S. C. S., The Ministers' Wives Association, The Board of Lay Activities, and The Commission on Town and Country Work.)

THE PARSONAGE HOME

The Parsonage Home is a time honored institution within the Methodist Church. Maintenance of these established residences for the ministers has been the responsibility of local pastoral charges. Time and cultural development have brought about changes in the policies and practices in building and furnishing the parsonages. So often the question is asked, "Just what should be expected of a pastoral charge, especially in the matter of furnishings to be placed in a parsonage?"

In order to discover just where the responsibility of the pastoral charge ends and that of the minister's family begins, a study has been made by a committee representing the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Conference Ministers' Wives Association, the Board of Lay Activities, and the Commission on Town and Country Work. Questionnaires were sent to each pastoral charge with the request that one be filled out by the minister's family, another by the women (W.S.C.S. or Parsonage Committee), and another by the laymen (Parsonage Trustees or Officials). From the expressions given by these three groups the committee presents the following report and recommends that it be adopted by the Western North Carolina Conference as a Guide in building and furnishing parsonages.

The following suggestions are more the expression of laymen than of ministers.

In all matters pertaining to the parsonage, The DISCIPLINE should be followed, especially in the building of a new parsonage.

It is recognized that pastoral charges vary greatly in size, financial strength, and community surroundings. The same things cannot be required of each charge, therefore these suggestions should be GOALS toward which to work. However, in any case, it is only fair that the pastoral charge should know what is expected of it and that the minister's family may know what to expect when it moves to a new appointment.

I. FURNISHINGS

The pastoral charge should furnish: 1—Electric refrigerator; 2—Electric or gas stove; 3—Automatic water heater; 4—Heavy furniture such as that for bedrooms, dining room, and living room; 5—Shades, blinds, and curtains; 6—Rugs.

The minister's family should furnish: 1—Linens; 2—Quilts and blankets; 3—Dishes, china, crystal; 4—Silverware; 5—Cooking utensils.

Please note that:

1. Many minister's families prefer to furnish at least one or two of their own mattresses.
2. Mattresses furnished by the pastoral charge can be kept in good condition by use of covers and commercial cleaning.

II. THE HOUSE

Though no standard plan can be adopted, it is hoped that the Board of Missions and Church Extension will make available several plans that might be used throughout the conference.

The parsonage is primarily the home of the minister and his family, yet because of the work the minister does and in consideration of what is expected of his family, careful planning should go into the building of a parsonage. The type and cost of the house should be in keeping with the best homes of the community.

It is suggested that the parsonage have:

1. At least 3 bedrooms.
2. A room that can be used as study, den, or extra bedroom. An everyday living room is most desirable.
3. More than ordinary storage space and closets.
4. Running water, bath, and built-in kitchen sink and cabinets.
5. Adequate modern heating equipment.
6. Garage.

Please note:

Every pastoral charge should provide a room for the minister's study, either in the church or parsonage, preferably in the church. If it is to be in the parsonage, put it in the original plans.

The minister's family usually has numbers of guests, especially visiting ministers and church workers, therefore care should be taken to make the house large enough. Build so extra rooms might be added when needed.

III. CARE OF PROPERTY

1. Best results will be obtained as the minister's family and the Parsonage Committee work together feeling perfectly free to discuss the needs with each other. This is a common task.

2. There will be a natural depreciation of property and furnishings which calls for repairs and replacements, therefore periodic checks should be made. Especially should this be done when a minister's family arrives and just before it moves. Some pastoral charges find it desirable to maintain lists of the furnishings.

3. The Parsonage Committee should be responsible for seeing that all necessary work is done.

4. Courtesy should be shown to the minister's wife by consulting her in the selection of equipment and fixtures. Remember that the arrangement of furniture and color schemes should be an expression of her personality.

5. Refrain from placing discarded furnishings from other homes in a parsonage.

It has been noted that the more pride and interest the minister's family takes in caring for the parsonage the more readily the people respond in providing the necessities and luxuries.

The minister's family should:

1. Take care of property and furnishings as if their own.
2. Keep yard attractive.
3. Repair damage due to their own neglect.
4. Refrain from keeping pets in the parsonage.
5. Leave parsonage in as good or better condition than it was found. Laundry all drapes and curtains and dispose of trash and garbage before moving.

6. Leave for successor lists:

- a. Whom to call when information is needed, and when repairs are needed.
- b. How to fix
- c. Where to find

IV. GENERAL SUGGESTIONS:

1. By observing open house from time to time, members of the congregation will have the privilege of looking over their parsonage.
2. Rotate the membership of the Parsonage Committee.
3. When the minister moves the Parsonage Committee should see that the lights, phone, and water are left connected, the deposit for public utilities being taken care of by the pastoral charge.
4. When a gift is presented, designate specifically if it is to remain in the parsonage or to be a personal gift for the minister's family.

SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT

REPORT OF TRUSTEES

The Trustees submit herewith the report of the Treasurer of the Superannuate Endowment, Inc., containing a summary of the principal and income accounts for the year ending September 20th, 1950, together with the income check of $11,549.64, payable to the Conference Treasurer, for distribution to the Conference claimants, in accordance with the rules of the Conference and the provisions of the Endowment, all of which is attached as a part of this report and asked to be embodied in the minutes of the Conference.

The trustees feel that the principal assets of the Endowment are wisely and safely invested by the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company as fiscal agent, and the income therefrom fairly and reasonably satisfactory.

We regret to report no new gifts or donations to the principal of the Endowment during the past year. This ought not to be so, as we feel that there is no more appealing call to generous giving in the entire program of the Church than that for a just and adequate provision for the superannuated preacher. We would emphasize this to every layman and preacher in this Conference.

The trustees recommend for re-election as trustees R. G. Stockton, Edwin L. Jones, and J. Spencer Bell for a term of four years, or until the Conference session of 1954, and their successors are elected.

THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

In some respects, the report of the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., for the fiscal year ending August 31, was one of the best in the history of the organization. During the year income from all sources totaled $94,574.83. Net profit, pending completion of the annual audit, was $10,398.62, an all-time record. Income from subscriptions was $25,008, or $2,407 over the previous year. Income from job work rose to $62,495.74, the largest in the history of the Piedmont Press.

Yet there is another side to this picture. During recent years much of our printing equipment has become obsolete and inefficient. Therefore, the Board last year authorized the purchase of new equipment as finances permitted. During the year a new Kluge job press, a Baum folder and a new Miehle 29 press have been purchased at a total cost of $20,500. These additions to our equipment have already added to the efficiency of operation; enabling the Piedmont Press, which is operated by the Methodist Board of Publication, to increase its volume substantially. Other equipment will be purchased as funds are available.

Even though the circulation of the North Carolina Christian Advocate continues to climb slowly, we can take small comfort when we realize that only about fifteen per cent of the Methodist families in the state receive this periodical. At a time when the printed word is having its greatest influence, many seem content to keep our church periodicals third-rate and ineffective. The North Carolina Christian Advocate occupies a strategic place in North Carolina Methodism. It can become a tremendous power for good. It can give telling support to every good cause of the church. It can play a large part in making this state distinctively Christian. But to do all this it needs the support of every pastor and lay official of North Carolina Methodism. The North Carolina Christian Advocate, unlike other agencies of the church, and for that matter unlike most other conference organs, does not ask the Conference for funds to carry on its work. It only asks for the privilege of reaching Methodist homes with the printed Word. It asks for, and has a right to expect, every pastor and lay official to present the Advocate faithfully to the people.

To reach more homes, the Board has authorized the editor and manager to offer the North Carolina Christian Advocate during the new Conference year for $1.50 a subscription to churches that will send the Advocate to every resident and active family. Moreover, the Board requests the Conference to designate January, 1951, as Advocate Month, and that churches which do not adopt the every-family plan to accept a goal of seven subscribers for every 100 members for the new Conference year and strive diligently to reach that goal.

During the year the Board purchased at a cost of $16,500, a house at 109 S. Tremont Drive, Greensboro, as a home for the editor. The Board needs and will greatly appreciate contributions toward the liquidation of the indebtedness against this property.

The terms of T. C. Hoyle, Sr., and John Hackney expire this year. The Board at its annual meeting, September 12, nominated Mr. Hoyle and Mr. Hackney to succeed themselves, and requests their re-election for a five-year term by their respective Conferences.

The following officers were re-elected: A. J. Hobbs, President; N. L. Eure, Vice-president; T. C. Hoyle, Sr., Secretary; and C. W. Robbins, Editor and Manager.

A. J. HOBBS, President

T. C. HOYLE, Secretary

Adopted 9-23-50, afternoon session.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION COMMISSION

Our first word is one of grief and sorrow. Last May Rev. J. G. Phillips, Executive Secretary of the North Carolina Conference Board of Education, who has been a member and Secretary-Treasurer of our Commission since its organization, died under peculiarly heart-breaking circumstances. We gratefully record our debt to him for his long and faithful service, and our prayerful sympathy for his wife and children.

Our Commission has labored earnestly to carry on the work at the several units of the University of North Carolina, at Duke University, and at other colleges in the state, with which we have been charged. We believe our work and the students concerned recognize the debt we all owe to the Directors at the various Wesley Foundations. These Directors have furnished extraordinarily good leadership.

We have not had a regularly employed Director of Methodist Student Work since the resignation of Troy Barrett a year ago. A Student Conference was promoted and held under volunteer leadership, and was quite successful, this being held in April at West Market Street Church. We propose to continue this or a similar arrangement for the academic year 1950-51.

We request an appropriation from the two Conferences, and from each Conference, identical in amount with that asked for and received the Conference year now closing.

The Treasurer's Report, together with an itemized list of proposed appropriations for 1950-51, is presented herewith.

Our Commission wishes to assure the two supporting Annual Conferences of our earnest and continuing desire and will to serve both the Conferences and the young Methodists in our colleges and universities.

We trust that approval will be granted to the so-called "Five Dollar Plan," as set forth in our report to the North Carolina Conference last year, but not presented a year ago to the Western North Carolina Conference. The pertinent paragraph is as follows:

In order to provide more adequate support for student work at the institutions where the Methodist program is supported by the Wesley Foundation Commission (University of North Carolina, North Carolina State College, Woman's College, Duke University, and East Carolina Teachers College), we recommend adoption of the "five dollar plan," which is already being operated successfully in several Annual Conferences. According to the plan each local church is asked to contribute from its budget, or other sources, an amount of $5.00 for each of its students attending one of the institutions named above. Funds would be sent directly to the treasurers of the respective Wesley Foundations at the state institutions, and to the treasurer of the Methodist Student Fellowship at Duke University.

It is our earnest hope that the two supporting Conferences will continue and in the future be able to increase and strengthen the program for our Methodist students in the colleges and universities of North Carolina.

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT, 1949-1950

The following appropriations have been made in the two Carolina Conferences for the conference year 1949-50:

There were one hundred and thirty-two churches seeking aid from the Endowment and their total asking totaled more than two hundred thousand dollars. All applications seemed worthy, but it was impossible with the sum available for appropriation to help everyone. Those churches which find it impossible to care for their cost may renew their applications.

MINUTES OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Executive Committee of the Western North Carolina Conference Historical Society met at Central Methodist Church, September 19, 1950, at 5:00 p. m. with Moody Smith, President, in the chair, and the following additional members present: E. P. Billups, J. H. Carper, G. B. Ehlhardt, L. B. Hayes, E. H. Nease, J. C. Stokes, and C. M. White in place of C. C. Benton who was absent due to illness.

The Chair appointed E. P. Billups, G. B. Ehlhardt and L. B. Hayes to act as a Nominating Committee for the purpose of offering a slate of new officers to serve the Society for the coming year.

G. B. Ehlhardt reported on the Southeastern Jurisdiction Historical Society's plan to install a Wesley Memorial Window in the Chapel at Lake Junaluska. As the chairman of a committee appointed to carry out this project, he indicated that the estimated cost would possibly range up to $700, and that he was contacting various Annual Conference Historical Societies in the interest of receiving contributions.

At the request of the chair, Mr. Ehlhardt also spoke concerning the prospects of erecting historical markers at the sites of Rutherford College and Weaver College, and also one at Brevard College, indicating the latter's outgrowth from these two much beloved institutions. Dr. Billups spoke favorably concerning this undertaking. It was recommended that the above matters be presented before the Conference Historical Society, and also that Dr. Elmer T. Clark, Executive Secretary of the Association of Methodist Historical Societies be given an opportunity to speak concerning some of the interests and activities of the church-wide historical society.

Concerning the Society's program for the next session of the Annual Conference, it was decided, in view of the pending Ecumenical Methodist Conference, to secure if possible for next fall the services of an outstanding Methodist leader from Britain. However, in the event that this could not be satisfactorily arranged, the Executive Committee laid plans for the presentation of a History of the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference, of the former Methodist Episcopal Church. C. C. Benton and C. M. White, together with the President of the Society, were authorized to select some qualified person to write and present this important paper.

Thereupon the committee adjourned.

Signed by: JAMES C. STOKES, Secretary-Treasurer

CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

MINUTES OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

September 6, 1950

The executive committee of the W. N. C. Conference Brotherhood met at First Church, Charlotte, September 6, 1950. Rev. H. G. Allen, president, was present and presided at the meeting.

Other members of the executive committee present included R. C. Goforth, W. A. Stanbury, J. W. Braxton, and Jesse G. Wilkinson.

The meeting was opened with prayer led by Rev. J. W. Braxton. The minutes of the last meeting of the executive committee were read and approved. This was followed by a report of the treasurer. This report showed a balance of $5,399.94 on hand with one call, No. 204, yet to be paid to Mrs. D. P. Waters.

Rev. H. G. Allen proposed that we challenge the laymen of the Conference to increase the lay membership by 600 during the coming year in order that the Brotherhood be enabled to remit one-half of the dues of superannuates. He proposed that a program for accomplishing this enlargement of the lay membership be set up at the first meeting of the executive committee after the close of the 1950 session of the Annual Conference. Laymen would be selected from each district to attend the set-up meeting, who, after being presented the program, would endeavor to carry it out within the bounds of each district. Monthly reports on the activities and successes in securing new members by the district workers would be made by the Brotherhood Secretary and mailed out to the workers in each district. On motion of R. C. Goforth, seconded by Dr. W. A. Stanbury, the plan was unanimously approved.

It was announced that the Brotherhood would have an opportunity to present its report at 11:00 o'clock on Thursday morning. Rev. H. G. Allen requested that 200 lay membership cards be sent to his new address following the close of the Annual Conference.

The meeting closed with prayer led by Rev. R. C. Goforth.

Historical

1. Historical Sketch

"The Western North Carolina Conference shall include all North Carolina west of the North Carolina Conference, except Savannah Church, in Alleghany County, North Carolina; and also that part of North Carolina lying north of New River, and including that part of Virginia lying south of that river in the loop in Grayson County, Virginia; including all the territory in Carroll and Patrick Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, and west of the Dan River." (Discipline, 1948, paragraph 1757.)

This territory is identical with that of the Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South. All three branches of Methodism forming The Methodist Church are included in this new Conference. From the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church came thirty-nine ministers and 11,901 church members. The North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church contributed seventy-four ministers and 22,361 church members. The Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, added 377 ministers and 167,028 church members. This gave the new Conference 490 ministers, with twenty-eight others on trial, and 201,290 church members. The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference had held 62 sessions, the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, 112, and the Western North Carolina, 50. (See Journal, 1939, Pages 115, 166).

HISTORY OF GETHSEMANE METHODIST CHURCH

Summerfield Charge, Greensboro District

By JOHN A. LOWDER

The fourth building is now being used by the Gethsemane congregation. The earliest report of the Gethsemane Methodist Church comes from "Old Colonel Morehead" who said he could remember it as far back as 1833. This must have been the first building. It was made of logs, and is referred to today as the "old log church." When the congregation decided they needed a new church they sold the log building to Mr. Boston

Lewis, who lived about two miles east of the church. Mr. Lewis used the material to build a barn, which is still in use today.

The second church was a wood-framed construction, weather-boarded and ceiled. In this church the men sat on one side and the women on the other. There was no center aisle, so in order to get a dividing line a strip of wood was nailed down the center of the church to the backs of the benches.

This building served the congregation for a long time. We have record of the following preachers serving in this church: Betts, Edwards, Mahony, Pegram, Bowles, Craven, York, Parker, Robbins, Kirk, Jordan, Goode, Johnson, and Sherrill.

When Brother Albert Sherrill came to the church he was able to lead in a new building project, thus building a third church at Gethsemane. It was in 1917 that the new building was actually started. J. R. Moore, G. C. Burton, and J. H. Gant served on the building committee. Mr. J. R. Moore is chairman of the present building committee. These men, with the loyal help of the men of the church and community, cut and hauled logs to the saw mill to get lumber for the framing in the new church. The dressed lumber was bought outside the community. This building, after twenty-nine years of use, was sold for $500. Pastors serving in this building were Sherrill, Canada, Dawson, Albright, Powell, Dutton, Stokes, Snow, Gibbs, Russell, Latham, and Thumm.

The present beautiful church at Gethsemane has been under construction since 1941. However, Brother Rollin Gibbs led in the election of the building committee in 1939. The same committee has served throughout the entire project. It is made up of J. R. Moore, chairman; N. F. Clapp; J. T. Bowman; with W. O. Bowman chairman of the finance committee, and A. B. Moore, treasurer.

Early in 1941 the men cut enough timber for all the framing of the new church. On Thanksgiving Day of that year the men and boys met at the church with teams and tractors, dragpans and shovels, to begin excavating the foundation. Brother C. W. Russell was pastor at that time, and he is reported to have been there with his overalls on, ready for work.

About two weeks after the first excavation we witnessed Pearl Harbor. The nation was at war. This made labor and material very scarce, and the building project was slowed almost to a halt. March 28, 1942, cornerstone was laid. It was not until 1944 that the outside of the building was completed. In May of that year Dr. L. B. Hayes, District Superintendent, held his District Conference in the framework of the new church. Brother A. L. Latham was pastor at that time.

Finally, in August 1946, while Brother M. V. Thumm was pastor, the congregation moved into the new church permanently. It was a great event in the life of the congregation when they moved, because the struggle had been long and hard.

In the beginning of the building program contributions came in very slowly. But with constant effort on the part of the leaders money began to come in faster. Then with increased interest on the part of the membership and the boom of the war years more money came into the treasury of the building committee. The Duke Endowment gave $3,500 toward the project, and the Conference gave $500. Through the generous contributions of many members and friends the church is not in debt.

The faithful congregation at Gethsemane has a record that not many congregations have. They built a new church during both World Wars. In 1917 they were building a church. Again, in 1941 they were building a church. Truly they must have heard the voice of God saying, "Let us rise up and build."

Finally, on July 16, 1950, at the eleven o'clock service the new church was dedicated. Rev. Hermon F. Duncan, District Superintendent of the Greensboro District, preached the dedication sermon. His subject was, "The Unchangeable Christ." Mr. J. R. Moore presented the church for dedication, and Mr. Duncan read the Ritual.

QUIET MOMENTS FOR MEDITATION AND PRAYER

MEDITATION

"We need to call to remembrance the great and good, through whom the Lord hath wrought great glory. We need to be reminded of the noble army of good ministers of Jesus Christ who have been the interpreters of faith and have given to us the heritage of freedom and truth. We need to be appreciative of the good example of the men and women who have truly loved and served God in creating the fabric of the Church that is ours today."

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Minister: O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good; for his mercy endureth forever.

People: Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

Minister: O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt him together.

People: It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. Amen.

THE INVOCATION

"O God, who makest thine angels spirits and thy ministers a flame of fire; vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to stir up and confirm the sacred grace in all stewards of thy mysteries, that as ministering spirits they may gather out of thy kingdom all things that offend, and may kindle in the hearts of all that fire which thou didst send thy Son to cast upon the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Almighty and everliving God, whose nature it is to purify and to bless; in every age our fathers have experienced thy mercies and borne witness of thy power to save. To us also may the might of thy Spirit be given and the excellence of thy glory be made manifest, that, following in the steps of thy faithful servants, and finding our blessedness in the doing of thy will we may cast our burden on thee and joyfully minister to the needs of our generation, until the work be finished which thou hast given us to do; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE COLLECT (Minister and people)

O heavenly Father, thy word is a lamp unto our feet, and a light unto our path; we humbly beseech thee that thou wouldest be pleased to open and enlighten our minds, through Jesus Christ, who is the true light of the world, that we may understand thy word in its plainness and purity, and frame accordingly the whole course of our lives; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN 164—"All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" Perronet

A CANTICLE OF THE WORD (Here let the people stand and remain standing until after the Affirmation of Faith) E. H. Blackard

Minister: How lovely are thy messengers, O Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and a longing for thy word.

People: Thou sendest forth thy prophets in every age, and thy truth runneth swiftly to the ends of the earth.

Minister: The pure in heart have seen thee, O God; the lowly have found thee near at hand.

People: These tell of thy lovingkindness: from the rising of the sun to the going down of the same they keep not silence;

Minister: Publishing peace upon the mountains, and bringing good tidings of great joy,

People: That thou art blessed forever, and in thy will is our peace.

Minister: Thou art the everlasting fountain of life, and they that drink thereof shall thirst no more;

People: Light of our seeing and soul of our souls, within all spirits and beyond all worlds,

Minister: Who sustainest the heavens with the might of thy power, and gladdenest the eyes of all living with the beauty of thy holiness,

People: That the children of men may behold thy glory, and see thy wonders in the great deeps.

THE GLORIA PATRI

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Here let the people, following the exhortation of the minister, unite with him in the creed.)

Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is the one true Church, apostolic and universal, whose holy faith let us now reverently and sincerely declare.

THE LESSON

As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Jesus Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God.

What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril or sword? Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

THE LITANY OF APPRECIATION (The minister, the people responding.)

Let us pray

Almighty and everlasting God, before whom stand the spirits of the living and the dead, Light of lights, Fountain of wisdom and goodness, who livest in all pure and humble and gracious souls;

For all who have witnessed a good confession for thy glory and the welfare of the world, patriarchs, prophets, and apostles, the wise of every land and nation, all teachers and preachers of thy truth.

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

For the martyrs of our holy faith, the faithful witnesses to Christ of whom the world was not worthy, and for all who have resisted falsehood and wrong unto suffering or death,

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

For all who have labored and suffered for freedom, good government, just laws, and the sanctity of the home, and for all who have given their lives for their country,

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

For all who have sought to bless men by their service and life, and to lighten the dark places of the earth,

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

For those who have been tender and true and brave in all times and places, for those who have been devoted ministers and faithful shepherds of souls in thy holy Church, and for all who have been one with thee in the communion of Christ's Spirit and in the strength of his love,

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

(Here let the minister and the people unite in saying:)

O Almighty God, who in thy mercy hast redeemed the world by the love of thy dear Son; we give thee hearty thanks for thy servants who are in the ministry of thy Church; endue them richly with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and grant that in all their words and deeds they may seek thy glory and the increase of thy Kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EDWARD MORTON GRAHAM

August 31, 1880—April 9, 1950

Edward Morton Graham was born August 31, 1880, at Ducktown, Tennessee. He was the son of the late Napoleon B. and Stacy Louvincy McMillen Graham. He went to his eternal home on Easter Sunday, April 9, 1950, being 69 years 8 months and 9 days on this earth.

On November 4, 1900, he was happily married to Miss Laura Naomi Griggs, who was a constant companion and helpmate and wife. In addition to his faithful wife, Brother Graham is survived by one son, Robert, of Charlotte, N. C., two daughters, Mrs. R. L. (Grace) Phillips of Mooresville, N. C., and Mrs. John (Nellie) Cude of Winston-Salem, N. C., two grandsons and two brothers.

In 1900 Brother Graham became a minister and a member of the North Carolina Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. In this body he served as a general evangelist and pastor and for six years as president of the Conference. His ordination was recognized by the Blue-Ridge Atlantic Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1935 and he was received into full connection in that Conference in 1936. From 1934 he served as pastor in this connection in the following places: Saluda-Tryon, Bethel-Bogers, Rockford Street in Mount Airy, Thrift and Hudson. He was serving his fourth successful year at Hudson when death came to him by an automobile-train accident.

The funeral services were conducted by the Reverend J. H. Armbrust, Superintendent of the Statesville District, assisted by the Reverend Fred H. Price, the Reverend C. C. Benton, and the Reverend Ellis S. Bullins. Interment was in the Evergreen Cemetery, Charlotte, N. C.

A good minister of Jesus Christ has been crowned. He did his work well. Every report required by the quarterly conference, district conference, and annual conference was properly and carefully prepared and ready when due. This care in reporting indicates a methodical and disciplined mind. Along his life he was a printer, a lawyer and a minister. To his ministry he brought the same care he employed in his service in these other professions and fields of service.

He was loyal to the Church and to her program. No cause suffered in his hands. Every call of his Church was answered not grudgingly but with a wholesome devotion that got results. The last call was for the ongoing of Lake Junaluska. He responded for his church with a good subscription.

He worked progressively as is indicated by the steady growth of his Church School on his last charge. The enrollment increases were 255-293-329. Such were his reports for the three full years he has served Hudson.

He was sent to Hudson to guide the charge in a new era of its history. The charge had been divided, reducing the number of churches from five to two. He gave a fine leadership as is evidenced in the fact that the salary steadily increased as the reward for his consecrated and efficient labors.

He built a new church at Mt. Herman, a building that meets the needs of the present day. The church building was completed and he had the privilege of preaching in it just before his going. This congregation has placed a bronze memorial tablet in the sanctuary in his memory.

These mechanics of church operations issue from an inner, disciplined spirit. Out of the heart are the issues of life; that abided in Edward Morton Graham. His sermons were carefully prepared. Long drafts were first written, then revised, and finally made ready for pulpit use in chaste pure language. This shows that he was a good student.

His last sermon, and how fitting, was on Easter Sunday morning. The message breathed of immortality and ere the night had come he was entered into the life eternal of which he had so eloquently spoken earlier in that day.

The peace of God and the power of His resurrection keep him and you. Amen.

C. C. Benton and J. H. Armbrust.

TALTON M. JOHNSON

March 29, 1861—April 2, 1950

When we come to appraise a human life we are likely to ask two questions: Who was he? What was he? The first question has to do with outward circumstances; the other has to do with the inner spirit.

The first question, in this case, is answered by saying: Rev. Talton M. Johnson was born in Alamance County, N. C., on March 29, 1861, the son of George Bates Johnson and Barbara Ladosky Bowman Johnson. He attended Oak Ridge Institute, Western Maryland College—from which he later received the degree of Doctor of Divinity—and Westminster Theological Seminary. He was received into the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church in 1892 and ordained Elder the following year. On March 19, 1901, he was united in marriage to Mary Pomona Weatherly. To this union five children were born, two of whom died in childhood. The three still living are: Talton M., Jr., of Graham, Mrs. A. V. Amick, of Burlington, and Mrs. David W. Harris, of Alexandria, Va., at whose home he passed away on April 2, 1950. His body was brought to Greensboro for burial in Green Hill Cemetery beside his wife. The funeral service was conducted in Grace Church, a congregation he had served in his early ministry, with Rev. Paul Townsend, the pastor, in charge, assisted by Dr. C. W. Bates and Rev. O. L. Hathaway.

Dr. Johnson spent forty-six years in the active ministry, retiring when Methodist Union took place in 1939. During these years he served pastorates in Henderson, Greensboro, Asheboro, Littleton, Lexington, Asheville, Mebane, Gibsonville. His last charge was at Easley, S. C. He served four years as President of his conference, and was for many years President of the Board of Education of the Conference, and was largely instrumental in helping to found High Point College. He was a delegate to practically every general Conference of his Church from his ordination to his retirement.

But we are concerned to answer the other question: What was he? We can best answer that as we think of the impression he made upon those who knew him, and that includes his family, his fellow-ministers, and the great host of folks who belonged to the churches he served down through the years.

One of the things that impressed us most was his humility. It was characteristic of his whole life. His Church bestowed honors upon him, but these honors did not make him proud, or take from him the common touch. He exemplified the beatitudes: "Blessed are the poor in spirit; blessed are the meek." Always there was in him the meek and lowly spirit of the Master whom he so faithfully followed.

And as we think of him we think of his kindness, his gentleness. Some one said of him at his funeral, "He was the kindest man I ever knew." And that sentiment could have been echoed by all who knew him. It was manifest in all his pastorates; in his attitude toward his brethren in the ministry; indeed, in all the relationships of life. Shakespeare makes one of his characters say of another, "His life was gentle." So do we say of Dr. Johnson.

We think, too, of his spirituality. Like Barnabas, "He was a good man, full of the Holy Ghost and of faith." We were aware of that as he stood in the pulpit to proclaim the Word of God. His sermons were deeply spiritual. He was frequently called on to give devotional addresses to different groups, particularly to groups of young people. They sensed this note of spirituality, not so much in what he said as in the way he said it. And it was shown in his conversation. No one ever heard Dr. Johnson use an off-color remark. The Apostle says, "Let your conversation be as cometh the Gospel of Christ." Dr. Johnson spoke that kind of language.

And we think of his fidelity. He was faithful to the task committed to him, whether as the President of his Conference or as the pastor of a small church. He heard and heeded the summons, "Be thou faithful." He was faithful to his loved ones. His wife, whom he greatly loved, died when his children were small. Faced with the responsibility of bringing up his motherless children, apparently no thought of remarriage ever entered his mind. So for many years he was both mother and father to his children. Their lives are a testimony to the fact that he did not fail them. He was faithful to his friends with a sort of Damon and Pythias friendship. "There is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." He was that kind of a friend. Little children instinctively loved him; young people rejoiced in his interest in them; and in every charge he served, scores rise up to testify to his love for them.

And Dr. Johnson walked with God, and he was not, for God took him. He dwells in the Father's house with all the saints whom he knew and loved, who, too, rest from their labors.

C. W. Bates.

JULIUS MARTIN MORGAN

November 1, 1888—October 15, 1949

"O friend of ours, whom we shall see no more,
How little have the white sails borne to sea!
All that love wrought still lingers here with us,
Still, still we stand together by the shore.

And we have but to hark to hear thy voice;
Be still to feel thy presence, cheer, and grace;
And in our dreams, we see thy face,
Servant of God, to bid us still 'Be strong!'

It hardly seems possible even now, almost a year hence, that on October 15, 1949, thirty-four years in the Master's service were over for our friend, Julius Martin Morgan. He was born in China Grove, North Carolina, November 1, 1888, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan. On June 5, 1909, he married Miss Maggie Hatley. To this union were born seven children, two of whom died in infancy. He is survived by his faithful and devoted wife and five living children: Oscar Morgan, Fallston; Lloyd Morgan, Concord; Mrs. William Clay, Fallston; Paul Morgan, Shelby; and Mrs. Arthur Grigg, Shelby.

He served the following charges: Virginia, four years; St. Paul, three years; Haw River, one year; Fallston, eight years; Ann Street, Concord, three years; Lebanon, High Point, one year; Virginia, four years; Fallston, six years; Hanes, Wintson-Salem, two years; Albemarle Circuit, two years; and Cherryville Circuit, eleven days.

Funeral services were conducted at Friendship Methodist Church, Fallston, by Dr. W. A. Stanbury, E. A. Lamb, H. D. Garmon, and Harlan L. Creech, Jr.

"Morgan," as we loved to call him, had been on his new work only eleven days when one night while returning home his tired heart ceased to beat and he went to be with God. It is both our joy and confidence to know that many times, and perhaps during his last moments of consciousness, the twenty-third Psalm swept through his mind and soul: "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me . . ."

It was my privilege to form an acquaintance with "Morgan" during his pastorate in Winston-Salem. Becoming close friends almost immediately, we spent many happy hours together during the years which followed. We played golf and fished together; we built the Kingdom of God together and I can truly say that I have never had a dearer friend or a more rewarding friendship.

There were many things which endeared "Morgan" to those who knew him well. His courage, his love for God's great out-of-doors, his humor, his amazing vitality and stamina, his attractive youthfulness, and his simple goodness. He had an affection for folks and was generous in helping those who needed him. He demonstrated in life more eloquently than many words could express the spirit of Christian brotherliness. Of his friends he was never asking or demanding, but always giving. He had "A heart that cared not for rank or mark

But only for the heart of one.

That would rather miss fortune and fame than
The love of a friend that is dear."

Those of us in the ministry have lost a real friend and brother in Christ; his family will miss him as a beloved husband and father, and his parishioners as a kindly counselor and guide.

John Bunyan has so beautifully expressed our thoughts about the going of those dear ones who die in the Lord and it seems so fitting to recall them as we think of our beloved friend, "Morgan":

"Now while they were thus drawing toward the gate, behold, a company of the heavenly host came out to meet them; to whom it was said by the other two Shining Ones, 'These are the men who have loved our Lord when in the world, and that have left all for His holy Name; and He has sent us to fetch them, and we have brought them thus far on their desired journey that they may go in and look their Redeemer in the face with joy.' "

THOMAS ATCHISON PLYLER

September 18, 1874—April 20, 1950

Rev. Thomas Atchison Plyler, age 75, a retired minister of the Western North Carolina Conference, died in the Ellen Fitzgerald Hospital of Monroe on Wednesday, April 20, after being in declining health for several years.

Son of the late Rev. E. A. Plyler and Mrs. Plyler, he joined the ministry in the Methodist Protestant church in 1905 and began active ministry in 1907. His first charge was the Mecklenburg circuit which was also the first charge served by his father. After seven years in this capacity he joined the Western North Carolina Conference in 1913. He faithfully served the following charges: Derita, Unionville, Lowell, South Fork, Deep River, Albemarle circuit, Woodleaf, Lowesville, Yadkinville, Olin and Table Rock.

He retired in 1934 because of ill health and has made his home in Indian Trail.

He was first married to Bernice Ferguson of Clover, South Carolina. To this union one child was born, Marie Arnschler, of Chicago, Illinois. On April 30, 1913, he married Maggie Davis of Union county, who, with a son, Rev. T. A. Plyler, Jr., survives.

Funeral services were conducted at the Indian Trail Methodist church with Rev. A. B. Bruton, Pastor, in charge, assisted by Dr. E. P. Billups, Pastor of Central Methodist Church, Monroe, and Rev. C. H. Rowan, Pastor of Indian Trail Presbyterian Church. Burial was in the Siler church cemetery.

Brother Plyler exemplified in his life and ministry those qualities characteristic of a good minister of Jesus Christ: sincerity, simplicity, and a willingness to serve.

One of the finest compliments Jesus ever paid to a disciple was that paid to Nathanael when he said: "Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile." This could be said of Brother Plyler. In his speech, in his attitudes, in all his relationships of life the note of sincerity and genuineness dominated.

He was also a man of great simplicity, as all great souls are. It could be said of him as it was of the Duke of Wellington by Tennyson in one of the finest odes he ever wrote:

"Foremost captain of his time,
Rich in saving common sense,
And, as the greatest only are,
In his simplicity divine."

Brother Plyler's ministry was also marked by the spirit of self-forgetfulness. He was never a seeker after place or power, but found his highest joy in being of service to his fellow man. He was always a strong hand in the dark to a brother in need. Wordsworth's

"That better portion of a good man's life,
The little, nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and of love" marked his ministry and endeared him to the congregations he served.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare past;
The battle's fought, the race is won
And thou art crowned at last."

Edgar P. Billups.

BEATTIE AVERY SISK

June 8, 1900—October 29, 1949

Beattie Avery Sisk was born near Table Rock, in Burke County, North Carolina, June 8, 1900, the son of Pinkney Adolphus Sisk and Sophie Avery Sisk. He was reared in the same house in which his paternal grandparents had lived. He passed from this earth October 29, 1949, being 49 years of age.

Brought up in a devoutly Christian home, He was deeply religious even in early childhood. It is related that on a certain occasion before his birth his mother was talking with the pastor and friend of the family, Rev. J. C. Postell. Said this good friend, "If your child is a boy, I shall pray for him to become a minister." The mother replied, "I, too, shall pray the same prayer, for nothing would make me happier." Members of the family testify that while still a very small child he frequently "preached" to his brothers and sisters in the home. He made public dedication of his life to Christ when he was 12 years of age, joining the family church, Mountain Grove, near the home.

He attended the public school of his home community and completed the 7th grade there. From 1916 to 1919 he was a student at Yancey Collegiate Institute and High School at Burnsville, N. C. While here, he felt a clear call to the ministry. In the endeavor to prepare himself for the work to which he was henceforth to give his life, he entered Rutherford College in the fall of 1919, being graduated in 1922. Later, while supplying churches near High Point, he was a student at High Point College. While serving Lakewood Church in Durham he pursued his studies at Duke University, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1935. He also carried on work in the Divinity School for two years.

While carrying on his studies at Rutherford, in 1921, he became acquainted with Lily Belle McGimsey, of Morganton, who at the time was teaching in his home community school at Table Rock. On December 24 of that year they were married. For 28 years they lived together in a devoted companionship beautiful to witness. Of their marriage four children were born, all of whom, with their mother, survive: Mrs. Eugene J. Bauer, of Durham, Mrs. George W. MacDow, of Charlotte, and Robert and Charles Sisk, of Route 5, Morganton. Besides these are his mother, of Route 5, Morganton, three brothers, Earl H. of Gastonia, W. T. of Morganton, Mason G. of Jackson Heights, N. Y.; and three sisters, Miss Kate Sisk, Route 5, Morganton, Mrs. W. R. Spainhour and Mrs. Robert Patton, Route 6, Morganton. There are five grandchildren.

Brother Sisk was received on trial in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1928, and in the 22 years of his membership served the following pastorates: Micaville, Denton, Lakewood in Durham, Old Fort, Gilkey, Balls Creek, St. Paul's in Greensboro, and Westford, Concord. At the Conference of 1947 he was appointed to East End (now Faith) Church, Gastonia. As the winter of 1948-49 gave way to spring his health began to show serious impairment, and in June 1949 he was forced to give up his work and seek rest, and if possible, recovery of his strength. For the remaining months of his life he was a great sufferer, the incurable disease which had laid hold on him keeping him in constant and ever-increasing pain. He met and endured his afflictions with singular patience and courage, with the nobleness of a strong and invincible Christian faith, and without complaint. He knew how to make his illness and pain not a master but his servant, to the glory of God. His beloved wife, his physicians, his children, and hosts of loyal friends all gave him the ministry of their skill and affection in uncalculating measure. The end of his pain came at Grace Hospital, Morganton.

Following services conducted in First Church, Morganton, on October 31, by W. A. Stanbury, his District Superintendent, John Hoyle, Jr., S. M. Needham and Emmett McLarty, Jr., his body was laid to rest in Mountain Grove Church Cemetery, close beside that of his father, who passed away in 1933.

Brother Sisk lived a rather short life, as compared with many in this age of increasing life-span. But his service was great, and the good he accomplished will not end. He was rich in the capacity to inspire confidence and love in the hearts of the people of his pastorates; the writer of this paper has rarely if ever seen such demonstrations of affection and devotion as were given by the members of the East End congregation. He had the heart of a true pastor, and was a good preacher of the Gospel and minister of Jesus Christ, a man of transparent sincerity and deep prayerfulness. His great passion was to build the church of God, in both a material and a spiritual sense. To the sick and sorrowing he went as a fellow-sufferer and comforted them out of his great heart; and at the same time he knew how to rejoice with those who rejoiced, whether they were young or old. Those who knew him best said that he was a good man, whose steps were ordered of the Lord.

And, knowing him, they thanked God, and took courage, holding along with him the hope that maketh not ashamed.

W. A. Stanbury.

EDWARD SUITS

August 17, 1878—April 19, 1950

The Reverend Edward Suits was born in Guilford County, North Carolina, on the 17th day of August, 1878. He was the son of Henry and Priscilla Lewis Suits. This humble farm home with its devout, Christian atmosphere, furnished the environment in which one of the great "builders" of North Carolina Methodism was reared. He attended the little church in his community and there absorbed the fundamentals of its Christian message. He was led at an early age to the altar of the church, where, in his acceptance of Christ, he began a long and fruitful journey with the Master of Nazareth. This journey was transferred from its earthly home to its heavenly home on April 19, 1950, when, during the course of a southern trip, he suffered a heart attack near the city of New Orleans. On a doctor's examining table in that place he assured the physician that all was well with his soul. He wrapped his mantle about him and joined the caravan of those who move to the Celestial City. His body was brought back to his native Guilford County, where services were held in one of the churches that he had built and served as pastor.

Throng of people from every walk of life gathered to say goodbye to Edward Suits. Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Dale Montgomery of High Point, Mrs. Dick Pals of Winston-Salem, Mrs. John Todd of High Point; one granddaughter, Miss Sarah Montgomery; one half-brother, Mr. N. V. Vuncannon of Greensboro, and a number of nieces and nephews. The rites were conducted by the Reverend John Cagle, Pastor of Rankin Memorial Church, the Reverend Kenneth Goodson, Pastor of First Methodist Church, and the Reverend D. D. Broome, Pastor of Lebanon Methodist Church.

Edward Suits was educated in the Jamestown Public Schools and graduated from the Oak Ridge Institute in Guilford County. These institutions were instrumental in developing one of our conference's keenest minds.

At the early age of 17, he felt the call of God to preach and in perfect obedience to that "Heavenly Vision" he joined the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church in 1901. He was ordained as a Methodist preacher in 1907. For more than 40 years he took his place as an itinerant in the Methodist fellowship. For almost a half a century he heard his name called at the bar of the Conference and heard the presiding officer say, "Nothing against him."

Edward Suits was a good preacher. He believed in his gospel and the forcefulness of his message and the sincerity and earnestness with which he spoke it were instrumental in leading many people into the fellowship of the "Colony of Heaven." He was a counselor for people. Many persons from all stations of life made their way to his study, where sympathetic and wise counseling were always available to them. He was a real pastor. The sincerity of the man's devotion to Christ equipped him most admirably to carry the messages of comfort and hope to those who were weighed down by life's heaviness.

For 33 years he resided in High Point, from which place he served his many pastorates. He has served and served well as pastor of the Uwharrie Charge, the Randolph Charge, the West Lexington Church, the First Methodist Church in Thomasville, the Ann Street Methodist Church in Concord, the Pinnacle Charge, Lebanon-Pleasant Grove Charge, the Kernersville Charge, Tabernacle Charge, the Mebane Charge, a second pastorate at Lebanon Church, Grey's Chapel Methodist Church, and the Rankin Memorial Church. When, during the latter appointment his health became impaired, he accepted superannuate relations, but one could not say that Edward Suits retired. He labored as a counselor for God in a community where he had spent his life.

Few men have built more church buildings than this man. He organized the congregations and led the building programs at the First Church in Thomasville, English Street Methodist Church in High Point, which church later became known as Rankin Memorial Church, whose present edifice was built under his leadership. He organized the Lindsay Memorial congregation in High Point, and organized and built Canaan Methodist Church. The Sunday School rooms at Lebanon are also monuments to his building genius. Truly he was a builder of buildings at whose altars and in whose sanctuaries men could find the living God, and little children, as well as youth, could be instructed in the fundamentals of the faith. Edward Suits was a devoted husband and a wonderful father. The atmosphere of his home with its doors of hospitality always open, reflected the spirit of its Christian teaching. Life lost some of its zest for him when his companion of many years, Minnie Simpson Suits, preceded him to the Heavenly City on September 26, 1949. His companion of the itinerancy gone, he felt a longing to be with her in that great Annual Conference, over which the Eternal God presides.

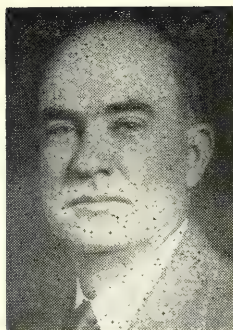

A builder of churches, a builder of people, a builder of God for the Kingdom of Heaven. Lay down your tools, dear friend, and let your tired self rest on the bosom of Him whom you have served so long and so well. I am sure these words would have meaning to him:

"We would be building; temples still undone
O'er crumbling walls their crosses scarcely lift
Waiting till love can raise the broken stone
And hearts creative bridge the human rift;
We would be building, Master, let Thy plan Reveal the life that God would give to man."

W. Kenneth Goodson.

GILES WESLEY VICK

December 15, 1880—December 5, 1949

Giles Wesley Vick, son of Josiah and Margaret Vick, was born at Mt. Pleasant, N. C., Nash County, on December 15, 1880, and died at Durham, N. C., December 5, 1949. The Reverend R. E. Brown, pastor of the Duke Memorial Church, and the Reverend C. S. Kirkpatrick conducted the funeral rites. His body was laid to rest in the Maple Wood Cemetery in Durham.

On December 15, 1915, Brother Vick and Miss Annie Elizabeth Pitts of Spring Hope, N. C., were united in matrimony. To this happy union were born the following children: Mrs. C. C. Bost, Salisbury, N. C.; Captain Giles W. Vick, Miami, Fla.; Joe Pitts Vick, Washington, D. C.; Frances Vick (Deceased); Marvin W. Vick, Durham, N. C.; and Mrs. Wallace Hardin McCowan, Durham, N. C.

The insistent call to preach came to Brother Vick while he was a student at Mars Hill College. After three years residence, he received his degree from this institution. In 1908, at the age of twenty-six, he entered Trinity College, graduating with honors in 1911. Keenly conscious of the fact that he had got a late start in his preparation for the high call of the ministry, he applied himself to his studies with tireless energy and passionate zeal. He was not only a faithful student but also developed into a forceful speaker, winning medals both in declamation and debate.

In 1910 he was received into the North Carolina Conference on trial. In 1912, he was transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference where he served the following charges: Waynesville Circuit; Park Avenue, Salisbury; Central (M.E.), Kannapolis; Badin; Franklin Avenue, Gastonia; Mt. Zion, Cornelius; Green Street, Winston-Salem; Calvary, Charlotte; Muir's Chapel, Greensboro; Race Street, Statesville; Proximity, Greensboro; Bessemer City; Mayodan; and Denton Circuit.

The record of Brother Vick's service of more than thirty years unfolds a most successful ministry. He never failed to report that his charge had paid its financial obligations in full. He built two churches and aided in the building of several others. He was a faithful pastor. However, a study of those elements which contributed to his success leads to the inescapable conclusion that his preaching must be placed first. In the words of the companion who shared with him the burdens, the joys, and the sorrows of the lengthening years: "Giles loved the Lord and the work of His Church. He was never happier than when preaching. When he was forced to retire for two years because of ill health, he was very unhappy, so he took work as a retired supply for four years. He said so many times during his last illness that he hoped he had not preached his last sermon. He was good." Giles Vick was a good man. No greater epitaph can be written about any man. He was a good minister of Jesus Christ. He loved people. This love found expression in conscientious visitation of his people, in constructive preaching to the church, and in warm evangelistic preaching to the unsaved. He added large numbers to the membership of the Church.

It is interesting to note that the following ministers were converted under his persuasive preaching: D. P. Grant, D. D. Holt, W. J. Miller, Wilson Nesbit, and Moody Smith.

"Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ:
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy!"

Walter B. West.

DOCTOR PERRY WATERS

July 25, 1870—August 15, 1950

The Reverend Doctor Perry Waters was born in Rutherford County on July 25, 1870, and departed this life at his home in Mooresville on August 15, 1950. He was the son of the late Jonathan and Esther Biggerstaff Waters of Rutherford County. His early life and young manhood were spent on the farm. In young manhood Brother Waters professed faith in Christ and joined the Baptist Church. Upon moving to Cleveland County, however, he became a member of Palm Tree Methodist Church near Fallston.

In 1897 Brother Waters was married to Miss Effie Walker who shared his life as co-worker and companion for fifty-three years.

In 1903 Brother Waters felt very clearly a definite call to the Christian ministry. Even though he was well in his thirties and the head of a family, he was not disobedient to the call.

He moved his family to Rutherford College in order that he might prepare himself for his high calling. After two years of study he was admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference in the Fall of 1905. He was ordained deacon in 1907 and elder in 1909, thus completing his Conference Course of Study on schedule.

Brother Waters served most efficiently and acceptably for twenty-four years as a traveling preacher in the ranks of the Methodist itinerancy. The following Charges were enriched by his ministry; Lincoln Circuit, Polkville, Lowesville, Forsyth Circuit, Franklin Circuit, Watauga Circuit, Crouse, Ruffin, Mooresville Circuit, Hiddenite, Shelby Circuit, and New London.

While stationed at New London Brother Water's health failed and he found it necessary to retire from the active pastorate. Accordingly, at the conference session in 1929 he retired from active service and moved to Mooresville, where he had formerly lived, to make his home in his declining years. It was here that he spent the last twenty-one years of his life. While he had not been well for a long time, he was critically ill for only three weeks.

The funeral service was conducted in Central Church, Mooresville, by the writer, assisted by Reverend Harley Williams of Davidson. Interment was in Glenwood Memorial Park, Mooresville.

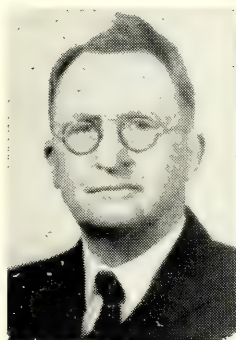

Brother Waters is survived by his wife, Mrs. Effie Walker Waters, and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Shelley Blackwelder, Mooresville; J. S. Waters, Pittsboro; Mrs. R. S. Edwards, Mt. Ulla; Mrs. E. F. Belk, Mooresville; Mrs. Charles Murray, Wagram; Perry Waters, Mooresville; and Claude Waters of Portsmouth, Virginia.

These are merely a few of the facts concerning the life of "a good minister of Jesus Christ." Those of us who were acquainted with Brother Waters know that he would be the last to desire a lengthy tribute or an extravagant eulogy. He never sought publicity in life; we know he would shun it in death. He was by nature retiring and humble and a lover of simplicity. He hated sham and pretense and insincerity. He had little patience with religion as mere pious sentiment; to him it was a matter of doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with God. Naturally, his going brings sadness to our hearts; but our grief is assuaged by the faith that he has forsaken the old pain-racked tabernacle in which he has lived these many years for a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. As he walked with his Lord all the days of his earthly life, we have the faith that he now sees Him face to face. His life will continue to inspire and to bless and to enrich. For though he be dead, he yet speaks.

Harold M. Robinson.

BEVERLY WILSON

July 7, 1875—November 1, 1949

Beverly Wilson was born July 7, 1875, in Lincoln County, the son of Coatsworth Lee and Margarete Huss Wilson. Passed to his reward November 1, 1949.

His early life was spent on the farm. He attended Rutherford College, and taught in the public Schools of Lincoln County for a number of years. He heard the call of the Master and was admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference, 1903.

He served the following Charges during the thirty-five years of his active ministry:

Lincoln Circuit, Shelby Circuit, Stanley Circuit, Catawba Circuit, Rutherford College, Mt. Pleasant, again Shelby Circuit, and the second time Catawba Circuit, Rural Hall, Marshville, Old Fort and Lowesville Circuit. Retiring 1938, returning to his old county town, Lincolnton, where he resided until his passing.

On May 3, 1896, he was married to Miss Minnie Petrie. To this union were born 12 children of whom ten with the mother survive: Mrs. J. B. Lowrance, Mrs. B. C. Clontz, Sly B. Wilson, Mrs. J. D. Penniger, Mrs. A. E. Gregory, Brice B. Wilson, R. L. Wilson, Mrs. D. B. Nichols, Mrs. Reggie Nichols, and Fred Wilson.

Brother Wilson was a valuable citizen, a devoted pastor and a faithful gospel preacher. He attended his work with diligence, kept careful and accurate records of every detail of his work and handled with skill his own private business matters. A layman who was very close to him said, "I consider Brother Wilson a most successful businessman, having reared twelve children to womanhood and manhood and having educated them on the meager salaries which he has had most of his ministry." He was constructive in his thinking and in his preaching.

He was a firm believer in the great truths of the Bible and in the cardinal doctrines of Methodism. He preached from a rich and satisfying personal experience: there never seemed to be any doubt, certainly no uncertain note, in his preaching as to a new life in Christ. He was thoughtful, considerate and kind. His friends loved him and we shall miss him, but we know where to find him.

The body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Bethel Church on the South Fork Circuit. Funeral service was conducted by Dr. W. A. Stanbury, his District Superintendent, and J. C. Cornette, his pastor.

BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS MODERATE RATES SPLENDID EQUIPMENT

LAKE JUNALUSKA ASSEMBLY, INC.

Lake Junaluska, N. C.

The central institution of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, located in the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, offers recreation, spiritual enrichment, and intellectual stimulation to the Methodists of the Southeast. The successful progress of the Greater Junaluska Campaign for $600,000 has made a new service available. In addition to the Terrace Hotel and Lambuth Inn, which have been renovated and now have splendid management, the Assembly has proved:

CAMP ADVENTURE

Now owned by the Assembly, the Camp is available to churches on a weekly rental basis. Rustic and in a natural setting, the Camp has two dozen cabins, recreation hall, dining hall, bath houses, and hospital. Churches may rent the Camp in whole or in part, providing their own management and personnel.

JUNALUSKA APARTMENTS

These fine modern apartments consist of two-room suites for four people. Most of them have kitchenettes. Rates are from $1.00 to $1.75 per day per person, with extra cots for parties of more than four persons furnished at 50 cents per day. Reservations must be made in advance, with deposit.

For information about these and all other services of the Assembly, write to:

DEDICATION

GEORGE HERMAN TERRY

September 26, 1885 — December 3, 1950

This Journal of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church is dedicated in loving memory of GEORGE HERMAN TERRY, devoted and unselfish layman who, in his generousities to his fellow men followed the injunctions of his Master in not letting "his left hand know what his right hand doeth"; and who for many years served his local church in able leadership and his Annual Conference in many helpful capacities—Secretary of the World Service Commission, moving spirit in the organization and development of The Methodist Home, and in strengthening the financial program of a "Greater Junaluska" and other Conference institutions.

JAMES BUCHANAN DUKE

In grateful appreciation of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference
for the contribution of the Duke Endowment

STANDING RULES, 1948-1951

Rules of Order and Procedure for the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church

I. RULES OF ORDER

1. The rules of the preceding Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference insofar as they may apply, otherwise Roberts' Rules of Order, Revised, shall govern the procedure of this Annual Conference.

II. ORGANIZATION

2. (1) The official roll call shall be the roll call cards signed by the Clerical and Lay members present.
3. (2) The Secretary: The Secretary of the Annual Conference shall be elected quadrennially by the Conference, at the first session following the General Conference, and on nominations arising from the floor.
4. (3) Assistant Secretaries: The Secretary shall nominate his assistants annually and the Conference shall elect.
5. (4) The Treasurer: The Conference Treasurer shall be elected, on nomination of the Commission on World Service and Finance, at the first session of the Conference following the General Conference. He shall serve for the quadrennium, or until his successor shall be elected and qualified. Discipline 1948, Paragraphs 790-92.
6. (5) Statisticians: The Conference Statistician shall be elected by the Conference on nomination of the Cabinet at the first session of the Conference following the General Conference; and shall serve for the quadrennium or until his successor is elected. The Conference shall elect annually an assistant statistician. There shall be district statisticians selected annually from the several districts, nominated by the District Superintendents, after consultation with the Conference Statistician, and approved by the Cabinet as a whole. It shall be the duty of the Conference Statistician, in keeping with paragraph 630, Discipline 1948, to compile and report the statistics of the Conference.
7. (6) Auditor: The Auditor shall be elected annually by the Conference on nomination of the Commission on World Service and Finance. Discipline 1948, Paragraph 1188.
8. (7) Conference Stenographer: The Conference Secretary shall employ the Conference Stenographer.
9. (8) Compensation: The Commission on World Service and Finance shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given the above officers for their services and also the method and/or amount for meeting the expenses of said offices. The Conference Treasurer shall pay these amounts from the Conference Expense Fund.

10. (9) Boards, Commissions and Committees: The Bishop and his Cabinet shall determine the size of and nominate the members to all Boards, Commissions and Committees of the Conference as authorized by the General Conference, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference and this Annual Conference, except in those cases in which the Discipline directs otherwise. The Cabinet is the Nominating Committee of the Conference. The recommendations and nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Conference.
11. (10) Board of Missions and Church Extension (1282): The District Superintendents, the District Missionary Secretaries, and the Chairman of the Conference Town and Country Commission shall be members of the Board of Missions and Church Extension.
12. (11) Board of Evangelism (1559): The District Secretaries of Evangelism shall be ex-officio members of the Board of Evangelism.
13. (12) Committee on World Peace (1581): The Committee on World Peace shall be constituted at the first session of the Annual Conference following the General Conference and shall serve for the quadrennium.
14. (13) Program Committee: There shall be a Program Committee of the Conference consisting of the Resident Bishop, the Conference Secretary, the Chairman of the Conference Entertainment Committee, the host District Superintendent and Pastor, and the Conference Lay Leader. This Committee shall determine the compensation and expenses for speakers invited by this Committee and the Treasurer shall pay expenses out of the Conference Expense Funds.
15. (14) Entertainment Committee: There shall be a Conference Entertainment Committee, composed of four ministers and three laymen. This Committee shall be elected at the first session of the Conference following the General Conference and shall serve for the quadrennium. It shall be the duty of the Committee to advise with the local entertainment committee; and, as the Conference shall direct, to determine the place and method of entertaining the Annual Conference sessions. The Conference Secretary shall be an ex-officio member of this Committee.
16. (15) (a) Committee on Memoirs: The ministers who are selected to prepare memoirs for deceased members of the Conference shall constitute the Committee on Memoirs for the year. The Cabinet shall appoint a chairman of this committee.
(b) The Memorial Service: There shall be held annually a memorial service at the time which the Program Committee shall determine. There shall be a printed memorial service program including the memoirs and the names of ministers and ministers' wives who have died during the year. The memoir shall be printed in the Conference Journal. There shall be one speaker, selected by the Program Committee, to deliver the memorial address.
17. (16) Committee on Daily Minutes: A Committee of three members shall be elected annually to cooperate with the Secretary in ex-aming the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference before they are read to the Conferenc for final correction and approval.

18. (17) Courtesies and Introductions: At the first session of the Conference annually there shall be elected a Committee on Courtesies and Introductions.
19. (18) Resolutions: The Conference shall elect annually a Committee on Resolutions and all resolutions to be presented to the Conference shall clear through this Committee.
20. (19) Conference Journal: At the first session of the Conference, following the General Conference, there shall be elected a quadrennial Committee on the Publication of the Conference Journal. This Committee shall be composed of three ministers and two laymen. The Editor of the Conference Journal shall be an ex-officio member of this committee but without vote. The Committee shall consult with the Editor of the Conference Journal, accept bids for printing the Journal, and make recommendations to the Conference regarding the publication of the Journal.
21. (20) Bible Board: The Conference shall constitute a quadrennial Bible Board at the session of the Conference following the General Conference.
22. (21) Appeals: There shall be a quadrennial Committee on Appeals composed of five members, two ministers and three laymen, with one minister and one layman as reserves. This Committee shall hear appeals of Quarterly Conferences from decisions of District Boards of Location and Building and from decisions of arbitration committees constituted to make allocation of parsonage assets when a circuit is divided, and shall make recommendations to the Annual Conference. (Paragraph 258, 1948 Discipline.)
23. (22) Rules: At the first session of the Conference, following the General Conference there shall be elected a quadrennial Committee on Rules composed of three ministers and two laymen. The report of this Committee shall be made at the first session of the Conference annually, and as often during the sessions as necessary.

III. REPORTS AND RESOLUTIONS

24. (1) All reports and resolutions presented to the Conference shall be written, typewritten if possible, in triplicate. Two copies of the reports shall be given to the Secretary as soon as the report is completed by the Board or Committees. Two copies of all resolutions shall be in the hands of the Secretary before the resolution can be presented to the Conference for consideration. [See also rule 19 (18).]
25. (2) All reports of Boards, Committees and Commissions of the Conference shall be placed on the calendar of the Conference in order the reports are received by the Conference Secretary; and the reports shall be presented to the Conference for consideration in the order of the calendar.

26. (3) Any amendment offered to any report or proposal and all motions of more than a single sentence must be in writing and a copy in the hands of the Secretary when presented to the Conference for consideration.
27. (4) The report of the Commission on World Service and Finance shall be presented in printed form at least one business session prior to official consideration and action.

IV. MINISTERIAL CHARACTER

28. Ministerial Characters shall be passed in open Conference, provided that the Conference may order an executive session of the ministerial members to consider questions relating to matters of ordination, character and Conference relations. Discipline 1948, Paragraph 646.

V. LAYMEN AND LAY MEMBERS TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

29. (1) The District and the Associate District Lay Leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on nomination of the District Superintendents and the Conference Lay Leader. Discipline 1948, Paragraph 1499.
30. (2) Lay members, regular and reserves, Discipline 1948, Paragraph 146 (8), from the pastoral charges to the Annual Conference shall be elected annually by the Quarterly Conference at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting of the Annual Conference.
31. (3) The District Superintendent shall complete the list of lay members elected to the Annual Conference from the charges of his district at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting of the Annual Conference and shall transmit the list to the Conference Secretary immediately.

VI. PASTORS' REPORTS TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

32. (1) Each pastor shall complete table I of his annual report to the Conference and send the report to his District Superintendent not later than fifteen days before the Conference convenes.
33. (2) Table II shall be completed and turned in to the Conference Treasurer on the first day of the Conference session.
34. (3) Both tables shall be filled in by individual churches with totals for the charge.
35. (4) Finances shall be reported in even dollars only.
36. (5) Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal only by charges.
37. (6) A third table of individual church reports, as approved by the Annual Conference, shall be compiled by the Conference Statistician from the other table, and this shall also be printed in the Conference Journal.

VII. THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

38. (1) Editor: The Conference Secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing the Conference Journal in keeping with the regulations of the General and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conferences and under the direction of the Conference Committee on the Publication of the Journal.
39. (2) Number printed: The number of copies ordered for the current year by the pastors and District Superintendents shall determine the number of copies of the Journal to be printed for the year.
40. (3) Bids for Printing: The Committee on the Publication of the Journal shall get at least three bids from reputable printers before letting the contract for the printing of the Journal. [See also Rule 20 (19).]
41. (4) Journals shall be shipped to the charges only on current order of the pastor or District Superintendent; and orders must be received by the Conference Secretary not later than thirty days after the adjournment of the Annual Conference.
42. (5) Each pastor or charge treasurer shall remit for the entire shipment of Journals promptly on the receipt of the same, except as provided by rule 44 (7).
43. (6) Each charge shall remit the fund received from the sale of Conference Journals directly to the Conference Treasurer.
44. (7) Each ministerial member, conference claimant, and lay member of the Annual Conference shall be sent one copy of the Journal each year without charge. All other copies, except those used strictly in official Conference business and those sent to Boards, Commissions and Committees, shall be sold at $1.00 each, or single copies by mail, $1.10 each.

VIII. DISTRICTS

45. (1) There shall be ten Districts in this Annual Conference.
46. (2) A District Conference shall be held annually in each District.
47. (3) The Committee on Records of each pastoral charge shall examine the Quarterly Conference Records of that charge and submit a written report to the District Conference, which report shall be referred to a special committee of the District Conference. Discipline 1948, Paragraphs 669 (12) and 147 (7).
48. (4) Each pastoral charge shall elect annually four delegates to the District Conference. These shall be in addition to those named by the Discipline as ex-officio members of the District Conference.
49. (5) The Superintendent of each District shall be required to furnish the Bishop, the Conference Treasurer, and the Conference Statistician, as early in the Conference year as possible, an official copy of the apportionments to the charges for World Service and Conference Benevolences and the amount accepted by the charge and by each church on the charge.

50. (6) The District Superintendent, as early in the Conference year as possible, shall furnish the Bishop in Charge and the Conference Treasurer a schedule of the salaries of the pastors and associate pastors, as set by the first Quarterly Conference.
51. (7) All District Treasurers shall be elected by the first District Conference, following the General Conference, on nomination of the District Superintendent, and shall serve for four years.

IX. LOCAL PREACHERS

52. (1) No candidate for license to preach shall receive that license until he shall have passed by written examination the prescribed course of study. [Journal 1943, page 56 and Discipline 1948, Paragraph 302 (1) (c).]
53. (2) No local preacher or preacher on trial unless ordained Elder can administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.
54. (3) A local preacher shall work only under the supervision of his pastor and/or District Superintendent. Any violation of this provision of the Discipline constitutes mal-administration and shall forfeit the right for the renewal of the license until the District Conference shall be satisfied that the local preacher will obey the law of the church. (Discipline 1948, Paragraphs 306, 308). This Provision does not supersede the law applicable to Accepted Supply pastors.
55. (4) The Annual Conference shall provide entertainment for Accepted Supply pastors and for other local preachers serving as supply pastors on the same basis as for ministerial members.

X. AMENDMENTS

56. These Standing Rules may be, by a two-thirds vote, amended on the next day after an amendment has been presented in writing; provided, the rule fixing the number of districts and concerning the Conference Journal may be amended by a majority vote; provided further, a change in the number of districts cannot be made later than the second morning of the Conference session.

XI. WHEN THESE RULES BECOME EFFECTIVE

57. (1) These Standing Rules of the Western North Carolina Conference shall become effective immediately upon passage by the vote of the majority of the members of the Conference present and voting.
58. (2) These rules, as they may be amended from time to time, shall be effective for all the sessions of this Conference during the quadrennium 1948-1951.

Daily Proceedings

1951 Session

Western North Carolina Annual Conference The Methodist Church

FIRST DAY—TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1951

Evening Session

Conference Convened: Bishop Costen J. Harrell, Resident Bishop of the Charlotte Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, The Methodist Church, called to order the 1951 session of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference in West Market Street Methodist Church, Greensboro, North Carolina, at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, September 25, 1951.

Memorial Service: The Annual Memorial Service of the Conference was led by Bishop Harrell assisted by Herman F. Duncan and the Secretary of the Conference. The music for the service was under the direction of Mrs. Lucas C. Abels with the choir of West Market Street Methodist Church. The Secretary announced that during the Conference year L. B. Abernethy, G. L. Curry, T. F. Higgins, W. L. Hutchins, D. A. Oakley, J. A. Peeler, M. A. Osborne, P. A. Sherrill, R. A. Swaringen, and W. A. Wilson, clerical members of the Conference, and Mesdames W. F. Ashburn, H. C. Byrum, G. W. Clay, John P. Davis, L. H. Griffith, G. E. Hunt, W. R. Jenkins, R. P. Jones, A. C. Kennedy, W. F. Kennett, C. M. Pickens, D. S. Richardson, T. T. Salyer, H. C. Sprinkle, W. A. Wilson, minister's wives, have died.

The Memorial Sermon, "They Were Builders in Their Day," was preached by W. A. Stanbury. The sermon follows:

Eph. 4: 10-16

On November 19, 1863, Abraham Lincoln spoke from a small improvised platform on the site of the famous battle of Gettysburg, and in the course of his brief but immortal address said, of the men who had struggled there, some of them living, some of them dead, "The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here; but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced."

So I would say today, it is not very important what we say here; but what these men whom we commemorate, soldiers of the Cross in the great and unending warfare of the good, did while they were among us and before the evening fell neither we nor the world that knew them can ever forget. For in their day, though doubtless having the imperfections and short-comings which affect us all in one way or another, they fought the good fight and have won the service stripes of the kingdom and wear now the victor's crown.

Or, if you change the figure of speech and speak of them as builders of the kingdom rather than soldiers—and this is a figure more nearly true—they spent their days toiling to build the edifice of the church, a living edifice, which is the body of Christ. They labored and strove, whatever the odds or forces against them, to build men up into Christ and in Him men and women and little children, until all should attain to the unity of the faith in the knowledge of the Son of God, and to mature manhood and the stature of full-grown men in Christ.

Really, I suppose, it does not make much difference what figure of speech we employ; so if we speak of them as soldiers, or builders, or cultivators of growing things, or educators of growing men, we shall be understood. At least we shall sin against the language no more than Paul, who in one stroke of the pen said, "Ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building."

Let us then think of our brethren departed, of who and what they were, of what they did, and of the contribution they made to the building of God's church, to the lifting of the level of men's thinking and living, to the cultivation of better things, and to the making of better men. And as we think there comes to us inevitably, or at least to me, a few thoughts to which I believe we ought to give utterance.

I

First of all in their ministry, it seems to me, they were dedicated, under the call of God and the commission of Christ, to the business of growth, growth for themselves in all the Christian graces and services, and growth for the people they served. They wanted people under their care, and people everywhere, and all people, as I have said, to "arrive at mature manhood and the stature of full-grown men in Christ." In their day and way they set forth to "reform the continent and spread scriptural holiness over these lands."

Amid all the miseries of men, the thwarted and blasted lives of women and children, the ravages of war, the riot of wickedness, cruelty and corruption of the time, amid all the pain and sorrow and woe of a world groping and writhing in its sin and darkness—amid it all, these men believed that the lot and lives of men could be better, that Christ could redeem and save, that a ladder could be lifted betwixt Heaven and Charing Cross, that the Kingdom could be built in England's and America's green and pleasant land, that Bibles are more potent than bombs, that crosses are mightier than swords, that the gates of hell shall not prevail against the hosts of God.

They did not expect that this Kingdom of God would come with the rising of tomorrow's sun, any more than they expected an acorn to become a great oak in a single summer. But to the cause of the growth of this kingdom they gave all they had and all they were, with prayers upon their lips and with great compassions in their hearts, and with the battle-cries of love upon their lips.

So year after year, decade after decade, they built undiscourageably on, that in the husbandry of God and the building of God they might grow and others might grow up into the likeness of Christ. Who shall ever be able to say how much they built, how securely, how enduringly? Is not a life built up in the image of Christ a thing of beauty and a joy forever? How many they brought to Him, our Lord, and how they helped them grow and built them up over the years!

How the world and the church and every man and woman in it need this kind of building! "Let all things be done unto edifying," says Paul, or as another rendering gives it, "Let everything be done with a view to building." These men, good men, true men, lived their lives with a view to building. They were builders in their day.

II

Then, as I have been saying already, in one way or another, these men for all their years of labor, were on the side of the good, of the better, of the ideal, of the angels. While they fought against the evil in themselves, in others, and in their world, and let us say in the church, too; they saw the best in the people around them and strove to bring it to fruition. Despite all the heart-breaks of our world and the evil that seems so strong, despite the demonic forces of hate and destruction so rampant in our modern societies, despite all appearances that evil is almighty, they lived by a faith that was the substance of good things hoped for; they believed that on the throne of things and of our universe there is a heart of eternal goodness. They believed that the cross of Christ is not an accident, or just another triumph of bitterness and cruel injustice, but that it is the dramatization of the only power that can finally overcome and win the world or the heart of every man in it, the power of suffering and redemptive love.

To being agents of that love, not seldom at great cost to themselves and their families, they dedicated their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor. Ofttimes upon their knees in the deep night hours, in supplication for themselves and intercession for others, they poured out their hearts, in the faith that God would hear and forgive and save. There was nothing too little to do and no price too great to pay, if they felt duty impelling them, or the need of their people pressing upon them, or the voice of God speaking in their ears. It is fitting that we should as one man, with one heart and one voice, give thanks and praise to God.

Just here I am reminded of two things which I pass on to you. There is a verse taken from the Book of Ecclesiasticus (33: 17) which will be printed on the title page of a biography of the late Dr. William P. Few now soon to appear. It reads, "Consider that I labored not for myself only but for all them that seek learning." We may consider that these men labored for and with all that seek to learn of Christ, and for the relief of man's estate and for the glory of God.

Then, here is this, a sentence which a friend of ours, the late Joseph H. Separk, wrote for his own eyes only, but which was found among his papers after his death:

I have learned through experience and observation that things in themselves do not bring happiness nor contentment in life, but that only those who have dedicated themselves to a high resolve to regard spiritual values as of chief importance can ever attain unto a high level of happiness and satisfaction in this life.

My purpose holds so to live and act that when I shall have passed from this life to another, men can say of me that I hated sham, pretense and hypocrisy, and that I, within the limits of my capacity, served well my day and generation.

Have not these brethren of our hated sham and loved righteousness and truth, and been the champions and advocates of goodness, wrought on the side of the angels, and served well their day and generation?

Let me illustrate this a little further, for I believe this matter of being an agent for the divine love is both a more difficult and a far simpler matter than most of us realize. To be such takes all there is of a man, whether he is great and influential, or one of the little people generally unknown and unsung. It is a question of dedication and of diligent work.

Not long ago there appeared in a periodical right generally circulated among ministers (Christian Century, July 18, 1951, p. 840f.) a word about just this kind of thing. Two French physicians, a generation ago now, had set themselves to develop some kind of treatment which would help reduce the prevalence and often fatal issue of tuberculosis, especially among children. Says this periodical,

Some time before his death Dr. Calmette wrote, "I trust it will be given me to work till my eyes close, shutting out the light, and I can go to sleep—my soul in peace—with the knowledge that I have done what I could."

Assuredly, these men of whom we are thinking tonight did what they could; and so they fell on sleep with little to regret, and much good labor done for which all of us give thanks.

As I have thought of them, a few lines of one of George Eliot's poems come to mind:

If you sit down at set of sun,
And count the acts that you have done,
And, counting, find
One self-denying deed, one word
That eased the heart of him who heard;
One glance most kind,
That fell like sunshine where it went
Then you may count that day well spent.

How many such days they spent, and how like sunshine their lives fell, like the healing shadow of Peter as he walked the streets of the city, upon bruised and broken men and women—and upon aspiring and dream-led youth, too—giving healing, restoration, comfort, peace, joy and unquenchable hope!

Truly they were on the side of all good and all good men. They fought on the side of the angels, and they won, not as was said of Shelley, "beating in the void his luminous wings in vain"; but down-to-earth, practical men that they were, they brought to good men and bad, the little and also the great things they needed when they needed them. Faithful in little, they were also faithful in much, and have been able, I believe, to give a good accounting of their stewardship. I doubt not their Lord and ours has said to them, each in his turn, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

III

Then let us put it still another way. They lived and labored by love.

In a hard world they soothed and sustained and comforted those whom the world, life, affliction, defeat, sorrow and pain were too much for. Who is there, where can people be found, who do not need a ministry of healing and sympathy and understanding love for their souls? To aching hearts they brought solace and kindness. Where leaden skies seemed to have settled down and shut out hope, they brought encouragement and a way of escape. Into places where there was darkness they entered bringing a certain radiance not of this world. They were good men whose surname, as was that of one of Bunyan's characters, might have been called "Help."

It was not the sermons they preached, though these were not just "sermons" but passionate and compassionate messages out of their hearts from God. It was that they were men sent of God to bring help, and live the Gospel they loved to preach. Although they were mighty in the Scriptures and men heard them gladly and with much profit, it was the way they lived, the warmth and radiance of their faces, their kindness of judgment and accent of speech, that counted. How often have people said to me, speaking of pastors they have had, "He was a good preacher; and yet I do not remember his sermons so much. He just lived here, and visited us in our troubles and loved our young people and did us all good. It was a blessing just to see him, and to have him come into our houses."

For these, you see, were men in touch with another world. They felt, as Wordsworth said of himself, a Presence that disturbed them with the joy of elevated thoughts, and they gave us all

That best portion of a good man's life—
His little, nameless unremembered acts
Of kindness and of love.

IV

There is a fourth thing I would say about these men: Their constant Great Companion was Christ. They moved among men, and were glad to greet and serve their friends, even as their friends were glad to see them and greet them from time to time.

But Christ was the great and governing Fact of their lives. Without Him you cannot understand them or explain them. For they walked with Him upon high adventure; like a great exemplar and Apostle of many centuries ago, they could have said, each of himself, "To me to live is Christ."

They were concerned about many things, as busy pastors must be. But they had always to be about their Father's business, they had always to follow the Master, their great concern night and day was to work the works of Him who sent them. They were men with a mission, and He who sent them on it was with them wherever they were, whatever they were doing.

Not yet perfect, their hearts did not fail, and they were faithful, experiencing the ups and downs of the itinerant life, and, at times, doubtless disappointed, their high and unflagging loyalty was to Him in whom they believed; and fidelity is one of the supreme virtues of life. In whatsoever circumstances, they deemed it their high calling and their privilege to "speak a gude word for Jesus Christ."

And as they kept close to Him, they have I think a word for us: "Stay close to Christ." They say it to us who are older, to us who are sometimes tempted to grow weary and discouraged in the way. They say it to us who are younger, and who face the world from the region of the sunrise. And we all need their godly admonition. Have we not often seen, in our ministry, young men starting out to serve with high hopes? And who has not seen some of them hurt by ambitions for place, for advancement, for preferment? There is nothing that will more surely poison a man's inner life, or be more destructive of his influence for good among his brethren than selfish ambitions or restless aspirations for place. I have lived a long time now as a Methodist preacher, and out of this experience I bring you this testimony on my own account and from my observation of others. I have seen good men not a few become embittered, hardened, poisoned by such a spirit, and defeated of what should have been their great aim to serve the people in the name and spirit of Christ, who was Himself never a "prince of the church," but the lowly servant of lowly people, who went about humbly doing good, and who died at last upon a cross.

And I think that if they could speak to us out of their present dwelling-place they would say to us, warning us against all evil and all subtle temptations to compromise of our ideals and admonishing us to all good, "Stay close to Christ, stay close to Christ, stay close to Christ."

Well, let us remember that our Lord, as Paul says, gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, some to be pastors and teachers; and that all of these He gave for perfecting the saints, for the work of the ministry, for building up the body of Christ.

These our brethren, gone from us for a little while, but now in a world where it may be a man's reach no longer exceeds his grasp, beckon us to higher things for Christ, and are themselves a beacon lighting the way to God.

Thank God we had them for a while, and for so long, and pray that we may be worthy followers in their train, till the day is over, and the march is ended, and the sun sets, and the stars of eternity come out, and we too go to our long home, and above these voices there is peace at length, in a land where our God himself is sun and moon, and there is no night.

Holy Communion: Following the Memorial Sermon, the Holy Communion was administered by Bishop Harrell assisted by the District Superintendents and Eugene C. Few, pastor of the host church. Bishop Harrell gave the benediction and the evening session was adjourned.

SECOND DAY, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1951

Morning Session

Devotions: The morning session for the second day of the 1951 Conference was called to order at 9:00 o'clock by Bishop Harrell. The Conference joined in singing the hymn, "Blessed Assurance." Bishop Harrell led the prayer and the Conference united in praying the Lord's Prayer. The Conference Quartet composed of J. B. Hurley, E. H. Nease, Jr., M. V. Thumm, and A. M. Faulkner, sang, "Lord Jesus, I Love Thee." The devotional message by Bishop Harrell was on the subject, "What Is the Greatest Commandment?" Following the devotional message, the Conference Quartet sang "Pass Me Not, O Gentle Saviour."

Roll Call: C. W. Bates, Roll Call Secretary, announced that the following had signed roll call cards for the first session of the Conference: Clerical Members, 369; Accepted Supply Pastors, 39; Lay Members, 112; and Reserve Lay Members seated, 35. Elected Elder: K. E. Beane was elected to Elders Orders under the missionary rule for service in the chaplaincy.

Pension Credit: R. Dwight Ware made the motion that since R. W. Richardson was denied admission on trial at the last Conference through no fault of his own and because his credentials were not sent to the Board of Ministerial Training in time and since Mr. Richardson has served as a full-time supply pastor during the Conference year now ending, that the pension credit for R. W. Richardson begin as of September 21, 1950. This motion was adopted.

First Ballot for Clerical and Lay Delegates: The Conference Secretary announced that the clerical membership of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference entitles the Conference to eight clerical and eight lay delegates to the General Conference of 1952 and 18 clerical and 18 lay delegates to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference of 1952. Bishop Harrell explained the plans and procedure for voting, the tellers took their places and the first ballot for clerical and lay delegates to the General Conference was taken. The tellers retired to count the votes.

Benediction: At 12:40 p.m. the benediction was given by C. W. Robbins, editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, and the morning session was adjourned.

Afternoon Session

Devotions: With the organ prelude, the Wednesday afternoon session and preaching hour was called to order at 3:00. The congregation joined in singing, "Above the Hills of Time" and "I Need Thee Every Hour." The prayer was made by C. E. Rozzelle. The music for the afternoon was led by the Greensboro College Glee Club which also gave the special music for the service.

Sermon: Bishop W. Earl Ledden, resident bishop of the Syracuse Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, was presented to the Conference by Bishop Harrell as the Conference preacher. Bishop Ledden preached the sermon on "Called to Belong to Jesus Christ." Following the sermon, the Conference united in singing, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

Ballot Report: The report of the first clerical ballot for delegates to the General Conference was that there was no election; and a second ballot for eight delegates was taken. The report of the first ballot for lay delegates was made and Paul F. Evans having received a majority of the votes was elected. A second lay ballot for seven delegates was taken and the tellers retired to count the votes. The secretary announced to the Conference that letters from Brothers A. G. Dixon, E. Myers, G. I. Humphreys, A. R. Bell, S. A. Stewart, and A. Burgess were received expressing their regrets because they could not attend the session and sending greetings to the brethren.

Excused: F. W. Kiker and W. B. Thompson, because of the illness of their wives and C. C. Benton because of illness, were excused from the sessions of the Conference.

Report: The report of the Superannuate Endowment was presented by the secretary and ordered to record. (See Reports)

Introduction: C. W. Robbins, editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, was presented to the Conference.

Adjournment: The afternoon session was adjourned at 4:30 o'clock with the benediction.

Evening Session

The evening session for Wednesday was convened by Bishop Harrell at 7:30 o'clock.

Ballots: The report of the second clerical ballot showed that E. H. Blackard was elected a delegate to the General Conference; and the third ballot for seven delegates was taken. The report of the second lay ballot showed that Edwin L. Jones and O. V. Woosley were elected as lay delegates to the General Conference. The third lay ballot for five delegates was taken. The tellers retired to count the ballots.

Introductions: Dr. W. F. Quillian, Executive Secretary of the South-eastern Jurisdictional Council, Chaplain Fred C. Reynolds, Assistant Secretary of the Methodist Commission on Chaplains, and Rev. E. D. C. Brewer, who is transferring from the North Carolina Conference, were presented to the Conference. Dr. Quillian and Chaplain Reynolds spoke to the Conference.

Hour of Evangelism: Bishop Harrell asked Ralph H. Taylor, Chairman of the Conference Board of Evangelism, to preside. The organ prelude "Introspection" was given by Mrs. Lucas C. Abels, Director of Music of West Market Street Church. The choir led in singing, "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing" and the prayer was led by J. R. Hamilton. The report of the Board of Evangelism was read by J. B. McLarty, and unanimously adopted (See reports). Pending the adoption of the report, the male chorus of West Market Street Methodist Church sang "Where Is God" by Finley Lyon. Three addresses on "Evangelism in Every Methodist Church" were given by R. H. Nicholson, J. A. Lindsey, and W. J. Miller.

Christian Vocation: The report of the Commission on Christian Vocation was read by Rollin P. Gibbs and adopted. (See reports)

Leave of Absence: Joe E. Caldwell was granted a leave of absence of the remaining sessions of the Conference so that he might enter school; and W. A. Rock, Jr., and A. G. Lackey were excused from the Thursday sessions in order that they might conduct funerals.

Cole Foundation: The report of the E. M. Cole Foundation was presented by the Secretary. Marshall I. Pickens was elected a trustee, the term to expire 1954, and the report was ordered to record (See reports).

Ballots Reported: The report of the third lay and clerical ballots were reported. Guy Weaver was elected a lay delegate. There was no clerical election. The fourth lay ballot for four lay delegates and the fourth clerical ballot for seven delegates were taken and the tellers retired to count the ballots. The Conference voted that only the names of those elected should be printed in the tabulation of the ballots in the Annual Conference Journal.

Conference Claimants: Report Number 1 of the Board of Conference Claimants was offered by J. H. Armbrust and adopted (See reports). This report called attention to Paragraph 624 of the Discipline of 1948 and named the Executive Committee of the Board as the Committee of Proportional Payment on Ministerial Support. The Conference voted to give the Board permission to print allotments to claimants in the Conference Journal without reading.

Adjournment: At 9:35 p.m. the evening session was adjourned with the benediction given by J. J. Holmes.

THIRD DAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1951

Morning Session

Devotions: The morning session of the third day of the 1951 Annual Conference was called to order by Bishop Harrell at 9:00 a.m., Thursday, September 27, 1951. The Conference united in singing the hymn, "O Sometimes the Shadows Are Deep." The morning prayer was led by Bishop W. Earl Ledden and the Conference united in praying The Lord's Prayer. The Conference Quartet sang "Brightly Beams Our Father's Mercy." Bishop Harrell brought the devotional message on "Finding Life," and the Conference Quartet sang "Spirit of God, Descend Upon My Heart."

Roll Call: C. W. Bates, Roll Call Secretary, announced that since the report on roll call Wednesday morning, 55 ministerial members, two accepted supply pastors, and 95 lay delegates have signed the roll call cards. In addition 22 reserve lay members have been seated.

Dr. Pickens Presented. Bishop Harrell presented C. M. Pickens, a retired member of this Conference, and spoke of his long and faithful service to the Church. Attention was called to the fact that this is the 59th session of the Annual Conference Dr. Pickens has attended.

Ballots: The report of the fourth clerical and lay ballots for delegates to the General Conference were given. P. L. Shore, clerical, and Paul R. Ervin, lay, having received a majority of the votes cast in their respective orders, were declared elected. The fifth ballot for six clerical delegates and the fifth ballot for three lay members were taken and the tellers retired to count the ballots.

Check for Conference Claimants: After Bishop Harrell had called attention to some outstanding new books, he presented A. R. White, Manager of the Richmond branch of the Methodist Publishing House. Mr. White called attention to three books by Bishop Harrell and stated that the new condensation of Wesley Journal is now available. Mr. White presented to the Conference from the Publishing House a check for $8,195.14, the amount from the Publishing House to our Conference Claimants.

Conference Brotherhood: Bishop Harrell asked H. G. Allen, President of the Conference Brotherhood, to preside. J. G. Wilkinson, Secretary, read the report of the Brotherhood and the report was adopted. The Treasurer's report was ordered to record (See reports). The report of the Nominations Committee was presented and the following officers were elected: President, H. G. Allen; Vice-President, R. C. Goforth; Secretary and Treasurer, J. G. Wilkinson; Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, S. G. Ferree; Director of the Layman's Division, Edwin L. Jones; other members of the Executive Committee, W. A. Stanbury, E. H. Blackard, C. C. Herbert, Jr., and J. W. Braxton. Bishop Harrell resumed the chair.

Reports: Report Number 2 of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications was ordered to record without reading. W. A. Stanbury presented the report of the Committee on Rules and it was adopted. Dr. Stanbury also presented the report of the Inter-Conference Commission on Wesley Foundation and this report was ordered to record without reading. (See Reports)

Junaluska Campaign: Edwin L. Jones, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Lake Junaluska Assembly, spoke concerning the Lake Junaluska Development Campaign, urging laymen and preachers to see that the pledges to this objective be paid on time.

Excused: B. Joseph Martin was excused for the Friday sessions and W. T. Medlin, Jr., was excused to conduct a funeral.

Resolution on Duke Fund: W. A. Stanbury presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLUTION
CONCERNING THE DUKE ENDOWMENT AND ITS CONTRIBUTION TO THE WORK OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN NORTH CAROLINA

Whereas, by indenture dated December 11, 1924, Mr. Jas. B. Duke established The Duke Endowment with provision for the inauguration and support of many benevolences, and with an eye steadily fixed upon the social and moral good of the people of his native state and section of the country; and

Whereas, The Methodist Church in North Carolina, with many of the institutions founded and in part supported by the church, were singled out for special attention and largess; and

Whereas, little formal recognition of these benefactions has been made by this Annual Conference up to the present time; and

Whereas, The Duke Endowment has since its beginning and through December 31, 1950, made the following gifts to the causes of the church itself and to church connected institutions:

Duke University, Durham, N. C. (incl. Duke Hospital)	$51,857,361.71

(It is to be noted that in addition to the above, Mr. Duke provided, and there was accordingly paid from principal, $17,000,000 toward the building of Duke University, thus making a total of $67,857,361.71 for Duke University, and a grand total of all gifts of $72,985,360.62. This does not take account of many generous gifts made by Mr. Duke to Trinity College and other colleges, orphanages, etc., or of those made by his father and other members of his family, notably Mr. Benjamin N. Duke);

Therefore Be It Resolved:

1. That we, the members of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, hereby express and record our profound gratitude for the gifts enumerated above, and for the great and immeasurable good results realized because of them;

2. That we invite the ministers and members of our churches to write or otherwise send messages to the offices of The Duke Endowment in Charlotte, N. C., or at 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York 20, New York, giving utterance to our appreciation; and to Mr. C. B. Markham, Treasurer of Duke University, Durham, concerning his services as distributing Treasurer of funds provided to aid in the erection of rural churches in North Carolina;

3. That a copy of this Resolution, signed by the President and Secretary of this Conference, be sent to Mr. Alex H. Sands, Jr., Secretary of The Duke Endowment, at the New York office.

That the North Carolina Christian Advocate publish this resolution and give it to the press throughout the country.

Recess: The Conference was recessed for 15 minutes and re-convened as J. H. Armbrust led the congregation in singing "Am I a Soldier of the Cross?"

Ballots: The report of the fifth lay ballot was presented and there was no election. H. F. Duncan received a majority of the votes cast on the fifth clerical ballot and was declared elected. The sixth lay ballot for three delegates and the sixth clerical ballot for five delegates were taken, and the tellers retired to count the votes.

Introductions: Dr. H. B. Porter, Dr. A. S. Parker, Rev. E. F. Smith, and Dr. H. P. Powell of the North Carolina Annual Conference, Dean James Cannon III of the Duke Divinity School, Rev. L. M. McCoy of the East China Conference, and Colonel Milton O. Bebee, retired Army Chaplain, member of the Illinois Conference, and a resident of Greensboro, were presented to the Conference.

Lay Activities: Bishop Harrell presented Paul F. Evans, Conference Lay Leader, to preside. Mr. Evans asked Dr. L. L. Gobbel to present the speaker. Dr. Gobbel presented Dr. A. Hollis Edens, President of Duke University, and Dr. Edens spoke on "The Layman and His Church." The report of the Lay Leader was presented and, after some suggestions by

W. A. Stanbury regarding the date of Layman's Day, was adopted (See reports). Bishop Harrell expressed appreciation to Dr. Edens for his address and to Paul F. Evans, who is retiring as Conference Lay Leader, for his services to this Conference. The Conference stood in appreciation for the services of Mr. Evans. Dr. L. L. Gobbel was elected Conference Lay Leader.

Journal Price: The Commission on World Service and Finance presented a recommendation that the price of the Conference Journal be increased. Since this involves a change in the standing rules, the report was laid on the table for consideration at the session tomorrow.

Sixth Ballot: The report of the sixth lay ballot revealed that Mrs. J. W. Payne and Dr. L. L. Gobbel had received a majority of the votes cast. They were declared elected and the seventh lay ballot for one delegate was taken. The report of the sixth clerical ballot showed that W. A. Kale with a majority of the votes was elected, and the seventh clerical ballot for four delegates was taken. The tellers retired to count the votes.

Report: The report of the auditor for the Treasurer of the Board of Missions was presented and ordered to record without reading. (See Reports)

Adjournment: At 12:35 o'clock, the morning session was adjourned with the benediction.

Afternoon Session

Devotions: The Thursday afternoon session and preaching hour was called to order by Bishop Harrell at 3 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, September 27, 1951. After the Conference had joined in singing, "Faith of Our Fathers" and "Take Time to Be Holy," the prayer was led by Dr. David Jones, President of Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina. Dr. Jones made a statement of appreciation to the Conference for the support given Bennett College as expressed in the Race Relations Day offerings directed to Bennett College. Dr. Jones, then presented Miss Dorsett, Director of the college choir, and the choir sang an anthem.

Sermon: Bishop Ledden preached the sermon on "Let All the Earth Keep Silence Before Him" and the Conference sang, "Thou, My Everlasting Portion."

Conference 1952: Bishop Harrell called the question, "Where shall the Conference of 1952 be held?" E. H. Blackard, Chairman of the Conference Entertainment Committee, presented Edwin L. Jones and Lee F. Tuttle. Mr. Jones invited the Conference to meet at Lake Junaluska and Mr. Tuttle presented the invitation from First Church, Charlotte, North Carolina. The invitation to Lake Junaluska was declined by vote of the Conference, and then on the motion of Mr. Jones the invitation by First Church, Charlotte, was unanimously accepted.

Seventh Ballot: Bishop Harrell asked W. A. Stanbury to preside and the report of the seventh lay ballot resulted in no election and the eighth ballot for one lay delegate was taken. The report of the seventh clerical ballot showing no election, the eighth clerical ballot was taken for four delegates. The tellers retired to count the votes.

Introduction: Bishop Harrell resumed the chair and presented Paul W. Yount, Jr., Probationer of this Conference, who has been teaching in Japan for three years. The report of the World Service Commission was distributed.

Elected Deacons: Giving further answer to question 28, "Who are elected deacons?" the following have been duly recommended, were elected to deacon's orders: W. B. Bobbitt, Jr., T. L. Lindsay, J. B. Golden, M. G. Widenhouse and A. A. Wilson under the seminary rule and P. M. Cassell, W. C. Crummett and C. D. Pyatt as members in the course of study.

Adjournment: After the benediction, the afternoon session was adjourned with the announcement that the evening session will be convened at 7:30 in the Odell Memorial Hall of Greensboro College.

Evening Session

Devotions: At 7:30, Thursday, September 27, Bishop Harrell called the evening session to order in Odell Memorial Hall, Greensboro College. The music for the session was under the direction of Professor E. L. Williams of Greensboro College, who directed a choir representing the following rural churches: Bethlehem, Brookstown, Friendship, Lee's Chapel, Mt. Pisgah, Pleasant Garden, and Summerfield. The responsive reading and the invocation were led by C. O. Kennerly.

Eighth Ballot: The report of the eighth clerical ballot showed that Carl H. King and Lee F. Tuttle were elected clerical members of the General Conference. The report of the eighth lay ballot showed there was no election. The ninth clerical and lay ballots were taken and the tellers retired to count the votes.

Town and Country Commission: Bishop Harrell asked Garland R. Stafford of the Town and Country Commission to preside, and Mr. Stafford directed the service, presenting "Highlights of the National Methodist Town and Country Conference Held in Sioux City, Iowa, July 21-24, 1951" and "Town and Country Work in the Western North Carolina Conference." The reports on the Sioux City Conference were given by A. W. Wellons, E. H. Lowman, J. J. Shepard, G. L. Goodson, H. M. Willis, Mrs. Rupert Crowell, John A. Lowder, W. B. A. Culp, E. H. Blackard, and Mrs. J. W. Payne. The work of the Commission in the Conference was presented by Ernest Stephens and Wilson Nesbitt.

Ballots: The ninth clerical and lay ballots were reported and there were no elections. The tenth ballots for lay and clerical delegates were taken and the tellers retired to count the votes.

Adjournment: Bishop Harrell gave the benediction and at 9:40 p.m. the evening session was adjourned.

FOURTH DAY, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1951

Morning Session

Devotions: Bishop Harrell called the fourth day sessions of 1951 Conference together at 9:00 o'clock and gave the morning devotions.

Secretary Ill: Bishop Harrell announced that Edgar H. Nease, Secretary to the Conference, who is serving for his nineteenth time as Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Conference and who has never before been absent from the desk more than five minutes at a time, was taken ill early this morning with pneumonia and is in a local hospital. The Conference expressed appreciation for the services of Mr. Nease and went on record expressing a hope for his immediate recovery. W. Douglas Corriher, one of the assistant secretaries, is Acting Secretary.

Ballots: The report of the tenth clerical ballot showed that C. E. Rozelle was elected clerical member to the General Conference. The report on the tenth lay ballot showed that no one was elected. The eleventh clerical and lay ballots were taken for one delegate each, and the tellers retired to count the votes.

Rules: C. C. Herbert, Jr., President of the Commission on World Service and Finance, presented as report No. 3 of the Commission a proposed amendment to the standing rules. On motion of W. A. Stanbury, the rules were suspended, and the proposed amendment was considered and adopted. (See reports)

Reports: W. A. Stanbury presented the report of the Conference Board of Trustees. J. B. Ivey, W. A. Stanbury, and H. C. Wilkinson were re-elected trustees, terms to expire 1954, and the report was ordered to record. The report of the Methodist Board of Publication was presented by H. G. Allen and the report was adopted (See reports).

Daily Minutes: Motion was made, in view of the illness of the Conference Secretary, that the Committee on Daily Minutes be authorized to pass on the daily minutes as soon as these can be put in order by the Secretary. The motion was adopted.

Presentation: Admiral and Mrs. W. N. Thomas, Baxter Whittle of the American Friends Service Committee, and Miss Leila Tuttle, former missionary to China, were presented to the Annual Conference.

Ballots: The report of the eleventh clerical and lay ballots for delegates to the General Conference was presented. E. H. Nease was elected a clerical member of the General Conference. There was no lay election and a twelfth ballot for one lay delegate to the General Conference was taken. The first ballot for ten additional clerical delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference was also taken and the tellers retired to count the votes.

Greetings: Letter of greeting was received from Chaplain George M. Needham. The Secretary was instructed to send appropriate reply. Rev. R. W. Winchester of the Central Jurisdiction was presented to the Conference. Bishop Harrell recognized Eugene C. Few on the Committee on Courtesies and Resolutions, and Dr. Few presented Mrs. Costen J. Harrell to the Conference.

Roll Call: Following a 15-minute recess, C. W. Bates, the Roll Call Secretary, stated that 6 ministerial members and 22 lay members have signed the roll call cards. Also 8 reserve lay members have been seated.

Lay Ballot: The report of the twelfth lay ballot showed that no one was elected as delegate to the General Conference, and a thirteenth ballot was taken for one delegate.

Full Connection: On recommendation of the Committee on Ministerial Training and Qualification, M. L. Fisher, Jr., was voted into Full Connection and elected to elder's orders.

Advanced in Studies: By vote of the Conference W. B. Bobbitt, Jr., D. W. Charlton, Jr., W. C. Crummett, T. L. Lindsay, Ralph Miller, K. R. Moore, C. D. Pyatt, G. W. Rudisill, and M. G. Widenhouse, Probationers, were advanced to the studies of the third year. Messrs. Charlton, Miller, Moore, and Rudisill were elected to deacon's orders under the seminary rule. J. B. Golden, L. A. Harper, Jr., and F. L. Heckard, Probationers, were exempt from the course of study, having completed their seminary training.

Paul M. Cassell, John R. Crew, Jr., O. N. Hutchinson, Jr., J. S. Oakley, R. C. Putnam, J. D. Turner, and A. A. Wilson were advanced to the class of the third year. Messrs. Cassell, Crew, Crummett, Hutchinson, Oakley, and Wilson were elected to deacon's orders.

H. L. Blackwelder and P. H. Hager were advanced to the class of the fourth year.

C. Y. Ingram was continued in the class of the third year and D. P. Grant, after his superintendent had told of his illness during the year, was by three-fourths vote of the Conference allowed to continue in the traveling ministry and in the class of the third year for the fifth consecutive year.

The following full members have completed the course of study: D. B. Alderman, J. A. Allen, H. C. Austin, W. W. Blanton, J. H. Coleman, F. B. Cook, R. P. Crawley, C. W. Faulkner, M. L. Fisher, Jr., D. A. Hamilton, D. A. Payne, J. M. Taylor, Jr., J. W. Lasley, N. V. McGlamery, E. D. Page, and J. R. Petree.

Elected Deacons: In addition to the men named in the preceding paragraphs, the following were elected to deacon's orders under the seminary rule: W. B. Bobbitt, Jr., T. L. Lindsay, J. B. Golden, C. D. Pyatt, M. G. Widenhouse.

Elected Elders: The following were elected to elder's orders as local preachers: F. C. Hubbard and J. C. Kendrick; Course of Study, J. A. Allen and D. A. Hamilton; under the seminary rule, D. B. Alderman, D. A. Payne, and J. M. Taylor, Jr., and the orders of Mrs. John A. Duryea, a local preacher and an elected and ordained elder in the Nazarene Church, by vote of the Annual Conference were recognized.

Re-Admitted: The Board of Ministerial Training presented the name of H. E. Murphy, who some years ago voluntarily located from this Conference and who now wishes to join the Florida Conference. By vote of the Annual Conference, Mr. Murphy was recommended for re-admission into the Florida Conference and the Bishop and Conference Secretary were asked to certify this to the Florida Conference.

Withdrawn: Answering question 36 (c) Who have had their Conference membership terminated by withdrawal? Superintendent H. F. Duncan reported that N. M. Harrison has surrendered his credentials and withdrawn from the ministry under complaint. Bishop Harrell stated that Mr. Harrison had done so with the understanding that when proper moral restitution had been made, he could be re-admitted to the Annual Conference by vote of the Conference. Brother Harrison was allowed to withdraw under these conditions.

Lay Ballot: The report on the thirteenth lay ballot for delegates to the General Conference showed that Herbert M. Wayne had received a majority vote and was declared a lay delegate to the General Conference of 1952. The first ballot for ten additional lay delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference was taken and the tellers retired to count the votes.

Privilege Matters: Greetings from Chaplain Floyd L. Heckard were presented to the Conference by J. H. Armbrust. Rollin P. Gibbs, Chairman of the Western North Carolina Committee on the Family Life Conference to be held in October, spoke to the Conference on the importance of this church-wide gathering. Bishop Harrell also spoke of the importance of this Conference.

Theological Seminaries: Bishop Harrell spoke to the Conference of the urgent need for ministerial recruits and told of the great need of the theological seminaries for $800,000 with which to do the work committed to them. The Bishop states that only about half of this amount can be expected from World Service Funds. Bishop Harrell then presented Dean James Cannon III of the Duke Divinity School and Dean Cannon stated that there are 80 in the first year class of the Divinity School this year and pointed to the fact that two-thirds of the class Admitted on Trial into this Conference this year are graduates of or students in the Divinity School. Dean Cannon stated that the Duke Endowment cannot take care of all the students and their needs and appealed to the Conference for scholarship funds.

World Service: C. C. Herbert, Jr., Chairman of the Commission on World Service and Finance, presented the report of the Commission, printed copies of which were distributed yesterday. On motion of John W. Hoyle, Jr., the section referring to the Minimum Salary Fund was amended. The Chairman of the Commission stated that he had no personal objection to the amendment. The amendment was adopted, and the report as amended was unanimously approved (See reports).

Excused: M. A. Lewis, J. A. Lindsey, and C. M. Maness, Jr., were excused from the Saturday session to conduct funerals.

Resolution: L. B. Hayes presented a resolution in memory of L. B. Abernethy. This resolution was presented as report No. 1 of the Board of Missions and Church Extension. W. A. Stanbury spoke to the tribute and Bishop Harrell stated that "Nothing we could say would overstate our debt to Dr. Abernethy." The Secretary was asked to send a copy of this tribute to the family of Dr. Abernethy. The report was unanimously adopted (See reports).

Ballots: G. R. Stafford was elected a delegate to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference on the first clerical ballot, and a second clerical ballot of nine delegates was taken. As a matter of personal privilege, W. A. Stanbury requested that since he is a member of the Judicial Council he would appreciate it if no further votes were cast for him.

Adjournment: The benediction was given by W. Kenneth Clark and the morning session was adjourned.

Afternoon Session

Devotions: Bishop Harrell convened the afternoon session Friday, September 28, 1951, at 3 o'clock by announcing the hymn "My Faith Looks Up to Thee." The Conference also sang as a prayer hymn, "Holy Spirit, Faithful Guide." The prayer was led by Bishop Ledden.

Deacons Ordained: The name of G. H. Allred was presented to the Conference, recommended by the Committee on Ministerial Training and Qualifications, and he was elected to deacon's orders. The Acting Secretary of the Conference then presented the following men to be ordained deacons: G. H. Allred, C. G. Alspaugh, Jr., K. E. Beane, W. B. Bobbitt, Jr., P. M. Cassell, J. R. Crew, Jr., W. C. Crummett, J. B. Golden, J. W. Hoyle III, O. N. Hutchinson, Jr., T. L. Lindsay, G. R. McCulley, J. S. Oakley, C. D. Pyatt, V. J. Ramsey, D. L. Swain, J. M. G. Warner, M. G. Widenhouse, A. A. Wilson, and M. M. Workman. In the ordination service, Bishop Harrell read the Collect and the Epistle, examined the deacons elect, and with the assistance of Bishop W. Earl Ledden ordained these men to the office of deacon. The Acting Secretary presented the certificates of ordination, following which the High Point College Glee Club sang an anthem.

Ordination Sermon: Bishop Ledden preached the ordination sermon on the subject, "Receive the Benediction." Bishop Harrell expressed the deep appreciation of the Conference for the inspirational guidance given by Bishop Ledden during the preaching hours of the Conference. The Conference united in singing the hymn, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and Bishop Ledden gave the benediction.

Ballots: The report of the second clerical ballot for Jurisdictional Conference delegates was made by J. W. Fowler, Jr., and C. P. Bowles was elected. A third ballot for eight clerical delegates was taken. Paul R. Ervin read the report for the first lay ballot for Jurisdictional Conference delegates and W. J. Bullock, Mrs. W. F. Redding, Jr., R. T. Amos, G. L. Goodson, C. E. Morgan, and E. L. Walker, with a majority of the votes cast, were declared elected. The second lay ballot for four delegates was taken, and the tellers retired to count the votes.

Adjournment: Bishop Harrell gave the benediction and the afternoon session was adjourned.

Evening Session

Conference Convened: The evening session of the 1951 Annual Conference for Friday, September 28, 1951, was called to order by Bishop Harrell at 7:30 in the Odell Memorial Auditorium of Greensboro College.

Ballot: On the third clerical ballot for delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference, John W. Hoyle, Jr., E. C. Few, and W. J. Miller were declared elected, and the fourth clerical ballot for five delegates was taken. On the second lay ballot, there were no elections and a third lay ballot for four delegates was taken.

Board of Education: Bishop Harrell presented W. Arthur Kale, President of the Conference Board of Education, to preside for the anniversary meeting of the Board of Education. E. K. McLarty, Jr., Secretary of the Board, gave the report of the Board. Carl H. King, Executive Secretary; Mrs. W. R. Reid, Director of Children's Work; and Miss Marian Craig, Director of Youth Work, were presented to the Conference and made statements regarding the work of the local church section. The report was unanimously adopted (See reports). Mr. Kale presented B. Joseph Martin, Executive Secretary of the Methodist College Foundation, and Dr. Martin made a statement on the dramatic presentation, "Heritage for Youth." A cast of more than 150 persons, mostly students of Greensboro College, presented the pageant under the direction of Robert J. Sailstad. Bishop Harrell commended the presentation and declared, "This will mark the beginning of a new era for our educational institutions."

Ballots: On the fourth clerical ballot for Jurisdictional Conference delegates, J. C. Madison was elected, and a fifth ballot for four delegates was taken. R. D. Coleman and Tom M. Little were elected on the third lay ballot, and a fourth lay ballot for two delegates was taken.

Adjournment: Bishop Harrell gave the benediction and the evening session was adjourned.

FIFTH DAY, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1951

Morning Session

Conference Convened: The morning session, Saturday, September 29, 1951, was called to order by Bishop Harrell at 9:00 a.m. The prayer was led by C. W. Kirby, and the Bishop gave the charge to the class to be admitted into Full Connection.

Roll Call: C. W. Bates, Roll Call Secretary, announced that four ministers, 29 lay members have signed roll call cards since yesterday and that four reserve lay members have been seated.

Ballots: G. Ray Jordan was elected as a delegate to the Jurisdictional Conference on the fifth clerical ballot, and the sixth clerical ballot for three delegates was taken. On the fourth lay ballot, George F. Ivey was elected to the Jurisdictional Conference and the fifth lay ballot for one delegate was taken.

The Interpreter's Bible: Dr. Roy L. Smith, Publishing Agent of The Methodist Church, was presented and spoke on the preparation and value of The Interpreter's Bible. A. R. White, of the Richmond Publishing House, showed a sample copy of this publication and cards were distributed for orders. Bishop Harrell spoke in high appreciation for this book.

Introduction: After a fifteen-minute recess, the Conference was called to order and J. H. Armbrust led the Conference in singing, "I Need Thee Every Hour." Reverend Mr. Simpson of the Central Jurisdiction and pastor at Leaksville, North Carolina, was presented to the Conference by Bishop Harrell.

Reports: The report of the Committee on Accepted Supply Pastors, report No. 2 of the Board of Missions and Church Extension, and the report of the North Carolina Pastors School were presented by M. Q. Tuttle, J. G. Winkler, and W. A. Kale, respectively. The first two reports were adopted and the third was ordered to record without reading. (See reports).

Mrs. Harrell: Mrs. Costen J. Harrell was escorted to the front by Clarence E. Morgan, and Mrs. H. F. Duncan presented her with an orchid.

Resolution: C. E. Rozzelle pointing out the great progress of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference under Bishop Harrell's administration, presented the following resolution which was unanimously adopted by the rising vote:

RESOLUTION CONCERNING BISHOP COSTEN J. HARRELL

During the past three years the Western North Carolina Annual Conference has made the greatest progress of any like period in its history. We have had large increases each year in membership. Our contributions for the support of the ministry and for benevolent, educational, and missionary purposes have greatly increased. The morale and loyalty among our ministers and laymen have never been better.

We feel that our Presiding Bishop, Costen J. Harrell, is in no small way responsible for the successful manner in which our Conference is moving forward and for the feeling of confidence and devotion on the part of our ministers.

We wish to express our admiration for the statesmanlike manner in which Bishop Harrell has directed the affairs of our Conference, for the devoted leadership which he has given to its enterprises, and for the way in which he has deepened the devotional life of our Conference and brought us all closer to our Lord and Master.

Be it therefore resolved, that we formally express to Bishop and Mrs. Harrell our deep appreciation for their gracious leadership during the quadrennium soon to close and that we thus let them know the deep affection in which they both are held by our laymen and preachers alike.

Be it further resolved, that we feel that the best interests of the Kingdom of God and the Western North Carolina Conference would be furthered by Bishop Harrell's return to us for another quadrennium. We respectfully request the Jurisdictional Conference, which will be held in Roanoke, Virginia, June, 1952, to return to us Bishop Harrell in order that we may continue to have his leadership and that we may share in the crowning and last quadrennium of his active episcopal service.

Ballot: There was no election by the sixth Clerical ballot, and a seventh ballot for three clerical delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference was taken. O. M. Vernon was elected a delegate to the Jurisdictional Conference on the fifth lay ballot. On motion of O. V. Woosley, the Conference adopted the motion to elect five alternate or reserve delegates of each order to the Jurisdictional Conference, and the first lay ballot for five alternate delegates was taken.

Resolution: The following resolution presented by John W. Hoyle, Jr., Superintendent of the Marion District, was adopted:

Whereas, Antioch Methodist Church in Rutherford County has long since been abandoned; therefore be it resolved: that the board of trustees be authorized to sell the property and turn the proceeds over to the Marion District Board of Missions. (Signed) John W. Hoyle, Superintendent.

Reports: W. J. Miller presented report No. 3 of the Board of Missions and Church Extension and asked that it go to record without reading, and the Conference so ordered. The report of the Board of Temperance was presented by Walter L. Lanier and was adopted (See reports). Pending the adoption of the report of the Board of Temperance, R. M. Hauss spoke, and Dr. Russell L. Dicks, of Duke University, was presented to the Conference and gave the temperance address on "Questions Ministers Ask."

Historical Society: Bishop Harrell requested John H. Carper, President of the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, to preside. The prayer was led by J. L. A. Bumgarner and the report of the Executive Committee of the Society was presented by J. C. Stokes. The report was ordered to record (See reports). A Memorial to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference was referred to the Conference Committee on Memorials. The following officers were elected for the next Conference year: President, L. B. Hayes; Vice-President, J. C. Stokes; Secretary-Treasurer, F. W. Paschal. These officers and C. C. Benton, E. P. Billups, J. H. Carper, C. M. Smith, G. B. Ehlhardt, E. H. Nease, and H. C. Sprinkle, Jr., were elected as the Executive Committee of the Society. J. L. A. Bumgarner presented C. M. White, who delivered the historical address on "The Contribution of the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church to North Carolina Methodism." The address was ordered printed in the Journal and is as follows:

THE CONTRIBUTION OF THE BLUE RIDGE-ATLANTIC CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH TO NORTH CAROLINA METHODISM

To write a worthy story of the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and its contribution to Methodism of North Carolina would require one more gifted in ferreting out the salient facts and assembling them in such a manner as would do justice and honor to those pioneer heroes of the Faith, than this humble scribe possesses. However, since this task has been assigned to us, we will do our best, leaving it to future historians to appraise the results.

For much of the detailed dates and statistics, we are indebted to the diligent research efforts of Cecil L. Heckard, who wrote his thesis on the subject of "The Work of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with the White Population of North Carolina, During the Period from 1880 to 1937."

We do not wish to drag out old skeletons for the sake of argument or debate; yet, we could not rightly appraise the results of our labors without mentioning the reasons for our being in the field, a reunited Methodism.

The statistics tell only a part of the story of what our work meant to the rural fields, where the principal part of our work was done. Most of our ministers were of the evangelistic type. From many of our revivals went many converts to neighboring churches, Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian and even Holiness churches oftentimes profited by our efforts.

Many interesting stories might be told, how many of our revival efforts were opposed by others until large numbers were converted; then, strenuous efforts were put forth by both pastor and people to harvest the results, oftentimes succeeding with the larger share. We recall one incident where the neighboring pastor never darkened the door of the church during a three-weeks effort, where more than sixty conversions and reclamations resulted. Yet he personally solicited each one, even those whose names were already enrolled on our church books. The results were that he lost ten members he already had; these ten were additions to Methodism.

It was not true that our congregations were made up of one political faith. In the few instances where this was true, it was the opposite of what many would suspect. In those cases, every adult member of the church was a Democrat, and every Republican Methodist in the community was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Nor were all our preachers Republican. Over one-half of the membership of the Conference at the time of unification were either Democrats or Independents. Since our earliest recollection, we have never heard partisan politics discussed from the pulpit. We believed in freedom of the political conscience as well as the religious conscience.

One of our most zealous leaders in this and the Holston Conference was, by his own confession, the son of an "unreconstructed rebel," who did not recognize the American Flag for twenty years after the surrender. He often told the story of their conversion in a plow field, under the pleading of Jesse H. Gillespie, who spent his time between Sundays in personal evangelism; going out into the highways and byways, "persuading them to come in." It was after this momentous experience in the life of the boy and his father that they visited Webster, North Carolina, on a Fourth of July. As they approached the court house, his father observed the Stars and Stripes floating from the dome, stopped and said, "Son, we have surrendered to the Christian Flag. I guess it's about time we surrender to Old Glory." Then he saluted the flag for the first time.

All historians of Methodism are familiar with the fact of the second division of American Methodism, following the General Conference of 1844. Several churches of the Holston Conference, which included the territory lying between the east of the Cumberland Mountains of Tennessee and the west of the Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina, never recognized the separation, nor affiliated with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, retaining the title of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Two of these churches are still in existence within the bounds of the Waynesville District, namely, Arnon Plains, now Plains church, just north of Canton, and Louisa's Chapel at Clyde. These churches were supplied by local preachers during the interval, from 1845 to 1866, when Bishop Clark reorganized the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with a membership of more than forty ministers, most of whom had been left without appointment or excluded from the Church, South, because they would not take the oath of allegiance to the Confederacy. These ministers were under the alternatives, after the war was concluded in their favor, to beg back into the church which had excluded them, leave Methodism, or reorganize the Methodist Episcopal Church. Anyone familiar with the spirit of the time would naturally conclude they would choose the latter.

These ministers were not the only ones who were excluded because of their convictions concerning the questions uppermost in the minds of the people of that day. The writer's grandfather, who for more than twenty years had been recording steward in his local church, was sent with a committee of like sympathies to "INVESTIGATE" something which proved to be a myth, and while they were gone the Quarterly Conference was reorganized, leaving each of them off the official roll, then adjourned and dispersed.

These were all natives of the Southland, as have been ninety-five per cent of all our ministers and members throughout the years of our work in this field. One writer stated that about one-third of the conference membership had been transferred in. He overlooked the fact that we had transferred out twenty-five per cent more than we had transferred in, and that many of the transfers in had been boys coming back to the home field. Most of the others were from the southern field. Many of those who were not from the South failed to adjust themselves to the southern mind and methods and returned from whence they came.

Our boys that transferred to other fields made good. On our Roll of Honored Dead there is not a name that is not native of the field within the bounds of the Holston and Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conferences.

Since all history is but the lengthening shadow of the men who made it, we must tell the story of the men who made this contribution to Methodism.

Thomas W. Matney, a native charter member, reared five preacher sons, two of whom were long prominent leaders. W. Carter spent forty years in the active ministry of the Conference. J. Finley after more than twenty-five years, transferred to the Montana Conference, where he spent ten years in prominent churches, came back and completed more than forty years in the active ministry. Green W. transferred in his early ministry to the Holston Conference, where he lives in honored retirement; Thomas W., Jr., joined the Central Tennessee Conference and was elected president of what is now Baxter Seminary. He died shortly afterward; the fifth one, Dr. Hill Matney, became a practicing physician, but remained a local preacher until his death.

Dr. J. S. Burnette was a native of Haywood County, North Carolina. He joined the Blue Ridge Conference. After completing his theological course at Grant University, now the University of Chattanooga, he transferred to the Holston Conference where he completed fifty years in the active ministry. He spent the last twenty years in the Home Mission field, establishing educational centers in East Tennessee and Western North Carolina. Pitman Center, Home Mission School and Community Center, near Sevierville, Tennessee, is still a growing and going institution in the Holston Conference. He established the first high school at Tipton Hill in Mitchell County and a Community Welfare project at Shooting Creek, Clay County. Both projects proved advance blessings to the community.

J. H. Gillespie, a native of Leicester, joined the Blue Ridge Conference, transferred to the Holston and finished his theological course at Grant University, where he majored in Hebrew and Greek. He spent nine years as a Missionary to Porto Rico where he mastered the Spanish language. He then transferred back to his home Conference and after spending several years as pastor of charges, spent the last eleven years of his active ministry as a missionary to the Cherokee Indians. He learned their language and could converse and preach to them in their native tongue. He taught many of them to read the New Testament in their native tongue.

But before these just mentioned appeared on the scene, two native sons joined the Conference together at Asheville in 1882. From Ashe County came that inimitable Adolphus Graybeal, who left the imprint of his footsteps throughout the mountain section as he heroically labored through mountain and vale, for the moral uplift and the intellectual training of the rural youth, in the days when schools were few and duration brief. He laid the groundwork for the establishing of Aaron Academy at Montezuma and Fairview College at Trap Hill. The marks of these two institutions are plainly visible not alone in these two communities, but throughout that section of the state. Long after his name will have been forgotten, "his works will be following him."

From a foster home in north Iredell County came the other, William Quincy Alexander Graham. Self educated, he knew the hunger in the heart and mind of unlettered youth and established the Graham Collegiate Institute at Marshallberg, just inland from Cape Lookout Lighthouse. The effects of this institution are still plainly visible not only in the immediate community but all up and down the coast and outer banks from Cape Hatteras to Bogue Inlet. After the school was destroyed by fire in 1910, it was reestablished in 1913 through the efforts of J. H. Warren, another native son, at Washington, North Carolina, under the name of Washington Collegiate Institute. For twenty years it did a magnificent work for the underprivileged youth of our state, under the leadership of Dr. Maynard O. Fletcher. Dr. Fletcher, a native of S. W. Virginia, is now a retired member of the North Carolina Conference.

William A. Patton, a carpenter, cabinet maker and stair builder, came to Ashe County from S. W. Virginia and married a sister of Adolphus Graybeal. At the age of forty-two he joined the Blue Ridge Conference and became one of its able leaders. As a preacher he ranked with others in neighboring churches, who held more remunerative pastorates.

J. L. Stephenson, who had he lived in the same period with President Abraham Lincoln, could have been his double in physical characteristics as well as in many mental attributes. Most of his labors were spent in the Blue Ridge and Brushy Mountain regions until he was past sixty, when he transferred to the Ohio Conference and served well until his retirement. At last account he was still living.

John L. Dennis, uncle of our retired A. B. Dennis, did some heroic work among us.

Dr. A. S. Beaman, native of Montgomery County, North Carolina, a son-in-law of W. C. Matney, joined the Blue Ridge Conference, transferred to the Holston, finished his education at Grant University and Boston Theological School. After several important charges in the Holston Conference, he came back to his home Conference. Here, for the first several years he worked for the General Board of Sunday Schools. It was under his leadership that the Sunday School enrollment exceeded the church membership by nearly three thousand, a feat no other Conference in the Methodist Episcopal Church could claim at the time. We doubt whether it has been matched yet. He served several charges successfully and concluded his active ministry in a three-weeks revival, one of the most successful of his career.

Dr. William A. Parsons, a native of Candor, North Carolina, attended Grant University. After completing his college and seminary courses, he joined the Georgia Conference where he spent several years as pastor and educator. He was president of Epworth Seminary for several years where he aided many youth of North Georgia to equip themselves for larger fields of usefulness as intelligent Christian business men as well as for the Gospel Ministry and the Mission fields. He transferred back to his home Conference in 1918 and spent thirty years in efficient service. He is now an honored retired member of the North Carolina Conference.

Many of our ministers were not college or seminary graduates, but they had gifts and graces many theologues never had. They carried the Good News to many communities that would otherwise have been neglected. They did it without counting the cost. Few of them secured enough with which to support themselves and families, without doing side-line jobs, such as farming, teaching or even carpentry work. It is true that the Board of Home Missions spent some missionary money, aiding them to carry on; but, if the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference could have had the amount of missionary aid, annually, that the Methodist Church spent in the Asheville District last year, there would have been a far different story to tell.

The following are still in active service, either as active members or retired supplies:

Zerna V. Arthur, a native of Ohio, the only non-southerner in the group, has with the exception of two years, been pastor of the Hot Springs charge since 1939. The last five years as retired supply.

Clarence C. Benton, a native of McMinn County, Tennessee, is in his second successful pastorate of Central Avenue church in Charlotte. His record speaks for itself.

J. R. Bowman, a native of McDowell County, is serving the Norwood Circuit.

John L. A. Bumgarner, reared in an humble mountain home near North Wilkesboro, joined the Conference in 1901, just fifty years ago. He worked his way through college and has spent the fifty years teaching and preaching, largely to the youth of his native county. He is finishing his second year as Retired Supply on the Moravian Falls charge.

B. A. Culp, a native of Cabarrus County, has spent more than forty years in the active ministry and doubtless few others have led more people to Christ and to membership in the Methodist Church, not to mention the hundreds who have joined other churches, over a similar period of time. He is still active and is completing his ninth year as pastor of First Church, Winston-Salem.

Carl W. Dennis, a native of Montgomery County, now pastor of Davidson charge, is a product of our Conference. His father, A. B. Dennis, now retired, a great uncle, J. L. Dennis, and his great-grandfather, Littleton Dennis, were all preachers of marked success.

Daniel H. Dennis, also a native of Montgomery County, is just completing his fifth year as a Missionary to the Cherokee Indians. He and his good wife have achieved remarkable success. They are erecting a stone church which would be a credit to any of our rural communities.

Ellis P. Greene, a native of Cleveland County, has been for nine years pastor of the Broad River Charge, where he has led his people in building two new churches. His long tenure bespeaks his success.

S. W. Johnson, a native of Yadkin County, is finishing his third year on the Myrtle charge, Gastonia. He has been a church builder, both of buildings and of members, as was his father before him, the late A. J. Johnson. His wife is the granddaughter of one of our pioneer preachers, H. D. Christenberry.

Vernon A. Morton, a native of Montgomery County, a great-grandson of Littleton Dennis, now on the Roberta charge, Concord, has made a commendable record wherever he has served.

E. W. Mills is at Smithtown, after serving eleven years on the Unionville charge.

Clyde O. Newell transferred from the Holston Conference and has held several successful pastorates. He is completing his third year at Crabtree. His wife is an ordained minister, the great-granddaughter of Littleton Dennis.

W. H. Pless, a native of Haywood County, has served most of his forty-odd years in his home community. He led his people in lifting a burdensome debt on the Morning Star church, which was burned shortly after. Then, he led them in rebuilding the present modern plant, at par with any of our rural churches.

Cranford O. Plyler, a native of Iredell County, is completing his fourth year on the Trinity-Bethel charge. He is a kinsman of the noted Plyler twins of Advocate fame.

York D. Poole is a native of McDowell County, pastor the past three years at Bethany-Gray charge. He leaves his footprints wherever he serves.

Frank C. Smathers, a native of Haywood County, was reared in the Morning Star church where most of his family still remain. He entered the ministry in the Holston Conference of the M. E. Church, transferred to the Blue Ridge before he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference.

Lowell C. Stephens is serving his fourth year on the Macon charge with a commendable record.

A. Wade Thompson, a native of Davidson County, is serving the Mt. Pleasant charge, where he is sustaining his record as a builder of new churches.

Charles M. White, a native of Bedford County, Tennessee, is finishing his fourth year as Retired Supply at Marshall.

Caleb J. Winslow, a native of eastern North Carolina, is serving his third year on the Wilkesboro charge. He does substantial work wherever he goes and usually remains four years or longer.

A. W. Wellons, a native of Wilkes County, is serving well on the Monticello-Rose Chapel charge at Statesville.

The following retired ministers deserve honorable mention: S. J. Brawley, A. B. Dennis, D. L. Earnhardt, D. W. Haga, Roy P. Jones, Martin A. Matheson, W. J. Plint, E. H. Spencer and James J. Wood.

The following members of this Conference are products of the M. E. Church: Cansau D. Brown, G. W. Bumgarner, Wade R. Bustle, W. B. A. Culp, W. L. Harkey, Van B. Harrison, and I. L. Sharpe.

H. Harold Cash, Charles W. Guthrie, D. Fuller Lowry and Carl K. Wright are still active in the North Carolina Conference.

These outstanding churches should be listed as our contribution to the cause of Methodism: Bell at Leicester, Bethel at Oteen, English Chapel at Ecusta, French Broad at Asheville, Nesbit's Chapel at Fairview and Piney Mountain at Candler (Asheville District). Asbury and Oak Grove (Charlotte District). Grace at Kings Mountain, New Home on Cleveland Circuit, Reep's Grove on the Vale Circuit (Gastonia District). Altamont, Linville Falls Circuit, Friendship, Boone Circuit, Forest Home, Linville on Elk Park Circuit, Red Hill-Tipton Hill and West Marion (Marion District) Midway and Mt. Mitchell at Kannapolis, Bethlehem on Gold Hill Circuit, Matton's Grove on the Pfeiffer Circuit and Pfeiffer Junior College, an institution of the W.S.C.S., which has few peers and no superiors of similar rating throughout Methodism. A true history of this one institution would require more space than allotted to us for this paper (Salisbury District). Abernathy Memorial at Newton, Boulevard at Statesville, Friendship and Mt. View at Union Grove, Friendship and Arbor Grove at Millers Creek, Mt. Bethel on Taylorsville Circuit, Harmony and Shiloh on Claremont (Statesville District). Beaverdam on Pigeon River Circuit, First Church at Canton, Morning Star-Longs at Canton, Arnon, now Plains on Rockwood Circuit, Maggie on Shady Grove Circuit, Louisa's Chapel and Piney Grove on Haywood Circuit (Waynesville District.) A part of First Church, Winston-Salem, Mt. Pleasant, Morris Chapel and Pisgah at Walkertown, St. Paul and Asbury on St. Paul Circuit (Winston-Salem District). There are forty-two in this group and around fifty one-room churches. Franklin Memorial at Morehead City was the first brick church in Carteret County. Marshallberg, Harkers Island, Pinebluff, Troy Second Church, Bethany and Mt. Olive, Pembroke, Prospect and Sandy Plains in Robeson County. These ten are in the North Carolina Conference, the last three are Indian churches, which Dr. Robbins so faithfully described in a recent article about our Indian work. To the tireless efforts of D. F. Lowry goes most of the credit for the progress of these and other churches among our Indian friends and co-workers.

Though southern born, we felt the need of a reunited Methodism, and to prove our sincerity, we supported every movement leading in that direction. With but two dissenting votes, we approved the plan of 1924. The near success of that plan indicated that union would come in the near future. From that time on we ceased to enter new fields and largely marked time in the field we already occupied.

When the final plan seemed to be a reality, this writer prepared and presented a resolution to the session at Winston-Salem in 1935, setting up a commission to cooperate with a similar commission, appointed by the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church and the two Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The resolution was unanimously adopted, and had the General Commission not vetoed it, in all probability it would have been consummated three years before the final uniting Conference in 1939.

We had long contended, that if the Church, South, had heeded the old proverb, "that vinegar never catches flies," and courted us in the spirit of Christian love, they would have absorbed us long before union finally came. For it was that attitude of Drs. C. C. Weaver, M. T. Smathers, L. B. Hayes, Bishop Paul Garber and others like them, that won many of us, and that spirit since unification has made us feel a kinship that really makes "Methodism one people."

In Christ there is no East or West,
In Him no South or North;
But one great fellowship of love
Throughout the whole wide earth.

In Christ now meet both East and West,
In Him meet South and North:
All Christly souls are one in Him
Throughout the whole wide earth.

We are proud of our heritage, and in spite of our trials and tribulations and persecutions, we have come out "more than conqueror through Jesus Christ who loved us and gave himself for us." We accepted the challenge of the poet when he said:

What if you are done to death, What then?
 If you have done the best that you could;
 If you have played well your part in the field of men,
 The great Critic will call it good.

Death comes with a crawl, or comes with a pounce,
 His step may be slow or spry;
 It is not the fact that you are dead that counts;
 It's only, How did you die?

Ballot: No one was elected on the seventh clerical ballot and the eighth clerical ballot for three delegates was taken. J. C. Cowan, Jr., Flake Sherrill, and Ben L. Smith were elected alternate delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference on the first lay ballot for alternates, and the second lay ballot for alternates was taken for two delegates.

Adjournment: The benediction was given by C. M. White, and the Conference was adjourned at 1:00 p.m.

Afternoon Session

Devotions: The Saturday afternoon session was called to order at 3 o'clock by Bishop Harrell and the prayer was made by George B. Culbreth.

Ballots: C. C. Herbert, Jr., and J. C. Cornette were elected as clerical delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference on the eighth clerical ballot, and the ninth clerical ballot for one delegate was taken. The report of the second lay ballot for alternate delegates was given and A. C. Williams and I. F. Craven were elected. This completes the lay elections.

Reports: Herbert M. Wayne, Conference Treasurer, presented his report and the report was ordered to record. Bishop Harrell spoke words of appreciation for the work of Mr. Wayne as our Conference Treasurer. The report of the Board of Hospitals and Homes was presented and the trustees were elected, and the report was ordered to record. (See reports).

Ballot: There was no election on the ninth clerical ballot, and the tenth clerical ballot for one delegate was taken.

Resolutions: The following resolutions presented by R. Dwight Ware, Superintendent of the Asheville District, and W. J. Huneycutt, Superintendent of the Waynesville District, were adopted one by one:

Whereas the Oak Grove Methodist Church near Alexander Station in Buncombe County, North Carolina, has long been discontinued and abandoned as a meeting place for the services of our church, be it therefore resolved that title to this property is hereby transferred to the Board of Trustees for the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, and that the said Oak Grove Church be sold by the District Superintendent for the Asheville District of said Conference and that the proceeds from such sale be used under the direction of the District Superintendent of the Asheville District for church extension purposes within the bounds of that district. The Western North Carolina Conference Trustees are hereby authorized to cooperate with the Asheville District Superintendent in the transfer of the title to this property.

—R. Dwight Ware

Whereas the Shaw Creek Church and Camp Ground of the Methodist Church in Henderson County have long been discontinued and abandoned as meeting places for the services of the Methodist Church, be it therefore resolved that title to this property be transferred to the Board of Trustees for the Western North Carolina Conference and that this property be sold under the direction of the District Superintendent of the Asheville District and that the proceeds from the sale of this property be used by the District Superintendent of the Asheville District for church extension purposes within the bounds of that district. The Western North Carolina Conference Trustees are hereby authorized to cooperate with the Asheville District Superintendent of the property now used and reserved for cemetery purposes be excepted from this resolution and that title to such cemetery property be retained by the Trustees now holding the same cemetery section.

—R. Dwight Ware

Whereas the Laurel Hill Methodist Church of the Fines Creek Charge is abandoned, and

Whereas the Fines Creek Church of the Fines Creek Charge is planning a church building program, and should receive such sum of money as might be derived from the sale of such property,

Now, therefore, be it resolved:

1. That the property of Laurel Hill Methodist Church, be and it is hereby determined to be abandoned church property and the ownership to be in the trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Inc., under provisions of Paragraph 255 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church.

2. That the trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Inc., be and are hereby authorized and directed to convey said property to the trustees of the Fines Creek Charge, Waynesville District of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, by deed fee simple in form without warranty.

—W. Jackson Huneycutt

Whereas that portion of real estate conveyed by Lawson Jones and wife, Martha J. Jones, to The Methodist Episcopal Church for Campground Church by deed recorded in Book 21, Page 251, Office of the Register of Deeds of Cherokee County, North Carolina, owned by Campground Methodist Episcopal Church on April 28, 1873, and since has been abandoned; and

Whereas a portion of said property was and is used as a cemetery; and

Whereas said Campground Church when it was abandoned was a part of the Murphy Circuit of the Asheville District of the Blue Ridge Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church; and Murphy Circuit is now engaged in building a parsonage, and it is appropriate that said Murphy Circuit should receive such sum of money as might be derived from the sale of said property,

Now, therefore, be it resolved:

1. That the property hereinbefore referred to as the property of Campground Methodist Church, be and it is hereby determined to be abandoned church property and the ownership declared to be in the Trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Inc., under the provision of paragraph 255 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church.

2. It is expedient that the property be conveyed to the Trustees of the Murphy Circuit in order that the cemetery of said church be held intact for the protection of graves of those persons already buried there, and for the graves of any persons who may hereafter be buried in said cemetery; and the other portion of said property may be sold and the proceeds used in its building fund.

3. That the Trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Inc., be and are hereby authorized to convey said property to the Trustees of the Murphy Circuit, Waynesville District of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, by deed fee simple in form without warranty.

—W. Jackson Huneycutt

Whereas that portion of real estate conveyed by M. J. Robinson and wife, Sarah Robinson, to The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for St. Johns Church by deed recorded in Book 23, Page 60, Office of the Register of Deeds of Cherokee County, North Carolina, owned by St. Johns Methodist Episcopal Church, South, on September 29, 1888, and since has been abandoned; and

Whereas said St. Johns Church when it was abandoned was a part of the Murphy Circuit of the Waynesville District of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South; and Murphy Circuit is now engaged in building a parsonage, and it is appropriate that said Murphy Circuit should receive such sum of money as might be derived from the sale of such property,

Now, therefore, be it resolved:

1. That the property hereinbefore referred to as the property of St. Johns Methodist Church, be and it is hereby determined to be abandoned church property and the ownership to be in the Trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Inc., under the provisions of paragraph 255 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church.

2. That the Trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Inc., be and are hereby authorized and directed to convey said property to the Trustees of the Murphy Circuit, Waynesville District of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, by deed fee simple in form without warranty.

Ballot: Wilson O. Weldon was elected a clerical delegate to the Jurisdictional Conference on the tenth ballot, and the first ballot for five alternate clerical delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference was taken.

Reports: W. A. Kale made the motion that the Commission on "A Methodist Center," appointed a year ago to consider the matter of erecting a Conference headquarters building in some city within the bounds of the Conference, be continued for another year. This motion was adopted. L. L. Gobbel presented the report giving the nominations for District Lay Leaders and the report was adopted. John H. Carper presented the report of the Committee on World Peace and this report was adopted. The reports of the Town and Country Commission and District Conference Records were presented by Wilson Nesbitt and Roy Bell and these were approved and ordered to record. The report of the Duke Endowment, Golden Cross Treasurer, and the Roberts Bequest were ordered to record. H. G. Allen presented the minutes of the Executive Committee of the Conference Brotherhood and these were ordered to record. Dr. Allen urged the laymen of the Conference to help in reaching the goal set by the Brotherhood. The reports of the Bible Board and of the Committee on Conference Relations were presented by Ralph Reed and E. P. Billups, respectively, and these reports were adopted (See reports). Charles D. White, Conference Statistician, presented his report giving the highlights of the report, and this report was ordered to record. (See Statistician's Condensed Report.), Report No. 3 of the Board of Conference Claimants was presented by J. H. Armbrust and adopted. (See reports).

Moving Date: Wednesday and Thursday, October 10 and 11, 1951, were set as the dates when ministers who are changing appointments shall move.

Duncan Presides: Bishop Harrell asked Herman F. Duncan to preside, and R. Delbert Byrum presented the report of the Committee on Memorials. Memorials on the following subjects were adopted: (1) An emphasis on Christian Education on every local church and Conference level; (2) Theological schools; (3) Universal military training; (4) Composition of the local church Board of Missions and Church Extension; (5) Board of Temperance; (6) Executive Committee of the Board of Missions and Church Extension; (7) Changing the name of a church; (8) Accepted Supply pastors; (9) Local preachers; (10) Organizing new churches; (11) Administration of the Sacraments; (12) Crusade for world order. The Conference also concurred in adopting a Memorial to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference on the Jurisdictional Historical Society. (See Appendix for Memorials.)

Ballots: W. J. Huneycutt and M. W. Nesbitt, Jr., were elected clerical reserves to the Jurisdictional Conference on the first ballot and a second ballot for three clerical reserves was taken.

Memorials: A number of proposed Memorials particularly relating to Accepted Supply pastors, provisional Ordination, etc., were discussed and rejected.

Ballots: J. W. Braxton and R. Dwight Ware were elected reserve delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference on the second clerical ballot for reserves. A third ballot for one clerical reserve was taken, and the report on this ballot showed that W. A. Rollins had a majority and was elected. This completes the election of delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Adjournment: The benediction was given by C. C. Herbert, Jr., and the afternoon session was adjourned.

SIXTH DAY, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1951

Morning Session

Worship Service: The Sunday morning session, September 30, 1951, was the regular Sunday morning worship service at West Market Street Methodist Church. The choir of the church, under the direction of Mrs. Lucas C. Abels, was in charge of the music. The Male Chorus of the church sang "Onward Christian Soldiers" by Baring-Gould and Sullivan, and the offertory anthem, "Incline Thine Ear" by Day, was given by the choir with Mrs. Thomas F. Kilkelly, soprano, soloist.

Elders Ordained: Presented by the Acting Conference Secretary, the following men were by Bishop Harrell ordained Elders in the Church of God: D. B. Alderman, J. A. Allen, H. C. Austin, K. E. Beane, J. H. Coleman, F. B. Cook, R. P. Crawley, M. L. Fisher, Jr., D. A. Hamilton, F. C. Hubbard, J. C. Kendrick, J. W. Lasley, N. V. McGlamery, E. D. Page, D. A. Payne, J. R. Petree, J. M. Taylor, Jr., and J. D. Turner.

Conference Sermon: The Conference sermon on the subject, "What Christ Supplies," was preached by Bishop Costen J. Harrell. The benediction was given by Bishop Harrell, and the morning session was adjourned.

Afternoon Session

Conference Convened: Following the devotional service, the following resolution of appreciation was presented by Sam B. Moss and adopted by standing vote:

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION

We, the laymen and ministers of the Western North Carolina Conference, express our deep appreciation to the good people of Greensboro and vicinity for their warm-hearted hospitality in entertaining our Conference in the session now closing.

To Dr. Eugene C. Few, pastor of West Market Street Church; to his associate, Reverend R. Harold Higgs; to Mr. Mose Kiser and Mr. O. D. Nelson, co-chairmen of the entertainment committee; to the thoughtful, kind women of the Woman's Society of Christian Service for serving us coffee and doughnuts and providing the traditional apples so characteristic of our conferences; to the caretakers of the church building whose labors have added to our comfort and happiness; to these individuals and to this entire congregation we say a hearty "thank you."

We are most grateful to the Reverend Herman F. Duncan, superintendent of the Greensboro District, and to the pastors and people of the churches of the Greensboro area, who have opened to us their homes, their hearts, and the facilities of their churches.

To the Honorable Robert M. Frazier, mayor of Greensboro, and to the officials of the city; to the personnel of the police department for allowing us the courtesies of parking for long periods in congested areas; to Sears-Roebuck and Company for the generous use of its parking facilities; and to the various denominations of the city that have graciously welcomed us, we express our gratitude and pray God's blessings.

To our guest speakers who have inspired and uplifted us in devotion, inspiration and challenge: Bishop W. Earl Ledden, Dr. Russell R. Dicks, Dr. Hollis Edens, Chancellor Robert B. House, Dr. Roy L. Smith, Dr. Waldo Beach, and so many others, we acknowledge our debt for the guidance they have given.

In addition we recognize the contributions to our conference program made by the various boards and committees as they have brought to us the great challenge and appeal of our Methodist Church today in the ministry of Christ to the world.

A special word of appreciation is due the choirs of Greensboro College, Bennett College and High Point College for the music which has lifted our hearts in our worship services. God bless them, their directors and their institutions.

To Greensboro College for allowing us to use Odell Memorial Auditorium and to 'The Woman's College for the consideration shown to our Youth in welcoming them, and us, to the Aycock Memorial Auditorium, we are grateful for these gestures of friendly cooperation.

We acknowledge the courtesies to our wives that have been accorded, citing especially the tea given for them in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Few.

And, finally, to our own Bishop Costen J. Harrell for administering with efficiency and poise the conference program through its intricate details and sometimes tense moments; for his inspiring devotional services and for his wise guidance, we are deeply indebted.

As this conference of 1951 comes to its closing moments, we thank God for each of you and pray the Father's blessings on us all.

Respectfully submitted,

S. B. Moss
Ernest Fitzgerald
Paul Ervin
A. A. Kyles

Offerings: An offering amounting to $100 was taken for a gift of appreciation to the janitors of West Market Street Church for their services. An offering of $288.60 was taken to be divided equally among the ministers who have retired in this session of the Conference.

Changes in Charge Boundaries: George B. Clemmer, Acting Secretary of the Cabinet, read the changes in the charge boundaries and they were approved. These changes follow:

BOUNDARY CHANGES

1. Change in District Boundaries: Place Laurel Springs Charge from the Winston-Salem District in the Statesville District and change the name of the charge to Nathan's Creek.

2. Changes in Charge Boundaries:
Asheville District

Take Bethesda and Tabernacle from the Swannanoa Circuit and constitute a new charge to be named Bethesda-Tabernacle.

Combine Etowah and Horse Shoe into a single charge to be named Etowah-Horse Shoe.

Add Piney Mountain to the Pisgah Circuit.

Discontinue Teague's Chapel and Payne's Chapel on the Sandy Charge, and discontinue serving Chestnut Grove (a union church); and add Bell church from the Leicester charge to the Sandy charge, Roberson's Chapel having merged with Western Chapel. The Sandy charge will then be composed of Western Chapel, Big Sandy, Little Sandy, and Bell churches—a four-point charge.

Discontinue Highland (once called Gudger's Chapel) on the Leicester Charge, and leave the Leicester Charge composed of Brick, Leicester, Dix Creek and Grace—a four-point charge.

Discontinue Mount Zion (Jupiter) on the Weaverville Circuit, leaving the Weaverville Circuit composed of Alexander Chapel, Salem, South Fork, Clark's Chapel and Pleasant Grove, a five-point charge.

Charlotte District

Divide Davidson-Fair View to form two stations to be called Davidson and Fair View.

Change name of Brevard Street to Memorial.

From Camp Ground take Bethel, Antioch and Beulah.

Proceedings of a Called Session of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference Broad Street Methodist Church Statesville, North Carolina

January 9, 1951

Conference Convened: After the Conference had joined in singing the hymn, "Saviour, More Than Life to Me," and the prayer led by J. H. Armbrust, Bishop Costen J. Harrell announced that, having met the Disciplinary requirement in consulting with the Cabinet and giving due notice through The North Carolina Christian Advocate, the Western North Carolina Annual Conference is hereby called in special session in Broad Street Methodist Church, Statesville, North Carolina, this the ninth day of January in the Year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-one. Thus the called session was begun at 1:40 p.m. The Bishop announced as the business of the called session the consideration of the status of men who may be called into the chaplaincy and to act on their ordination.

Transfer In: Bishop Harrell announced the transfer of Michael Benjamin Hudnall, a probationer in Deacon's orders, from the South Carolina Annual Conference into this Conference.

Admitted into Full Connection and Orders: For the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, Wilson O. Weldon recommended that Floyd Lee Heckard and Michael Benjamin Hudnall be admitted into full connection and elected to Elder's orders. By vote of the Conference they were admitted into full connection and under the missionary rule F. L. Heckard was elected an Elder and under the seminary rule M. B. Hudnall was elected an Elder.

Transferred Out: Bishop Harrell announced that M. B. Hudnall, in full connection and elected to Elder's orders, is transferred to the South Carolina Annual Conference.

Adjournment: On motion of C. E. Rozzelle the called session was adjourned at 2:02 p.m.

COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

REPORT NO. 1

Whereas in the sudden passing during the past Conference year of Mr. George H. Terry, the Commission on World Service and Finance sustained the loss of a loyal member who served as its capable and beloved Secretary, and Western North Carolina Methodism committed to the church triumphant one of its noblest and most devoted Christian laymen; and,

Whereas the life of Brother Terry was one which constantly demonstrated devoted love for his church and his Savior, as is evidenced by his devout membership in Dilworth Church, Charlotte; his service as chairman of the Official Board of his church; his gracious and unobtrusive generosity to a multitude of worthy charities; his untiring giving of his time and talents to serve as auditor for The Methodist Home, the Board of Conference Claimants, Brevard College, The Lake Junaluska Assembly, and many another church enterprises; and,

Whereas as a fellow member and Secretary of our Commission, his astute business judgment, his stainless integrity and Christian character, his unusual ability to grasp the meaning of a proposal, his cheerful good humor, and his sincere concern for all the interests of his beloved church combined to make him an invaluable counsellor and endeared him to every other member of the Commission; therefore be it

Resolved, that we shall sorely miss his presence in all the meetings of our Commission and in his passing we have lost not only our Secretary but also a wise advisor and a beloved friend;

That we extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Terry and assure her of our earnest hope and prayers that she may be comforted in her sore bereavement;

That a copy of this resolution be spread on the minutes of the Commission, a copy given to Mrs. Terry, and a copy presented to the Western North Carolina Annual Conference at its 1951 session as Report Number 1 of the Commission;

That the Journal of the 1951 session of the Conference be dedicated to the memory of George H. Terry.

Adopted: September 26, 1951

Morning Session.

C. C. HERBERT, JR., President

I. F. CRAVEN, Acting Secy.

REPORT NO. 2

In these days of continuing world crisis with the threat of all-out war on the horizon, it is good to observe that our Methodist people are giving of their substance to the work of the church with growing liberality. Let us constantly act upon the ancient high resolve: "Some trust in chariots, and some trust in horses, but we will remember the Lord our God." The giving of the Western North Carolina Conference is at an all-time high. Your Commission rejoices that our people are meeting the decrease in the value of the dollar by an increase in their giving, that pastors' salaries and other local expenses are being adjusted to the fact of inflation, and that devoted efforts are being made to care for all the missionary and benevolent causes of our church with an awareness of the requirements of the present financial situation. Our Lord commanded us, "Freely ye have received, freely give." Let us determine to grow in our Christian stewardship, and to do our best for the Master of life, to whom alone we can look for perfect guidance in these bewildering days.

We recommend that the total apportionments be divided as follows:

World Service	$ 148,561.00
Conference	116,630.00
	<hr/>
	265,191.00

Jurisdictional Conference	9,847.82
Annual Conference Expense	15,000.00
General Administration Fund	7,848.00
	$ 297,886.82

The General Administration Fund, the Jurisdictional Conference Fund, and the Annual Conference Expense shall be prior claims.

We recommend the following apportionments to the various districts:

Asheville	$ 21,567.29
Charlotte	41,096.48
Gastonia	34,623.47
Greensboro	46,445.45
Marion	17,580.28
Salisbury	36,103.81
Statesville	29,936.36
Thomasville	25,553.21
Waynesville	12,880.23
Winston-Salem	32,100.24
	$ 297,886.82

We recommend the following appropriations:

1. Christian Education, College Section	$ 30,000.00
2. Christian Ed., Local Church Section	23,000.00
3. Church Extension	12,000.00
4. Conference Missions	34,000.00
* 5. Board of Missions, conditional for
Executive Secretary	2,000.00
6. Lay Activities	700.00
7. Wesley Foundations	7,830.00
8. Board of Temperance	4,500.00
9. Board of Evangelism	700.00
10. North Carolina Council of Churches	1,000.00
11. Board of Ministerial Training	600.00
12. Committee on World Peace	300.00
	$ 116,630.00

*NOTE: We heartily approve the proposal of the Board of Missions to employ a full-time Executive Secretary. The $2,000 is appropriated for this purpose on condition that the project be carried out and further necessary funds be procured by the Board of Missions from its own resources and/or other Conference Boards and agencies.

OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That all monies for World Service and Conference Benevolences, Minimum Salary Fund, Episcopal Fund, District Superintendents' Fund, Conference Claimants' Fund, College Sustaining Fund, and Town and Country be handled through the Conference Treasurer.

2. That all Boards and Commissions whose Annual Appropriations are $5,000.00 or less shall use the Conference Treasurer as fiscal agent, in order to save expense of separate audits and bonds (Discipline, par. 792).

3. That the Episcopal Fund shall be an amount equal to 1¼% of the salary of the pastor and ministerial assistants for the current year.

4. That an amount equal to 4½% (being a reduction of ¼ of 1%) of the salary of the pastor and ministerial assistants for the current year be assessed for the support of the District Superintendents, and that the salary of each District Superintendent be fixed at $6,600.

5. The Board of Conference Claimants is asking for an apportionment of an amount equal to 17% of the pastor's salary. We call attention to paragraph 1624 of the Discipline, which states that the percentage for Conference Claimants shall apply to the salaries of the pastor and all ministerial assistants.

6. That each charge pay to the Minimum Salary Fund an amount equal to 5% of the amount raised by the charge the preceding year on the following items:

- (a) Paid Other Current Expenses and Incidentals (Including Interest, etc.) (Item 44 of pastor's report.)
- (b) Paid for Church School Administration, Supplies, etc. (Item 45 of pastor's report.)
- (c) Paid Minister and Associate Minister(s). (Item 47 of pastor's report)

That the schedule of Minimum Salary for the ensuing year be $2,750.00 for effective Conference members, including members on trial; $2,300.00 for full-time accepted supplies; and $2,100.00 for other full-time supplies, including retired supplies; and that salaries for part-time supplies and student pastors be on an adjusted basis;

That the Board of Missions administer the Minimum Salary Fund.

7. That each charge pay to the College Sustaining Fund an amount equal to a minimum of 3% of the amount raised by the charge the preceding year on the following items:

- (a) Paid Other Current Expenses and Incidentals (Including Interest, etc.) (Item 44 of Pastor's report).
- (b) Paid for Church School Administration, Supplies, etc. (Item 45 of pastor's report.)
- (c) Paid Minister and Associate Minister(s) (Item 47 of pastor's report);

and that the Board of Education distribute the College Sustaining Fund on the basis of 28% to Brevard College, 28% to Greensboro College, 28% to High Point College, 9% to Duke University, and 7% to Duke Divinity School to be used for scholarships for theological students. The fact that the Duke Divinity School is now experiencing the largest enrollment in its history makes the need for scholarships an urgent claim.

8. We have an urgent request from the Presidents and Trustees of each of our colleges for capital funds that are desperately needed. The Methodist College Foundation which was authorized at the 1949 conference, joins in their appeal for the funds and certifies that their requests are the minimum immediate requirements. This request is also recommended by the Board of Education.

We therefore recommend (1) that the United College Appeal, begun during the Conference year 1950-51, be entered into jointly with the North Carolina Conference, with a minimum over-all goal of $2,500,000 for Greensboro, High Point, Brevard, and Louisburg Colleges; that the minimum goal for each college be as follows:

Greensboro College for Buildings	$600,000
High Point College	800,000
(a) For Buildings	500,000
(b) For Endowment	300,000
Brevard College for Buildings	700,000
Louisburg College	400,000
(a) For Buildings	250,000
(b) For Endowment	150,000

- (2) We recommend that quotas be set at 60% for Western North Carolina Conference and 40% for North Carolina Conference.

- (3) That the organization and personnel of the Methodist College Foundation be used in the actual handling of this campaign.
- (4) That the Bishop and his Cabinet, together with the Executive Committee of the Methodist College Foundation be and are authorized to determine the proportions or amounts that are to be allocated to each District, and that the Methodist College Foundation District Committee together with the District Superintendent, are to determine how the District goal is to be allocated and raised on each charge.

9. That we approve the request of the Board of Education that every church observe "Church School Rally Day" with an offering on April 20 or as near thereto as possible.

10. That we approve the request of the Inter-Conference Wesley Foundation Commission for the privilege of soliciting from individuals who desire to make special gifts for the benefit of the Commission's work.

11. That the apportionment for The Children's Home in Winston-Salem shall be an amount equal to 10% of the pastor's salary for the current year, and that each charge voluntarily adopt a total charge goal, including the 10% apportionment, on the following basis:

- 12% for charges paying the pastor less than $1,500.
- 15% for charges paying the pastor from $1,500 to $2,499.
- 18% for charges paying the pastor from $2,500 to $3,499.
- 21% for charges paying the pastor from $3,500 to $4,499.
- 25% for charges paying the pastor $4,500 or more.

12. That Mother's Day be set as a time when all churches are to receive special free-will offerings for the Methodist Home for the Aged. Funds realized from these offerings are to be used to provide care for those who cannot pay the cost of their own care and to finance the further building and equipment of the Home. The Board of Managers of the Methodist Home for the Aged shall be granted the privilege of soliciting and receiving free-will contributions for the building of the south wing of the Home.

13. That the month of April be designated as Golden Cross Month, during which time our churches are urged to receive an offering, to be expended at the direction of the Board of Hospitals and Homes.

14. That any overpayment on World Service and Conference Benevolences be distributed equally between College Place Church, Greensboro, and Fairmont Church, Raleigh, for use in the construction of building to serve Methodist students attending Woman's College of the University of North Carolina and State College of the University of North Carolina; provided that and to the extent that the North Carolina Conference participate on the basis of $40.00 for each $60.00 paid in the Western North Carolina Conference; otherwise the surplus or any part thereof shall be distributed equally between the Church Extension section of the Board of Missions and the College Section of the Board of Education, of the Western North Carolina Conference.

15. That Herbert M. Wayne be heartily commended for his consecrated, faithful, and efficient service as Conference Treasurer, and that Fred D. Russell be designated Assistant Conference Treasurer.

16. That H. C. Northrup be designated Conference Auditor.

17. That out of the Annual Conference Expense Fund the following expenditures shall be made:

- (a) An all-inclusive salary of $2,700 for the Conference Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, and necessary clerical help.
- (b) $400 salary, plus postage and extra clerical help for Conference Secretary.
- (c) $250 salary, plus extra clerical help, for the Conference Statistician.
- (d) $400 remuneration for the Conference Auditor.
- (e) $200 for Bishop's office expense account.

- (f) $15 remuneration for each District Statistician.
- (g) Necessary expenses, for Conference Treasurer, Conference Secretary, and Conference Statistician to attend Jurisdictional meeting of these officers held at Lake Junaluska.
- (h) That all necessary expenses in connection with the entertainment of the annual conference be authorized by the committees on Conference Entertainment and that the Chairman or Secretary of the said committee approve all bills incurred in entertaining the annual conference.
- (i) We recommend that the Treasurer be authorized to pay any deficit in annual conference expenses from the reserve on hand.

18. The books of the following treasurers have been audited or are in the process of being audited and each treasurer is bonded by his institution as follows:

Brevard College	$ 10,000.00
Greensboro College	35,000.00
Assistant bonded for	10,000.00
High Point College	25,000.00
Assistant bonded for	10,000.00
Children's Home	30,000.00

The World Service Commission has a position bond for the Treasurers in the following amounts:

Board of Education	$ 10,000.00
Board of Missions	35,000.00
Assistant Treasurer	10,000.00
Board of Church Extension	10,000.00
Conference Claimants	25,000.00
Charlotte City Mission Society	10,000.00
Conference Treasurer	35,000.00

BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

REPORT NO. 1

LOGAN BERGE ABERNETHY, D.D.

Let us now praise famous men and our fathers that begat us—in whom the Lord showeth forth his glory—men who bore dominion in the earth-giving counsel by their wisdom and speaking with prophetic power. Thus the Apochrapha enjoins the remembrance of rare souls honored in their generation and says “the assembly shall recount their wisdom, and the congregation shall tell out their praise.”

If we also appraise them our minds seek out the root and reason for their fame. In addition to the innate stamp of genius which the Creator puts on the favored few, there are some more mundane factors which the biographer always brings into his saga of the sages. This is true of that tall tower of strength and pleasing personality whose impressive body was topped with a noble grey head which was truly a crown of glory to LOGAN BERGE ABERNETHY, who being gone yet speaks to us in the Board of Missions and to this Conference.

In the beginning was the land and this enshrined Spirit had his roots in the good earth and they were watered by the perennial flow of the Catawba. For there is that river whose streams made glad a great basin of W. N. C., and it has cradled the homes of many of the State's strong families. Its western bound of that basin is the outline of the Blue Ridge where the silver fingers of the river reach for the rims. Here, beside the Catawba, where the hills level off to meet the plains, the Educator Dr. R. L. and Mary Hayes Abernethy built their home and founded the college later called Rutherford, and here Berge grew up, went to school and graduated, and later taught.

He was a member of a large family and sometimes the meal in the barrel was low because Dr. Abernethy often shared what he had with his students. This training gave discipline to young Berge and possibly taught him the fine economy that he displayed in educating and caring for his own family, all of whom finished college, some continued in graduate work, two with doctors degrees.

His character in capsule might include this: Born to a good blood line, in a frontier culture of limited chance, he developed a strong body and a clear mind and mastered the circumstances and used obstacles as stepping-stones to higher things.

His keen energy made him interested in many things, and few if any men among us have been more versatile. He was a youth when the whistle of the first “iron horse” awoke the country-side between Salisbury and Morganton. The steel rails of the railroad attracted men like a magnet, and for a while he worked for the “Southern” and became proficient in the art of telegraphy. They called it “slinging lightning” in those days, and there was romance and enthrallment in pushing the railhead west until the steel steed thundered over the mountains and into Asheville; thence westward along the Murphy Branch and young Abernethy was there putting in his part to opening up the “lost provinces.” As long as he lived, he liked to listen to the clicking of the Morse Code, and he could catch the message from the chattering tongue at the end of a long wire.

Germaine to the outline of this character, of this rare person, is another insight into his genius: I refer to him as an educator, and with special reference to his work at Cullowhee now known as W. N. C. Teachers College, and perhaps the most influential institution west of the Piedmont. It has been so for a score of years and is rapidly being expanded into a greater educational center. The real founder is that grand old layman, Professor R. L. Madison, but the institution would have flourished in a sea of poverty but for the heroic rescue of two other devoted men, namely: Professor A. C. Reynolds of Asheville, then president, and Dr. L. B. Abernethy, professor of Mathematics, the subject of this paper.

There came a time in 1911-1912 when the college had to expand or quit. They had little or no room for class work or offices, and the faculty decided to erect an administration building; but it was the old case of making brick without straw or money, and Abernethy often told of how he and President Reynolds gave their personal notes, borrowed money and made their own brick, hoping that the State might some day repay them. Dr. Abernethy had been a builder with his uncle, Logan Abernethy, and was able to plan and direct the construction. He bought materials, raised money, paid the laborers, etc., finished the building and remained to teach Mathematics.

He was an impressive lecturer and commanded great respect on the campus and in the surrounding pulpits. He was a man of ripe scholarship without a trace of pedantry. Dean W. E. Bird says "to know him was to love and respect him; to observe him was to marvel at his intellectuality, versatility, and the strength of his personality. History, theology, literature and mathematics all seemed an inseparable part of truth, and in his brilliant discourses he seldom repeated. "Cullowhee" remained in his heart to the last. Several times, I have heard him say that the school was doing a great work for western North Carolina. He often asked the Board of Missions to aid the Methodist Church in Cullowhee, and seldom if ever was he turned down. A few days before his death, he was dreaming and planning for the church and the pupils in the school, and we are trying to carry out his wishes, not because they were his but because they are just and wise.

A letter from one of his contemporaries referring to his saving work at Cullowhee says: "To those who believe that there is a Divinity that shapes man's ends, these will little doubt that Dr. Abernethy was divinely called to this work."

No summation of his virtues can leave out another of his signal qualities—that of his ability to make friends of all classes of people and to beget complete confidence in them. He knew more people in an intimate, friendly way and enjoyed their trust—more than any man in our ministry or in any other profession. The learned and the unlearned, rich and poor, the official and the unofficial all made up that wide belt of humanity that knew and admired L. B. Abernethy.

His personal integrity was never questioned, and his plain spoken though kindly convictions were always expressed with candor and courage. He was respectful and loyal, but he did not fawn on those who might be in authority above him. He was free from the ugly and common sin of little men, that of flattering the influential while oppressing the poor.

His adaptability to situations without compromise of principle was almost amazing. His genius for presenting a cause with telling stories was so apt that he never made a dull speech. I have heard him make scores of them, but it was never the same speech, and it was always interesting and usually brief.

So symmetrical and well rounded was this man that no weakness is observable in all his many activities: Hospitals for the ill, homes for the aged were his concern, but missions was his magnificent obsession for his last brave years. In the domestic realm, he was a friend, counselor and priest, greatly adored and almost idolized by his noble family who were a joy to him in his old age. He, in fact, had many years, but no old age. There was an eternal youth about him, and a power not of earth sustained him in the long afternoon of a full day. No sourness touched his magnanimous soul and cynicism never seeped into his spirit. He left his footprints on all our roads and we follow on. "He was a man, take him for all in all. I shall not look upon his like again."

His life epitomized the spirit of Wordsworth's "Happy Warrior"; for he was the one

"Who comprehends his trust, and to the same Keeps faith with a singleness of aim;
And therefore does not stoop nor lie in wait
For wealth, or honors, or for worldly state;
His powers shed round him in the common strife,
Or mild concerns of ordinary life,
A constant influence, a peculiar grace;
And though endued as with a sense
And faculty for storm and turbulence,
Is yet a soul whose master-bias leans
To home felt pleasures and gentle scenes.
And while the mortal mist is gathering, draws
His breath in confidence of heaven's applause:
This is the Happy Warrior; this is he
That every man in arms should wish to be."

REPORT NO. 2

With deep appreciation for the encouragement and support given the missionary program of our Conference by the Bishop and his cabinet, and by all others during the past year, and with justifiable expectations for even a better year ahead, we render this report:

MISSION SPECIALS

We have received gratifying reports of what has been accomplished and undertaken through the support of our Conference in the form of Foreign Mission Specials. Of more than $80,000 a year which we have contributed to this cause during the past two years, about $70,000 goes for recurring projects divided almost equally between the support of missionaries and the support of national Christian workers. These specials must by all means be continued. Because of them our work has been lifted to a new level. New missionaries have been sent and new work is being done because our Board believes that our people want the Church to strengthen its witness and service around the world at this critical hour. Specials for Poland should be continued so long as we are still receiving reports of the remarkable vitality of the work there. New specials, however, should go either for the support of a new American missionary in North Africa or for the building program there.

We strongly recommend the cultivation and giving of Mission Specials designated, and undesignated, to the work of church extension in our own Conference. We wish to call your attention to two of the approved Mission Specials in our Conference:

THE CHEROKEE MISSION SPECIAL

Our Board is greatly encouraged because of the reception given to the Cherokee Mission by our Conference. Concrete evidence of the support of the Mission Special has come to us in the form of more than $2,000 up to the meeting of this Annual Conference. Again we are asking that this special be continued and supported, both because of the need for Christian service to our Indians, who were the first Americans, and by reason of the success of the project, which can be completed within a few weeks but at a higher cost than first anticipated. The general development of the section of Western North Carolina, the unusual success of the pageant "Unto These Hills," depicting the injustice and suffering of the Cherokees at the time of their departure for Oklahoma, and the ready response which the Indians are giving to our church building makes it imperative that this work be carried out to completion.

HIGHLANDS MISSION SPECIAL

One of the most hopeful situations in our Conference is at Highlands, where through long years a small, faithful congregation has held the fort for Methodism. Recently, at the instigation of a local committee of the local church, and greatly aided by Bishop Harrell, who surveyed the scene and gave his hearty endorsement to it, we have started a new church. It is situated in a strategic center where three states are joined, and where many of our Methodist people from the South come to spend the summer. This church has been started, and the local congregation is supporting it wholeheartedly. Your Board of Missions recommends that Mission Specials be taken by local churches for Highlands this year.

FULL-TIME CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Being aware of the fact that the ministers and the church school teachers are "the voice of God" calling capable young people into full-time life service, let us urge every Christian leader in our Conference to watch and pray for opportunities of leading our youth into the serious consideration of full-time Christian service in the ministry, the mission field or in Christian education. The Conference Seminar for Youthful Christians held this year by our Bishop, the cabinet, the leaders of our Youth Organization and officers of the Woman's Society, should be repeated this year. We urge the ministers and leaders in the local churches to register their finest young people for this Seminar.

Our choicest young people should be given opportunity of service under the Lisle Fellowship, summer caravans, and work camps in Europe to acquaint themselves with the work of full-time Christian service.

THE WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

The Woman's Society of Christian Service now reports 801 societies and 152 units of the Wesleyan Service Guild, with a total membership of about 39,000.

There are still 241 churches within this Conference that do not have a woman's organization, and the women urge the ministers to cooperate with them in completing the organization in every church.

The total amount of money sent to the Division treasurer in New York for the year, June 1, 1950-1951, was in excess of $157,000. About $20,000 more was spent within the Conference on special projects, and at the close of the year there was a balance in the Conference treasury of $20,000.

We are steadily gaining new recruits for full-time service, twenty-two of whom are now being assisted by our Student Scholarship Fund.

DISTRICT MISSIONARY SECRETARY

The District Missionary Secretaries have during the year contributed much to the effective dissemination of missions information and the missionary spirit to the churches of the Conference. The usefulness of the Secretaries may be greatly increased, however, if each Superintendent at the beginning of the Conference year will establish with his secretary an understanding as to what goals he shall seek during the year, what responsibilities he shall assume, and what funds are to be available to him for promotion purposes.

It is recommended that the District Missionary Secretary be used in close assistance to the Conference Missionary Secretary, particularly in an evaluation of the mission program within the various districts. The District Secretary ought, by reason of diligent investigation, to be able to promote Mission Specials, missionary education, church extension, and the organization of city, county and district Mission Societies.

LOCAL CHURCH BOARDS OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

The Discipline (pp. 231-233) provides for the organization of a Local Board of Missions and Church Extension in every church. We lament the fact that so many churches do not have such a board, or having it allow it to lapse into inaction. The church that is without the services of such a group is missing one of the greatest of all opportunities "to help promote the Kingdom of God throughout the world by enlisting the active support of every member of the church in a study of the needs of the world, in definite missionary service, and in regular contributions to the cause of missions and church extension." As an agent for distributing missionary literature, promoting mission study, and enlisting support to World Service and especially to Specials, the Local Church Board of Missions and Church Extension is the pastor's best assistant. We hope that the district superintendents will insist that every church which does not already have one, set up such an organization.

FOURTH SUNDAY PROGRAMS AND OFFERINGS

We urge that fourth Sunday programs be presented interestingly and appealingly in all our church schools, and that the offerings on these days be sent to the Conference Treasurer as world service offerings.

CITY MISSION SOCIETIES AND COUNTY BOARDS

Reports of the various city mission societies and county boards of missions and church extension indicate that these are very effective types of organizations to promote church extension and increase the effectiveness of our evangelistic efforts. The reports received from the organizations are:

1. Asheville City Mission Society. The Asheville City Mission Society is fully organized in the city of Asheville and have in their treasury at the close of the year $139.00.

2. Cabarrus County Mission Society. The Cabarrus County Mission Society has been organized with every church in the county a member. The establishment of one new church and assistance for another church (North Kannapolis Methodist Church) under construction was adopted as the program for the year. The sum of $972.00 has been raised for the promotion of this program. The purchase of a lot for a new church, located in a fast developing section near the Cabarrus County Hospital, will be the principal project for development early in the new Conference year.

3. Charlotte City Mission Society. Operating within a budget of about $5,000 provided by the churches of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County, the Charlotte City Mission Society has had a splendid year. All of the eight new churches have had perhaps their largest growth for any year since their first establishment. A ninth new charge has been organized as Bethel Methodist Church. The lot has been purchased; the church organized; and plans made to build a combination chapel and classroom building just as soon as building restrictions will permit.

The Society has assisted the Brevard Street Methodist Church in determining its future course and provided $5,000 from capital funds as the down payment on a large lot in a most excellent location on the Albemarle Road, just about at the city limits.

Duncan Memorial Church, for which the Society provided $25,000.00, has moved into and is now using its new church and educational building, and is serving its community with adequate facilities and a renewed vigor.

It is their hope that a tenth new church will be organized during the coming year and located on a lot already owned by the Charlotte City Mission Society on the corner of Providence Road and Sharon Lane.

The City Mission Society, during the year, also had a survey made by the Department of City Mission work of the Board of Church Extension and is locating all of its projected new places in line with the very best advice and direction obtainable.

In line with this report, they have agreed to support the relocation of Spencer Memorial Church on a lot about three or four blocks east of its present location and nearer the center of its membership.

4. The Davie County Board of Missions and Church Extension. The Davie County Board of Missions and Church Extension has promoted the work of rearranging circuits and has aided in the construction of two new parsonages, Dulin's and Liberty-Concord. Two new churches have been dedicated, Concord and Wesley Chapel.

5. Greensboro City Mission Society. The Greensboro City Mission Society has been organized during the past year. Its activities thus far have been that of preparation of plans for surveys, creation of new churches, re-location of churches and the strengthening of needy situations. They report assistance to the Joyner Memorial Church which has been re-opened. Contributions to the Society for the year amount to $803.00.

6. High Point Mission Society. The High Point Mission Society is completing the Sherwood Church at a cost of $25,000.00. This building has a sanctuary seating 225 and eight class rooms. This building was made possible by the Methodist churches in High Point and Jamestown. A balance of $421.00 remains in their treasury.

7. Asheboro City Mission Society. The Asheboro Mission Society has had another great year. Under its auspices a second new church has been organized. This occurred on Sunday, September 16, 1951. The date is so recent that the name of the new church is not finally settled. For the time being it will be known as the West Side Mission Methodist Church. The Board is continuing its support of the new Calvary Church in North Asheboro, having pledged an additional thousand dollars on a new parsonage which is now being built there. Since last annual Conference an all-purpose activities building has been constructed at Calvary at a cost of $10,000, with an indebtedness of only $3,000 remaining against it.

8. Surry County Board of Missions. The Surry County Board of Missions continues effective service in church extension and membership growth. During the past year a new charge has been set up called the Virginia Circuit. A Mount Airy layman has contributed the use of a house as a parsonage for this charge for the next four years. The Salem congregation has purchased a lot for a new parsonage. Level Cross charge is building a new plant at Stony Knoll.

9. Winston-Salem City Mission Society. The Winston-Salem City Mission Society has made a survey in the Park Terrace section in Winston-Salem with the expectation of organizing a church in that area. The new Trinity Church that was aided by the Society is doing effective work.

FURTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

We recommend that a Missionary Institute be set up in each district as early in the Conference year as possible.

We recommend that the month of November be set apart by this Conference for special promotion of the general missionary periodical of our church. We urge that the second Sunday of November be generally observed as World Outlook Sunday and that pastors and local Boards of Missions use that occasion to bring this excellent magazine to the attention of our people.

We recommend that all applications for aid from both sections of our Board be made on appropriate application blanks.

We further recommend that all applications for aid customarily made at annual Conference be in the hands of the executive committee of the Board at least two weeks before Conference convenes.

We recommend that where aid is given for church or parsonage buildings that adequate insurance of these buildings be required.

We recommend that in the immediate future our Board concentrate its giving to the building and strengthening of churches and parsonages in strategic areas.

We recommend that the two sections of our combined Board act as a unit in every project possible, and that in no case should appropriations be made without the knowledge of the other.

We recommend that appropriation from the General Board of Missions and Church Extension, the Duke Fund, and special funds of City or County Mission Societies may be applied after the minimum salary has been paid either by the charge and the minimum Salary Fund.

We nominate for membership on the General Board of Missions and Church Extension, Reverend Walter B. West and Ben L. Smith.

We respectfully request that the Bishop appoint Horace R. McSwain as Conference Missionary Secretary.

ENABLING ACT

The Executive Committee of the Board of Missions and Church Extension is authorized to make such changes in the appropriations as, in keeping with the established policies, are necessitated by the appointments when read by the presiding Bishop, and to include in the report to be published in the Journal such appropriations from the Minimum Salary Fund as are necessary to meet the minimum salary levels.

REPORT NO. 3

During the past year the Section of Church Extension helped seven parsonages and sixteen churches by donations of money, and has rendered aid to quite a few churches and parsonages by providing help from loan funds.

We would gladly have helped other deserving applicants had our resources been sufficient, but we work with very limited capital.

Many boards of trustees evidently considerably over-estimate our ability, considering the large donations for which they apply. For in some instances one application asks for more than half of all our donation capital. We suggest, therefore, that those who come for aid first inform themselves of our ability by consulting with some member of our committee, and by reading this and our Treasurer's report before preparing the application.

We strongly recommend that all trustees of churches and parsonages see that adequate fire insurance be kept in force on all church property.

Following the policy and example of our General Board of Church Extension, the Section of Church Extension has decided to follow the practice of requiring that a refunding bond be issued by trustees of all projects which receive donations from this Board for church or parsonage construction. The enforcement of this policy will begin with all donations approved after this date.

In keeping with the best information given us, we have tried conscientiously to help as many applicants as we can and just as liberally as we possibly can. We therefore approve the following donations at this time:

TO PARSONAGES

Calvary, Asheboro	$500
Cid	500

TO CHURCHES

Longtown	$400
New Hope	100
Mount Mitchell	500
Mount Vernon	300
Oak Grove	250
South China Grove	350
Stony Knoll	500
Warrensville	600

We are holding for further consideration the application of Hiatt Memorial. We approve for the General Board the application of Doubs Church.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF EDUCATION

REPORT NO. 1

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES SECTION

The Board of Education received reports from the trustees or presidents of Duke University, Greensboro College, High Point College, Brevard College, and Pfeiffer Junior College. The following statistics have been recorded:

For the year ending June 30, 1951, the president of Duke University reported an enrollment for the academic year 1950-51 of 5,047; summer school, 1950, 1,577; officers and teachers, not including assistants, 614. Total assets of the University, including the value of the plant, were listed as $67,203,758.88. Confirmation is asked for the following nominations to the Board of Trustees to succeed themselves: C. A. Cannon, P. Frank Hanes, George M. Ivey, and B. S. Womble, all of whose terms expire December 31, 1951. Dean James Cannon, of the Divinity School of Duke University, reported unprecedented enrollment for this year. The Board of Education wishes to call the attention of the Conference to this increase and the obligations it imposes upon the churches for continued and expanded support of the Divinity School. The Board was especially interested in hearing from Dean Cannon that plans are being made for strengthening the work for the M.R.E. degree for which there is an increasing number of candidates. The Board wishes to record its endorsement of the action of the Commission on World Service and Finance to allocate to the Duke Divinity School the sum of $6,000 for this year.

Greensboro College reported statistics for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1951, as follows: number of officers and teachers, 51; students enrolled, 415; value of property, $1,946,455.41; endowment, $651,659.53; no indebtedness. Confirmation is requested for the nomination of Dr. G. T. Rowe, whose term expires December 31, 1951, to succeed himself as trustee for a term expiring December 31, 1955.

The president of High Point College reported for the year ending May 31, 1951, as follows: officers and teachers, 56; attendance at summer school, 498; extension, 110; regular sessions, 765; making a total of 1,373 different enrollments. Value of lands, buildings and equipment at $1,128,351.79; endowment at $547,496.61. No long term indebtedness was reported. The Board of Trustees recommends the confirmation of the following members whose terms are to expire in 1955: Dr. C. L. Gray, Mr. L. F. Ross, and Rev. S. W. Taylor.

Brevard College reported an enrollment of 267 and 30 faculty members. Its endowment is listed at $505,663.96 and property is valued at $729,887.35. Request was made for the confirmation of J. E. Millis, of High Point, as trustee to fill a vacancy.

Pfeiffer College reported enrollment of 302, 21 faculty members, $480,250 endowment, and property valued at $1,850,000.

The Methodist College Foundation requests the confirmation of Mr. W. B. Moore, of Wadesboro, as trustee.

The Board of Education was impressed by the reports of the effects of the college sustaining fund on the morale and stability of the college faculties. College administrators indicated their appreciation of this vitally needed support. The Board commends our Conference for being one of the first in the entire connection to reach the fifty cents per capita goal of support to our educational institutions. The reports of college heads concerning enrollment, the maintenance of academic standards and financial management are also to be commended, especially the operation of these institutions within their budgets under existing additional costs of operation.

We recommend the following appointments:

Kenneth W. Clark, professor in Duke University.

George B. Ehlhardt, President, Brevard College.

Norman A. Huffman, professor of Religion, Willamette University.

P. E. Lindley and W. R. Locke, professors in High Point College.

R. W. McLain, professor, American University, Washington, D. C.

J. H. Phillips, Director of Religious Activities, Duke University.

C. E. Roy, professor in Brevard College.

George M. Schreyer, professor in Baker University, Kansas.

Raymond A. Smith, professor in Greensboro College.

M. B. Stokes, G. Ray Jordan and Earl Brewer, professors in Emory University.

The Board recommends the re-election of the following to the Board of Managers of the Duke Pastors' School, terms to expire in 1954: Mark Depp, W. Harold Groce, W. J. Miller, and W. A. Stanbury. Terms to expire in 1952: C. P. Bowles, Carl H. King, and G. T. Rowe. Terms to expire in 1953: M. T. Hips, W. A. Kale, W. G. McFarland, and Wilson O. Weldon.

The Board received a report from Kenneth Goodson, president of the J. B. Cornelius Foundation, Inc., for the past year. Certified audit of financial state of the fund was included. Students aided and money expended exceeded that of any previous year, the total number of young women assisted with college expenses being 46.

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. KALE, Chairman

E. K. McLARTY, JR., Secretary.

REPORT NO. 2 LOCAL CHURCH

A review of the activities of the staff for the year now closing reveals the broad and thorough effort made to reach the largest possible number of people with the best possible program of Christian nurture. The over-all results are indicated by an increase this Conference year in our Church School enrollment of 3,343 pupils, bringing the total Conference enrollment to 189,106. Under Mrs. Reed's direction, more than 40,000 children have had the advantages of vacation schools. Miss Craig has organized and directed the religious activities of 1,200 of our youth in camps and assemblies, where leaders may spend days with our high school boys and girls in a setting that is unparalleled in the opportunity it affords to lead these young people to be devoted Christians. Add to these two phases of our work the 5,000 credits earned in some 50 Schools for Christian Workers and some idea is gained of the purpose and scope of the program of religious education in our Conference.

Two publishing events of major importance will occur within the year ahead: the first volumes of The Interpreters' Bible will appear; and the Revised Standard Version of the Bible will be made available. Your Board of Education joins with Protestant groups everywhere in the eager anticipation of these two events which promise to contribute so much to the intelligent understanding of the Holy Scriptures.

We give hearty endorsement to the National Conference on Family Life to be held in Chicago, October 12-14, and urge our churches to encourage attendance of selected representatives.

We request confirmation of the following staff members: Carl H. King, Executive Secretary; Mrs. W. R. Reed, Director of Children's Work; Miss Marion Craig, Director of Youth Work.

We request confirmation of the following Trustees of Camp Tekoa: Terms to expire in 1952: J. F. Yokely, Box 431, Mount Airy; Fred Manchester, 60 Fenner Ave., Asheville; Mrs. John Douglas, First Methodist Church, Charlotte; Clifford H. Peace, 416 Springdale Ave., Winston-Salem. Terms to expire in 1953: Mrs. W. Franklin Brown, 671 Llewellyn Pl., Charlotte; Mrs. Fred J. Stanback, Confederate Ave., Salisbury; Howard C. Wilkinson, First Methodist Church, Lexington; Robert G. Tuttle, Broad Street Methodist Church, Statesville; Guy Phillips, Jr., Greensboro. Terms to expire in 1954: Edwin Ford, Shelby; Miss Jean Buchanan, Hendersonville; W. Franklin Brown, 671 Llewellyn Pl., Charlotte; Mrs. Carl H. King, 310 South Fulton, Salisbury; Charles P. Bowles, Dilworth Methodist Church, Charlotte.

The following persons are certified Directors of Christian Education and have reported to the Board of Education: Miss Lorene Weaver, Greensboro; Miss Mary Bethea, Louisburg College, Louisburg; Miss Betty Johnson, Missionary to India; Mrs. G. G. Adams, Sr., Methodist Home for the Aged, Charlotte; Miss Louise Aycock, Main Street Church, Gastonia; Mrs. C. H. Dickson, Jr. (Inez Rufty), Asheville; Mrs. R. M. Hauss, Box 2, Shelby; Miss Lena Davis, Grace Church, Greensboro; Mrs. Jimmy Williams (Catherine Boyer), Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Ill.; Miss Martha Koestline, Hammond, Ind. (transferred); Miss Clara Ross, Newport News, Va. (transferred); Mrs. John Douglas, Charlotte; Miss Lena Sharpe, Central Church, Asheville; Miss Betty Swofford, Mississippi (transferred); Miss Louise Robinson, West Market Street Church, Greensboro; Miss Marion F. Craig, Box 828, Salisbury; Miss Elsie Ellen Moore, Wesley Memorial Church, High Point; Miss Lucille Duncan, West Asheville Church, Asheville; Miss Vivian Stewart, First Church, Hendersonville; Miss Elizabeth A. Jarratt, Myers Park Church, Charlotte; Miss Barbara J. Kirk, Dilworth Church, Charlotte; Mrs. Mary W. Cole, Duncan Memorial Church, Charlotte; Miss Clara Watkins, Central Church, Asheville; Miss Ethel Martin, Centenary Church, Winston-Salem; Miss Helen Terry, Wesley Foundation, Greensboro.

We respectfully request the confirmation of the following members of the N. C. Council of Churches, terms to expire in 1954: J. H. Brendall, Jr., A. J. Cox, W. B. Hall, Walter T. McFall, B. J. Ramsaur.

We request that the printed report of the Executive Secretary to Annual Conference be printed in the Conference Journal as a part of this report.

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. KALE, Chairman
E. K. McLARTY, JR., Secretary

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE SECRETARY TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

GENERAL ITEMS

Church School Membership was 185,673 at the 1950 Annual Conference. This total represents an annual increase each year since 1944. This enrollment is the largest in the history of the conference. It is hoped that the report this year will show another wholesome gain.

Thirteen thousand, three hundred eight volunteer officers and teachers plan and direct the activities of the 1,060 Church Schools in which 185,673 children, young people and adults are enrolled. The leadership of these men and women is invaluable to the cause of Christian education in our conference. The Board of Education is responsible for and gladly accepts the task of working with these leaders in an effort to improve the teaching ministry of our churches.

Full-time workers in Christian education are employed in forty churches of our conference. These persons, along with ministers, officers and teachers, are constantly at work for the advancement of Christian education in our churches.

A conference-wide meeting was held for these directors in Charlotte last February and plans are now under way for another such meeting next February.

The Church School Superintendents Conference, Lake Junaluska, July 27-29, was well attended by a number of persons from Western North Carolina. Meetings of this type have proved to be most helpful to these administrative officers and other persons working with them.

Leadership Training continues to be a major activity in our conference program. The attendance at training schools, camps, assemblies, and leadership schools was the finest ever. Some of the largest and best training schools on record in our conference were held in recent years.

Church School giving to World Service and Conference Benevolences on Fourth Sundays according to Herbert M. Wayne was $25,461.63 to September 20. More will be added when all financial reports are complete. Members of the conference staff are responsible for the cultivation of this program of missionary education and giving.

CHILDREN'S DIVISION

Vacation Church School Institutes were held in every district and in reach of every church during April and May. As a result 40,034 children from 708 churches were enrolled in 662 Vacation Schools. These schools afford one of our best opportunities for additional Christian education of children and early teen age youth.

The Pfeiffer College Workshop held in May for the past two years provides excellent opportunities for workers with children to develop a conference-wide fellowship and to improve our work with children.

Laboratory Schools were held in Charlotte and Salisbury in June. This approach to leadership training is most attractive and appealing to workers with children.

The Children's Building at Junaluska is a project worthy of our continued support. An amount of $6,158.76 has been paid on our conference quota of $6,000. More than $30,000 is now in hand from the Jurisdiction toward a goal of $50,000.

The White House Conference held in Washington last December was an outstanding occasion in the interest of children and youth. Mrs. W. R. Reed was a member of the delegation invited by Governor Scott to attend from North Carolina.

A Planning Session for work during the year ahead was held at Pfeiffer College, September 21-22, for the District Directors and other workers with children. Dr. Mary Alice Jones, National Director of Children's Work, Nashville, was the General Board Representative.

District Directors render invaluable service throughout the year. We are indebted to Mrs. P. M. Camak, Miss Kate Crowell, Mrs. R. M. Hauss, Miss Blanche Norman, Miss Loree Harrill, Mrs. W. P. Moore, Mrs. S. A. Rhyne, Mrs. W. F. Perkins, Mrs. Robert Early, Mrs. Delbert Byrum, and Mrs. J. C. Mason for leadership in the various districts.

YOUTH DIVISION

Camp Tekoa, Hendersonville, had nine sessions of successful camping, June 6 to August 10, followed by a meeting of the Conference Youth Council.

1. 556 Intermediate boys and girls, representing each district, were in attendance.
2. Sixty-two counselors gave a week or more of volunteer time totaling 110 weeks of free service. Camping is an excellent project in Christian education for both campers and counselors.
3. W. F. Hart, State Sanitarian, visited the camp on July 26. After a thorough inspection, he gave the camp a Grade A rating with a score of 96 points. This was the highest rating given to any camp under his supervision this summer.
4. Program activities were directed by Miss Marion Craig and Mrs. Carl King.

A GENEROUS CONTRIBUTION TO CAMP TEKOA

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Stanback, Fred J. Stanback, Jr., and Jean Stanback of Salisbury made a generous contribution of $8,380 to a new building at Camp Tekoa. The members of this family have given liberally to the camp project, and to many other good causes, since the camp was started. It is hoped that this building will be ready for use in 1952.

Two Assemblies at Junaluska were attended by about 700 young people and leaders. Robert H. Stamey and Mrs. G. W. Bumgarner served as dean and head counselor of the older group while Gilreath Adams and Mrs. Adams carried these responsibilities for the Senior Assembly. C. C. Herbert, Jr., and Grady Hardin were the inspirational speakers. Eighty volunteer leaders gave of their time to make these experiences a vital factor in the lives of our young people.

Youth Caravans under the counselorship of Miss Mary Bethea and Miss Kay Thompson visited the following charges during the summer: Brevard, Hendersonville, Park Street, Belmont; Central, Asheboro; Park Avenue, Salisbury; Trinity, Kannapolis; Muir's Chapel; Burkhead, Winston-Salem; First, Forest City; Whitnel; Trinity, Charlotte.

The Conference Youth Council held its regular session at Camp Tekoa, August 10-12. The camp will increasingly be of a larger service for meetings of this type.

The Methodist Youth Fund, sponsored by the Youth Division and the W.S.C.S., netted a total amount of $7,328.50 for missions during their fiscal year. The cultivation of interest in and giving to missions on the part of our youth is a major objective of the year ahead.

Youth Night at Annual Conference has become a regular feature of the youth program. More than 3,000 young people are expected to be in attendance at this meeting in Aycock Auditorium, W.C.U.N.C., on Saturday night.

The National Convocation of Methodist Youth, Purdue University, August 27-31, was attended by 142 delegates from W.N.C. Conference.

Volunteer Service was given to youth work during the summer amounting to 253 weeks or 4 years and 11 months of time for one person.

Sub-District Activities compose a major part of the conference program with youth. We are indebted to our District Directors for keeping in close contact with these groups as well as every phase of the work. These persons are: Mrs. P. F. Hall, Miss Deane Lomax, D. Leon Stubbs, Miss Hollyce Highfill, Miss Elise Crawford, Miss Elizabeth Summersett, Miss Martha Witherspoon, James Clemmer, Mrs. J. E. Yountz, and Miss Mary Lee Carter.

YOUNG ADULT WORK

Under the volunteer leadership of Delbert Byrum, Conference President, adult work has made fine progress during the past two years. Both the Jurisdictional Convocation, Junaluska, 1950, and the Conference Assembly, July 3-6, 1951, were well attended. Douglas Corriher is the new president for the ensuing year. Plans are under way for another Jurisdictional Convocation in 1952. We are indebted to the following District Directors for leadership in this program: Thad McDonald, Aubert Smith, Cecil Hefner, Julian Lindsay, Courtney Ross, Cecil Heckard, Wilson Weldon, Clyde Collins, and John Hamilton.

OUR COLLEGES

Duke University and Greensboro, High Point, and Brevard Colleges have opened with good enrollments. A total amount of $80,686.45 has been paid to these schools this conference year from the regular apportionment and the College Sustaining Fund.

Pfeiffer Junior College and Bennett College, owned and operated by the Woman's Division of our church, have excellent equipment and a fine program of Christian education under the direction of Dr. C. M. Waggoner and Dr. David Jones, presidents.

The Methodist Student Day Offering taken on the second Sunday in June for the National Methodist Scholarship Fund totals $1,664.37 this year. Considerably more than this amount was awarded in scholarships through our colleges last year.

The Race Relations Offering received on the second Sunday in February amounts to $3,886.81 for the current year. This offering is directed through the Department of Schools and Colleges, Nashville, to Bennett College. This offering in 1952 will again be directed to Bennett.

The Methodist Student Movement and Wesley Foundation activities, under the direction of R. Harold Hipps, minister to the religious life of our students. Employed workers are Dave Swain, Chapel Hill; Helen Terry, W.C.U.N.C.; Ray Allen, Duke; Lucius Hall, State College; Mamie Chandler, East Carolina, Greenville; and Marvin Culbreth, Boone.

The Methodist College Foundation, Dr. B. Joseph Martin, Executive Director, is keeping the needs of our colleges constantly before our people in a very effective way. The present financial program is designed to meet certain urgent situations in our colleges.

APPRECIATION

The Conference Staff has worked faithfully in achieving the very best results we have ever had in one year. As Executive Secretary, I want to express sincere appreciation for the diligent, efficient work of Mrs. W. R. Reed, Director of Children's Work; Miss Marion Craig, Director of Youth Work; Miss Elizabeth Summersett and Miss Leona Morgan whose services have been indispensable in the success of the work throughout the conference.

The Executive Committee, W. A. Kale, President; Stanford Brookshire, John B. Harris, Paul Wiles, E. K. McLarty, Jr., and Charles P. Bowles, and other members of the Board have given unsparingly of their time and leadership for the cause of Christian education this year.

Church School Day Promotion, directed by a committee consisting of E. K. McLarty, Jr., Hunter Jones, Stanford Brookshire, James G. Huggin, and Howard Wilkinson, culminated with a total offering of $10,474.30 and $1,691.85 for the Children's Building. This source of income is indispensable to the financing of our program. This generous response is greatly appreciated.

The Board of Evangelism, Ralph Taylor, President, and The Board of Temperance, Paul Ervin, President, have worked in close cooperation with the Board of Education in promoting the work where there was mutual interest and responsibility.

The National Conference on Family Life, Chicago, October 12-14, has been the joint responsibility of the Board of Missions, Board of Education, W.S.C.S., working with Bishop Costen J. Harrell. Rollin P. Gibbs has been in charge of the promotion for these particular agencies. It is hoped that a large delegation will be in attendance.

Bishop Harrell and Members of his Cabinet have counseled with members of our staff and have led in the conference program of Christian education in a fine way. The personal leadership of each district superintendent makes our work easier and much more far reaching in effectiveness.

Concord, N. C.

September 21, 1951

This is to certify that I have audited the books and records of Leona Morgan, Treasurer, W. N. C. Conference Methodist Youth Fellowship, for the fiscal year beginning August 1, 1950, and ending July 31, 1951, and in my opinion the foregoing Treasurer's Report presents correctly the cash receipts and the cash disbursements for the fiscal year.

F. PAUL WILES, Certified Public Accountant

September 21, 1951

Mr. F. Paul Wiles, Treasurer,
Local Church Section,
Methodist Board of Education,
Concord, North Carolina

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to engagement we have made an audit of the books and records of F. Paul Wiles, Treasurer, Local Church Section, Methodist Board of Education, Western North Carolina Conference, for the period beginning September 13, 1950, and ending September 17, 1951, and submit herewith our report consisting of the following-named Exhibits:

EXHIBIT A Statement of Cash Receipts
and Cash Disbursements—
General Fund

EXHIBIT B Statement of Cash Receipts
and Cash Disbursements—
Camp Tekoa Building Fund

The cash receipts of record were traced to deposits in the banks and the disbursements were represented by approved cancelled checks which were examined by us, with the exception of those outstanding at September 17, 1951. The cash in banks was reconciled with statements furnished by the depositories.

During the year a new bank account was opened under the name—Camp Tekoa Building Fund. The balance in the Youth Camp Fund bank account of $166.44, as shown by the audit report for the year 1949-50, was transferred to the new account.

In our opinion, the Exhibits enumerated above, together with our comments on them, present correctly the Cash Receipts and the Cash Disbursements of F. Paul Wiles, Treasurer, Local Church Section, Methodist Board of Education, for the period beginning September 13, 1950, and ending September 17, 1951.

Respectfully submitted,

THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

The Board of Temperance is deeply concerned over the increased drinking of Methodist people. The brewers are employing the best in salesmanship psychology to make social drinking acceptable and to cultivate the appetite for it. At present the stage is so set that, if one opposes alcoholism in any way, he is ostracized by the social group. This subtle method of befogging the mind of the public is giving the thinking minister and layman much concern. The Board of Temperance is making an effort to face the deceptive methods of the liquor trade and also, at the same time, to understand the deep underlying causes for an individual becoming an alcoholic.

THE ALLIED CHURCH LEAGUE: Of the $4,500.00 allotted to the Board of Temperance by the Commission on World Service and Finance, $3,500.00 has been apportioned to the Allied Church League, Inc. This splendid organization is doing an excellent job in combating the legislative methods of the liquor interest. The Reverend R. M. Hauss, a member of our own Conference, has done a statesmanship like job in leading the dry forces of the state of North Carolina as executive secretary of the Allied Church League. In grateful appreciation for his service rendered in this capacity, the Board of Temperance nominates Reverend R. M. Hauss to serve in this capacity for the coming year.

COMMITMENT DAY: The Board of Temperance recommends that every church in the Western North Carolina Conference observe Commitment Day on February 26th. The Board has appointed the Reverend Fletcher Howard as director of Commitment Day. All pastors throughout the Conference are requested to mail their Commitment Day reports to Brother Howard.

COUNSELING CLINICS: During this past Conference year the Board of Temperance sponsored clinics on "Understanding the Alcoholic" in the ten districts of our Conference. These clinics were led by Dr. Russell L. Dicks of Duke University and Reverend Leon Couch of Durham.

TEMPERANCE CLASSES: The Board also sponsored the teaching of a course on Temperance in both of our Youth Assemblies at Lake Junaluska.

SEMINARS: It is the purpose of the Board to promote Temperance Seminars throughout the Conference during the coming year. This program will be announced later through the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Respectfully submitted,

PAUL R. ERVIN, President

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

Working with and under the guidance of the good ministers your lay leaders feel that much has been accomplished for the advancement of the Kingdom. These laymen have led in a great work without remuneration and many times at much expense and long and late hours. They have given cheerfully of their time and means to help their pastors and pastors of other charges. Their pay comes in the satisfaction of having given something worthwhile to people who needed help. They deserve the highest praise and commendation for their untiring efforts.

We are pleased with the way our fine ministers are using the laymen in carrying out the Great Program of our Church.

LAY SPEAKING

One of our objectives has been the training of lay speakers. Early Methodism prospered by the use of lay preachers. We have been working for the past several years to have a lay speaker in every pulpit every Sunday when the pastor cannot preach. We have been making some progress but not enough. We urge the pastors to call upon their District and Charge Lay Leaders for speakers when needed. This not only trains a worker but it helps to keep struggling churches alive and active. More lay speaking means more lay training and better church workers.

A new book is being written on "The Duties of a Charge Lay Leader" and will be out within the year. This book will be used in group studies, institutes and training classes, and should be in the hands of every Charge Lay Leader. When this course is offered in training schools, the lay leaders are urged to attend and take it. It seems to be what we have been looking for and will fill a long felt need. It is definitely needed.

LAYMEN'S DAY

The observance of Laymen's Day was most gratifying. There was a greater observance and a finer reception than in any previous year. This should grow to a 100% observance. It would seem fitting to have one Sunday set aside for the laymen of Methodism. Our ministers have been most kind in giving one Sunday service to the laymen. We shall strive to give our best to make it a better service each year. Our General Conference has set aside the 4th Sunday in February as Laymen's Day. We shall look forward to a 100% observance February 24, 1952.

EVANGELISM

Evangelism is the very heart of our religion. Without it religion will die. Our Board of Evangelism is in charge of our Evangelistic Program and we pledge our full cooperation in the Program of this Board. Visitation Evangelism has opened up a wonderful avenue for lay participation.

STEWARDSHIP

Much emphasis has been given to this important phase of our work. Efforts have been made to get a sound financial program in all churches. Church members have been urged to accept tithing as a vital part of their religion. Tithing would solve our financial problems; however, real stewardship is not finances alone. It includes one's time, one's service and every area of one's life.

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

Too many Methodist know too little about their Church and Its Program. Our own North Carolina Christian Advocate, which ranks with the best, is a good source of information. Anyone who reads it will be a better informed Methodist. We urge our laymen to subscribe to it and also to the Methodist Layman for help in their Church work.

METHODIST MEN

The organization of Methodist Men's Clubs has brought about marvelous results in getting our men into active participation in the Program of the Church. Methodist Men's Organizations are not separate and apart from the Methodist Church; but a very important part of it. These Clubs have been active in speaking, helping the small churches and organizing new churches where needed. Twenty-nine such clubs have been chartered in this Conference. We need ninety-three more to reach our goal by the end of this quadrennium.

Your Board has helped to raise money to send delegates to Sioux City and paid the expenses of one of its two members who attended.

Forty-nine laymen from this Conference attended the Laymen's Conference at Lake Junaluska. It was the greatest Conference we have had. The theme of the Conference was "The Christian Layman in His Home, in His Community and in His Nation." Outstanding leaders of Methodism brought messages of inspiration and information and the work-shops were most helpful. More of our laymen are urged to attend this great Conference.

Our Christian colleges are needing our support. We must build a strong bulwark around our Christian colleges as a strengthening influence of the home; our laymen in the local churches are urged to support actively financial campaigns on behalf of our Church Colleges.

Your Conference Lay Leader attended the meeting of the General Board of Lay Activities in Chicago, the Laymen's Conference at Lake Junaluska, answered many calls throughout the Conference and sent out hundreds of letters. It was a joy to have a part in this great work and serve even in a small way.

The Board of Lay Activities pledges its full cooperation to every Board, Agency, Commission and institution of this great Conference.

OUR GOALS

1. Laymen's Day in every Church with a layman in every pulpit February 24, 1952.
2. Special emphasis on Stewardship and Evangelism.
3. Attendance upon the Laymen's Conference, Lake Junaluska, July 24-27, 1952.
4. A sound financial program in every church.
5. Emphasis on district and sub-district organization immediately after Conference.
6. Organization of Methodist Men's Clubs.
7. Aid in the organization of new churches in areas where needed.
8. More emphasis on attendance upon church services and church schools.
9. Support of our Methodist Colleges.
10. Emphasis on use of Lay Speakers.

The Board of Lay Activities pledges its full support to the program outlined by the General Board of Lay Activities.

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

Paragraph 1529, section one, of the 1948 Discipline of The Methodist Church in part states: "There shall be a Golden Cross Society of The Methodist Church, which shall promote the hospitals and homes work under the direction of the Board of Hospitals and Homes and shall collect moneys and afford other material assistance in providing hospitalization for the deserving poor, and for the care of the aged and children. The enrollment in the Methodist Golden Cross Society shall be held annually in order to secure interest in and support of hospitals and homes in every congregation in such manner and on such date as determined by the patronizing Annual Conference."

Section two of the same paragraph states in part: "The right of any Annual Conference to employ such methods for financing its philanthropic institutions as it may decide upon is recognized."

Pursuant to this authority and direction, your Board of Hospitals and Homes recommends that the existing procedures for financing The Children's Home and The Methodist Home for the Aged be continued. It recommends that the month of April be designated for holding the annual Golden Cross roll call. It further recommends that funds thus received shall be spent for the hospitalization of the deserving needy, with the provision that the expenditure of not over thirty-three and one-third per cent of such funds may be spent for any hospitalization other than in the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital, as may be designated by the Conference director of the Golden Cross. The remaining funds are to be spent under similar direction at the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital at Elkin, North Carolina.

Your Board of Hospitals and Homes further recommends that the director of the Golden Cross be authorized to use Golden Cross funds to purchase such equipment as may be necessary to best render charity services at the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital.

Since your Board of Hospitals and Homes has elected Dr. J. S. Hiatt as Conference director of the Golden Cross and since the Board of Trustees of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital has elected him as superintendent of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital, his appointment to these positions is respectfully requested of the Bishop and his cabinet.

Julius L. Hall, Elkin, North Carolina, has been elected treasurer of the Golden Cross funds for the ensuing year.

HUGH CHATHAM MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

The Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital, chartered in 1930, was opened for service in April, 1931. During its twenty years of operation thousands of sick and afflicted persons have received healing and health through its gently and kindly ministry. Known far and wide for its compassion, it is a matter of record that no one has ever been denied admission to this Hospital because of a lack of funds.

Although beginning modestly, the Hospital has grown steadily through the years and today its grounds, buildings and equipment are valued at more than $375,000. It is free from debt.

During the past year 3,520 patients were admitted into the hospital and 4,726 outpatients were treated, making a total of 8,246 services rendered. Of the foregoing, 151 patients received aid from Golden Cross funds, 103 of these in the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital and forty-eight in other hospitals. Two thousand seven hundred and twenty-four days of free care were thus provided.

The following trustees have been nominated for a three-year tenure and are submitted for confirmation: Alex Chatham, Thurmond Chatham, H. B. Jones, W. A. Neaves, T. M. Roth, and Raymond W. Harris.

THE METHODIST HOME FOR THE AGED

One year ago the managers of The Methodist Home faced the necessity of raising $30,000 in order to dedicate the north wing of this Home. The money was raised and the building was dedicated by Bishop Costen J. Harrell and Bishop Paul N. Garber on November 20, 1950. A sixteen-unit apartment project was authorized. This has been completed at a cost, including furnishings and equipment, of $138,000. Funds are now in hand or pledged to permit the dedication of this unit. These units embody the most advanced concepts in housing for older people and they have stimulated interest throughout the nation. This project has been financed without drawing on any funds contributed by the churches of our Conference.

The Methodist Home now has $46,505.87 on hand towards the construction of the projected south wing. The board of managers has authorized the construction of this wing, it being a part of the original project, and therefore asks the approval and support of the Conference in the fulfillment of this greatly needed enlargement.

The Home is now serving 115 men and women, whose ages average 77.41 years. The hospital department rendered 7,116 patient days of service. There were 3,045 patient days of charity hospital service and 9,490 days of charity service in the Home section, a total of 12,535 days of charity service. The board of managers requests that future Mother's Day offerings be used to assist in the care of those who cannot pay the cost of their own care and to finance further expansion of the Home.

The following members of the board of managers have been nominated by the board for a three-year term of membership and are submitted for confirmation: Charles P. Bowles, E. O. Cole, W. W. Hagood, Jr., George F. Ivey, J. B. Ivey, Edwin L. Jones, Frank O. Sherrill, O. V. Woosley, J. Luther Snyder, H. G. Allen, Edwin Niven, M. I. Pickens, Mrs. W. G. Ragsdale, H. C. Sprinkle, Jr., J. G. Huggin, Jr., and Zeb C. Strawn; and Nathan Mayers for one year, in place of a resigned member.

The board respectfully requests the appointment of Rev. B. Reid Wall as superintendent and minister of the Home for the ensuing year and similarly requests the appointment of Rev. C. M. Pickens as counselor and treasurer of the Home for the ensuing year.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME

The Children's Home continues to operate to its fullest capacity. The total enrollment during the last reporting year was 486 boys and girls, with 150,494 days of charity care recorded. During the year sixty new children were admitted and sixty-eight were discharged into either rehabilitated homes, self-sustaining situations or for entering further training in schools of nursing or college. The average daily enrollment for the year was 412.3.

The daily per capita cost for this reporting year amounted to 1.8019, or $657.69 per year per child. This cost outlay was less than that of any other similar North Carolina child caring institution.

Maintenance expenditures for the year amounted to $271,173. Total Conference receipts were about $30,000 less than this total expenditure. Sufficient funds have been received during recent years from endowment income and otherwise to not only meet these maintenance expense deficits but to cover capital outlay expenditures for the expansion of the plant and the construction of buildings whose bequeathed funds were not sufficient to meet the needs involved.

The total value of The Children's Home, including permanent funds, based on pre-inflation figures, is listed by our auditors at $2,583,349.13. The Children's Home is free from debt.

The following trustees have been nominated for a term of six years and are submitted for confirmation: James G. Hanes, J. S. Hiatt, R. Grady Rankin, J. Raymond Smith, L. F. Tuttle, and W. J. Huneycutt. W. Kenneth Goodson is nominated to fill the unexpired term of two years of R. M. Courtney, resigned, and is herewith presented for confirmation. R. M. Courtney and J. W. Moore have been elected trustees emeritus and are submitted for confirmation.

AUDITOR'S CERTIFICATE

I have examined the above Treasurer's report of the Golden Cross Society for the period from September 18, 1950, through October 4, 1951, and the schedules attached thereto, and have checked them in comparison with the financial books and records of the Treasurer of the Society.

In my opinion, the above Treasurer's report is in accordance with the books and records of the Treasurer and present fairly the true facts relative to the financial transactions of the Golden Cross Society for the Conference year 1950-1951.

Respectfully submitted,

H. C. NORTHROP, C.P.A., Conference Auditor

BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

REPORT NO. 1

We are pleased to report that a substantial increase in annuities will be paid our Claimants this coming year. This can be done by reason of salary increases and does not necessitate an increased asking from the charges. Our Conference continues to pay the highest over-all pension in the entire Methodist connection.

Attention of the preachers is called to Paragraph 1624. The Board appointed the Executive Committee as the Committee on Proportional Payment on Ministerial Support.

Lake Junaluska Assembly paid to the treasurer of the Board of Conference Claimants the required sum to make the superintendent eligible for annuity for the year 1950-1951.

The Board requests permission of the Conference to omit the reading of the allotments to the Claimants and that they be approved as printed in the Journal.

REPORT NO. 2

A Conference on "The Ministry" was held March 3-4, 1951, in Memorial Church, Thomasville, at which one hundred and sixty-two high school and college age young men were in attendance. It was sponsored by the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and assisted by the Commission on Christian Vocations. Speakers were: Bishop Costen J. Harrell, Dr. Nolan B. Harmon, Dr. Ray C. Petry, Dr. J. Richard Spann, Dr. Walter K. Greene, and Dr. A. E. Acey. We believe that much was accomplished through this significant meeting of prospective candidates for the ministry.

The cause of Ministerial Training is advancing. We note with interest the large number of men, well prepared, who are admitted on trial this year. More and more candidates are enrolling in a Seminary and earning the B.D. degree. Accepted supply men are studying the Courses. We desire to keep the high standards and to encourage their maintenance by everyone concerned.

Draft Board Questionnaires are being signed in behalf of the Conference. They should be directed to the Registrar, the Rev. Harold R. Simpson.

COMMITTEE ON ACCEPTED SUPPLY PASTORS

Fortunately for our great Conference we still have available for service a number of consecrated men and women who are willing and ready to serve charges in our Conference as Accepted Supplies. The number of Accepted Supplies that have been used in the Western North Carolina Conference has remained about the same now for about seven or eight years and it appears that the situation will not be greatly changed for some years ahead. It has been the purpose of this committee to encourage these men and women in their willingness to serve and at the same time to urge that they do all they can to better prepare themselves for their work. On the whole those who have the status of Accepted Supply are doing the courses of study. Some have completed this work already while some of them are not required by the Discipline to do so because of their term of service. Quite a number of the younger men have come into the regular membership of the Conference by admission on trial. This is naturally the very thing we should like for them to do. We still have quite a number of men and women of more mature years who will remain available for service in the Accepted Supply status.

The following is the list of those who are qualified as Accepted Supplies:

V. N. Allen, J. G. Allred, Leon Newell Atkinson, John G. Barden, R. L. Billings, Frank E. Blalock, Floyd G. Bottoms, Judson F. Bowers, I. M. Brendle, Donald Gene Bridger, Wiley Carroll, W. C. Clark, L. C. Cornwell, J. R. Dawkins, D. B. Early, Everett Freeman, Donald Funderburk, P. R. Gilbert, J. E. Green, C. V. Hall, L. W. Hall, Earl Miles Hansell, D. H. Hawkins, Luther Paul Hefner, E. E. Hiatt, Jr., M. T. Hinshaw, Joseph J. Hauser, F. C. Hubbard, Isabel E. Hull, C. L. Jackson.

G. E. Keeler, J. C. Kendrick, Maloie B. Lee, Gene Houston Little, Foster Loffin, G. L. Lovett, F. S. McFarland, Ernest Moretz, Mamie Dennis Newell, Robert Lee Oakley, William Robert Ormond, R. L. THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

The need for full time Christian workers is still apparent in our Conference and in the Church at large. Evidence is shown by the continuing necessity of calling retired men to serve pastorates, by the appeals that cry out to us for help in mission fields in America and around the earth. Reports from practically everywhere on earth indicate that not only are doors open to workers for the Kingdom, but in many places the doors are literally down.

In the light of the crying need your Commission respectfully submits the following emphases:

1. Pre-Ministerial Conference. We are grateful to Bishop Harrell and the Committee on Ministerial Training for their leadership and cooperation in joining with us in sponsoring the Pre-Ministerial Conference held in Thomasville March 2-4, 1951. As a means of confronting prospective candidates with the challenge and obligations of the Christian vocational call such conferences are highly valuable. We urge that additional such conferences be held as the time and conditions seem to be expedient for them as a means of soliciting and informing prospective candidates for the ministry, for missions, and for other areas of the work.

2. National Youth Conference. We commend the youth leadership of our Church for holding the National Youth Conference at Purdue University in August, with the special emphasis on choosing Christian vocations. We have records of the commitment of several young people from our Annual Conference who declared their intention of going into full time religious work.

3. Assemblies. That both of our youth assemblies at Junaluska included courses on vocational guidance is commendable. Under the conditions of the assemblies our young people have ideal opportunities to give serious and careful consideration to the call of God to "go and work in my vineyard." We commend the Reverend Carl H. King for his splendid leadership and we recommend that our Conference youth directors include vocational guidance courses for guidance during the coming year, and that names of prospective candidates be sent to our Board of Education office in Salisbury.

4. Local Church Emphasis. The local church is the school for those whom God would lead to commitments to serve in His Kingdom and Church. Some of our pastors and other local leaders have given emphasis to this holy calling by offering training units, preaching sermons on the topic, and by personal counselling with prospective candidates. More and more must our local workers assume the responsibility for confronting youth with the crying needs that demand more consecrated Christian workers. The opportunities for service must be emphasized again and again that our youth may be able to discern the voice of God above the confusion of the multitudinous appeals from the world. The urgency for Christian guidance by trusted and capable adult believers cannot be stressed too much. We commend those who are doing this and insist that their number be increased.

5. Life Service Sunday. We recommend that Pentecost Sunday, May 25, 1952, be designated as Life Service Sunday and that on this day, or as near thereto as possible, our pastors issue a challenge to the youth of their congregations, to give serious consideration to the call to full time Christian service.

6. Conference Related Schools. We respectfully remind our pastors of their responsibility to send the names and addresses of high school seniors to the Methodist institutions of higher learning of our state.

7. Literature and Films. The booklet, "Service Projects," continues to be one of the many choice pieces of literature dealing with the life service challenge and opportunity. We recommend that pastors and directors see that our young people know about it and about the many other valuable printed aids in introducing youth to the call of Christ for life commitment. We especially recommend the use of the film, "Cross Roads," which may be secured at half the regular rental cost from the Board of Education at Salisbury.

8. Source of Leadership. Fundamentally, we will not have a Christian leadership until the Church itself produces it. From the Christian Church come her Christian leaders. The direct responsibility of developing this leadership rests upon those of us who work with youth. We urge our leaders, especially pastors, to be alert to discover and guide prospective candidates whom God is calling.

Respectfully submitted,

J. ELWOOD CARROLL, Chairman
ROLLIN P. GIBBS, Secretary

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

Evangelism is rooted in the mind, heart, and activity of our Lord. It has ever since been the keystone of the on-going program of the Church. If we, as a Church, are to meet the spiritual needs of this fateful hour, we must kindle the evangelistic fire like that which flamed in the breasts of early Methodists.

From the beginning the credentials of Methodism have been the evangelistic passion and the evangelistic message. Their one mission was to bring all men into a saving knowledge of the truth as it is in Christ Jesus.

The normal mood of Methodism is the evangelistic mood. A Methodist Church, which does not evangelize, may have names and members, but it lacks meaning. There can be no substitute for the evangelistic passion.

"In the beginning every Methodist was an evangelist. They had more than a faltering hope that their sins were forgiven. They enjoyed the 'full assurance' of redemption. As a result there rose up a great crowd of witnesses—some of them rough and unlearned, but they knew their facts, and were hot and eager to bear testimony to the power of the living Christ.

"The disintegration of the normal home life, the lack of reverence for law, the sag in the moral idealism of our people, reveal that our world is sadly in need of redemption. Our help must come from God, or it comes not at all. Once our hearts are set on fire by the love of Jesus, the victory is assured. With a new vision of the Saviour, a more complete surrender to His mastery, and a new yielding to His redemptive purposes with hearts gladdened and uplifted to His presence, let Methodists everywhere go forth to sing, 'O let me commend my Saviour to you'."

To this end we offer the following recommendations:

1. That emphasis be placed on the personal life of ministers and officials especially, and that we seek to build up spiritual habits of prayer and Bible reading to the end that we may have a foundation of spiritual power in every church available for every good work.

2. That in selection of stewards, church school officers, and teachers, the character test should be placed first, so that the old phrase "men of solid piety" will come to mean something once more in Methodism.

3. That we turn once more to place an emphasis on religion in the home, presenting constantly to parents their responsibility as well as their opportunity.

4. That the enlistment phase of evangelism be set up on a District basis, and that we proceed on that basis. That the program be undergirded by strong evangelistic preaching and thorough teaching of the great fundamental doctrines of the Bible.

5. That three evangelistic rallies be held in the Conference for the purpose of deepening our spiritual life and to generate enthusiasm for evangelism. These rallies to be held in Waynesville, November 7; Shelby, November 8; Thomasville, November 9

6. That we ask every district superintendent to call together the pastors of his district to formulate plans for the District, and that each pastor make known at this meeting his plans for evangelism in his charge for the year. These district meetings to follow the Conference rallies.

7. That the Board of Evangelism cooperate with the Board of Education in promoting the interests and purposes of the National Methodist Conference on Family Life to be held in Chicago, Illinois, October 12-14, 1951.

8. We recommend that there be held a Youth Evangelistic Workshop during the coming year.

9. We recommend and urge that every pastor give diligent attention to the training of preparatory members, in compliance with paragraphs 121, 123 of the 1948 Discipline, and that Bishop Harrell's book, "A Methodist Child's Membership Manual," be used in preparatory classes for children.

10. We recommend that the following ministers be re-appointed as approved evangelists: John R. Church and Roy T. Houts.

11. We recommend that W. A. Rollins be appointed Conference Secretary of Evangelism.

THE COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE

Your committee deeply appreciates the cooperation you have given it during the past three years and earnestly solicits your continuing support.

I

Our primary effort for the coming year will be to expand the number and effectiveness of the Peace Committees of the local churches. Three years ago we could find only 19 such committees. Today 155 are listed and more are being registered with us almost daily.

We urge these Local Peace Committees to first study the official stand of Methodism on War and Peace as contained in paragraph 2025 of The Discipline, and also the action of this Conference as contained in this report. And further, that they undertake to pass this information on to all local membership through the various organizations within the church, including the pulpit.

We suggest that these Local Peace Committees set aside the following days for special observances: World Order Sunday, October 21st; United Nations Day, October 24th; Armistice Day, November 11th; the Christmas Season; Brotherhood Week and Race Relations Day in February; and Independence Day, July 4th. On these days, certain of the following activities may be promoted: Collect used clean clothing for shipmen overseas through Church World Service; present film-strips, films, and other visual materials on peace and related subjects; make peace literature available; encourage and sponsor the High School World Peace Study and Speaking Program which is conducted by The University of North Carolina Extension Division; send representatives from each local church to any peace conferences, institutes, seminars, or other programs held in the area.

The following additional activities are planned for the coming year:

1. Your committee has met with the Peace Committees of the North Carolina Conference and the North Carolina Conference of the Central Jurisdiction and planned a series of jointly sponsored peace seminars for January 27 through February 6 reaching all sections of the state.

2. These three committees are also jointly sponsoring a United Nations seminar to be held at U. N. Headquarters in March.

3. The annual program of peace emphasis at Lake Junaluska Assembly will be continued.

4. Peace literature will be mailed from time to time to all pastors and all chairmen of local church peace committees.

5. Film strips on peace topics are offered without charge to any organization within the Conference.

6. In cooperation with the Board of Education, we will promote and teach courses on peace subjects at the Junaluska Youth Assemblies and at other places as may be arranged or requested.

II

The question of Universal Military Training is of vital concern to all of us. Opinions differ among conscientious and patriotic Christians. The matter is being considered in Congress and probably will come up for action within the next few months. Your committee urges everyone to carefully and prayerfully consider the matter, and then to let his convictions be known to his representative in Washington.

But let us remember that international anarchy is the basic cause of world-wide fear and insecurity, and that the armaments race, Selective Service, and U. M. T. all are actually symptoms of that condition. We urge positive action to eliminate the cause, while we are taking temporary measures to alleviate the symptoms.

On this subject, paragraph 2025 of The Discipline says: "Believing that permanent peace requires the taking of steps toward a federated form of world government, we look beyond the United Nations organization to the development of world government through a more effective use of the machinery now available. A world of absolute national sovereignties leads inevitably to tension and conflict."

It was to implement the sentiments expressed in the above paragraph from The Discipline that your Committee promulgated a few weeks ago the Memorial to the General Conference requesting a "CRUSADE FOR WORLD ORDER." Your response has been most gratifying. One hundred and thirty-five Memorials have been passed and returned to us and more are coming in every day. We urge that continued action be taken by all local church and district organizations. Even if the Annual Conference adopts the Memorial, its discussion and adoption at the local level is still most valuable, both for its educational value locally, and for the influence it may have on the thinking of the General Conference.

III

We urge that the Conference Peace Committee be expanded to include such persons as: the Conference Secretary of Christian Social Relations, W. S. C. S.; the Conference MYF Third Commission Area Chairman; a representative from the Board of Christian Education; at least one layman and one clerical member from each of the ten districts; and any other person whose interest, or knowledge, or official position, would particularly qualify him.

We also suggest that members be elected to serve for a period of four years, but on a rotating system so that one-fourth of the members of the committee would be replaced each year.

IV

We suggest that the Bishop invite to future W. N. C. Conferences fraternal delegates from the two sister conferences in North Carolina, for the purpose of promoting fellowship, sharing ideas, and joint action on matters of concern to all North Carolina Methodism. Your Committee, as reported above, is jointly sponsoring certain projects. We are finding it both helpful and inspiring, and we believe that similar action could be beneficial to other committees, and to the Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. CARPER, Chairman

OSCAR K. MERRITT, Secretary

BIBLE BOARD

The Bible Board of the Western North Carolina Conference reports annually to this Conference making what in its considered opinion are sound recommendations for the stimulation of Bible reading and Bible study and a more wide-spread circulation of God's Holy Word.

Among the recommendations made by this Board and adopted by this great Conference are:

Daily Bible reading as suggested by, or in conjunction with, The Upper Room or other recognized reference.

Cooperation with and added impetus to all suggestions and recommendations of the American Bible Society as pertain to Bible reading.

Observance of Bible Sunday.

Special emphasis on Bible reading and study during certain periods.

Study of our public and charity maintained institutions (County Homes, Training Schools, Prison Camps, Jails, non-sectarian and Methodist Orphanages, etc.) to determine that copies of the Bible are available to inmates. Yes, even study of our schools and institutions for the blind, to see that they are provided with the Bible in Braille.

Yet, apologetically, we admit today that our recommendations and your subsequent adoption of our reports have caused little impact on the consciences of our people, nor have we seemingly focused our people's thinking more steadfastly on God's Word. Not a single report has been received to the effect that a Bible has been placed in a public or semi-public institution.

Comfortingly, however, we relish the fact that the Bible continues as the world's best seller. Homes invariably seem to have a Bible accessible provided ample warning is given that the preacher is coming or if emergency gives sufficient foreboding. Officials in charge have seen to it, apparently without exception, that public and semi-public institutions are provided with copies of "The Word." Through the commendable work of the Society of Gideons, Bibles are placed in hotel rooms. We, however, would continue our recommendation today for wider circulation and more immediate availability to all people of the Divine Word of God.

Our responsibility today seemingly evolves more specifically on directing and encouraging our people to read, study, and, insofar as possible, emulate the teachings of our Divine Master. This responsibility evolves on cleric and lay alike. Methodism is indebted for much of its phenomenal growth to the pioneering spirit of our early preachers and missionaries. There was the circuit-rider visiting remote people with Bible under arm. There was the Methodist proclaimer of Christ riding the cow-catchers into new territory with open Bible.

New horizons—or are they as old as the ages?—horizons of sin, corruption in high places, perversion, adultery, lust, and greed, narcotics and liquor, iron curtains of self-sufficiency, bamboo curtains of idolotry, and bars of hate and jealousy face us today. All these horizons call us again to exercise anew that pioneering spirit of Methodism, taking with us the open Bible, proclaiming the Judgment of God upon sin, and the divine forgiveness of sin through Jesus Christ.

Eternity is no illusion. Eternity is no myth. Christ is Divine. His teachings are, therefore, Divine. The teachings of Christ, the Divine Son of God, in His Holy Word hold the only promises of eternal salvation. Cleric and lay alike pioneering through sin with God's Holy Word as their hope and guide is the clear challenge to the Methodist Church today, and that challenge is not only to this great force for God but to every Christian soul everywhere. A crazed, dog-mad world with one-fourth of its land mass area proclaiming anti-God and anti-Christ must be brought to its senses. Christ-proclaiming preachers and laymen must arm themselves today with Divine wisdom and Divine guidance to equip themselves for any earthly struggle and finally with an armor befitting the crown of life eternal.

We call on all steadfast Christian believers to continue to bask in the light of God's Holy Word, and we would rally all to the pioneering spirit of Methodism under the Divine guidance of God, "not to be ashamed of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ," and to be ready to project the name of Jesus and His teachings into the new and manifold horizons of a sinful world.

1. We propose and recommend an oratorical contest for the youth of this Conference, upon the subject, "What the Bible Means to Me," and that this contest be sponsored by the Board of Education, if it sees fit.

2. We continue our recommendation of daily Bible reading in conjunction with the outline suggested by the Upper Room, church school materials, and other devotional aids. We urge that each pastor be encouraged to cooperate with church school officers and teachers in devising a concrete program of continuous Bible study. In this connection we most heartily commend to ministers and teachers and church librarians the monumental Interpreters' Bible, the first volume of which has just appeared.

3. We recommend special stress on Bible reading during the period from Thanksgiving through Christmas as outlined by the American Bible Society.

4. We urge our ministers and laymen to make a special study of the Gospels pertaining to the passion, crucifixion and resurrection of Christ from Ash Wednesday through Easter Sunday.

5. We recommend that Universal Bible Sunday be observed the second Sunday in December in every local church.

6. We commend the Methodist Publishing House and the educational leaders of the church for the large place given the Bible in our printed materials and we solicit their continued strict adherence to the Eternal Truths of God's Holy Word.

7. We commend the American Bible Society for a constructive program, and we suggest continued cooperation between this Conference and the Society in all matters which would stimulate Bible distribution, and study.

Respectfully submitted,

THE COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

The Commission on Town and Country Work makes the following report and recommendations:

1. The National Methodist Town and Country Conference, held in Sioux City, Iowa, July 21-24, 1951, was attended by thirty-three delegates and twenty other persons from this Annual Conference. In preparation for this conference the delegates met in Statesville on February 20 and in Morganton on May 31 and made preparation for participating in the study groups at the Conference.

Reports of the Sioux City Conference have been made in several of the districts. We recommend that further interpretation of this conference be given at the district stewards' meetings to be held immediately after Conference.

2. The Commission cooperated with the Board of Ministerial Training and the Committee on Accepted Supply Pastors by providing $350.00 for scholarships to send supply pastors to the schools for supplies at Duke and Emory Universities.

3. The Commission provided $350.00 for the purpose of sending rural ministers and workers to the Town and Country School held at Emory University August 9-21, 1951.

4. The executive committee of the Commission attended the Southeastern Jurisdictional Town and Country Commission meeting held in Savannah, Georgia, January 2, 1951, at which time plans were formulated to promote town and country work throughout the jurisdiction.

We recommend that the Western North Carolina Conference give its full support to the proposed town and country program to be held on a jurisdictional basis at Lake Junaluska, N. C., during the summer of 1952.

5. Rural Life Sunday was observed April 29, 1951, by many churches throughout the Conference by the exchange of pulpits, rallies and special programs.

We recommend that Rural Life Sunday be observed May 18, 1952, in every pastoral charge with a wide exchange of pulpits, and rallies and special programs.

6. In cooperation with the Board of Education a "Youth Activities Week" was promoted in ten different pastoral charges. These programs were made possible through the use of two Duke Divinity School students, Robert Regan and Douglas Shepherd.

We recommend the continuation of such a program and that rural charges which have not availed themselves of this program heretofore do so as a stimulus to their youth work.

7. The Commission, in cooperation with the various boards and agencies of the Conference, began a study relative to the establishing of a rural life department at High Point College.

We recommend the continuation of this study under the direction of the existing committee.

8. We recommend that the Conference continue its interest in and support of the North Carolina Rural Church Institute, Inc., which cooperated in sponsoring the Christian Convocation at Duke University and the rural church program at Farm and Home Week at State College in Raleigh; and that $75.00 be contributed by the Commission to the Institute; and, further, that our ministers and laymen attend these rural church programs.

9. In view of the wide interest in the recommendations on the building, furnishing and maintenance of parsonages adopted by this Conference in 1950, we recommend that the district superintendents present to and discuss with the laymen of each pastoral charge these recommendations at the first quarterly conferences of the ensuing year. These recommendations are contained in the leaflet entitled "The Parsonage Home" which was recently issued by the Commission.

10. We recommend that the minimum salary schedule for the year 1951-1952 be as follows: $2,750.00 for effective Conference members, including members on trial; $2,300.00 for full-time accepted supplies; and $2,100.00 for other full-time supplies, including full-time retired supplies; and that salaries for part-time supplies and student pastors be on an adjusted basis; provided that the minimum salary fund shall not pay more than 25% of the minimum schedule for the ensuing year for any charge except by vote of the executive committee of the Board of Missions and Church Extension after recommendation by the district superintendent of the claimant; and provided further, that where a charge provides an expense allowance for the pastor, and the said expense allowance or other monetary compensation shall be counted among the resources making the total minimum. Contribution from the General Board of Missions, District or City Boards of Missions, and special contributions shall not be limited by the above schedule.

That the Board of Missions and Church Extension continue to administer the minimum salary fund.

That, on recommendation of the Board of Missions and Church Extension, the Commission on World Service and Finance fix a percentage apportionment on the present base sufficient to produce enough revenue to meet all the claims on the minimum salary fund.

11. We recommend that more women rural workers be employed in the Conference. We call attention to the fact that in order to secure a rural worker under the Woman's Division of Christian Service a detailed plan of work must be submitted by the District Superintendent and/or the pastor in charge to the president of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service who in turn submits the plan to the Woman's Division of Christian Service for approval and the possible appointment of the worker.

12. We recommend that every quarterly conference, where applicable, elect a Farm and Home Committee, whose formation and functions are provided for in Paragraph 148, section 10, of The Discipline.

13. We recommend that there be a continued interest in and support of the Conference unit of the Methodist Rural Fellowship, particularly by attending its meetings and subscribing to its bulletin which is edited and published within the bounds of our Annual Conference.

14. We recommend that Wilson Nesbitt be appointed Secretary of Town and Country Work on a part-time basis for the ensuing year.

REPORT OF SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT

The Trustees of the Superannuate Endowment report the income check for the current year higher than usual, no changes in the principal assets of the fund during the year—no losses, and, unfortunately, no gains. Under a Charlotte City ordinance, we have been required to install water facilities in some substandard houses, but the cost of these improvements is taken care of out of a reserve fund, and does not reduce our principal assets, and, on the whole, we think the change will be beneficial and result in an increased income from these properties. Our principal assets are safely and securely invested by the Trustees and fiscal agent and are producing a satisfactory return. This Endowment is a trust fund, separately incorporated by the Conference, and its entire net income restricted to the use of the Superannuate preachers and Conference claimants. The fund is and should be a "Declaration of Independence" to the Superannuate Methodist preachers of the Western North Carolina Conference.

On account of the proverbial high cost of living and other good reasons, we feel that this fund should be largely increased, if not doubled, within the next few years. May we urge our Methodist family, preachers and laymen, by precept and example, to make the Superannuate Endowment a certain item in their annual budget of gifts to Church and Charity—a job made to hand for our Conference Lay Leaders and District Superintendents.

We nominate for re-election as Trustees the following: James A. Bell, W. C. Houston, and J. H. Little, for a term of four years or until the Conference Session of 1955.

We submit herewith the abbreviated report of the Treasurer, with the net income check for the current year, in the sum of $14,826.80, to the Conference Treasurer, and ask that same with this report be approved and embodied in the minutes of the Conference.

THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION

Inflation during our fiscal year ending August 31, 1951, has brought the North Carolina Christian Advocate face to face with a critical situation. Overhead due to inflation has been rising more rapidly than income. During the year income from subscriptions, advertising, obituaries and books and Bibles amounted to $32,770.83. Earnings from endowment, office rent and dividends brought the total to $36,250.83. Expenses for the year, counting depreciation, amounted to $45,033.39. Our net loss for the year was $8,782.56. Based on the present circulation of 16,800, each subscription during the past year cost $2.72. Subscription income amounted to $1.67, representing a loss of $1.05 on each subscription. During the year publishing costs increased $6,417 while income increased $3,300. In other words, increased expenses amounted to $3,117 over increased income. Each subscription cost 18.7 cents more than it did the previous year.

Our job department with a gross revenue of $69,762.92 was able to absorb the loss incurred by the Advocate and to show a profit of $5,227.73 in the year's operations. But with the present inflationary trend this amount will soon be wiped out and it is probable that unless the trend is arrested the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., will show a deficit during the present fiscal year. Our job department is doing about all it can under present circumstances.

The Board, after considering seriously every phase of this problem, has come to the conclusion that the only way we can maintain our present standard and to operate on a sound basis is to increase subscription prices. Practically every church periodical has had at least one or two increases in subscription rates within recent years. The Advocate, even though overhead has risen more than 100%, has kept the subscription rate down. It can no longer do so. The Board in its annual meeting September 24, 1951, voted to make the following subscription rates effective November 1, 1951: single subscriptions, $2.50 a year; single subscriptions three years, $6.00; to churches reaching a quota of seven subscribers for every 100 members, $2.25 for each subscription; to churches that send the Advocate to every family, $1.75 a subscription. The Board also voted to request ministers to pay $2.00 a year for their subscription with retired members and widows of members of our two Conferences to continue to receive the paper without cost.

The Board earnestly requests the full support of our preachers and laymen during the year ahead, for unless we can meet this situation the Board will be forced to call upon both of our Conferences for a subsidy, a practice already followed by virtually all of our Conference organs.

The Board recommends that January, 1952, be designated as Advocate month and that every church during that month or at some other time as early in the Conference year as possible promote the circulation of the Advocate. The Advocate is the most effective and most economical means of presenting the program of North Carolina Methodism to our people.

The Board also requests that, if possible, a column in the Pastor's Report to Annual Conference be given to report the number of subscriptions to the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

During the year improvements, consisting of a new Miehle press, new type and repairs to the property, have been made. Contributions totaling $5,548.50 have been made to the home for the editor purchased in August, 1950. Indebtedness against the home has been reduced to $4,260.51.

The terms of A. J. Hobbs of the North Carolina Conference and W. B. Hall of the Western North Carolina Conference expire at Conference this year. The Board at the annual meeting nominated Dr. Hobbs and Mr. Hall to succeed themselves and requests their re-election by their respective Conferences for a term of five years.

The Board elected Rev. Walter Thompson, a member of the Western North Carolina Conference, to be assistant manager and requests the Conference to appoint him to this position. The following officers were re-elected: A. J. Hobbs, President; N. L. Eure, Vice-President; T. C. Hoyle, Sr., Secretary; and C. W. Robbins, editor and manager.

REPORT OF PASTORS SCHOOL

The North Carolina Pastors' School was again held as an integral part of the Duke University Christian Convocation and in connection with the North Carolina Rural Church Institute. Again it is to be noted that there was a very decided increase both in interest and attendance.

Perhaps the outstanding feature of the session was the James A. Gray Lectures which were delivered by Dr. Paul E. Scherer, Professor of Homiletics, Union Theological Seminary, New York. Dr. Scherer gave six studies in the Book of Job, his general theme being "The Ways of God—A Study in the Book of Job."

Regular class room instruction was given in many phases of church work by outstanding instructors. Courses and instructors were as follows: The New Testament Faith and the Mind of the Church Today, Dr. Robert E. Cushman, of Duke Divinity School; Christianity and World Missions, Dr. Daniel J. Fleming, Professor of Missions, Emeritus, Union Theological Seminary, New York; The Minister's Tools and Techniques, Dr. Nolan Harmon, Book Editor, The Methodist Church; The Vacation Church School, Mrs. W. R. Reed, Director of Children's Work, Western North Carolina Conference; Worship Workshop, Dr. J. J. Rudin, II, of Duke University Divinity School; The Minister and Public Relations, Dr. J. W. Sells, Executive Secretary Visual Aids and Rural Church, Atlanta; Visual Aids, Dr. H. E. Tower, Board of Education of Nashville; Planning a Church Program, Dr. A. J. Walton, Duke Divinity School.

Bishop Paul N. Garber made the Alumni Address for the Divinity Alumni and delivered an address on "Religion in Europe as I Have Seen It." This was the Divinity School Library lecture for 1952.

Preaching and worship services were held each morning in the University Chapel. The sermons were delivered by Bishop Costen J. Harrell, of Charlotte.

INTERCONFERENCE COMMISSION ON STUDENT RELIGIOUS WORK

(WESLEY FOUNDATION)

The Interconference Commission on Student Religious Work (Wesley Foundation) of the Western North Carolina and North Carolina Conferences of The Methodist Church has sought to give general oversight to the program of student religious work in the institutions of higher learning within the state during the past year. The Commission has administered financial aid for student work at nine of these institutions, namely: Duke University at Durham, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, State College at Raleigh, W.C.U.N.C. at Greensboro, Eastern Carolina College at Greenville, A.S.T.C. at Boone, Western N. C. State Teachers College at Cullowhee, Davidson College at Davidson, and Catawba College at Salisbury.

We have not had a regular employed State Director for the past two years. Rev. Harold Hipps, associate pastor of West Market Street Church, Greensboro, has served as our State Director for the past year, receiving a small honorarium and travel allowance for his services. He has done a good job considering the limited time he has been able to give to this work.

He conducted the Fall Retreat at Greensboro on November 8, 1950, supervised the North Carolina Methodist Student Conference at High Point, February 9-11, 1951, sponsored the attendance of delegates to the Regional Student Conference at Lake Junaluska, June 5-12, conducted council meetings of the North Carolina Methodist Student Movement, and supervised the work of the North Carolina Methodist Student Movement.

We helped to support the work of the following full-time directors: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allen at Duke University, Durham; Mr. David Swain at U.N.C., Chapel Hill; Rev. Lucius Hall at State College, Raleigh; and Miss Helen Terry at W.C.U.N.C., Greensboro. The W. S. C. S. of the North Carolina Conference supports Miss Mamie Chandler, deaconess, as a full-time worker at E.C.C., Greenville, and our Commission contributed to this work. The other institutions mentioned above received only $50.00 each for Methodist student religious work.

We are all indebted to these directors for the fine service they are rendering in providing students with a vital and effective Christian ministry. They have sought to keep our Methodist students in close contact with Christ and His Church during the critical period when they are away from home attending college. From this group must come not only our future Christian statesmen, business and professional men, teachers, farmers and the like, but also our future Christian ministers, missionaries and all our full-time Church workers. We should never underestimate the value and significance of the work being done by these directors.

The Commission received a total of $12,974.00 for this work the past year. This money came chiefly from the annual appropriations of the two Conferences. A small contribution was received from the General Board of Education. The auditor's report, together with an itemized list of proposed appropriations for the year 1951-1952, is attached to this report. The requested appropriation for this year is $650.00. ($390.00 for the Western North Carolina Conference and $260.00 for the North Carolina Conference) larger than the appropriation for the past year. This slight increase is necessary to enable the Commission to fulfill its present commitments and to continue the same program as projected the past year.

The Commission faces two great financial needs which we hope will be met by larger appropriations by the two Conferences at the beginning of the new quadrennium next year. First of all, we need a full-time State Director. We must have this if we are to keep pace with other conferences and if the program of student religious work in the institutions of higher learning within the state is to be adequately supervised and expanded.

Secondly, we need more money to carry on the work at these various institutions. More money is needed for building, equipment, maintenance, and salaries at each of these institutions. New work needs to be opened up at other institutions. With these needs in mind, the Commission, at its May, 1951, meeting, appointed a Committee, consisting of Dr. W. A. Kale, Dr. A. P. Brantley, Rev. Carl King, Rev. C. P. Morris, and Dr. W. A. Stanbury, to survey the needs of the colleges and universities served by the Commission and to draw up a statement of these needs to be submitted to the Commission of World Service and Finance of the two Conferences in 1952, looking toward increased appropriations for the new quadrennium. It is our earnest hope that the two supporting Conferences will look with favor upon this report when it is presented next year and thereby help to strengthen the program for our Methodist students in the colleges and universities of North Carolina.

In conclusion we would like to express our appreciation to Dr. J. W. Cell of State College, Raleigh, a member of the Commission, who served so efficiently as Secretary-Treasurer of the Commission, following the death of Rev. J. G. Phillips, from May, 1950, through May, 1951. He has been succeeded by Rev. C. P. Morris, Executive Secretary of the Board of Education of the North Carolina Conference.

OFFICIAL FINANCIAL REQUEST OF THE INTERCONFERENCE COMMISSION ON STUDENT RELIGIOUS WORK (WESLEY FOUNDATION COMMISSION), HEREBY PRESENTED TO THE COMMISSIONS ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE OF THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA AND THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCES FOR THE YEAR 1951-1952

REQUEST TO THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE	$ 7,830.00
REQUEST TO THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE	5,220.00
	$13,050.00
APPROPRIATION FROM THE GENERAL BOARD OF EDUCATION	300.00
	$13,350.00

These askings are made on the basis of the following provisional appropriations made by the Interconference Commission on Student Religious Work (Wesley Foundation Commission) at the annual meeting in Greensboro on May 12, 1951:

For College Place, including contribution to salary of Director and church maintenance for student use	$ 2,450.00
For State College, Fairmont Church, including contribution to salary of Director and church maintenance	2,500.00
For Chapel Hill, toward salary of Director and for materials and supplies	2,300.00
For Chapel Hill, toward church maintenance for student use	1,750.00
For Student Work, Davidson, N. C., materials and supplies	50.00
For Student Work, Cullowhee, N. C., materials and supplies	50.00
For Student Work, Boone, materials and supplies	350.00
For Student Work, Catawba College, Salisbury, N. C., materials and supplies	50.00
For contribution on salary of Director at E.C.C., Greenville	300.00
For contribution on salary Methodist Chaplain, Duke University	3,050.00
Salary and travel and other items for State Director of Student Work	500.00
Total	$13,350.00
TOTAL REQUEST TO THE W. N. C. AND N. C. CONFERENCES	$13,050.00

Note: This represents an increase of $650.00 in askings for 1951-1952 over the askings for 1950-1951. This increase is made necessary by the following factors: (1) A decrease in the appropriation by the General Board of Education of $150.00. (2) $300.00 appropriation for A.S.T.C. at Boone which was taken care of last year out of the surplus on hand. (3) $200.00 for honorarium, travel and other items for State Director of Student Work which was taken care of last year out of the surplus on hand.

This increase in askings has been prorated on a 60-40 basis to the two Conferences as follows: Western North Carolina Conference, $390.00, and North Carolina Conference, $260.00.

This slight increase is absolutely essential if we are to fulfill our present commitments. Anything less will mean the curtailment of the program projected last year.

DUKE ENDOWMENT REPORT, 1950-1951

September 13, 1951

The following appropriations have been made in the two Carolina Conferences for the Conference year, 1950-1951:

The building aid requests continue to increase in number, and the funds sought are several times the amount on hand for distribution. Much study is given to the many applications and an effort made to select for immediate help those churches most nearly able to meet at once the requirements governing the distribution of the funds. Those aided are to be completed and dedicated debt free within two years of the date the grant is made. The building must also be approved by the District Committee on Church Building and Location and by the Endowment Director. To be approved the building must meet the needs of the congregation and durability and beauty in architectural design must make the building attractive and worthy of being copied by other congregations.

MINUTES OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Executive Committee of the Western North Carolina Conference Historical Society met at West Market Street Methodist Church, Greensboro, N. C., on September 26, 1951, at 4:30 p. m. with J. H. Carper, President, in the chair; the following additional members were present: C. Moody Smith, E. P. Billups, L. B. Hayes, C. M. White, and J. C. Stokes.

Some discussion was entered into, looking toward the year 1953, the centennial year for the founding of Rutherford College, with a view to arranging for a fitting observance of this hundredth anniversary.

A memorial to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference of 1952 was read and discussed. On motion of L. B. Hayes, seconded by E. P. Billups, the Executive Committee moved to submit it to the Conference Historical Society with the recommendation that it be adopted.

A financial report was submitted as follows:

Balance Brought Forward on September 22, 1950	$244.97
Receipts from Offering taken at Conference, Sept. 22, 1950	73.03
Total Receipts	$318.00
Disbursements:
For Memorial Window in the Chapel at Lake Junaluska ..	$173.03
For 1950-1951 Jurisdictional Historical Society Dues	10.00
Total Disbursements	$183.03
Balance on Hand	$134.97

These funds are in the hands of Herbert Wayne, the Conference Treasurer.

It was decided that the next meeting of the Executive Committee should take place in the Summer of 1952 at Lake Junaluska at the time when the Jurisdictional Historical Society will be in Annual Session.

Thereupon the Committee adjourned.

MEMORIALS TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF 1952

—1—

REGARDING

An emphasis on Christian Education on every local church and Conference level.

Whereas the Western North Carolina Conference has followed the instructions of the 1948 General Conference in setting as our goal the amount of 50c per capita in contributions to our Methodist colleges, and

Whereas during the past year we have reached that goal and find our people enthusiastically supporting the College Sustaining Fund which has made this achievement possible, and

Whereas an authorized survey of the financial needs of the schools, colleges, and Wesley Foundations of The Methodist Church has been made, and

Whereas this survey and a study of the progress achieved within annual Conferences in the present quadrennial program of 50c per member per annum for Methodist colleges and Wesley Foundations suggest a definite plan for action for the next quadrennium, we therefore Memorialize the 1952 General Conference of The Methodist Church to approve the plan of action worked out by the General Board of Education, the National Association of Methodist Schools and Colleges, and the Methodist Student Workers' Association.

TO WIT

1. That the General Conference urge that Christian education on every local church and Conference level and through the Church's institutions of higher learning be made a major emphasis of the quadrennium, and that definite provision be made for adequately increasing the financial support of Methodist institutions of higher education.

2. That there shall be raised a total sum of money which shall represent at least 50 cents per member per annum for current operations of the Methodist secondary schools, colleges, and universities related to the Division of Educational Institutions of the Methodist Board of Education.

3. That a total sum shall be raised which shall represent at least 15 cents per member per annum for the current operations of—

(a) The Wesley Foundations.

(b) Similar programs of student work under the auspices of the General Board that are located at tax supported or independent institutions or at Methodist institutions not otherwise receiving funds from The Methodist Church.

4. That these amounts shall be apportioned and "distributed annually among the districts or charges by the method determined by the Conference and by such divisions and ratios as the Conference may approve." (Discipline, paragraph 782).

5. That the funds shall be allocated by the Conference to the institutions related to the Conference or the Division of Educational Institutions. In the event that there is no institution of higher learning now being supported by the Conference, such Conference shall determine, after consultation with the Division of Educational Institutions, how it will allocate this money; it being specifically understood that it must go for Methodist Educational Institutions.

In order that the funds above recommended for apportionment to the pastoral charges may be raised and that all other parallel connectional agencies may be fully supported, we recommend that a strengthened church-wide Christian Stewardship program be promoted, which will increase the per capita giving of the entire church membership.

It should be noted that these recommendations do not involve the raising of a large sum of new money, in that much progress toward the 1948 objectives has been made, nor do they call for a special campaign, but rather a plan for a continuing program of cultivation, organization, and promotion.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS

Whereas the years immediately ahead will constitute an exceedingly exacting difficult era for national and worldwide Christianity, and

Whereas The Methodist Church, if it is to wield the influence and leadership both nationally and throughout the world which has characterized its history thus far, must have an ever more adequately trained and skilled leadership, equipped with the knowledge of both the Christian ideology and the ideologies of the non-Christian and pagan philosophies, and the Christian application of the social sciences in this new day, and

Whereas most of our Methodist schools of theology are so beset with financial difficulties as to be unable to afford the more adequate faculties and curriculum coverages which this day requires, without additional aid from the denomination, and

Whereas our local churches should naturally expect to make some contribution toward the training of the ministers whom they want and must have, therefore,

Be It Resolved, that the Western North Carolina Annual Conference hereby memorializes the General Conference of The Methodist Church of 1952 requesting that it authorize a plan for the adequate support of these said schools of theology of The Methodist Church; and that it implement such plan by pro rating to the Annual Conferences their proper and respective shares to be raised annually for the support of these schools. Further,

Be It Resolved, that we in the Western North Carolina Annual Conference will gladly do our share toward the raising of such funds as may be apportioned to us, in the interest of assuring The Methodist Church a more adequately educated ministry for the difficult and exacting days ahead.

UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING

Whereas the proposed program for Universal Military Training for all young men is a violation of our American democratic heritage, and

Whereas the adoption of this program would unnecessarily indoctrinate our youth with militarism, and

Whereas the military manpower needs of our country are adequately met by the Selective Service system, and

Whereas the future welfare of our nation and the strength of the Christian church are dependent upon young people with deep spiritual roots who have been nurtured in the environment of a Christian home, school and church and for which military training is no substitute;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Western North Carolina Methodist Conference go on record as requesting the General Conference to oppose Universal Military Training, and that our members be urged to make known their opposition to Universal Military Training by writing their Congressmen.

COMPOSITION OF THE LOCAL CHURCH BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

We request the General Conference to substitute for lines 3 and 4 of paragraph 232, chapter IX, page 75, which reads "members of which shall be elected by the Quarterly Conference on nomination of the pastor or the Nominating Committee," the following:

"Members of which shall be composed of the pastor, the charge lay leader, the superintendent of church schools, the president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the chairman of the Committee on Missions and World Fellowship of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, the director of Christian Education, the missionary education counselor, and 3 to 7 members at large, nominated by the pastor or Nominating Committee, and elected by the Quarterly Conference."

THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

The Board of Temperance of the Western North Carolina Conference wishes to register its desire as a board to see the Board continued as it is now set up, and that its services be used more on a district and local church level.

The Board of Temperance

Adopted 9-29-51.

BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

We request the General Conference to make the following change in Section XI, paragraph 1295, lines 6 and 7: Add the words, "after consultation with the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions and Church Extension," following the words, "nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee," thus making the sentence read: "Five members at large, nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee, after consultation with the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions and Church Extension and elected quadrennially by the Annual Conference." Substitute adopted 9-29-51.

—7—

CHANGING NAME OF CHURCHES

We request that the General Conference enact clarifying legislation, giving directions for changing the name of churches.

—8—

ACCEPTED SUPPLY PASTORS

Accepted Supply Pastors—We request the General Conference to provide legislation providing for the following: That after six years as an accepted supply pastor, having passed satisfactorily the prescribed course of study and having done satisfactory work as a pastor, and having at least a high school education (or its equivalent), one may be admitted into the Annual Conference on trial, by $\frac{2}{3}$ majority vote. After at least three years of satisfactory work as an accepted supply pastor, and having passed the prescribed courses of study, one may be eligible for election and ordination as a deacon. Three additional years of satisfactory work as pastor, having passed the prescribed course for admission on trial as an accepted supply shall make one eligible for elder's orders.

—District Superintendents Conference

Adopted as amended 9-29-51.

—9—

LOCAL PREACHERS

Local Preachers—We request that the General Conference clarify the number of votes in the Quarterly Conference necessary for recommendation for license to preach, giving direction as to the number of votes in opposition which shall constitute sufficient votes to refuse recommendation, or to fail to pass the character of the applicant.

—District Superintendents Conference

ORGANIZING NEW CHURCHES

Organizing New Churches—We request that the General Conference set up legislation for the whole process of organizing new churches and for setting up the first officials of the same.

SACRAMENTS

Resolved that the Western North Carolina Annual Conference memorialize the General Conference to change paragraph 352, Section 2 of the Discipline to read as follows:

To administer the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, to perform the marriage ceremony, and to bury the dead, according to the Discipline.

An unordained pastor or a local preacher serving as an accepted supply may, upon recommendation by his district superintendent and written consent of the resident bishop, be authorized to administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, the Sacrament of Baptism, and to perform the marriage ceremony, if the laws of the state permit. Any exercise by him of his authority outside the bounds of his charge shall be sufficient cause for the revocation of his authorization by his bishop upon recommendation of his district superintendent. Written consent by the bishop shall be on a form prepared by The Methodist Publishing House and must be renewed annually. It is understood that no permanent powers of ordination are conferred until granted by the laying on of hands after he has met the Disciplinary requirements.

Also, change paragraph 393 to read as follows:

A deacon has authority to preach, to conduct divine worship, to perform the marriage ceremony, to administer Baptism, and to administer the Lord's Supper.

Adopted 9-29-51.

"CRUSADE FOR WORLD ORDER"

A state of emergency was declared some time ago by our national government. It is time our church acts in like manner. The totally destructive war growing nearer by the day forbids Christians to continue business as usual. If the impending full-scale war is not averted, the will of God shall be tragically thwarted again. Much of the good the church is doing will be consumed in the holocaust of the conflict.

Several years ago our church conducted an all-out campaign to establish the United Nations. We recognized that world peace could not exist without a world organization through which the nations could settle their differences in some way other than war. Thus the "Crusade for a New World Order" was conducted between Dumbarton Oaks and San Francisco, turning all Methodism's resources into the preparation of our nation for its role in helping create the United Nations.

Something has now gone wrong. The song of the dove is lost in the growl of the tank. The United Nations has not been able to keep peace. The resulting loss of confidence in the U. N. may well make it the first casualty in a third world war. Surely it is time for our church to turn the resources of Methodism into saving the peace by saving the U. N.

Among other things, we might well turn our eyes toward 1955, when the matter of a conference to review and amend the U. N. Charter will automatically be placed on the agenda of the U. N. General Assembly. That conference will not be called unless our country is willing. Surely, Methodism has a responsibility for seeing that our nation is ready to call for the review conference and to work therein for such Charter revisions as are needed to give the U. N. adequate powers for peace.

Therefore, we request the General Conference to conduct a "Crusade for World Order" in the year 1954-1955 in the new quadrennium. Let the church through all its activities earnestly study the questions: "Why is the U. N. unable to keep the peace, and how can it be improved?" Let the appropriate body of the church, upon such earnest and persistent study, prescribe a remedy for the U. N.'s disabilities and outline a plan of action for our church to follow in getting our nation to propose that remedy for the U. N.

As disciples of Christ, it is our responsibility to produce a plan of action that will break the seemingly endless cycle of war. Let the full strength of Methodism unite in the task.

Western N. C. Annual Conference

Approved October 29, 1951.

MEMORIAL TO THE SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE, 1952

1. Whereas spiritual life and the success of the evangelistic and institutional work of the Church depends in the last analysis on the loyalty of our Methodist people; and

2. Whereas such loyalty is largely based on information concerning the history, traditions, beliefs, and program of Methodism, which information is now wholly inadequate and is not being adequately cultivated; and

3. Whereas we have a Jurisdictional Methodist Historical Society and Historical Societies in all, or nearly all, of our Annual Conferences, which, however, are entirely without adequate moral and financial support;

4. Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the Western North Carolina Conference Historical Society, that the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference of The Methodist Church be and hereby is memorialized (1) to give official recognition to the Jurisdictional Methodist Historical Society as a federation of the Annual Conference Societies and an auxiliary unit of the Association of Methodist Historical Societies, (2) to provide financial support for its work, and (3) to authorize and endorse the establishment of a historical center and headquarters at the Lake Junaluska Assembly, the central institution of the Jurisdiction.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. CARPER

CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

MINUTES OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

September 6, 1951

The Executive Committee of the Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood met at the Home for the Aged in Charlotte, September 6, 1951. The Reverend H. G. Allen, President of the Brotherhood, was present and presided at the meeting. Other members of the Committee present included C. C. Herbert, Jr., R. C. Goforth, Dr. E. H. Blackard, S. G. Ferree, and Jesse G. Wilkinson.

The opening prayer was led by the Reverend C. C. Herbert, Jr., after which the Secretary-Treasurer read the minutes of the last meeting of the Executive Committee. The minutes were approved. This was followed by the financial report which showed a balance on hand of $6,356.83.

The progress of the campaign for 600 new lay members was next considered. H. G. Allen reported that he had visited seven of the District Conferences and had secured at these conferences a total of 232 new lay members. Lay District Directors of the Brotherhood, assisted by pastors had secured 311 additional members, making a total of 543 new lay members of the Brotherhood. The Committee decided that the goal of 600 new lay members could be reached by Annual Conference with continued effort.

In the light of this encouraging report Dr. E. H. Blackard proposed that the superannuates be required to pay only one-half of the amount of each call, namely, one dollar and fifty cents, so long as the contribution from lay membership justified the policy. The Secretary was instructed to send a notice to the North Carolina Christian Advocate of the proposed change in policy which made necessary an amendment to the Constitution of the Brotherhood. The proposed amendment to the Constitution is to be known as Amendment No. 1 and added to Article VII, and reads as follows:

"Provided further that after the close of the 1951 Annual Conference all beneficiary members who hold the retired relation shall pay only one dollar and fifty cents on each assessment."

The Reverend C. C. Herbert made a motion that our charge lay leaders be requested to observe Conference Brotherhood Sunday on November 4th and endeavor to secure new lay members at that time. The motion was unanimously approved. The procedure suggested for this observance by the Committee was that a notice be put each year in the North Carolina Christian Advocate calling attention to the day, and that clerical and lay district directors of the Brotherhood be given responsibility for its promotion within their respective areas, and that the editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate be furnished material for an article on the work of the Brotherhood.

President Allen stated that the Brotherhood would hold its annual meeting on September 26th after the morning devotion.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

H. G. ALLEN, President

JESSE G. WILKINSON, Secretary-Treasurer

1. Historical Sketch

“The Western North Carolina Conference shall include all North Carolina west of the North Carolina Conference, except Savannah Church, in Alleghany County, North Carolina; and also that part of North Carolina lying north of New River, and including that part of Virginia lying south of that river in the loop in Grayson County, Virginia; including all the territory in Carroll and Patrick Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, and west of the Dan River.” (Discipline, 1948, paragraph 1757.)

This territory is identical with that of the Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South. All three branches of Methodism forming The Methodist Church are included in this new Conference. From the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church came thirty-nine ministers and 11,901 church members. The North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church contributed seventy-four ministers and 22,361 church members. The Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, added 377 ministers and 167,028 church members. This gave the new Conference 490 ministers, with twenty-eight others on trial, and 201,290 church members. The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference had held 62 sessions, the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, 112, and the Western North Carolina, 50. (See Journal, 1939, Pages 115, 166).

6. Memorial Service

AN ORDER OF WORSHIP FOR THE ANNUAL SERVICE OF COMMEMORATION

ORGAN PRELUDE—"Benedictus" Alec Rowley
Mrs. Lucas C. Abels

QUIET MOMENTS FOR MEDITATION AND PRAYER

MEDITATION

"We need to call to remembrance the great and good, through whom the Lord hath wrought great glory. We need to be reminded of the noble army of good ministers of Jesus Christ who have been the interpreters of faith and have given to us the heritage of freedom and truth. We need to be appreciative of the good example of the men and women who have truly loved and served God in creating the fabric of the Church that is ours today."

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Minister: O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good; for his mercy endureth forever.

People: Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

Minister: O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt him together.

People: It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. Amen.

CHORAL INVOCATION: "Jesus Stands Among Us" Mann

THE COLLECT (Minister and people)

O heavenly Father, thy word is a lamp unto our feet, and a light unto our path; we humbly beseech thee that thou wouldst be pleased to open and enlighten our minds, through Jesus Christ, who is the true light of the world, that we may understand thy word in its plainness and purity, and frame accordingly the whole course of our lives; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN 533—"O God Our Help in Ages Past" Watts

A CANTICLE OF THE WORD (Here let the people stand and remain standing until after the Affirmation of Faith)

Minister: How lovely are thy messengers, O Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and a longing for thy word.

People: Thou sendest forth thy prophets in every age, and thy truth runneth swiftly to the ends of the earth.

Minister: The pure in heart have seen thee, O God; the lowly have found thee near at hand.

People: These tell of thy lovingkindness: from the rising of the sun to the going down of the same they keep not silence;

Minister: Publishing peace upon the mountains, and bringing good tidings of great joy.

People: That thou art blessed forever, and in thy will is our peace.

Minister: Thou art the everlasting fountain of life, and they that drink thereof shall thirst no more;

People: Light of our seeing and soul of our souls, within all spirits and beyond all worlds,

Minister: Who sustainest the heavens with the might of thy power, and gladdenest the eyes of all living with the beauty of thy holiness,

People: That the children of men may behold thy glory, and see thy wonders in the green deeps.

THE GLORIA PATRI

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Here let the people, following the exhortation of the minister, unite with him in the creed)

Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is the one true Church, apostolic and universal, whose holy faith let us now reverently and sincerely declare.

THE LESSON FROM THE HOLY SCRIPTURES: Ephesians 4: 10-16

THE LITANY OF APPRECIATION (The minister, the people responding)

Let us pray

Almighty and everlasting God, before whom stand the spirits of the living and the dead, Light of lights, Fountain of wisdom and goodness, who livest in all pure and humble and gracious souls;

For all who have witnessed a good confession for thy glory and the welfare of the world, patriarchs, prophets, and apostles, the wise of every land and nation, all teachers and preachers of thy truth.

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

For the martyrs of our holy faith, the faithful witnesses to Christ of whom the world was not worthy, and for all who have resisted falsehood and wrong unto suffering or death,

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

For all who have labored and suffered for freedom, good government, just laws, and the sanctity of the home, and for all who have given their lives for their country.

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

For all who have sought to bless men by their service and life, and to lighten the dark places of the earth,

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

For those who have been tender and true and brave in all times and places, for those who have been devoted ministers and faithful shepherds of souls in thy holy Church, and for all who have been one with thee in the communion of Christ's Spirit and in the strength of his love,

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

(Here let the minister and the people unite in saying:)

O Almighty God, who in thy mercy hast redeemed the world by the love of thy dear Son; we give thee hearty thanks for thy servants who are in the ministry of thy Church; endue them richly with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and grant that in all their words and deeds they may seek thy glory and the increase of thy Kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

LOGAN BERGE ABERNETHY

July 12, 1865-December 12, 1950

Eighty-five years, resplendent with achievement and caparisoned with nobility of spirit, mark the saga of Logan Berge Abernethy, who, expectant, eager, and happy, reached his heavenly home, "bright and fair," on December 12, 1950.

What a breadth of vision compassed those years! What a devotion to duty and skill in its execution! What depth of understanding and brotherly love! What selfless, constant caring! What a radiant faith!

He was one of the most resourceful churchmen our Southland has given our world. A catalog of his ministry reads like an inspired and inspiring tale, whose summary is "abundant fruits for the Master's use." Writing to his beloved widow, Bishop Clare Purcell said, "My ten years of intimate association with him in the work of the church was a benediction to me. He leaves a record of constructive service and devotion to the church unsurpassed by any of his brethren."

Dr. Abernethy, honored with two doctorates, one from Weaverville and one from High Point College, was reared in a home where learning and piety were guardian angels. He brought into his manhood a discerning, brilliant mind and an uncommon strength of character. That mind, always alert, reached out for truth in more than a few directions, which, being found, adorned his decisions and his toil. That strong character, honor bright, he wore as shield and buckler.

Mathematics, next to the lore of the Sacred Word, was the first favorite of his mind. In it he became a master, later a teacher. Its exactness and dependability, led, as with all scholars in that field, to philosophy. His philosophy brought him essential soundness in all his great conclusions. How aptly he drew on the stores of noble literature, history and logic in declaring from the lectern or the pulpit the truth of God!

It was almost inevitable that with distinguished forebears and their training for him in righteousness, as well as with the elegant choices he himself made, he should dedicate his capacities to the service of the church. This he did, first as a teacher at Rutherford College, which his father had founded and from which he had graduated in 1886. He taught there eleven years. Pressed by economic circumstances, like many whose youth paralleled Southern Reconstruction, Dr. Abernethy during vacation periods learned telegraphy. Several times he served as an operator for both the Southern and Norfolk and Western railroads. This experience in business, whose overtures for his service promised him high financial reward, brought him insights, skill, and understanding, which he capitalized significantly for the Church in important executive positions he was destined to fill.

When he joined the Western North Carolina Conference in 1900, he was appointed to the Bald Creek Academy in Yancey County. He had founded this school earlier in order to train youth in a territory then comparatively remote. Having laid its foundations well, he turned this institution and its brief but brilliant life over to other hands and became in 1901 pastor of the Weaverville Circuit. This charge was composed of nine churches sprawling over a wide countryside from Flat Creek to Hominy to upper Swannanoa, for twenty-five miles. His labors were very fruitful. In 1903 the charge was re-arranged, and with Tabernacle, near Black Mountain, the Swannanoa-Biltmore Circuit was formed with him as its pastor.

Meanwhile, Weaverville College, sensing his magnificent equipment, commandeered his services as its president. The school thrived. Much pressure was brought on him to remain as its head, but his fame as a leader could not be confined. A big industry was locating in Canton, and he was needed to build a church there. After three years at Weaverville College, he served three distinguished years as pastor at Canton.

Education and the pulpit from then on vied for his abilities. He was the first full-time Executive Secretary of the Board of Education, 1911-1912. Then for four years he taught mathematics at what is now the Western North Carolina Teachers College at Cullowhee. The pulpit made its demand again; so for four years he served Dilworth in Charlotte, 1916-20. Central Mooresville was his charge from 1920-24, and for the next nine years he was pastor at First Church, Elkin.

The happy association of preacher, churchman, and executive is especially marked by his Elkin ministry. There the church grew and the town expanded its activities. He gave here one of the shining labors of his always radiant life. With the late Hugh Gwyn Chatham, a devoted layman, Dr. Abernethy founded the Chatham Memorial Hospital, an institution our Conference was to sponsor. Twenty years of the hospital's bright success illustrate the vision and executive aptness of one who, in the Great Physician's train, came "to teach, to preach, and to heal."

The people of Elkin and the leadership of the Conference were reluctant to agree with Dr. Abernethy's desires, but finally relieved him of his arduous duties at the hospital and appointed him in 1933 to our church in Newton. After but one year here, where he was happy with kindling dreams for development of the work, he was called again to full time executive responsibilities, and for the next eight years was Missionary Secretary and Director of the Golden Cross. So fruitful were his labors in this double responsibility, and so much did each cause grow, that in 1942 the responsibility was divided, and he became Executive Secretary of the Board of Missions while another directed the Golden Cross. Though he was many years past the scheduled age of retirement, he continued to serve the Board of Missions with brilliant distinction. Active in it until the very end—over a span of thirty years, in sum—it can be truthfully said that no man could take his place while he was alive!

But a recital of this list of appointments, each appointment luminous with the light of outstanding accomplishment, cannot summarize the magnificent life of a universally beloved friend. For he knew a great love, and for sixty-two years he and his adored "Patsy" gave priority to God's service, the enrichment of life, and the rearing of a family, every member of which has added to the luster of a widely cherished name. It was joyous to know the loveliness of that home and the depth of its beautiful devotion and care.

Out of his ancestral home, and out of the one he and his surviving widow founded, there glowed both wisdom and peace. People all around were caught in that glow. As he worked tirelessly in the field, he could sit with men and women and by his persuasive insights and refreshing humor relieve a "situation" and win a cause. In all such meetings, his wisdom was rare in its correctness; his understanding was matched beautifully with the love he held for people.

A stout defender of missions, a flaming evangel of God's saving grace, who never seemed to tire, a prophet whose eyes were alight with vision and whose mind was dedicated to large convictions, he nevertheless rejoiced in knowing that in the very finest way he was ever the friend of little churches and their pastors. He knew so well and so lovingly their problems and their needs. There is no way to measure the scope and permanent value of his services to them. New and vastly improved parsonages, modern and attractive churches—in the country and also in industrial communities—rise in their pleasing facilities as one monument to the consecrated labors of a very wise and a very good man. All the people of these charges hold his memory securely in their hearts.

A passionate interest of his last years was the development of the Home for the Aged in Charlotte. Much earlier, his experience at the Chatham Memorial Hospital and his general observations had taught him that there was urgent and increasing need for a home where those weighted with years could spend life's evening surrounded with light, comfort, and peace. He became, with the late E. M. Cole and the Reverend E. O. Cole, the Reverend C. M. Pickens, and others of similar interest and stature, a founder of the Methodist Home. He was its board's secretary when he died. A fully equipped infirmary bearing his name will be placed there by contributions from the hosts of grateful people beside whom he, in blessedness, walked a part of life's way.

The Abernethy Church in West Asheville, whose consecration and sacrifice have brought to it remarkable and rapid growth—a congregation that became the object of his special affection and counsel—stands in the mountains, another, with many elsewhere, as a testimonial to the reach of his magnificent ministry.

One recalls the will of Bunyan's Pilgrim, who, when he had called his friends, said, "I am going to my Father's, and though with great difficulty I am got hither, yet now I do not repent me all the trouble I have been at to arrive where I am. My sword I give to him that shall succeed me in my pilgrimage, and my courage and skill to him that can get it. My marks and scars I carry with me, to be a witness for me that I have fought his battles, who now will be my rewarder." When the day that he must go hence was come, many accompanied him to the riverside, into which as he went, he said, "Death, where is thy sting?" And as he went down deeper he said, "Grave, where is thy victory?" So he passed over, and all the trumpets sounded for him on the other side."

GEORGE LUTHER CURRY

March 23, 1874-July 7, 1951

The Reverend George Luther Curry was born March 23, 1874, in the West Bend community of Yadkin County, the son of Jacob D. and Laura Wagner Curry. In this simple farm home the life of this good man began. His early training began in the schools of Yadkinville, N. C. Soon parents moved back to their native county of Davidson and their young son George was enrolled as a student in Old Pilgrim and Bethany Academy, walking ten miles each day to attend school. From there he went to Yadkin Collegiate Institute and graduated in 1901. He graduated from Western Maryland College in 1905 and from the Westminster Theological Seminary in 1907. These schools all together had a part in the shaping of one of the most devoted minds of our conference.

Brother Curry was twice married; first to Miss Georganna Stowe who joined the Church Triumphant on May 13, 1924. To this union was born five daughters. On June 24, 1926, he married Miss Ida Mae Perryman of Davidson County, who shared with him the last twenty-five years of his useful life, celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary two weeks before his death. In addition to this faithful wife, he is survived by his five daughters, Lt. Jessie C. Golding, Army Nurses Corps, San Antonio, Texas; Mrs. Charles C. Adams, Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. William D. Winters of Groton, Conn.; Mrs. J. T. Hardin of Asheboro, N. C.; Mrs. Joe Kosinski of Durham, N. C.; and his step-mother, Mrs. Mary Curry of High Point.

George L. Curry joined the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church and received his first appointment in 1906. He was ordained and admitted into full connection in 1907. For the next 41 years he received an appointment and carried on with great zeal, unflinching devotion, unquestioned consecration, and simple sincerity, the great charge of a Methodist preacher. He served in four states and was a member of three annual conferences. His appointments began at Edenton, N. C., and included Weaverville, Burlington, Graham, Seattle, Wash., Baltimore, Md., Greensboro, Denton, and finally Gray's Chapel in Randolph County, from which appointment he retired in 1948. During his long and fruitful ministry he was engaged in ten building campaigns and six campaigns to pay off church debts.

Let it be said that few men love the Church of Christ more than George Curry loved it. He made no demands on it as far as position and prestige are concerned; he asked for only a small part in the Lord's vineyard to do His will; he gave his life to the church without reservation. George Curry joined the Methodist Protestant Conference but all his life dreamed of and prayed for unification because he believed one church to be a better instrument in the hands of God than three competing churches. He often said that at the time of unification he was the happiest of the eight million Methodists.

Upon his retirement in 1948, he and Mrs. Curry moved into their retirement home on Homestead Avenue in High Point and became affiliated immediately with the First Methodist Church. For three years he sweetened the life of that church by his spirit and his devotion. That church, its ministers, and members will never forget him. Having been so active, he feared his retirement and the stage of inactivity, yet in High Point and in his church he found friends who loved him and work that still needed to be done and young preachers to encourage and he gave himself to the task. To one of these young preachers who deeply loved him he once said, "My only desire now is to live my retirement to the fullest and be ready when the day comes to be translated to the Church Triumphant."

The day came early in the morning of July 7, 1951, and George Luther Curry entered the Church Triumphant. Funeral services were conducted for him on Sunday afternoon, July 8, at 4:00 o'clock at the First Methodist Church, High Point, N. C., by its pastor, Kenneth Goodson, the Reverend Herman Duncan, Superintendent of the Greensboro District, and the Reverend C. E. Ridge of Winston-Salem, long-time friend of the deceased. The words of the anthem sung at his funeral are indicative of the spiritual life of the man:

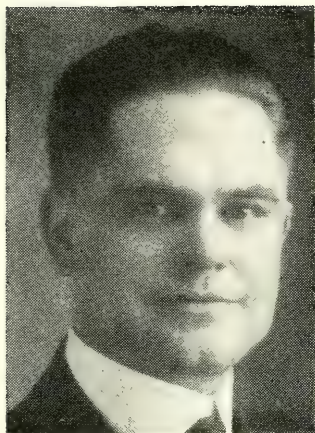

"MY GOD AND I"

My God and I, go in the field together,
We walk and talk as good friends should and do,
We clasp our hands, our voices ring with laughter,
My God and I, walk through the meadow's hue.
He tells me of the years that went before me,
When heav'nly plans were made for me to be,
When all was but a dream of dim conception,
To come to life, earth's verdant glory see.
My God and I, will go for aye together,
We'll walk and talk and jest as good friends do,
This earth will pass and with it common trifles,
But God and I, will go unendingly.

THOMAS FREDERICK HIGGINS

March 1, 1894-June 20, 1951

The Reverend Thomas F. Higgins, son of Cyrus and Eliza Spronce Higgins, born March 1, 1894, Yancey County, N. C., passed to his eternal reward in the early morning of June 20, 1951. He lived a full and vigorous life of fifty-seven years. He lived twenty-nine of these in the ministry of the Western North Carolina Conference. He was the product of a Christian home where devout parents directed his mind and heart toward the church they loved and to the gracious God whom they joyfully served. In the early and tender years of his childhood he felt the wooing of God's Spirit in his heart. Being fired by holy desires in his awakened heart he felt he was called to the ministry and in face of uncommon hardships secured an education. He graduated from Bald Creek High School, Yancey County, attended Rutherford College, graduated from Trinity College (Duke) in 1920 receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree. He entered Yale Divinity School, New Haven, Conn., and graduated with the B.D. degree in 1922.

On March 10, 1923, Brother Higgins was united in marriage with Miss Katy James Hyatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Hyatt of Burnsville. Their married life has been marked by a simple Christian beauty which has blessed the communities into which they have gone to live. This union was blessed with three children: Mrs. Katie James Kirkman, Raleigh; Mrs. Margaret Boshamer, Gastonia; and Pfc. Thomas Frederick Higgins, Jr., Cheyenne, Wyoming, who in addition to the widow, survive this forceful, sincere and courageous man of God. Funeral services were conducted at the West End Methodist Church, Gastonia, Thursday afternoon, June 21, with Dr. W. A. Stanbury, D. S., in charge, being assisted by Bishop Costen J. Harrell, Rev. Ralph Kaylor, and Rev. John H. Carper. Interment was in the Gaston Memorial Park.

1916 was a notable year in Brother Higgins' life. In that year he was "admitted on trial" into the Western North Carolina Conference. Due to strenuous years of study and preparation he was not received into "full connection" until 1923. He was ordained Deacon in 1922 and ordained Elder in 1924.

It was in the fall of 1922 that he began his unbroken itineracy serving ten charges within our Conference, namely: Brevard Street, Charlotte, 1922-24; Forest Hill, Concord, 1924-28; First Church, Waynesville, 1928-29; Haywood Street, Asheville, 1929-31; First Church, Murphy, 1931-35; Calvary, Charlotte, 1935-39; First Church Wadesboro, 1939-40; Pleasant Garden Charge, Pleasant Garden, 1940-44; Muir's Chapel, Greensboro, 1944-46; West End, Gastonia, 1946-51. His service to God and humanity in those places of service causes one to say in appraisal of his life that "he had deep and abiding convictions that gave steadfastness to his faith, determination to his purpose and persistence to his efforts. Because he lived, there is today a new fire in many a heart and a new radiance in many a life."

His many friends are mindful of the fact that he was a man who lived the good life, not perfect, yet blameless, against whom no word of suspicion or accusation was ever raised. He was a pastor, with a pastor's heart, laboring and serving faithfully in love. He was moved with brotherly compassion to seek out those in genuine need and inspire in them that confidence which helped and sustained. He was an evangelist, constantly searching out men not much accustomed to the church, her services and sermons, that if by any means he might save some. Many rise up where he has served and call him blessed today for they have seen the genuineness of his concern and were led to the One whom he loved and served. Although by some he was thought to be distant and not easily understood, he grew upon one, and upon those whom he bestowed his friendship it was found to be warm and absolutely loyal. Thus he inspired his people by his life and living. He would not accept sham or make-believe, he had no time for artificiality in persons or things. Because of him many are looking up and marching forward with new faith and hope.

"He who believed so firmly in immortality and lived that faith among us, tastes it now." Therefore, most heartily we say:

"Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ:
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy!"

WILLIAM LEE HUTCHINS

October 15, 1878-January 3, 1951

"His passing marks the conclusion of a long and faithful service in the high calling to which he was so fervently devoted, the memory of which will be cherished by the great number who were the beneficiaries of his ministerial services and his personal friendship, both in hours of sorrow and in times of gladness," so wrote one of the state's brilliant editors on the passing of our beloved brother, William Lee Hutchins, for almost half a century a devoted and diligent member of the Western North Carolina Conference.

William Lee Hutchins was born in Yadkin County, near the present town of Yadkinville, on October 15, 1878, eldest son of six children of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Hutchins who were honorable and hardworking parents, striving as best they could for the welfare of their children. Mrs. Hutchins, the beloved mother of these children, died early in life, leaving the care of the five younger ones to the father and the eldest son, William Lee. Feeling the need of an education this boy, very early in life, began to attend the public schools of his native Yadkin, although at that time they were very poorly equipped to bring knowledge to an ambitious boy. However, it was his good fortune to be able to enter a private school, the Yadkinville Normal, and to sit at the feet of a learned master who knew boys and could inspire them, Prof. Zeno Dixon, one of the really great teachers of that day. Later it was William's lot to spend two wholesome and fruitful years at Guilford College where his mind found itself in the deeper matters of the Christian life. Following his college experience he came home to his native community and taught school for several years, bringing inspiration to many boys and girls of his native heath. What a teacher young Hutchins would have made had he preferred to remain in that particular field of endeavor. His call was to a greater and more expanding ministry.

Converted as a boy and called to preach early in his young manhood William Lee Hutchins was received into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1902 at the session conducted by the late Bishop A. Coke Smith at Monroe, N. C. Two years later he was admitted into full connection and ordained deacon by Bishop W. W. Duncan at Charlotte, N. C. In 1906 he was granted elder's orders and ordained by Bishop A. W. Wilson at Mount Airy, N. C. Thus began one of the great and lasting ministries of our conference, one that spans nearly fifty successful years of Christian service.

The first appointment of Brother Hutchins was the large Mount Airy Circuit, comprising nine rural churches and covering the entire Surry County area, a territory that today has eight or ten modern appointments. From 1902 until his retirement in 1948 Brother Hutchins spent forty-six glorious years in the Methodist itineracy of the Western North Carolina Conference. Among the churches served in addition to those mentioned above we find the following: East Bend; New London; Kannapolis; Forest Hill, Concord; Burkhead, Winston-Salem; Andrews; First, Newton; First, Marion; First, Lexington; Main St., Thomasville; West End, Winston-Salem; First, Hickory; First, Waynesville; Main St., Thomasville (second time); Central, Concord; Waynesville District; First, Lenoir; and Ogburn Memorial, Winston-Salem. Among the noteworthy labors accomplished in these many pastorates by Brother Hutchins during nearly half a century are as follows: Founding of our great Trinity church in the new industrial center of Kannapolis; establishment of the institutional work at Burkhead, Winston-Salem, such as parks and playgrounds, night school, health clinic, recreation and public welfare; a whole year spent in promoting the Aldersgate campaign for the strengthening of spiritual life in our conference churches (the only minister in the state giving a year to this type of work); two pastorates in the city of Concord; two pastorates in the city of Thomasville; three pastorates in the city of Winston-Salem; and two ministries in Waynesville (both pastor and district superintendent). What achievements this man of God left behind in each and every place he labored. What a record of good works this minister wrote down in lives of men, women and children. Yet at the end the closing words of Wesley's life were those of Brother Hutchins—"I the chief of sinners am, and Jesus died for me," spoken to the writer a few weeks before death came.

Besides all the pastoral labors of this Methodist minister there should be mentioned the work he did in a broader sphere of service, that of civic, educational, fraternal, and charitable fields. For twelve years and under five different North Carolina governors Brother Hutchins was a member of the North Carolina Board of Public Welfare, as well as a member in his closing years of the Yadkin County Board of Welfare. He served for twenty years a member of the North Carolina Commission of the Blind, and for thirty years he was a member of the North Carolina Children's Home Society. He was an active member of the Ancient Free and Accepted Masonic bodies, and was also a member of Rotary International. He traveled extensively in this and other countries during his pastorates, spending one entire summer in Europe and the Holy Land, and lecturing frequently on peoples and conditions across the seas. He wrote poetry as the mood came upon him, producing verses the equal of any North Carolina poet, and among his last labors on earth was the publishing of a beautiful volume of poems entitled "Withered Weeds." In this one little volume we find the creed and philosophy of his long and abundant life, as for instance we find in a poem dedicated to Burkhead Church:

"I will not pray for purple nor raiment trimmed with lace;
For down in dingy hovels the fashions have no place.
I pray Thee, Lord, to give me instead a smiling face,
A prophet's soul for justice and garments of Thy grace."

"Uncle Will preaches to the poor mountain people just as well as he does to the rich and educated people in the city" was the comment made one day by one of his little nephews. Yes, Brother Hutchins was forever the friend of the poor, the outcast, the forgotten and the underprivileged. His burning messages, always touched with a divine fire, compelled men to stop and listen to the subject uppermost in his heart—the brotherhood of man and justice for all alike. At times people came from such preaching in the sanctuary, saying to one another—"Truly a prophet hath spoken." Eloquent of tongue, enthusiastic in delivery, and sincere in every utterance, Brother Hutchins was at all times a rare preacher of righteousness and a minister like unto the Galilean.

For forty years his daily, hourly companion was the devoted woman he married in his early ministry—Percy Wilmoth of Boonville. Little do we know the quiet inspiration which came from her gentle soul to match his vigorous spirit, and to complement his great manly heart. Truly she was a helpmeet for him in all his successful living. A little girl, Mary Lee, was adopted by the Hutchins family while they lived in Lexington. She brought a fragrance to their lives for six happy years, and then went away, a sweet little messenger of love to the Father's house. Their home was always a place of joy and radiant with Christlike living.

During the last two years of his life Brother Hutchins lived in the new cottage which he and Mrs. Hutchins built in the town of Booneville, where he gladly received his friends, kept busy writing his verses, and occasionally went forth to preach the glorious gospel. As the old year—1950—drew to its closing, the family and friends noted a great change in the face and form of this godly man, a breaking down of the strong body and mind which had been so generous to him and his ministry through fruitful years. Early in the new year—1951—physicians and nurses, friends and neighbors, realized the end was near, and in the evening of January 3, the tired heart of this tireless man stood still. The earthly life of William Lee Hutchins was at an end, but his immortal spirit was never more alive.

Two days later the mortal clay was laid to rest in the White City of the Dead, a plot selected in the red hills of his native Yadkin. The closing services were in charge of his closest friends, lay and clerical, Revs. Clay Madison, W. R. Jenkins, Ralph Taylor, E. P. Billups, and Mr. R. L. Pope of Thomasville. The funeral music was given by Rev. Roy Houts, supported by the Waynesville District Quartet. A large and broken-hearted congregation of family and friends stood by for the final words of hope by the assisting ministers—"I Am the Resurrection and the Life."

An editorial in the Lexington Dispatch stated so well this tribute—"Mr. Hutchins was a loyal Methodist, and he did fine work for his church, as a member, as pastor, as superintendent, and in many other capacities. But he arrayed himself with the community as a whole, wherever he went, and he numbered his friends as easily among those of other churches, or even the unchurched, as with those of his own flock. He was a good preacher, an able one, who could move people to high emotion, but the thing that will be remembered longest everywhere is that he was a good and lasting friend. He seemed to regard all men as his brothers."

Brother Hutchins delivered two memorial addresses in honor of his fallen brethren at our annual conference, one at Asheville and one at High Point, a record in itself. Vachel Lindsay, the poet of our midwest, has left a memorial for this man and servant of God—

"Sleep on, O brave hearted, O wise man that kindled the flame,

To live in mankind is far more than to live in a name;

To live in mankind; far, far more . . . than to live in a name."

Today the memorial chimes of Ogburn Memorial Church, Winston-Salem, ring out each evening and on the Sabbath morning a message of comfort and courage for all those who pass by, a tribute to the name and fame of William Lee Hutchins, good minister of Jesus Christ.

DANIEL ALLEN OAKLEY

May 1, 1890-April 1, 1951

Sunday morning, April 1, at 3:15 o'clock the golden key that opens the palace of eternity turned in the lock of life and the soul of Reverend Daniel Allen Oakley gently passed to that undiscovered country, from whose shores no traveler has ever returned.

Mr. Oakley was born in Sandy Ridge, Stokes County, May 1, 1890, a son of John Byron and Mary Jane Tilley Oakley, and began his ministry in the Methodist Conference at Jonesville. He served as a student pastor while attending Rutherford College. Later he was pastor of the following charges: Hiddenite, Troutman, Cool Springs, Lenoir Circuit, Whitnel Circuit, Trinity-Bethel in Thomasville, and Thomasville Circuit, and at the time of his death was pastor of Oakview Methodist Church of High Point.

Surviving are the wife, the former Bessie Spencer; two daughters, Miss Clarice Oakley of Elkin and Miss Rachel Oakley of High Point; five sons, Paul and Charles Oakley, both of Lenoir, James Oakley of Beverly, N. J., Rev. John Oakley of Farmington and Rev. Robert Oakley of High Point; one sister, Miss Sarah Oakley of Sandy Ridge; three brothers, Ben Oakley of Sandy Ridge, John Oakley of Lawsonville, and Alec Oakley of Mayodan; and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted by Reverends George B. Clemmer, Herman Duncan, J. W. Combs, R. E. Ward, and J. W. Groce. Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery.

Brother Oakley was every inch a man; honest, sincere, and dependable, one who loved his Lord and his fellowman. He was a fine organizer who led his forces to victory, and was a builder of churches and parsonages. In his home he was affectionate, gentle, and kind, and his children rise up and call him blessed.

Because of his beautiful traits of character he won the confidence, esteem, and friendship of the people where he was called to serve. His religion was that of an optimist who looked on the bright side of every experience. He was an able preacher, a student who was modern in his thinking, and a builder of congregations and Christian character. He was a devoted pastor who visited his people, gave comfort to the broken-hearted, cheered the discouraged, and gave solace to those in distress. He was a soldier who died at his post.

During his illness, realizing that the end was near, he said to his daughter Rachel: "Unless the Lord intervenes, this looks like the end, but everything is all right." The sunset was clear, there were no clouds to dim the glory of his crossing. He lived well and died well.

"Now the laborer's task is o'er;
Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

Earth to earth, and dust to dust;
Calmly now the words we say;
Left behind we wait in trust,
For the resurrection day.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping."

MOFFAT ALEXANDER OSBORNE

January 30, 1881-November 14, 1950

The Reverend Moffat Alexander Osborne was born in Union County, North Carolina, on January 30, 1881, being the son of Alexander and Patsy Osborne.

On May the fifth, 1910, he was married to Miss Fannie Griffin, of Unionville, North Carolina. Eight children were born into their home with five of them now surviving: Mrs. R. J. Starling, Advance, N. C.; Mrs. Glenn Morris, Siler City, N. C.; Mrs. Bill Bingham, Vilas, N. C.; Prof. Sam Osborne, Millers Creek, N. C.; and James, of the home. Three children died in infancy.

In 1909 Brother Osborne graduated from Rutherford College, and that fall was sent to the Bakersville charge in Mitchell County, as a supply pastor. In the fall of 1910 he was assigned to the Old Fort Circuit where he remained one year. In the fall of 1911 he entered Trinity College and graduated in the class of 1915.

In the fall of 1915 he joined the Western North Carolina Conference in session at Reidsville, N. C., and served the following charges very effectively: Prospect Charge four years; Alexander Circuit, two years; Epworth, Concord, two years; Mount Pleasant, two years; Waxhaw, three years; Glen Alpine, three years; Linwood, four years; Rock Springs, four years; South Fork, one year; Watauga Circuit, three years; Statesville Circuit, two years; Shepherds, four years.

This long list of appointments tells the story of the life and work of Moffat Alexander Osborne. As a preacher, Brother Osborne was known for his fearless attitude on all moral issues. He was considered a great revivalist. While Brother Osborne was a good and earnest preacher, he was also a builder of churches. One of his outstanding accomplishments seems to have been raising church debts. Epworth, Waxhaw, Glen Alpine, and Henson's Chapel on the Watauga Circuit were all freed of debt and dedicated under his ministry. While serving the Shepherds Charge, Wesley's Chapel was built under his ministry, and several other churches at different places were remodeled. In all, his was a long a fruitful ministry.

"Servant of God, well done;
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

JAMES AUGUSTUS PEELER

February 23, 1870-September 2, 1951

James Augustus Peeler, Ambassador of God, son of John Alfred and Rose Klutz Peeler, was born on February 23, 1870, in Granite Quarry, Rowan County, North Carolina. He was translated on September 2, 1951, in Hickory, N. C. Brother Peeler was the oldest of six children. On a farm he grew up to young manhood under the open skies and broad vistas which gave a spaciousness to his soul. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. E. Carroll and Rev. W. A. Rollins in First Methodist Church, Hickory. Now he sleeps well in the family plot at Lebanon Lutheran Church cemetery in Rowan County, North Carolina.

Brother Peeler and Miss Etta Rankin were united in marriage in China Grove, N. C., on December 22, 1897. Across fifty-four years they walked side by side in the Master's service. Mrs. Peeler will live with her memories in Hickory surrounded by a host of friends. God graced this union with three sons:

Lawrence, who made the supreme sacrifice in battle in France on September 29, 1918. His body rests in a military cemetery in France. Lee, the second son, lives in Durham, N. C. Olin resides in Shreveport, Louisiana.

Brother Peeler was converted at a Methodist altar in Granite Quarry at the age of fifteen years. From early childhood he dreamed of becoming a preacher. His mother prayed that God would beckon him to that great office. The Lord heard from His Holy Hill and the conversion of Brother Peeler and his dedication to the ministry were coincidental.

After graduating from high school this aspiring youth turned his face towards higher learning. From Rutherford College he won his A.B. Then to Old Trinity he turned his feet and earning his way he was honored with the A.M. degree.

He was received into the Western North Carolina Conference on trial in 1893. In full connection in 1899. His ordination as deacon occurred in 1895 and was made an elder in 1897. He continued in the ranks of the itinerary until 1935, thus serving in the effective ministry thirty-nine years.

The epic of his itinerant ministry: Harmony; then five years in the South Carolina Conference serving Antreville and Lancaster churches; then back to this conference preaching at Salem in Stanly County; Cullowhee; Bradley Memorial in Gastonia; then transferring to the Southwest Missouri Conference where he taught in Scarritt-Morrisville College in Morrisville, Mo.; then again to this conference to finish his ministry at Maiden; Hickory; Westview; Woodleaf; Bessemer City; Troutman; Taylorsville; Benton Heights, Monroe; Moore's Chapel; and Unionville. On his last appointment a serious eye affliction made necessary his superannuation. He moved to Hickory where he concluded his earthly career.

His active participation in matters of church and community continued during his retirement. While the writer was pastor at First Church, Hickory, Brother Peeler was in attendance at all services. Only last November did feebleness halt his footsteps towards the house of God.

Of a high order were his love and loyalty to the church. No church cause ever suffered in his hands. His conference obligations were met in full consistently. He was creative in his ministerial efforts, always leaving his churches improved. He held revivals in his charges resulting in scores of conversions and accessions on profession of faith.

An outstanding achievement of his work is indicated by the fact that he led six young men into the Gospel ministry. Rev. C. E. Murray of this conference being one of them.

He followed a family pattern by entering the ministry. Three of his brothers served the church: J. T., and Charles, both deceased; Luther, now retired and living in Bennettsville, S. C. These brothers were members of the South Carolina Conference. Dr. J. H. Peeler (M.D.) of Salisbury is also a surviving brother.

Our language is too poor in words to adequately express the magnificence of a great Christian character who acted his part on this world's stage. Suffice it to say that eighty-one years of holy living look down upon us. And so an abundant life was lived, and he is crowned at last.

Ambassador of God;
Hail and Farewell!

POWELL ALEXANDER SHERRILL

October 7, 1907-January 19, 1951

The Reverend Powell Alexander Sherrill, aged 43 years, passed away suddenly at the parsonage at Peachland, N. C., Saturday morning, January 19, about 1:30 o'clock, succumbing almost instantly from a heart attack. He was pastor of the Peachland Charge, having been appointed to the work at the Annual Conference in September of last year.

During the few months at Peachland, Mr. Sherrill and his family won the highest esteem throughout that section. His prior pastorate was at Highland Methodist Church in High Point, N. C.

Surviving Mr. Sherrill, who was a native of Stanley, N. C., are his widow, the former Sue Bell Link; two daughters, Jo Ann, 15, Peggy Sue, 11; his parents, Mr. James Sherrill, and Mrs. Callie Nantz Sherrill, of Stanley; a brother and two sisters.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, January 20, at 3 o'clock in the Stanley Methodist Church, and burial followed in Asbury Methodist Church cemetery near Lincolnton. The services were conducted by Dr. Edgar H. Nease, Sr., Superintendent of the Charlotte District, assisted by the Reverend T. B. Huneycutt. The large congregation included a large number of people from Peachland, High Point, and elsewhere from over this part of the country.

Reverend Sherrill attended Rutherford College. He was a supply pastor for seventeen years from the Stanley Methodist Church in the Gastonia District. He served the Myrtle Methodist Church in Gastonia, 1946-48. He was a graduate of High Point College, and attended Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Ga.

Powell Sherrill was a true son of God. He was born in a Christian home and he carried this training into every walk of life. While a young man he was licensed to preach. He used his time and his talents to win others to the way of his Master.

"P. A." as he was affectionately known to many of us, won big places in the hearts of his friends and associates. He had a cheery smile and a cordial word for all. In his ministry to his parishioners he prayed in homes where prayer was seldom made. He talked and prayed with many and won them to the Master because he loved them. He had a particular and loving concern for young people. He would always accompany large groups when their meetings were held.

He practiced in daily life what he preached from the pulpit. He left a part of himself with every person with whom he met. He let his light shine before men, and the world is better because of his Christian life and noble example.

His home life was a reflection of his high character and devotion. He depended upon God always, for decisions and lived the life of "the pure in heart."

I spent two years with him in college, and knew him as a scholar in all of his work. When a professor was unable to meet his class, "P. A." Sherrill was asked to take charge. He had the dignity and the poise and the thoroughness to do the task well.

As a neighbor, I never had one who was more sincere than he. He and his family would visit us, and we would visit them. We shared many picnics and often went fishing together. He was always jolly and congenial when sharing such periods of fellowship.

As a preacher of the WORD, he was sincere and profound. The churches that he served grew and became stronger under his ministry and direction.

The Western North Carolina Conference has lost one of its strong preachers, his home has lost its bulwark, and I have lost one of my dearest friends, but we are stronger in the way of the Lord because he walked and witnessed among us.

ROBERT ALEXANDER SWARINGEN

July 25, 1875-October 31, 1950

Robert Alexander Swaringen, son of Wilson and Mary Seahorn Swaringen, was born in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, July 25, 1875. He was educated in the public schools of his native county and at Lenoir Rhyne College and Westminster Theological Seminary.

On January 1, 1897, he was married to Miss Sara Louise Furr. To this union the following sons were born: Ernest, High Point, N. C.; James W., Albemarle, N. C.; Roy, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Charles, Binghamton, New York; Johnson, Steubenville, Ohio; and Richard, Concord, N. C. The widow and sons all survive.

Brother Swaringen first joined the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church in 1914. Three years later he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South. During the twenty-six years of his active ministry, he served the following charges:

Halifax Circuit, Kings Mountain, Cool Springs Circuit, Kannapolis; Trinity, Albemarle; First Street, Cornelius, Lumberton, Thomasville Circuit, Norwood, Biltmore, and Fairview Circuit. Because of failing health, he retired in 1940.

As a preacher and pastor, Brother Swaringen was zealous and courageous, but always with the loving heart of a pastor. He preached with a fervor that was appealing and convincing. He had a consuming passion for souls and his preaching was always evangelistic. The effectiveness of his ministry is attested by the fact that wherever he served the church grew and the people loved him.

After his retirement in 1940, he and his good wife made their home in Fairview, North Carolina, living among the last people whom he had served as pastor, until his death on October 1, 1950. The funeral services were held in the Baptist church at Fairview conducted by the writer, Rev. C. Grover, and Rev. Paul Lovingood, the local Baptist pastor. His body was laid in its last resting place in the cemetery of the Mill Grove Methodist Church at Midland, North Carolina.

Well done, good and faithful servant.

WILLIAM ALBERT WILSON

December 20, 1861-February 18, 1951

William Albert Wilson, missionary of The Methodist Church to Japan from June 1890, to September, 1932, was born December 20, 1861, at Sutherland, Ashe County, North Carolina, the son of Isaac and Caroline Greer Wilson, and died at Durham, North Carolina, on February 18, 1951.

He was the seventh of eight children born to his parents, and was the last to pass away. His father, who was a soldier in the Confederate Army, was killed on June 17, 1864, and the support of the eight children was placed on the shoulders of his mother. With meager resources, during a period when the South was in poverty, his mother somehow kept this large family together and all except one reached maturity and led useful, Christian lives and were influences for good in their communities.

Mr. Wilson at an early age evinced a keen desire to secure the benefits of an education, and he took full advantage of the very limited educational facilities in his home community. By the time he was twelve, he had obtained all the instruction available to him in the free schools. At the age of thirteen he enrolled in a private school near his home; this school ran practically all the year around and he was thus able to advance rapidly.

Then from the time he was sixteen years of age he alternately attended school, worked on his mother's farm, and taught school until August of 1884 when he entered the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. In March of the following year (1885) lack of funds compelled him to leave the University temporarily; however, by teaching and by disposing of his share of the farm left by his father, he was able to return later to the University and in 1889 was graduated with an A.B. degree.

While at the University he felt the call to preach, and in 1886 joined the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; when this conference was discontinued, he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1890.

Following graduation from the University, he taught school and preached in the churches of his county for a year. Early in 1890 he offered himself to his Mission Board as a foreign missionary, and in June, 1890, he arrived in Japan.

Thus began a period of service extending over a period of more than 42 years. Japan was just beginning to emerge from its position as the "Hermit Nation," and in many respects highly primitive conditions prevailed there. The Southern Methodist Mission in Japan had been organized only three years prior to his arrival, and the Japanese for several years were not receptive to the efforts of the Christian missionaries. However, with the conclusion of the war between Japan and China in 1894, the government and people of Japan became more cordial to Europeans and Americans, and some tangible signs of the missionary effort began to be noticed.

With the exception of one year as a teacher of English in the theological school maintained by his Mission, Mr. Wilson's entire period of service was centered in evangelistic efforts. A total of eleven years was spent in the town of Oita on the island of Kyushu, where as pastor and presiding elder of his district he converted and influenced into the ministry many young Japanese men who later in life became outstanding ministers of the Japan Methodist Church. A like reward was obtained at Hiroshima on the main island of Honshu, where he served as presiding elder for six years. Then, after his second furlough in the United States, he was assigned in 1910 to open a new station at Okayama midway between Kobe and Hiroshima on the shore of the Inland Sea. He was stationed at Okayama for a total of 21 years as pastor and presiding elder, and also during part of this time he was in charge of the missionary work among the Japanese in Korea.

Mr. Wilson was an eager and earnest student of the Japanese language, and for a long number of years was on the Mission language board which directed the instruction and examination of young missionaries in the Japanese language. He was regarded as among the ablest in his Mission in the knowledge and use of the language, and was one of the few who consistently over the years read many of the metropolitan and local newspapers and magazines published in the Japanese language. His knowledge of contemporary history and events relating to Japan and the Japanese was great.

On July 27, 1893, he was married to Miss Mary Amelia McClellan, a native of Mississippi, who in August, 1888, had gone to China as a missionary of the Methodist Church. Eight children were born of this marriage, two dying when young but six still surviving. A loving and understanding couple, they were devoted to each other and to their children. For a period of almost ten years, from 1918 until 1927, Mr. Wilson lived alone in Japan and Mrs. Wilson lived in the United States to be with her children who were in school and college during that time. However, as soon as the youngest child had finished college, Mrs. Wilson rejoined her husband in Japan and they were together again until separated by the death of Mrs. Wilson on May 4, 1949, at Durham, thus ending an earthly marriage which lasted for almost 56 years.

In 1932 Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were retired by their Mission Board from active missionary work. They made their home at Durham, North Carolina, to be near their children who had chosen Durham and other North Carolina cities as their home following their graduation from Trinity College (Duke University).

Although placed on the retired list by the Missions Board, Mr. Wilson by no means became inactive. During the years of his active ministry the requirements of his daily work left him little time for scholarly study. However, in his later years he renewed his reading of the New Testament in the original Greek, with parallel readings of the Bible in the English and Japanese languages. The Japanese Bible was translated principally from the English Bible, and he therefore compared the Greek and Japanese texts in his studies.

Always a great lover of flowers and other plant life, over the years he set out shrubbery, flowering bushes and flowers in the yard of his home in Durham, and derived great enjoyment therefrom. Mrs. Wilson had a similar interest in growing things, hence he and she were in complete harmony in their plans for beautifying their home.

BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS — MODERATE RATES — SPLENDID EQUIPMENT

Lake Junaluska Assembly, Inc.

LAKE JUNALUSKA, N. C.

The central institution of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, located in the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, offers recreation, spiritual enrichment, and intellectual stimulation to the Methodists of the Southeast. The successful progress of the Greater Junaluska Campaign for $600,000 has made a new service available. In addition to the Terrace Hotel and Lambuth Inn, which have been renovated and now have splendid management, the Assembly has provided:

CAMP ADVENTURE

Now owned by the Assembly, the Camp is available to churches on a weekly rental basis. Rustic and in a natural setting, the Camp has two dozen cabins, recreation hall, dining hall, bath houses, and hospital. Churches may rent the Camp in whole or in part, providing their own management and personnel.

JUNALUSKA APARTMENTS

These fine modern apartments consist of two-room suites for four people. Most of them have kitchenettes. Reasonable rates. Extra cots for parties of more than four persons. Reservations must be made in advance, with deposit.

For information about these and all other services of the Assembly, write to:

STANDING RULES, 1952-1956

Rules of Order and Procedure for the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church

I. RULES OF ORDER

1. The rules of the preceding Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference insofar as they may apply, otherwise Roberts' Rules of Order, Revised, shall govern the procedure of this Annual Conference.

II. ORGANIZATION

2. (1) The official roll call shall be the roll call cards signed by the Clerical and Lay members present.
3. (2) The Secretary: The Secretary of the Annual Conference shall be elected quadrennially by the Conference, at the first session following the General Conference, and on nominations arising from the floor.
4. (3) Assistant Secretaries: The Secretary shall nominate his assistants annually and the Conference shall elect.
5. (4) The Treasurer: The Conference Treasurer shall be elected, on nomination of the Commission on World Service and Finance at the first session of the Conference following the General Conference. He shall serve for the quadrennium, or until his successor shall be elected and qualified. Discipline 1952, Paragraphs 803-805.
6. (5) Statisticians: The Conference Statistician shall be elected by the Conference on nomination of the Cabinet at the first session of the Conference following the General Conference; and shall serve for the quadrennium or until his successor is elected. The Conference shall elect annually an assistant statistician. There shall be district statisticians selected annually from the several districts, nominated by the District Superintendents, after consultation with the Conference Statistician and approved by the Cabinet as a whole. It shall be the duty of the Conference Statistician, in keeping with paragraph 637, Discipline 1952, to compile and report the statistics of the Conference.
7. (6) Auditor: The Auditor shall be elected annually by the Conference on nomination of the Commission on World Service and Finance. Discipline 1952, Paragraph 1188.
8. (7) Conference Stenographer: The Conference Secretary shall employ the Conference Stenographer.
9. (8) Compensation: The Commission on World Service and Finance shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given the above officers for their services and also the method and/or amount for meeting the expenses of said offices. The Conference Treasurer shall pay these amounts from the Conference Expense Fund.

10. (9) Boards, Commissions and Committees: The Bishop and his Cabinet shall determine the size of and nominate the members to all Boards, Commissions and Committees of the Conference as authorized by the General Conference, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and this Annual Conference, except in those cases in which the Discipline directs otherwise. The Cabinet is the Nominating Committee of the Conference. The recommendations and nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Conference.
11. (10) Board of Missions and Church Extension (1295): The District Superintendents, the District Missionary Secretaries, and the Chairman of the Conference Town and Country Commission shall be members of the Board of Missions and Church Extension.
12. (11) Board of Evangelism (1478): The District Secretaries of Evangelism shall be ex officio members of the Board of Evangelism.
13. (12) Committee on World Peace (1551): The Committee on World Peace shall be constituted at the first session of the Annual Conference following the General Conference and shall serve for the quadrennium. The Conference Secretary of Christian Social Relations of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Chairman of the Commission on Community Service of the Conference Methodist Youth Fellowship shall be ex officio members of this committee.
14. (13) Program Committee: There shall be a Program Committee of the Conference consisting of the Resident Bishop, the Conference Secretary, the Chairman of the Conference Entertainment Committee, the host District Superintendent and Pastor, and the Conference Lay Leader. This Committee shall determine the compensation and expenses for speakers invited by this Committee and the Treasurer shall pay expenses out of the Conference Expense Funds.
15. (14) Entertainment Committee: There shall be a Conference Entertainment Committee, composed of four ministers and three laymen. This Committee shall be elected at the first session of the quadrennium. It shall be the duty of the Committee to advise with the local entertainment committee; and as the Conference shall direct, to determine the place and method of entertaining the Annual Conference sessions. The Conference Secretary shall be an ex officio member of this Committee.
16. (15) (a) Committee on Memoirs: The ministers who are selected to prepare memoirs for deceased members of the Conference shall constitute the Committee on Memoirs for the year. The Cabinet shall appoint a chairman of this committee.
(b) The Memorial Service: There shall be held annually a memorial service at the time which the Program Committee shall determine. There shall be a printed memorial service program including the memoirs and the names of ministers and ministers' wives who have died during the year. The memoir shall be printed in the Conference Journal. There shall be one speaker, selected by the Program Committee, to deliver the memorial address.

17. (16) Committee on Daily Minutes: A Committee of three members shall be elected annually to cooperate with the Secretary in examining the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference before they are read to the Conference for final correction and approval.
18. (17) Courtesies and Introductions: At the first session of the Conference annually there shall be elected a Committee on Courtesies and Introductions.
19. (18) Resolutions: The Conference shall elect annually a Committee on Resolutions and all resolutions to be presented to the Conference shall clear through this Committee.
20. (19) Conference Journal: At the first session of the Conference, following the General Conference, there shall be elected a quadrennial Committee on the Publication of the Conference Journal. This Committee shall be composed of three ministers and two laymen. The Editor of the Conference Journal shall be an ex officio member of this committee but without vote. The Committee shall consult with the Editor of the Conference Journal, accept bids for printing the Journal, and make recommendations to the Conference regarding the publication of the Journal.
21. (20) Bible Board: The Conference shall constitute a quadrennial Bible Board at the session of the Conference following the General Conference.
22. (21) Appeals: There shall be a quadrennial Committee on Appeals composed of five members, two ministers and three laymen, with one minister and one layman as reserves. This Committee shall hear appeals of Quarterly Conferences from decisions of District Boards of Location and Building and from decisions of arbitration committees constituted to make allocation of parsonage assets when a circuit is divided, and shall make recommendations to the Annual Conference. (Paragraph 192, 1952 Discipline)
23. (22) Rules: At the first session of the Conference, following the General Conference there shall be elected a quadrennial Committee on Rules composed of three ministers and two laymen. The report of this Committee shall be made at the first session of the Conference annually, and as often during the sessions as necessary.

III. REPORTS AND RESOLUTIONS

24. (1) All reports and resolutions presented to the Conference shall be written, typewritten if possible, in triplicate. Two copies of the reports shall be given to the Secretary as soon as the report is completed by the Board or Committees. Two copies of all resolutions shall be in the hands of the Secretary before the resolution can be presented to the Conference for consideration. [See also rule 19 (18).]
25. (2) All reports of Boards, Committees and Commissions of the Conference shall be placed on the calendar of the Conference in the order in which the reports are received by the Conference Secretary; and the reports shall be presented to the Conference for consideration in the order of the calendar.

26. (3) Any amendment offered to any report or proposal and all motions of more than a single sentence must be in writing and a copy in the hands of the Secretary when presented to the Conference for consideration.
27. (4) The report of the Commission on World Service and Finance shall be presented in printed form at least one business session prior to official consideration and action.

IV. MINISTERIAL CHARACTER

28. Ministerial Characters shall be passed in open Conference, provided that the Conference may order an executive session of the ministerial members to consider questions relating to matters of ordination, character and Conference relations. Discipline 1952, Paragraph 646.

V. LAYMEN AND LAY MEMBERS TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

29. (1) The District and the Associate District Lay Leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on nomination of the District Superintendents and the Conference Lay Leader. Discipline 1952, Paragraph 1509.
30. (2) Lay members, regular and reserves, Discipline 1952, Paragraph 143 (4), from the pastoral charges to the Annual Conference shall be elected annually by the Quarterly Conference at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting of the Annual Conference.
31. (3) The District Superintendent shall complete the list of lay members elected to the Annual Conference from the charges of his district at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting of the Annual Conference and shall transmit the list to the Conference Secretary immediately.

VI. PASTORS' REPORTS TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

32. (1) Each pastor shall complete table I of his annual report to the Conference and send the report to his District Superintendent not later than fifteen days before the Conference convenes.
33. (2) Table II shall be completed and turned in to the Conference Treasurer on the first day of the Conference session.
34. (3) Both tables shall be filled in by individual churches with totals for the charge.
35. (4) Finances shall be reported in even dollars only.
36. (5) Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal only by charges.
37. (6) A third table of individual church reports, as approved by the Annual Conference, shall be compiled by the Conference Statistician from the reports of the pastors to the Annual Conference, and shall also be printed in the Conference Journal.

VII. THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

38. (1) Editor: The Conference Secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing the Conference Journal in keeping with the regulations of the General and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conferences and under the direction of the Conference Committee on the Publication of the Journal.
39. (2) Number printed: The number of copies ordered for the current year by the pastors and District Superintendents shall determine the number of copies of the Journal to be printed for the year.
40. (3) Bids for Printing: The Committee on the Publication of the Journal shall get at least three bids from reputable printers before letting the contract for the printing of the Journal. [See also Rule 20 (19).]
41. (4) Journals shall be shipped to the charges only on current order of the pastor or District Superintendent; and orders must be received by the Conference Secretary not later than thirty days after the adjournment of the Annual Conference.
42. (5) Each pastor or charge treasurer shall remit to the Conference Treasurer for the entire shipment of Journals promptly on the receipt of the same, except as provided by rule 43 (6).
43. (6) Each ministerial member, conference claimant, and lay member of the Annual Conference shall be sent one copy of the Journal each year without charge. All other copies, except those used strictly in official Conference business and those sent to Boards, Commissions and Committees, shall be sold at $1.00 each, or single copies by mail, $1.10 each.

VIII. DISTRICTS

44. (1) There shall be ten Districts in this Annual Conference.
45. (2) A District Conference shall be held annually in each District.
46. (3) The Committee on Records of each pastoral charge shall examine the Quarterly Conference Records of that charge and submit a written report to the District Conference, which report shall be referred to a special committee of the District Conference. Discipline 1952, Paragraph
47. (4) Each pastoral charge shall elect annually four delegates to the District Conference. These shall be in addition to those named by the Discipline as ex officio members of the District Conference.
48. (5) The Superintendent of each District shall be required to furnish the Bishop, the Conference Treasurer, and the Conference Statistician, as early in the Conference year as possible, an official copy of the apportionments to the charges for World Service and Conference Benevolences and the amount accepted by the charge and by each church on the charge.
49. (6) The District Superintendent, as early in the Conference year as possible, shall furnish the Bishop in Charge and the Conference Treasurer a schedule of the salaries of the pastors and associate pastors, as set by the first Quarterly Conference.

50. (7) All District Treasurers shall be elected by the first District Conference, following the General Conference, on nomination of the District Superintendent, and shall serve for four years.

IX. LOCAL PREACHERS

51. (1) No candidate for license to preach shall receive that license until he shall have passed by written examination the prescribed course of study. [Journal 1943, page 56 and Discipline 1952, Paragraph 304 (1) (c).]
52. (2) A local preacher shall work only under the supervision of his pastor and/or District Superintendent. Any violation of this provision of the Discipline constitutes mal-administration and shall forfeit the right for the renewal of the license until the District Conference shall be satisfied that the local preacher will obey the law of the church. (Discipline 1952, Paragraphs 306, 308.) This Provision does not supersede the law applicable to Approved Supply pastors.
53. (3) The Annual Conference shall provide entertainment for Approved Supply pastors and for other local preachers serving as supply pastors on the same basis as for ministerial members.

X. AMENDMENTS

54. These Standing Rules may be, by a two-thirds vote, amended on the next day after an amendment has been presented in writing; provided, the rule fixing the number of districts cannot be made later than the second morning of the Conference session.

XI. WHEN THESE RULES BECOME EFFECTIVE

55. (1) These Standing Rules of the Western North Carolina Conference shall become effective immediately upon passage by the vote of the majority of the members of the Conference present and voting.
56. (2) These rules, as they may be amended from time to time, shall be effective for all the sessions of this Conference during the quadrennium ending with the session of 1956.

Daily Proceedings
1952 Session
Western North Carolina Annual Conference
The Methodist Church

Pre-Conference Sessions: The Conference Historical Society with H. C. Sprinkle, Jr., presiding, met in regular annual session on Tuesday evening, September 23rd, 1952, at 7:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church, Charlotte, North Carolina. The prayer was led by Bishop Costen J. Harrell, and William N. Blanton, Jr., sang "This Is My Task." The historical address was made by L. B. Hayes on "A Wise Philanthropy for Which We Are Debtors," paying tribute to Messrs. E. M., E. A., and E. O. Cole. The address follows:

WISE PHILANTHROPY FOR WHICH WE ARE DEBTORS

The clever critics have been having a field day sending their arrows against the historian. "History," they say, "is the record of something which did not happen, written by a man who was not there." That statement at least has the grace of humor. Another unkind thrust coming from a great industrialist (according to a published opinion) declares that "history is bunk." However great men are not always wise and neither do all rich men have understanding. (If this mechanical genius had said that General Motors cannot make an automobile, he might have been in a fight, but at least the shoemaker would have been sticking to his last.) Opposed to these critics are some words from truly wise men. Beginning close home where some of the family live, and doubtless some of his students are in this audience, the caption of a great address by Dean W. F. Tillett was called "The Hand of God in American History." Up Chicago University way President Shailer Mathews writes his book on "The Spiritual Interpretation of History"; as true an insight as philosophy and religion can give. Hear also the word of Hagel, "I regard history a spacious book of Divine providence in which is recorded how the deeds of men have helped or hindered the purposes of God." Let them de-bunk history if they will. The purposes and acts of Deity are eternally secure.

If the man who put America on wheels in one generation missed the above ideas, one thing is greatly to his credit; he made his own niche in history and left a noble legacy to mankind by creating the greatest financial foundations the world has ever known. The Ford foundation is the largest in America and now approaches the one-half billion mark. And the most unique and hopeful fact about that venture in human welfare is the care and research, the exhaustive effort which the trustees are making to find out how best to give away money for the benefit of mankind.

Here in this city other fine men have answered the question to their own satisfaction and to our lasting benefit. In line with other philanthropists of larger means these good men have given in quality, more than many others, and the source of their wealth is not subject to question. The Cole contributions come to us backed by an essential industry (they make farm machinery) and wrapped in and supported by the finest Christian character. They are exemplary men and according to the Pauline demand they first gave themselves to the church. Also there is a finesse and wisdom in their giving that surpasses many other benefactions.

Carnegie said, "give the people books and they will use them as stepping stones to higher things." Rockefeller echoed this but added to education of the mind, health for the body; the Dukes broadened the area and said, "Remember the orphan as well as the sick and do not forget the poorly paid preacher." The Coles caught up most of these interests and emphasized the imperative need of homes for the aged in surroundings that inspire and make golden the sunset days.

Enter first, the oldest of the Cole Brothers, who formed a trilogy of social-minded men who without blare of trumpet or praise from the public set in motion "Wise Philanthropists for Which We Are Debtors." Consider where we are: here in a noble church, the cathedral of Mecklenburg Methodism. We are enjoying the shelter and beauty provided by many generous members. But one, the late Mr. E. M. Cole was a very unusual giver. The real builder of this edifice—at least the real preacher-builder was the late Rev. A. L. Stanford. In parenthesis, I am passing his by with too little praise, but I lay two roses on his bier; one a tribute to a man who knew his Bible and the other because he was a master builder of churches. At Statesville where he entered the educational building and here in Charlotte we see his bold and almost fool-hardy venture (so they thought) in launching this elaborate and costly plan. But it got done. His dreams stand here in solid sandstone and brick, while Over There, he may be adding to the Celestial spires and battlements of Heaven. We can almost say of him as was said of Sir Christopher Wren, builder of St. Pauls in London, "If you would see his monument look about you."

There are several names written deep in the records of this church's construction. Among them, Ivey, Sherrill, Whisnant, Little, Bell, Ratcliff, Pike, et al., but I find on reliable information that E. M. Cole paid approximately one-tenth of the cost of this church, after the amount received from the sale of the old church properties is deducted. (Tryon Street sold for $250,000, Trinity sold for $100,000, but one-third of the sale of Trinity went to Dilworth). After the church was built at the cost of almost $800,000, there was a large debt and, during the depression, a period of blood, sweat and tears. But one notable day, Miss Doris Duke made good her father's tentative pledge and gave $100,000 to help pay the debt. Doctor Peele, wise pastor and great administrator called together his helpers and told them that the hundred thousand was conditioned on the congregation raising an equal amount. This, at that time, was a Herculean task. The depression still rested on our land like a dark cloud. Charlotte had been hard hit. (My own Ship of Zion at Hawthorne Lane was becalmed in the financial sea, so much so that it was proposed to cut the salary to $2,500. It took the positive leadership of Dr. J. B. Craven, P.E., and the support of a few like E. A. Cole to prevent it). Here at First Church the ship was barely afloat with scarcely a favorable breeze in her sails. However, Dr. Peele and his laymen came through, the extra $100,000 was raised and the record is that E. M. Cole paid the last $13,500. His contemporaries who worked with him tell me that he could always be counted on to pay his share although he was not legally obligated as some of the others were.

In addition to the above, it is also in the record that he paid about $2,000 each year to the operating expenses of the church. On the first Sunday of each month he put $20 in the collection for the relief of the poor. The treasurer of the church said he usually found two tens or a twenty dollar note in the loose offering. He always knew where it came from. He gave liberally to our colleges. At one time, in order to prolong the life of the school and help worthy students he gave $10,000 to Rutherford College. When these bonds were hypothecated, under what seemed to be extreme necessity, he did not grumble or fuss about our poor management. This money was redirected to Brevard College after the closing of Rutherford and most or all of it was paid to Brevard as the E. M. Cole Endowment. I also understand that he gave a similar amount to Duke University for the education of young ministers.

E. M. COLE FOUNDATION

Due to the fact that E. O. Cole has prepared and sent to all our ministers a clear and beautiful booklet giving the salient facts of the E. M. Cole Foundation, discussion here may be brief. However, let it be remembered that this munificent gift for retired ministers and their families now has a net worth of $605,531.34. This estimate was at depression prices and it may be said that the actual worth would be near $1,000,000. During the time the foundation has been in existence $215,362.22 has been distributed to the beneficiaries. And before the foundation was created, E. O. Cole gave for his brother a very considerable amount—literally thousands of dollars—to needy cases over a period of about ten years. Note, please, the very small liabilities and the fact that only $1,500 is paid in salaries for helpers. E. O. serves without salary and relinquishes all claims on Conference or superannuate funds. I doubt that any other statements from financial institutions will show a more favorable difference between assets and liabilities. This foundation is managed at a minimum expense. And we who are the recipients of these benefits must record our deep appreciation of the legacy provided for us.

E. O. COLE

Here I must pause and ask pardon for praising one who is yet alive and with us tonight and who is so modest and retiring that he shuns publicity. One of the first things to be said of E. O. Cole is that he has made his own mark in our conference as pastor, presiding elder and as treasurer of this body for about fifteen years. No man ever served the church with more fidelity and as a treasurer he was a genius for detail and accuracy. He put more business and method in our body than almost anyone else. He did not scruple to call us on the carpet if things were jumbled in our reports. This service was carried with small reward and it was a labor of love.

It is an open secret that when there is a preacher in the family he usually is the leading counselor. In the case of E. O., I am sure he was the one who suggested and guided E. M. Cole in his giving to the church. This does not mean that the oldest and most successful as a financier in the family was easily influenced. Far from it. E. M. Cole was original and did his own thinking. But the historian has learned to look for the man behind the gun or the silent partner. This role of the silent man behind the scenes is becoming to E. O., who tells me that he can stand within a few feet of the place where he first suggested to E. M. that it would be a good thing to turn over Rock House farm to the Methodist Church for a home for the aged. E. O. was to E. M. Cole in a more limited way what Colonel House was to Woodrow Wilson.

HOME FOR THE AGED

In the Conference Journal of 1941 there is this paragraph. "For the purpose of making investigation relative to the feasibility of establishing a home for the aged to be sponsored by the Western North Carolina Conference, we request the confirmation of the following committee: E. O. Cole, J. L. Snyder and Mrs. Thurmond Chatham." And in the Conference Journal of 1943 there is this paragraph. "Pursuant to the action of the Conference on Tuesday morning, Oct. 19, 1943, your board of Hospitals and Homes joins the Conference in hearty and cordial thanks to Eugene M. Cole of Charlotte, North Carolina, for his timely and gracious gift to the Conference, and submits for the record the following communication from Mr. Cole to the Trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church:

"I hereby tender to the trustees of Western North Carolina Conference, for the purpose of providing a home for aged people, and superannuated Methodist preachers, the estate of Hezekiah Alexander, known as the Rock House Place.

"To carry this out, I hereby tender the deed to this estate for that purpose. I tender this deed unconditionally, in fee simple, and without any conditions or requirements.

"We recommend that the Conference accept this gift and request the Conference Secretary to notify Mr. Cole of this action."

So this last and in some ways the best institution in our Conference did not come up fullgrown like Minerva sprang from the brow of Jove. It was a case of planned parentage. The child was silently born and has had unusual care with the result that it has grown amazingly, but not at random, like Topsy. Wise men have sought the support and planned the development.

While all thinking people today see the vast importance of Homes for retirement, our E. O. was twenty-five years ahead of his day. The presentation of that deed to the Conference was the result of a dozen years of effort. E. O. was made trustee and executor of his brother's estate. He has managed this and other responsibilities with notable success. He serves the foundation without salary, and is, so far as I can tell, the only man who will accept no pension from the Conference.

If an institution is the lengthened shadow of a man the Home for the Aged is doubly endowed; it is the lengthened shadow of two men, E. O. and E. M. Cole. In thinking of that beautiful lake and the old house and the rolling terrain one thinks of the exclamation of Robert Service about the Yukon country. "There is the land—Lord, how I love it." Because of that provision scores of veteran souls with the weight of years will look toward that home where the wolf never whines and where the storms beat in vain—for it is founded on a rock. The Conference will hear in detail and with pride the progress of that philanthropy.

E. A. COLE

Now comes the third member of the brothers, Mr. E. A. Cole, great-hearted and liberal man who dreamed and fostered great ideals for his generation. Here I must talk with restraint, because he was my friend, faithful and just to me—more he was very understanding, loyal and true. He fulfilled the newsboys' description of a friend, "One who knows all about you and loves you in spite of it." E. A. Cole was of the very best type of intelligent churchmen. His name appears as a charter member, steward and trustee at Hawthorne Lane. He and his noble family seldom missed a service. As was said of another, "Even his feelings leaned to virtue's side." I think I have never known a greater idealist or a more persistent optimist. In this we may glimpse what his business contemporaries called a weakness. He was not a hard-driving crass business man. He could not easily say no to anyone who wanted a loan or an endorsement. He had almost unlimited faith in mankind. He helped many men get started in business here in Charlotte. New ideas and new ventures greatly appealed to him. He was a dreamer and seer. He encouraged others to have vision and confidence, for he never doubted clouds would break—and tomorrow would be a better day. He never held a grudge, never fussed; no malice corrupted his magnanimous soul.

It was this quality of mind that made him greatly interested in Lake Junaluska. The hills beckoned him like a new Caanan, and he entered fully into the development of that new church enterprise. When he became officially connected with Junaluska he got under the load like an Atlas and carried the financial burden when other more cautious men backed out. This burden almost crushed him but not quite. He staggered but his knees never buckled under him. In those days it is said that he cashed or hypothecated many valuable securities. Most of it went to Junaluska.

At last, one Saturday, the creditors threw the place into bankruptcy. (I should remember that. I never saw a more muddled or seemingly hopeless situation—the gloom was as thick as a London pea-soup fog, and the way out as dark as graveyard lane on a cloudy night.) I shall never forget preaching the following Sunday morning, but I tried to be as cheerful as Churchill but without his eloquence. I predicted a sunrise as bright as a May morning and it came to pass—but it almost ruined E. A. Cole, who asked no quarter and surrendered all his claims against the institution after he had paid an undue amount to get the matter cleared up.

Later, Bishop Kern and Dr. W. A. Lambeth, another 100% optimist, put on an earnest crusade to buy the property back. I was at that time E. A. Cole's pastor. Knowing what he had already spent at Junaluska, I was timid about taking another collection at Hawthorne Lane. When I consulted him he replied, "Certainly, go ahead and take the collection. We must save Junaluska." And it so happens we sent the first $356 raised in the conference. Last week I asked Bishop Kern about this campaign and mildly twitted him about cracking the episcopal whip. He replied with a chuckle, "It was the best whip cracking I ever did. We laid $150,000 on the barrel head, paid the creditors and saved the institution." Then he added, "It is my understanding that Mr. E. A. Cole waived all his claims against the Lake and paid in all more than $100,000." It is my own personal opinion that he is largest single cash contributor to our great and growing Lake Junaluska.

When we sleep in the Terrace Hotel we are a bit more safe from fire because of E. A. Cole who bought and paid for the sprinkler system. If we lift our eyes to the Eagle's Nest we will remember the same tall man who looked fondly on the scene and loved it, and gave cheerfully, almost hilariously to save it. It takes more than the first value of six figures to measure his dollar contributions and it takes a hamper basket to hold his amazing hope and faith in the vast importance of Junaluska's place in our church economy. And so we salute tonight the entrepreneur—the men who blaze all trails to progress, who see their ideals from afar and by faith they bring them near.

In his last days when his health was badly shattered, his mind wandered again and again to the hill country and he spoke hopefully of "Junaluska, the lake more fair than woman's eyes."

He beheld what another man, Dr. T. A. Smoot, a former member of our Conference, saw when he stood with the writer on the golf course beside the lake and lifted his homesick eyes to the panorama of hills and valley and summed it up in one word—"Paradise, Paradise." And this is the fair land which our brother beloved helped to buy and reserve on earth for us all, and speaking eloquently of that Celestial country, the habitation of all the immortals.

On Wednesday, September 24, 1952, at 10:00 A.M. with Bishop Costen J. Harrell presiding, with C. E. Rozzelle delivering the memorial sermon, the annual Service of Commemoration for the conference was held. Following this service Bishop Costen J. Harrell assisted by Bishop Ralph Ward and Elders Edgar H. Nease, C. W. Kirby, Herman F. Duncan, John W. Hoyle, Jr., J. C. Cornette, Ralph H. Taylor, George B. Clemmer, W. J. Huneycutt, C. E. Rozzelle and Lee F. Tuttle, administered the Holy Communion.

FIRST DAY—WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1952

Afternoon Session

Conference Convenes: Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the resident Bishop of the Charlotte Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church, on Wednesday, September 24, 1952, in the First Methodist Church of Charlotte, N. C., called to order the 1952 Session of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference. The conference joined in singing hymn No. 238, "Blessed Assurance," Bishop Harrell presented Gilbert T. Rowe who read Psalm 42 and led the conference in prayer. Edgar H. Nease, the Secretary for the last quadrennium was recognized, and he presented C. W. Bates, the roll call secretary, who reported the following had signed roll call cards for the first session: Clerical Members, 414; Probationers, 73; Approved Supply Pastors, 48; Supply Pastors, 22; Lay Members, 172; Reserve Lay Members, 42; Board Members, 34.

Welcome: Bishop Harrell recognized Lee F. Tuttle, pastor of the First Methodist Church, who presented Mayor Victor Shaw and Captain Lloyd Hinkle of the local Police Department, and each of these addressed the conference welcoming the members to Charlotte and to the privileges of the churches and the city. Bishop Harrell responded.

Rules: W. A. Stanbury, chairman of the Committee on Rules, moved that the rules for the last quadrennium be the temporary rules of this session of the conference, pending the adoption of permanent rules for the quadrennium. H. Sanford Williams presented two resolutions and these were referred to the Rules Committee. On motion of George B. Clemmer the report of the Committee on Rules offering permanent rules for the quadrennium, was made the order of the day for Friday, September 26, immediately following the morning devotions. W. A. Stanbury called attention to some proposed changes suggested in the rules for 1952-55.

Bar Set: On motion of Lee F. Tuttle the main floor of the sanctuary was made the bar of the conference.

Introductions: Bishop Harrell presented Bishop Ralph Ward, Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke and Senator Clyde R. Hoey. The Senator addressed the conference. By common consent, the time for the preaching hour having arrived, the completion of the organization of the conference was deferred until after the preaching service.

Preaching Hour: The conference joined in singing Hymn No. 278, "Lead On, O King Eternal." The conference quartet composed of J. B. Hurley, E. H. Nease, Jr., M. V. Thumm, and A. M. Faulkner sang "In the Hour of Trial." Bishop Harrell presented Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, resident Bishop of the Pittsburgh Area, and Bishop Wicke preached the sermon of the hour. Hymn No. 250, "Rescue the Perishing," was sung.

Secretary Elected: C. P. Bowles and W. K. Goodson nominated Edgar H. Nease and Judge Guy Weaver nominated Charles D. White for Secretary of the Conference. A written ballot was ordered. Bishop Harrell appointed the tellers and a vote was taken. The results of the ballot showed the election of Charles D. White, and on motion of Edgar H. Nease, the vote was made unanimous. On motion of Secretary White, Edgar H. Nease was elected Associate Secretary, and the following other members of the staff were elected: W. L. Sherrill, secretary emeritus; W. D. Corriher and R. P. Gibbs, Journal; C. W. Bates and J. J. Powell, roll call; W. K. Goodson and John R. Hamilton, calendar; G. W. Rudisill and J. E. Rink, reports and resolutions; and Mrs. K. H. Koestline, Jr., and Mrs. G. R. Steele, Stenographers.

Dedication of Journal: Embree H. Blackard and Bishop Harrell paid high tribute to Edgar H. Nease as Secretary to the conference and on motion of Aubert M. Smith, the conference ordered the Journal of 1952 dedicated to Edgar H. Nease for his faithful and efficient service to the Western North Carolina Conference.

Nominations: Edgar H. Nease, secretary of the Cabinet, presented the following nominations from the Cabinet, and they were elected:

Dr. Stanbury spoke for the report. Miss Susan Hunter spoke against the report. C. M. White spoke for the report and the report was adopted. The report of the committee follows:

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY THE 1952 SESSION OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH TO INQUIRE INTO THE ABANDONMENT OF FLINT HILL METHODIST CHURCH, ASHEVILLE DISTRICT

Pursuant to action taken at the 1952 Session of the Annual Conference of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, the following Committee was appointed by the Presiding Bishop to make inquiry into, and to make its report to this Conference, concerning the abandonment and disposition of the Church property of the Flint Hill Methodist Church, Asheville District: Dr. W. A. Stanbury, Chairman; R. E. Thigpen, J. H. Armbrust, J. F. Harrelson and Paul R. Ervin.

An open hearing was held by the Committee on this matter at 2:30 P.M., September 25, 1952, at which time the Committee heard evidence presented in connection with the Church by Miss Susan Frances Hunter of Hendersonville, North Carolina. The Committee also called as witnesses Reverend James B. McLarty and Reverend Miles McLean. At this hearing an ample opportunity was given to Miss Hunter to make a full and complete statement of her cause and to argue the same.

From the record evidence and from the oral testimony taken by the Committee, the following facts were made to appear and are found as facts by the Committee:

1. Many years ago Flint Hill Methodist Church was established in the Asheville District and for a period of years was attached to and a part of the Marshall Charge.

The father of Susan Frances Hunter was the grantor of the property upon which the Church building was located. This conveyance included the customary trust clause.

2. At the Annual Conference of 1940, by action of the Conference, the Flint Hill Church was taken from the Marshall Charge and attached to the Weaverville Circuit and discontinued as a preaching appointment. This action was taken upon the recommendation of the District Superintendent of the Asheville District for the reason that the membership of the Charge was so small that efforts to continue the Charge as a preaching appointment were impractical. At this time the active membership consisted of two persons, and for several years prior thereto the average church contribution to all church purposes was less than $50.00 per year.

3. At the 1949 Session of the Annual Conference, the Conference adopted a resolution finding that the Flint Hill charge had been discontinued and abandoned, and authorized the sale of the Church property.

4. Subsequently the Church property was sold and was conveyed by deed of the Trustees of the Annual Conference of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church. The former Church property is now in the possession of and is owned by other individuals.

5. The Flint Hill Church is located in a community which is sparsely settled and is not located on a main highway, and there is no prospect that the location of a church at this point would serve any considerable number of people.

6. There is no prospect that any congregation at this point could support a church, but upon the contrary, it appears that any church at this location would be supported almost entirely from Mission funds.

7. Miss Susan Frances Hunter contends that she is a member of Flint Hill Methodist Church and has been all her life, but that for the last 15 years she has been residing in New York and Florida, and is not now residing in the community in which the old church was located, but contends that the church should never have been abandoned, and that the sale thereof was not in keeping with the provisions of the Methodist Discipline, and it is her request that the Conference purchase another location in the same immediate vicinity and build a church to be used by the community for church and community purposes. Miss Hunter contends that Mr. Rome Woodson and Mrs. Wayne Snelson were the Trustees of the Flint Hill Church at the time of its abandonment by this Conference.

CONCLUSIONS BY YOUR COMMITTEE

Based upon the foregoing facts and the extensive evidence taken by your Committee, your committee has come to the following conclusions:

1. The Flint Hill Church was properly and legally abandoned by this Conference.

2. The Flint Hill Church property was sold in strict accordance with the provisions of the appropriate paragraph of the Methodist Discipline, Paragraph 255, Subparagraph 1, 1948 Edition.

3. The action of the Conference in abandoning Flint Hill Church and in the disposal of the property was amply justified in view of all the circumstances.

4. Any interested party may inaugurate a movement to establish a new church in this community. The decision on this matter would rest with the Church Location Committee of the Asheville District.

5. No action by this Conference in this connection is required.

Respectfully submitted, this 26th day of September, 1952.

Now, therefore, be it resolved:

1. That the property of Balding's Chapel Methodist Church, be and it is hereby determined to be abandoned church property and the ownership to be in the trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Inc., under provisions of Paragraph 255 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church.

2. That the trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Inc., be and are hereby authorized and directed to convey said property to the trustees of the Fines Creek Charge, Waynesville District of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, by deed fee simple in form without warranty.

W. JACKSON HUNEYCUTT

Resolutions: Edgar H. Nease, Superintendent of the Charlotte District, presented the following resolutions which were adopted:

In conformity with the action of the Annual Conference of 1950, held in Asheville, North Carolina (Page 62, Journal, 1950), the trustees of the Oak Grove Methodist Church, Unionville Charge, Charlotte District, which church was declared abandoned by the action of this conference, in their efforts to carry out the order of the conference to sell the property, found that the property was not deeded to the Methodist Church in fee simple. The trustees contacted the heirs of the donors of the property, and the heirs refused to recognize any moral or legal obligation to the Methodist Church. Therefore, in the interest of harmony be it resolved that the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, in session at the city of Charlotte, September 24-28, 1952, hereby authorize the trustees of the said Oak Grove church property to relinquish all claims to the said property.

EDGAR H. NEASE

Sept. 27, 1952

To the Fourth Quarterly Conference of the Harmony Methodist Church, Peachland Charge, Charlotte District, Western North Carolina Annual Conference, The Methodist Church, in Session, Sunday, July 13, 1952, at 3:00 P.M., in the Hopewell Church of the Peachland Charge:

Brethren: We, the undersigned and duly elected Trustees of the Harmony Methodist Church, Peachland Charge, Charlotte District, Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, hereby ask you to adopt the following resolution:

Resolution

Whereas, the Harmony Methodist Church, as described above, has not functioned as a Methodist Church for five or more years; and

Whereas, the people of this community—people of various religious faiths—have kept up the property of the said church and have improved the said property under the impression that the church would become a non-denominational church; and

Whereas the church was not able to function as a Methodist Church because there are so few Methodist people in this community, but has been able to attract many people of all faiths or denominational leanings to the church as a non-denominational church and to function regularly and as an active church; and

Whereas the people of the whole community want this to continue as a non-denominational church and there is no opposition to this plan on the part of any members of the church; and

Whereas, we believe that it is for the good of the community and to the glory of God;

Be it resolved: That the Fourth Quarterly Conference of the Harmony Methodist Church, Peachland Charge, Charlotte District, Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church petition and humbly pray that the presiding Bishop, Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the ten District Superintendents of the Annual Conference, and the Charlotte District Board of Church Location and Building approve and grant to us the authority, in keeping with paragraphs 188 and 189, 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church, to transfer by fee simple deed the church property of the said Harmony Methodist Church to an independent board of Trustees to be operated as an Independent or Community or non-denominational Church.

Resolution: The following resolution, presented by F. W. Paschal, was adopted:

The Great Commission Prayer League is urging the people of America to set apart Wednesday, October 29, 1952, as a pre-election Day of Prayer. The Prayer League suggests that all Christians observe the day of prayer in private, in the family, with choice Christian friends, and encourage public assemblies for prayer in our churches.

Therefore, be it resolved that this Conference approve the idea and request our ministers and people to observe, in their respective communities, the day as a day of prayer seeking the guidance of our heavenly Father as we select our national leaders.

FRED W. PASCHAL

Reports: The report of the Town and Country Commission was ordered to record without reading, provided it contained no matters which required Conference confirmation, in which case it will be presented at the Sunday afternoon session (see report). The report of the Bible Board and the Treasurer's report were presented by Ralph Reed and Fred Russell respectively, and were ordered to record (see reports). The Roberts' Bequest report and the North Carolina Pastors' School Report were presented by the secretary and ordered to record (see reports).

The report of the Conference Trustees and of the E. M. Cole Foundation, presented by the secretary, were ordered to record with necessary confirmations (see reports).

Adjournment: The benediction was given by R. P. Gibbs and the Conference adjourned at 12:57 P.M. until 3:00 P.M. Sunday afternoon.

FIFTH DAY, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1952

Morning Session

Worship Service: The Sunday morning session, September 28, 1952, was the regular Sunday morning worship service at the First Methodist Church, with the Rev. Lee F. Tuttle, presiding. Special music was furnished by the church choir under the direction of Mrs. Fred W. Greene; the anthem, "The Omnipotence" by Schubert-Spicker, had Mrs. Rose Byrum as soprano soloist.

Elders Ordained: The following, presented by the secretary, were ordained elders by Bishop Harrell assisted by the District Superintendents, the secretary, B. Joseph Martin and D. W. Statistical Report: E. Paul Hamilton, Conference Statistician, gave the highlights of the statistical report. Bishop Harrell expressed appreciation for the work of the statistical staff; the report was ordered to record (see statistical tables).

Moving Dates: On motion of G. B. Clemmer Tuesday and Wednesday after the first Sunday in October were designated as moving days.

Resolution of Appreciation: The following resolution of appreciation was presented by R. E. Bell and was adopted by standing vote:

RESOLUTIONS OF APPRECIATION TO CHARLOTTE AND ITS PEOPLE

William James, the distinguished professor at Harvard of now almost two generations ago, made reference to those who regard life as a "booming buzzine confusion." As we come to the close of another session of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, it can be reported that she is "booming" and "buzzine" but not "confused." The kindness which we, the laymen and ministers of our great Conference have received from the multitudes of splendid people of Charlotte and vicinity, has given them a high place in our hearts.

We wish it were possible to weave some haloes for each member of the staff at First Church, Charlotte, for each member deserves one. To Rev. Lee Tuttle, pastor of First Church; to his associate, Rev. Glenn R. McCulley; to Mr. Gordon Lupo, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee; to Mrs. Fred W. Greene, minister of musical education, and her choice choir at First Church; to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ivey whose beautiful floral arrangements have enabled us to worship in the holiness of beauty; to the kind thoughtful women of the Woman's Society of Christian Service who have served such delicious refreshments during the days of the Conference; to the Board of Stewards for providing the traditional apples so characteristic of our Conference; to the caretakers of the Church buildings; and to the entire congregation we say a hearty "thank you."

To the Honorable Victor Shaw, mayor of Charlotte, and to the officials of the city; to the police department for its many kindnesses; and to the various denominations of the city that have graciously welcomed us, we express our gratitude and pray God's richest blessings upon them.

We are most grateful to Dr. E. H. Nease, District Superintendent, and to the pastors and people of the Methodist Churches of the Charlotte area who have opened to us their homes, their hearts, and the facilities of their churches. Never have a people been more generous in their manifestations of kindness than these of this area.

A special word of appreciation is due the combined choirs of the Methodist Churches of the Charlotte area, 175 strong; the A Cappella Chorus of Harding High School, Oliver Cook, director, and our own Conference quartet. This has been one of our best musical Conferences.

To all those visiting ministers and laymen who have come to us with their words of information and inspiration, namely, Dr. L. B. Hayes, Dr. C. Excelle Rozzelle, Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, Mr. Robert G. Mayfield, Bishop Ralph S. Cushman, Bishop Ralph A. Ward, Dr. Donald Soper, our own Bishop Costen J. Harrell, Bishop Paul Kern, as well as many others too numerous to mention, we express gratitude for every word spoken and every impulse given our Conference in its forward looking program for Christ and His Church. The services of worship at this Conference have brought us into higher devotion and into happier lives. For this we are glad. After all, these inspiring services of worship are the very heart of our Church life.

One member of the committee received a letter yesterday from a layman in a nearby town who attended the "Hour of Evangelism" service Thursday evening. He did not know that we would ever see his comments, however, the one who received it sent it on to the Chairman with the remark: "This friend has put into words some things which I heartily endorse." Here are some snatches from the letter:

"The organ prelude was simply wonderful. What an organist! What a pianist! The whole service had so much dignity and reverence about it that one could just feel the majesty of God throughout."

Then comes an appreciative comment about the singing for which this Conference has become famous. And then some words about the sermon, and we quote the last sentence of that:

"It was a good antidote to the pessimism of those who belong to the world's-going-to-the-dogs school."

We are grateful to all those who have made such a response possible.

We acknowledge with deep appreciation the courtesies to our wives that have been accorded, citing especially the tea given for them and the members of this Conference at the Home for the Aged and the tea sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Church.

We value the contributions made by the representatives of the press and radio in their reports which they have made on the activities of the Conference, and we want them to know of our appreciation.

Finally, to Bishop Costen J. Harrell who has handled the wheel of the Good Ship Western North Carolina Conference with poised and well-balanced leadership; for his prayerful spirit at all times as navigator in all the smooth and sometimes troublous waters through which he must pass in a Conference which in the judgment of many is the greatest in all Methodism, we are thankful. As our beloved Bishop continues to pilot us through another quadrennium, we know that the people here in this Conference will think of him often and pray for him.

As we thus come to the close of another Conference, let us thank God for the Church and for a place of service in it.

Respectfully submitted,

ROY E. BELL

Resolution: The following resolution presented by W. Jackson Huneycutt, Superintendent of the Waynesville District, was adopted:

Whereas Chapel Oak Methodist Church of the Cherokee Methodist charge is abandoned, and

Whereas it is the procedure on the reservation of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians for all church property to be returned to the Council of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians when no longer used for religious purposes,

Now, therefore, be it resolved:

1. That the property of Chapel Oak Methodist Church, be and it is hereby determined to be abandoned church property and the ownership to be in the trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Inc., under provisions of Paragraph 285 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church.

2. That the trustees of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Inc., be and are hereby authorized and directed to convey said property to the trustees of the Cherokee Methodist charge who in turn will convey said property to the Council of the Eastern Band of the Cherokee Indians by deed fee simple in form without warranty.

W. JACKSON HUNEYCUTT

Offering for Retiring Men: After a motion by R. Dwight Ware, the Conference received an offering to be equally divided among the men retiring at this session of the Conference amounting to $389.05.

Motion: On a motion by Edgar H. Nease the Conference voted that after the reading of the appointments and the benediction that the Conference be adjourned sine die.

Changes in Charge Boundaries: Edgar H. Nease, Secretary of the Cabinet, read the changes in charge boundaries, and they were approved.

These changes are:

CHARGE BOUNDARY CHANGES

Asheville District—Change the name of the West Asheville Church to Trinity Church.

Take Bell Church from the Sandy charge. Constitute a station to be called Bell.

Let the Sandy Charge be composed of Western Chapel, Big Sandy, Little Sandy, and a union church named Chestnut Grove, a total of four churches.

Combine the Skyland and Avery's Creek churches into a charge to be called Skyland-Avery's Creek, and attach to this charge Fanning's Chapel.

Divide the Pisgah charge into two charges, one to be named Laurel Hill-Davis Chapel, and another to be named Piney Mountain, the latter to be composed of Piney Mountain and Pisgah churches.

Take Riverview from the Emma-Riverview charge, combine it with Elkwood and constitute a new charge named Elkwood-Riverview.

Take Sardis church from the Asheville Circuit and combine it with the Emma church to constitute a new charge called Emma-Sardis. The Asheville Circuit as such will thereby cease to be a charge.

Divide the Acton-Oak Hill charge into two stations; one to be called Acton; the other Oak Hill.

Charlotte District—Attach Hama Methodist Church, newly organized in Wadesboro, to the New Hope-Bethel Charge.

Authorize the organization of a new church in Charlotte on the Plaza Extension to be called St. Luke Methodist Church.

Authorize the organization of a new church in Charlotte on Providence Road, or general vicinity, to be known as Aldersgate Methodist Church.

From Prospect, take Mt. Carmel and add to the Hebron Charge, and from Monroe Circuit take Smyrna and place on the Hebron Charge.

Change name of Bethel Church in Charlotte to Gillespie.

From Monroe Circuit take Center and attach to North Monroe.

From Monroe Circuit take Midway and Trinity, absorbing the Monroe Circuit, and place on the Prospect Charge making Prospect composed of Midway, New Hope, Prospect, and Trinity.

Approve the consolidation of Antioch and Beulah on the Hebron charge and call the consolidated church Antioch.

Gastonia District—Divide Rock Springs Charge as follows: Create of Betheny, Mount Pleasant, and Rehobeth a new charge to be known as Terrell Charge.

Take McAdenville Church from the McAdenville Charge and make it a station Church.

Take West Cramerton Church from the McAdenville Charge, and Bethesda Church from the Lowell Charge and create a new Charge to be known as, Bethesda-West Cramerton.

Take Sulphur Springs Church from the Sulphur Springs Charge and make it a station Church.

Take Bess Hoey Memorial Church and Pine Grove Church from the Sulphur Springs Charge and place with Martin Street Church, Shelby, creating a new Circuit to be named the Shelby Circuit.

Change the name of Lowell Charge to Lowell-South Point.

Greensboro District—Take Gethsemane from Summerfield circuit and create a new charge known as Gethsemane.

Marion District—Confirm the merger of Bethel and Fairview churches on the Boone Circuit and call the merged church Bethel.

Salisbury District—No changes.

Statesville District—Approve the merger of Miller's Creek and Friendship churches on the Miller's Creek Charge, to be called Miller's Creek.

Take Ashley Chapel from Warrensville and place on the Helton Charge.

Thomasville District—Take Shady Grove Church from the North Davidson charge and place with New Mount Vernon, the new charge to be called New Mount Vernon-Shady Grove.

Take Mt. Shepherd from the Richland charge and place with Asheboro, West Side.

Take Piney Grove from Denton, Central and place on Farmer Charge.

Waynesville District—Take Love's Chapel and Wesleyanna from the Webster Charge and place with Wesley's Chapel to form Sylva Circuit.

Take Flats from Highlands and place with Macon Circuit.

Authorize the organization of Francis Cove charge and place with Hazelwood.

Authorize organization of Moody's Chapel and place on Webster charge.

Winston-Salem District—Take Dobson Church from Dobson-Mountain Park charge and make a new station to be called Dobson.

Take Grassy Creek from Elkin Circuit and unite with Mountain Park and White Rock and call it Mountain Park-Grassy Creek.

Take Cherry Street and Pine Grove churches from the Kernersville Circuit and call the new charge Cherry Street-Pine Grove.

Form a new charge of Bunker Hill and Sandy Ridge of the Kernersville Circuit to be called Bunker Hill-Sandy Ridge.

Appointments: Following the singing of Hymn 284, "Am I a Soldier of the Cross," Bishop Harrell read the appointments for 1952-1953 (see appointments).

Final Adjournment: The congregation joined in singing Hymn 557, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again"; Bishop Harrell pronounced the benediction and the 1952 session of the Western North Carolina Conference was adjourned sine die.

Appendix—Reports

COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

1952-1953

"World Service is Methodism in action. Its program is pivotal and its support is the base line for our benevolent giving. If that line moves forward, all the causes of the Church move with it; if it retreats, it brings disaster to every agency carrying the work of Methodism at home and abroad. When, therefore, we talk about the importance of world service we are really talking about the importance of the mission of the Church itself . . . A hundred causes look to us, a million wistful faces are turned our way, a church waits for the lift of our faith." Thus did our Bishops speak to the people called Methodists at the General Conference in San Francisco last April. May everyone of us also say with our Bishops: "We will not withhold from Christ aught that He claims when He has given us so much more than we deserve."

Looking to the new quadrennium, your Commission appointed a special committee representing various Conference interests to study the financial structure of our Conference. This committee met in Charlotte in November, briefly in Roanoke in June, and at Lake Junaluska in August. Three sub-committees were set up, and they have met several times and given careful study to various aspects of our benevolent program. The Commission is grateful for the time and thought that have been so freely given by so many to this study.

The General Conference apportioned the Western North Carolina Conference a 35% increase in World Service. The increased askings represent the minimum needs of our general agencies. This is a challenge to strengthen the work of Methodism, especially that of Theological Education. We recommend its hearty acceptance by every district, pastoral charge, and member. Some of our Conference Boards must also have increased appropriations if they are to maintain their present programs. Our great Conference has set a high standard in recent years by paying more than 100% on the Conference budget. We urge that this be continued as we face the increased needs of the new quadrennium.

We recommend that the total apportionments be divided as follows:

World Service	$200,557.00
Conference Benevolences	130,550.00
	$331,107.00
Annual Conference Expense Fund	19,000.00
Jurisdictional Conference Expense Fund	10,616.00
General Administration Fund	10,514.00
	$371,237.00

The Annual Conference Expense Fund, the Jurisdictional Conference Expense Fund, and the General Administration Fund shall be prior claims.

We recommend the following apportionments to the various districts:

Asheville	$ 27,066.00
Charlotte	55,286.00
Gastonia	40,935.00
Greensboro	55,686.00
Marion	22,816.00
Salisbury	43,385.00
Statesville	35,639.00
Thomasville	34,367.00

Waynesville	15,841.00
Winston-Salem	40,216.00
Total	$371,237.00

We recommend the following appropriations for Conference Benevolences:

1. Christian Education, College Section	$ 30,000.00
2. Christian Education, Local Church Section	27,000.00
3. Church Extension	12,000.00
4. Conference Missions	40,000.00
5. Lay Activities	700.00
6. Wesley Foundations	11,700.00
7. Board of Temperance	4,500.00
8. Board of Evangelism	1,800.00
9. N. C. Council of Churches	1,500.00
10. Board of Ministerial Training	600.00
11. Committee on World Peace	550.00
12. Commission on Christian Vocations	200.00
	$130,550.00

We recommend that the Interdenominational Co-operation Fund be apportioned to the districts as follows:

Asheville	$ 595.00
Charlotte	1,470.00
Gastonia	862.00
Greensboro	1,316.00
Marion	509.00
Salisbury	885.00
Statesville	745.00
Thomasville	758.00
Waynesville	315.00
Winston-Salem	956.00
TOTAL	$ 8,411.00

I. F. CRAVEN, Acting Secretary

REPORT NO. 2

Other Recommendations

1. That all monies for World Service and Conference Benevolences, Interdenominational Cooperation Fund, Minimum Salary Fund, Episcopal Fund, District Superintendents Fund, Conference Claimants' Fund, College Sustaining Fund, and Town and Country be handled through the Conference Treasurer.

2. That all Boards and Commissions whose Annual Appropriations are $5,000.00 or less shall use the Conference Treasurer as fiscal agent, in order to save expense or separate audits and bonds (Discipline, par. 792).

3. That the Episcopal Fund shall be an amount equal to 2% of the salary of the pastor and ministerial assistants for the current year.

4. That an amount equal to 4½% of the salary of the pastor and ministerial assistants for the PRECEDING year be assessed for the support of the District Superintendents, and that the salary of each District Superintendent be fixed at $6,600.00.

5. The Board of Conference Claimants is asking for an apportionment of an amount equal to 17¼% of the salary of the pastor and ministerial assistants for the PRECEDING year.

6. That the Trustees of the Superannuate Endowment Fund be authorized to conduct a solicitation for the purpose of increasing this Fund.

7. That each charge pay to the Minimum Salary Fund an amount equal to 4% of the amount raised by the charge the preceding year on the following items:

- (a) Paid Other Current Expenses and Incidentals (Item 44 of Pastor's Report).
- (b) Paid for Church School Administration, Supplies, etc. (Item 45 of Pastor's Report).
- (c) Paid Minister and Associate Minister(s). (Item 47 of Pastor's Report).

That the schedule of Minimum Salary for the ensuing year be $2,850.00 for effective Conference members, including members on trial; $2,400.00 for fulltime approved supplies; and $2,200.00 for other full-time supplies, including retired supplies; and that salaries for part-time supplies and student pastors be on an adjusted basis;

That the Board of Missions administer the Minimum Salary Fund;

The increase in amounts paid by charges on items 44, 45 and 47 makes it possible to reduce the percentage apportioned and at the same time increase the benefits.

Study has been given during the past year to a Minimum Salary Schedule which takes into account the number of dependents in a pastor's family. We recommend that during the coming year the Cabinet, the Board of Missions, and the Commission on Town and Country Work continue this study and all other matters pertaining to the Minimum Salary Fund, with a view to definite and mutually agreeable recommendations at the next annual Conference. We commend the work done by the Commission on Town and Country Work on Standards for Constituting Pastoral Charges, and recommend that this study be continued.

8. That each charge pay to the College Sustaining Fund an amount equal to 3¼% of the amount raised by the charge the preceding year on the following items: (Items 44, 45, 47 of Pastor's report—See (7) above.);

And that the Board of Education distribute the College Sustaining Fund on the basis of 28% to Brevard College, 28% to Greensboro College, 28% to High Point College, 7% to Duke University, to include a provision for scholarships in the Divinity School, 3% for Methodist Student Center building to be erected at Duke University, 3% for Wesley Foundation facilities in the Educational Building to be erected at Fairmont Church, Raleigh, and 3% for Wesley Foundation facilities in the Educational Building to be erected at College Place Church, Greensboro.

9. The Methodist College Foundation has organized and vigorously conducted the United College Appeal which was authorized by our 1950 Conference. The goal established was a minimum of two and one-half million dollars for Brevard College, Greensboro College, High Point College, and Louisburg College. The quotas were set at 60% for the Western North Carolina Conference for a total of $1,500,000.00 and 40% for the North Carolina Conference for a total of $1,000,000.00.

The United College Appeal was organized on a district basis under the direction of Dr. B. Joseph Martin. A success pattern has been achieved in those districts where the campaign has already been conducted.

The results so far are as follows:

	Pledged	Paid
High Point City Campaign	$193,070.48	$ 96,161.47
Charlotte	218,023.55	78,196.48
Gastonia	72,716.25	28,219.08
Salisbury	73,679.25	21,827.95
Statesville	62,206.25	19,984.49
Thomasville	73,831.34	23,468.34
Winston-Salem	278,874.98	38,758.50
TOTAL	$972,402.10	$306,616.31

This campaign is still to be conducted in the Waynesville, Marion, Asheville Districts and part of the Greensboro District. We urge a continuation of the United College Appeal until each district in our Conference has been properly canvassed. We recommend that those churches which have not as yet reached the goals they have accepted to do all in their power to achieve success. The critical needs of our colleges for adequate plant facilities make it imperative that each local congregation and pledgee give careful attention to the United College Appeal pledges until they are paid in full.

10. That we approve the request of the Board of Education that every church observe "Church School Rally Day" with an offering on April 19 or as near thereto as possible.

11. That we approve the request of the Inter-Conference Commission on Student Religious Work for a campaign or campaigns during the ensuing quadrennium for buildings funds for Methodist Student Work at Duke, Fairmont Church, Raleigh; and College Place Church, Greensboro, provided the North Carolina Conference concurs.

12. That the apportionment for The Children's Home in Winston-Salem shall be an amount equal to 10% of the salary of the Pastor and Ministerial Assistants for the PRECEDING year, and that each charge voluntarily adopt a total charge goal, including the 10% apportionment on the following basis:

Charges paying less than $1,000—10%.

Charges paying $1,000 but not over $1,499—$100 plus 15% of amount over $1,000.

Charges paying $1,500 but not over $2,499—$175 plus 18% of amount over $1,500.

Charges paying $2,500 but not over $3,499—$355 plus 21% of amount over $2,500.

Charges paying $3,500 but not over $4,499—$565 plus 25% of amount over $3,500.

Charges paying $4,500 and over—$815 plus 30% of amount over $4,500.

13. That Mother's Day be set as a time when all churches are to receive special free-will offerings for the Methodist Home for the Aged. Funds realized from these offerings are to be used to provide care for those who cannot pay the cost of their own care and to finance the further building and equipment of the Home. The Board of Managers of the Methodist Home for the Aged shall be granted the privilege of soliciting and receiving free-will contributions for the expansion of the Home.

14. That the Month of April be designated as Golden Cross Month, during which time our churches are urged to receive an offering, to be expended at the direction of the Board of Hospitals and Homes.

15. That any overpayment on World Service and Conference Benevolences be distributed equally among College Place Church, Greensboro; Fairmont Church, Raleigh; and the trustees of the proposed Methodist Student Center Building at Duke University for use in the construction of buildings to serve Methodist students attending Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, State College of the University of North Carolina and Duke University; provided that and to the extent that the North Carolina Conference participate on the basis of $40.00 for each $60.00 paid in the Western North Carolina Conference; otherwise, the surplus or any part thereof shall be distributed equally between the Church Extension section of the Board of Missions and the College Section of the Board of Education, of the Western North Carolina Conference.

16. That Herbert M. Wayne be heartily commended for his consecrated, faithful, and efficient service, and be re-elected Conference Treasurer for the ensuing quadrennium; and that Fred D. Russell be designated Assistant Conference Treasurer.

17. That H. C. Northrop be designated Conference Auditor.

18. That out of the Annual Conference Expense Fund the following expenditures shall be made:

(a) An all-inclusive salary of $2,700 for the Conference Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, and necessary clerical help.

(b) $600 salary, plus postage and extra clerical help for Conference Secretary.

(c) $250 salary, plus extra clerical help, for the Conference Statistician.

(d) $400 remuneration for the Conference Auditor.

(e) $15 remuneration for each District Statistician.

(f) Necessary expenses for Conference Treasurer, Conference Secretary, and Conference Statistician to attend Jurisdictional meeting of these officers held at Lake Junaluska.

(g) That all necessary expenses in connection with the entertainment of the annual conference be authorized by the Committee on Conference Entertainment and that the Chairman or Secretary of the said committee approve all bills incurred in entertaining the annual conference.

(h) We recommend that the Treasurer be authorized to pay any deficit in annual conference expenses from the reserve on hand.

19. The books of the following treasurers have been audited or are in the process of being audited and each treasurer is bonded by his institution as follows:

Brevard College	$10,000.00
Greensboro College	35,000.00
Assistant bonded for	10,000.00
High Point College	25,000.00
Assistant bonded for	10,000.00
Children's Home	30,000.00

The World Service Commission has a position bond for the Treasurer in the following amounts:

Board of Education	$10,000.00
Board of Missions	35,000.00
Assistant Treasurer	10,000.00
Board of Church Extension	10,000.00
Conference Claimants	25,000.00
Charlotte City Mission Society	10,000.00
Conference Treasurer	35,000.00
Assistant to Conference Treasurer	10,000.00
Methodist Home for the Aged	25,000.00
Eugene M. Cole Foundation	10,000.00

This blanket bond covers up to $10,000 all who handle funds for the various boards and agencies of the Conference.

Because the Conference is held before the end of the fiscal year of quite a number of the Conference Boards and Agencies, we do not now have audited Statements. We have, however, been assured that these audits will be submitted to us as soon as possible.

20. Summary of Items applying to Local Church Budgets:

- (1) World Service and Conference Benevolences (get from District Stewards).
- (2) Inter-denominational Co-operation Fund (get from District Stewards).
- (3) Other Ministerial Support:
 - (a) Episcopal Fund: an amount equal to 2% of pastor's salary for the current year.

Morning Session:

Sept. 27, 1952.

I hereby certify that I have examined the reports of Herbert M. Wayne, Conference Treasurer, for the Conference Year 1951-52 and have tested them in comparison with the financial books and records of the Conference Treasurer, and in my opinion the foregoing statements are in accordance with said books and represent the true facts relative to the Conference transactions for the Conference Year 1951-1952.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

Report No. 1

Your Board of Missions wishes to express deep appreciation for the splendid support given to the missionary program during this quadrennium. Almost $2,000,000 have been given to missions by our conference in this period. During the last ten years our missionary personnel overseas has increased fifty per cent. We are entering into a new quadrennium with the hope of advancement in every field of missions at home and abroad.

Mission Specials

The General Conference continued mission specials to all parts of the world where we can take the Gospel of Christ. These are avenues of opportunity to send the light to those in the darkness of sin and oppression. We recommend the adoption of and the increasing support to North Africa and Poland. The needs are for additional personnel, facilities and building for an adequate program.

A. General Conference and Missions

The General Conference made no organic change in the structure of the Board of Missions and Church Extension. The Advance Committee was continued, but with implementation at the annual conference level. An annual budget was adopted of $9,600,000 for all World Service Agencies. The hope was expressed that there would be $4,000,000 per year in Mission Specials continued. The Board of Missions was reduced 9.15% in the percentage of the World Service dollar it receives, from 72.5% to 61.5% which means only a small increase over the present amount received.

Legislation simplifying the local church was adopted. This provided that "basic body of control" in the local church will be the Quarterly Conference. Under it each local church must organize an Official Board and four commissions: Evangelism, Missions, Education, and Finance. Each Commission may have as many committees as it desires.

"There shall be organized in each local church a Commission on Missions of not less than three persons and as many more as the Quarterly Conference may determine. It shall be the auxiliary to the General Board of Missions and to the Jurisdictional and Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension, and shall cooperate with these agencies in their plans and programs for missionary education and cultivation."

The General Conference said, "An annual Conference may promote Conference-initiated Specials by a conference-wide campaign to provide for its own church extension needs."

Conference-Initiated Specials in the Western North Carolina Conference

The General Conference continued Advance Specials with no essential change except that it said "An annual conference may promote conference initiated specials by a conference-wide campaign to provide for its own church extension needs."

The General Conference endorsed the recommendations of the Division of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Board of Missions for the development of an effective church extension strategy to the end that the effort to establish new congregations be accepted as a primary objective of each annual conference of The Methodist Church for the quadrennium with all pastors, churches and organizations giving full support to the new program of church extension.

In consultation with Bishop Harrell a special committee from the Board of Missions and Church Extension within the conference, we recommend the following strategic situations in the area of church extension on a priority list for the coming year. A goal of $50,000 has been set up, and the following churches shall share in the amount listed:

Cherokee	$10,000
Highlands	5,000
Cullowhee	1,250
Saluda	10,000

These are listed in the order of priority, but the Board of Missions will administer these funds after consultation with the cabinet.

The remaining amount over and above the needs of the four specials mentioned be allocated at the discretion of the Board of Missions in consultation with the cabinet to other needy places including Bryson City and Tryon.

The Cherokee Advance Special

With the formal opening of the beautiful new stone church at Cherokee the week of June 8th, a new day of ministry by the Methodist Church to the Cherokee Indians was begun. This is the culmination of 130 years work among the Cherokee Indians. Through these 130 years the records show a faithful group of Cherokees who have been in the Methodist Church. This church will stand as a faithful servant and witness to all who worship in it through the years ahead. It will also be a standing witness to the millions who will pass by, for more than a million people pass in front of the new church each year. More than 325 churches and charges, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Wesleyan Service Guild, the Duke Foundation, and many individuals have contributed $45,000 for the building and furnishing of this church.

The Division of Home Missions contributed a new bus for work at Cherokee from the Week of Dedication offerings for Indian work. This greatly enlarges the service of the new church.

Rev. and Mrs. P. F. Snider, the pastor and his wife, are to be commended highly for the devoted and effective service they are giving to our mission at Cherokee.

Cherokee will continue as a mission special for the coming year for $10,000 to complete the necessary work, and pay obligations outstanding in order that the new church might be dedicated.

The Highlands Advance Special

High in the Blue Ridge is the little town of Highlands, that quietly nestles among the mountain tops in the winter snows with a population of five or six hundred people. Here a little band of Methodist people have faithfully carried on through the years in an inadequate frame church. They carried on while five other Methodist churches on the two circuits in the area were closed. Now only Highlands and Cashiers are left on one circuit, where formerly there were seven churches constituting two circuits. The church at Highlands, inadequate for the small congregation, was totally uninviting to the several thousands of summer residents and visitors. The faithful few, probably not over sixty active members, unable to build themselves a new church, when challenged by their pastor and encouraged by Bishop Harrell, entered into a courageous and thrilling building program. They entered into a program not for themselves only, but also for the summer residents of the community. With help from the Advance Specials of many churches, from the Board of Missions, and other sources, a splendid building program is being carried out in constructing a beautiful and adequate stone veneer church. This summer with the sanctuary still incomplete, the visitors in the community and the members have filled the sanctuary each Sunday! New pews will increase the capacity of the sanctuary more than 80%. Already there is talk of two Sunday morning worship services to accommodate the anticipated congregations when the church is completed.

Through August 29th, $7,130 had been contributed through Advance Specials. The work is more than half completed. Highlands continues as a Conference-Initiated Advance Special for $5,000 for the coming year.

Full-Time Christian Service

Recognizing that the effectiveness of the ministry of the church depends directly upon the extent and quality of its professional leadership, we view with increasing anxiety the shortage of ministers, missionaries, and directors of Christian Education. We do feel that our past efforts to encourage our youth to give serious consideration to full-time Christian service have had marked results. It is imperative that every Christian leader continue to watch and pray for opportunities to lead young men and women of Christian character and personality to heed the call of Christ and the church for consecrated leadership.

During the past year your Board of Missions has paid the expenses of one youth delegate from each district in our Conference to the Annual Missionary Conference at Lake Junaluska. Some of these delegates have made definite decisions for full-time Christian service and others, no doubt, were strengthened in decisions already made. Similar efforts on the district and local church levels to acquaint choice young people with the opportunities for a rich and rewarding life as a minister, teacher, missionary, or director of Christian Education would be of great value.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service

The Woman's Society of Christian Service has just closed one of its most successful years in every department. There are now 818 societies and 152 Wesleyan Service Guilds, with a combined membership of 41,192. The Department of Missionary Education reports 1,786 study classes of which 368 received Jurisdictional recognition. There was an increase in the number of societies participating in the Week of Prayer observance and an increase in giving to Special Projects. The Supply Department shows a fine increase also. The total amount handled by their treasurer, including their pledge to the Division treasurer, the Student Scholarship fund, reserve fund, and funds for work in the W.N.C. Conference, was $214,270.76.

World Outlook

We rejoice in the growing recognition of the value and importance of our general missionary periodical, the "World Outlook." We note that this monthly magazine was recipient of two of the four awards offered for meritorious achievement by the Associated Church Press of the United States and Canada this past year—the first award for general effectiveness and first award for use of illustrative material. We urge all our pastors to call attention to this magazine on our annual World Outlook Sunday, the second Sunday of November, and to lead an aggressive campaign in its support during that month.

The Church-Wide School of Missions

We heartily commend to our pastors and people the mission study book of the year, "Along the African Path," by Dorothy McConnell; and we urge every pastor and local church Commission on Missions to plan and conduct a Church-Wide School of Missions in every congregation during the year.

Missionary Institutes

We recommend that each District hold Missionary Institutes on a sub-district basis, instead of just one institute for the whole district, thus carrying the institute within easy reach of each local church. If there are three counties in a district, three sub-district institutes, one in each county, would probably reach three times as many people as would one institute for the whole district. Such a plan was tried out in the Marion district last year in which six sub-district institutes were held in six different counties. The total attendance at these institutes was approximately eight hundred, which was several times the number usually attended one central institute for the whole district.

City Mission Societies and County Boards

Under the direction of our City Mission Societies and County Boards, The Methodist Church continues to expand. The following reports have been given to the conference Board this year:

Asheboro City Mission Society

The third year of the Asheboro City Board of Missions has been another highly successful year. A new parsonage has been built at Calvary, and aid given in securing title to the property of a new church, the West Side Mission. A survey has been made of the suburban area looking to the establishment of new church schools and for sites on which to locate new churches. Under the direction of the Asheboro City Missions Society two new churches and property valued at $50,000.00 have been established.

Asheville City Mission Society

A balance in the treasury of $139.62 with no financial activity this year.

Cabarrus County Mission Society

The Cabarrus County Mission Society this year acquired property in Wilmar Park, Concord, N. C., for the purpose of building a new church. A survey of this section shows there are over 300 Methodists and a church will be developed in the future. A purchase of a lot in the Royal Oaks Section between Concord and Kannapolis is now being considered. The sum of $516.00 has been raised for this lot. North Kannapolis was given $800.00 on their church indebtedness and $800.00 still remains in the treasury.

Caldwell County Mission Society

The Caldwell County Board was organized January 22, 1952, with every church in the county a member. A survey was conducted in the Cage's Mountain section and a lot has been donated for a new church. Contributions to the Board for the year totaled $355.00.

Charlotte City Mission Society

The Charlotte City Mission Society during this Conference year just ended has bought a lot and built the first unit for the new Bethel Methodist Church. The new congregation moved into this church about the middle of the conference year and has had a gratifying growth. Although Bethel, which is the ninth new church under the auspices of the Society, has had a place in which it could meet for only about one-half a year, it already has approximately two hundred members.

All the other newly organized churches of Charlotte Methodism are flourishing and continue to grow. We are expecting to start our tenth new church in the northern section of the city on the Plaza Road Extension during the coming conference year. All together, a total of approximately $13,000 has been provided this year for capital funds and operations.

There is an urgent need for a new church in the Providence Road section. This cannot be done on a satisfactory scale unless some of the older churches sponsor and encourage the formation of such a new congregation.

The possibilities and urgent need for continued Methodist church extension work in Charlotte seems to be unlimited because of the continued rapid growth of the population of Charlotte.

Greater Greensboro Board of Missions

The Greater Greensboro Board of Missions continues to assist the Joyner Memorial Church, which was established last year. A thorough and scientific survey has been completed under the direction of Dr. Frederick A. Shippey of the General Board, Department of City Work. A study of the results is being made as to location and establishment of new churches. Five charges contributed a total of $698.15. The Board disbursed $919.35 and has a balance of $533.04.

High Point City Mission Society

The High Point City Mission Society will complete the payment of the construction of the Sherwood Methodist Church by conference. The Society functioned in an advisory capacity to the Brooks Memorial colored church. Receipts for the year, including $3,110.00 from nine High Point Methodist churches were $5,944.00. Disbursements were $5,989.18, leaving a balance of $376.35. All the churches of the High Point area participated in the Sherwood project.

The Surry County Board of Missions

The Surry County Board of Missions is supplementing salaries and giving financial help when needed in twelve or more stations and circuits. A new church has been dedicated at Mountain Park. New parsonages are being built at Salem and Jonesville. Stony Knoll is finishing a new educational building.

The Winston-Salem City Mission Society

The Winston-Salem City Mission Society continues to make payments on Trinity Church, a new church in the western part of the city. A three acre tract of land has been given by the Reynolds Estate for a new church. A lot in the Konnoak Hills section is under consideration.

SOME OBJECTIVES

Believing that we accomplish more when we work toward specific ends, we offer the following suggestions as objectives for the future.

That each charge, and church accept in full the increased apportionment for World Service which was suggested by the 1952 General Conference in order to maintain the present missionary program.

That each church accept a Mission Special each year to be used either in the homeland or abroad to help advance the cause of Christ.

That each district have a functioning board of Missions and Church Extension to promote the cause of missions and church extension in the district. And, that where a district is so geographically divided or numerically grouped as to make such organization advisable, that city and county boards of missions and church extension be organized to promote missions and church extension in their respective communities. Furthermore, that the district, city and county boards of missions and church extension devise means whereby money may be made available for the construction of new Methodist churches in their territory.

That the Commissions be organized in each local church in the conference and that the Commission cooperate with the Woman's Society of Christian Service in creating and developing the spirit of missions in each Methodist, also in enrolling each Methodist woman in the active work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

We urge that fourth Sunday programs be presented in all our Church Schools and that the offerings on these days be sent to the Conference Treasurer as World Service offerings.

FURTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

We recommend that all applications for aid from both sections of our Board be made on appropriate application blanks.

We further recommend that all applications for aid customarily made at annual conference be in the hands of the Executive Committee of the Board at least two weeks before conference convenes.

We recommend that where aid is given for a church or parsonage buildings that adequate insurance of these buildings be required.

We further recommend that appropriations from the General Board of Missions and the Duke Fund, and special funds of county or city mission societies may be applied after the minimum salary has been paid either by the charge or the minimum salary fund.

We respectfully request that the Bishop appoint Horace R. McSwain as Conference Missionary Secretary.

ENABLING ACT

The Executive Committee of the Board of Missions and Church Extension is authorized to make such changes in the appropriations as, in keeping with the established policies, are necessitated by the appointments when read by the Presiding Bishop and to include in the report to be published in the Journal such appropriations from the Minimum Salary Fund as are necessary to meet the minimum salary levels.

Report No. 2

During the past Conference Year the Section of Church Extension helped with the building and improvement of nine parsonages and sixteen churches. Six churches and one parsonage were also helped by loans from the Conference Board Loan Funds.

We regret that we have not had sufficient funds to help all applicants with donations or loans to the extent they deserved. We hope that the loan funds may soon be increased until they are sufficient to meet a larger portion of the many urgent needs for loans.

Following the policy and example of our General Board of Church Extension, our Conference Section of Church Extension is now requiring that a TRUST AGREEMENT and MORTGAGE be given by trustees of such projects as receive our donation money. This policy protects the money of our board from being lost by the burning, sale, or abandonment of such buildings as we have helped to provide.

At this meeting, for the first time in the history of this Board, the Church Extension Section has given some measure of aid to all the applicants. This could be done only by reducing the size of the gifts to each. We report the following donations at this time:

To Parsonages

El Bethel, Gastonia	$300.00
Avery, Marion	400.00
Connelly Springs, Marion	400.00
Bethany, Salisbury	500.00

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Report No. 1

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES SECTION

The Board of Education received reports from the trustees or presidents of Brevard College, Duke University, Greensboro College and High Point College. Statistics are recorded in the paragraphs that follow.

For the year ending June 30, 1952, Robert H. Stamey, president of Brevard College, reported an enrollment of freshman and sophomore classes of 119, in special courses 45, in evening courses, 45. He reported the college operated with no deficit during the past year. For the fall term of 1952, an enrollment of 140 was reported, and increase of 25% over last year. The Conference is requested to elect the following trustees whose terms will expire in 1958: Embree H. Blackard, Mrs. Fred J. Stanback, C. P. Bowles, H. A. Dunham, Paul F. Evans, W. A. Kale, C. M. Ogle, Les Myers, Gene W. Schenck, Allen Sims, Howard C. Wilkinson and O. V. Woosley. Ottis Greene is nominated to fill the unexpired term of G. B. Pendleton, whose term expires in 1954.

A. Hollis Edens, president of Duke University, reported the following statistics for the year ending June 30, 1952: Regular students, 4,779; summer school enrollment, 1,490; officers and teachers (not including assistants), 623; and assets $71,451,261.27.

J. C. Cowan, Jr., vice-chairman of the Board of Trustees of Greensboro College, reported through president Harold H. Hutson, the following statistics: 368 students (82.2 being Methodists); officers and teachers, 52; value of property $1,972,390.21; endowment, $681,457.34; and no indebtedness. Request was made for the confirmation of the following trustees: George M. Ivey, for a term expiring December 31, 1953;

J. G. Hanes, for a term expiring December 31, 1956; and Wilson O. Weldon, for a term expiring December 31, 1956.

Reporting for High Point College, Dr. Dennis H. Cooke presented the following statistics: Enrollment (regular, summer and extension), 1,193; faculty and staff, 52; endowment, $559,430.99; and no indebtedness. The following elected trustees whose terms expire in 1956 are presented for confirmation: H. F. Hunsucker, C. W. McCrary, J. E. Prichard, Elliot Wood, W. F. Womble, and J. C. Madison and S. R. Brookshire whose terms expire in 1955.

The Board recommends the re-election of the following to the Board of Managers of the Duke Pastors' School, terms to expire in 1955: C. P. Bowles, Carl H. King and G. T. Rowe.

It should be recorded that college officials reporting to the Board expressed gratitude for the support given these institutions by the Conference, stating that this support is absolutely essential if their institutions are to be retained on the approved lists of accrediting agencies.

The Board of Education rejoices over the progress of the United College Appeal to date, and expresses appreciation and gratitude for what this is meaning and will mean to the Methodist colleges of our state, and commends most heartily the Methodist constituency of our conference for the splendid response which they made under the leadership of Dr. B. Joseph Martin, director of the Methodist College Foundation.

The Board received a certified audit of the J. B. Cornelius Foundation, Incorporated, from its president, Kenneth Goodson, who stated that 45 young women in Methodist colleges were beneficiaries of the fund.

Report No. 2 LOCAL CHURCH

The report by the staff for the year 1951-1952 indicates an ambitious program effectively completed in each division of the church school. Laboratory schools have been promoted on a wider scale in the children's division, camping activities made more attractive in the youth division, and workshops instituted on the district and conference level for young adults. Over 40,000 were reached in vacation church schools, some 1,500 in summer activities for youth, and over 5,000 credits were given in training schools. According to the report of the Conference statistician church school membership and attendance at church school show an increase for the current year.

The reports reveal a composite of work completed which will strengthen the training in almost every church of the Conference. In addition, the plans announced for the coming year will be more ambitious, even, than those reported this year.

The most conclusive indication of the scope and quality of work being done in the local churches of the Western North Carolina Conference, can be had by reference to an analysis conducted by The General Board, under the direction of Dr. Walter Towner. The major matters in the area of the church school were analyzed for the period 1943-52, with very striking increases noted. Significant advances were made in the attendance of children and adults at attending vacation church school, in church school offerings for world service and conference benevolences, and in giving for church school rally day, and the Methodist Youth Fund. The general improvement in almost every area has been so pronounced that Dr. Towner has made frequent reference to the accomplishments as a source of possible inspiration to other conferences of Methodism.

A major addition to the facilities for Christian education has been made at Camp Tekoa where Laurel Lodge, a gift from the Stanback family, has been placed in use.

A long delayed Jurisdictional objective, the completion of The Children's Building, at Lake Junaluska, should soon be realized.

Widespread observance is planned in the near future for the release of The Revised Standard Version of the Bible. We encourage our people to cooperate in the proper recognition of this scholarly work. Volume I of The Interpreter's Bible is scheduled to be released in early October. This volume, as well as the two which have already appeared, should be of pronounced value to our people. Their use by our people should be encouraged.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF CHILDREN'S WORK

Children's work was given a good start for the Church School year when Dr. Mary Alice Jones from the General Board staff met with the District Directors and local church school workers at Pfeiffer College in the early fall. She challenged the workers into new avenues of Christian service. The following paragraphs are a summary of the year's work.

Laboratory Schools: A marked interest has been shown in Laboratory Schools. Laboratory Schools have been conducted in Statesville, reaching 12 churches; Greensboro, reaching 18 churches; Winston-Salem, reaching 6 churches; and at Pfeiffer College for the entire conference.

Vacation Church School Coaching Classes and Institutes: In three districts Vacation Church School leaders met for an all day training period. These leaders then held 32 V.C.S. Institutes in the districts of the conference. Ten new V.C.S. leaders were trained and added to the volunteer helpers in the conference.

Vacation Church Schools: The V.C.S. reports have been encouraging. Ministers and teachers have reported better work, happy boys and girls, a spirit of cooperation among parents, teachers and boys and girls, and many opportunities for boys and girls to put into practice some of the Christian principles about which they studied.

Duke University: Special help was given at Duke University for the young men who were planning to work in V.C.S.

Help to Small Churches: The Director, along with volunteer workers, visited small churches in four districts, taught laboratory classes, and helped the teachers to become better acquainted with the use of the Methodist literature.

Junior Camps: Some of the large churches had successful Day Camps for Junior boys and girls.

Lake Junaluska Leadership School: A marked interest was shown in the number of children's workers taking advantage of this opportunity for study and growth.

The Church and the Family: In several training schools, classes have been taught for parents. Meetings have been held in a number of churches to help provide resources to aid in teaching religion in the home. Lists of books, the distribution of helpful leaflets, and suggested audio-visual aids for family groups have been furnished to the Superintendents of the Children's Division in each church.

Appreciation: The work that has been accomplished is the result of the faith and cooperation of District Superintendents, District Directors, Directors of Religious Education in local churches, the hundreds of local church workers, the Ministers, the Executive Secretary, and the office secretaries. It has been a joy and privilege to work with them and to each of them I express my deep appreciation.

OBJECTIVES FOR 1952-1953

1. To provide Laboratory Schools in several centers in the conference.
2. To provide more help to new church school teachers.
3. To provide more adequate help in the selection and use of audio visual materials for children's workers.
4. To work toward closer cooperation between the church school and the home, especially in the use of curriculum materials.
5. To build upon the interest in the Bible which has been aroused by the New Version of the Bible.
6. To secure more volunteer workers in each district.
7. To promote Vacation Church School workshops and institutes throughout the conference.
8. To help local church workers to become aware of the urgent need for more time for Christian teaching for better use of time and for better prepared teachers.
9. To help small churches through personal visits.
10. To provide more help for Nursery workers.
11. To continue to work to make the Kingdom of God a reality in the lives of the children of our conference.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. W. R. REED Conference Director of Children's Work

REPORT ON YOUTH WORK

The fine spirit of cooperation on the part of young people and their leaders has made youth work in our conference a sincere joy. The following reports give some pertinent facts and figures but cannot record the inspiration received from the gay smiles, good advice, hard work, growing ideas, and committed lives of numerous youth and friends of youth who have been ever ready to strengthen the program through sharing the joy of Christian living.

SUMMER ACTIVITIES FOR YOUTH

Camp Tekoa: Thrilling camp experiences were enjoyed by the 568 Intermediate boys and girls who attended one of the seven sessions, June 4-August 1. The added facilities of the new lodge made it possible to increase camper capacity from 66 to 85 and to enrich the camp program. Tekoa received another Grade A rating with a score of 95. W. F. Hart, State Sanitarian, said this was one of the highest ratings given to any camp under his supervision this summer. Program activities, directed by Miss Marion Craig, Mrs. Carl King, and David Swain, centered around the camp unit, "Each for All—a Camping Venture in Christian Citizenship." Lawrence Hsu from China, Bishop and Mrs. Ralph Ward, missionaries to China, and Bishop Paul B. Kern stimulated world-wide interests and friendships. Successful camp sessions were made possible by the service of 70 counselors who gave 125 weeks of free service.

Senior Assembly: "Still He Calls" was the theme of Senior Assembly, Lake Junaluska, July 7-12. Dr. D. D. Holt, Durham, was the inspirational speaker for the 364 high school youth and 48 adult leaders in attendance. Rev. and Mrs. Gilreath Adams served as dean and head counselor. Lawrence Hsu of China was the national representative.

Older Youth Assembly: Rev. and Mrs. Robert H. Stamey served as dean and head counselor for Older Youth Assembly, Junaluska, July 3-6. Dr. Lowell B. Hazzard, Westminster, Maryland, was inspirational speaker. Two nationals and two missionaries enriched the program of world friendship. Registration included 152 youth who had graduated from high school, 4 adult leaders, and 26 counselors.

Youth Caravan: Over 500 youth from 32 churches were reached by the youth caravan team serving in our conference. Team members included Miss Lois Roberts, Salisbury, counselor; Louise Place, Iowa; Nell Knight, Mississippi; John H. Christy, Jr., Andrews and C. Dwight Pyatt, Franklin. The following charges were visited this summer: Polkville, Ralph Kayler; Mt. Mourne, Harold C. Austin; Denver, J. Max Brandon, Jr., Polkton, George W. Rudisill; East Marion, Vernon A. Morton; and First, North Wilkesboro, R. L. Young.

Volunteer Service: A number of youth from our conference served on caravans and in work camps at home and abroad. Approximately 223 weeks or 4 years and 4 months of time for one person were given for youth work on the conference level during the summer.

National Methodist Youth Planning Conference and National Conference of Methodist Youth: These two important meetings were held at Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana, August 17-24. Donald Beatty, conference MYF president, attended both and the director of youth work attended the Planning Conference. Significant plans were made for emphasizing youth working during the quadrennium 1952-1956.

Conference Council Retreats: A full conference council meeting was held at Pfeiffer, January 25-26. Jimmy Davis, president, presided. District Superintendents, district directors of youth work, sub-district counselors, sub-district presidents, and members of the conference council worked together to make plans for a vital youth program.

At the Youth Council Retreat at Camp Tekoa, August 28-31, the program was studied, work of commissions was presented, goals for 1952-53 were set, plans for reaching these goals and plans for the publication of a conference MYF quarterly newspaper were made. Robert H. Stamey, Brevard College, was inspirational speaker. Mrs. Ralph Ward, missionary to China, and Lawrence Hsu, national at the summer assemblies, were guests.

Conference Youth Night: Dr. Donald O. Soper, London, England, will be the speaker at the annual observance of Conference Youth Night at the Armory Auditorium, Charlotte, on Saturday, September 27. More than 3,000 young people are expected to attend.

TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES FOR ADULT LEADERS

Training Schools: Fifteen courses for youth leaders were offered in training schools during the year. Nearly 400 workers enrolled and 338 credits were received.

Vacation Church School Institutes: Helps for Intermediate workers were given in 29 Vacation Church School Institutes held in nine districts. Five new volunteer leaders received training and taught in these institutes.

Camp Coaching Conferences: A large number of counselors serving at Camp Tekoa attended a coaching conference held in Greensboro or in Charlotte. Leaders from churches planning Intermediate camps also attended.

Laboratory School: Mrs. Lowell B. Hazzard was Intermediate instructor at the Laboratory School at Pfeiffer, May 27-30.

Leadership School: A number of youth leaders from the W.N.C. Conference took advantage of training opportunities offered at the Leadership school held in August at Junaluska.

YOUTH CONTRIBUTIONS

Youth of the conference contributed $13,008.83 to the Methodist Youth Fund during this fiscal year. Of this amount 67½% goes for missions and 32½% for youth work in the conference and on a national level.

Campers at Tekoa shared with people around the world by contributing $212.71. This amount was used to help a German Youth Camp, for work in Cuba, a CARE package for India, Meals for Millions, equipment at Colegio Uniao in Brazil, for work among Chinese refugees in Formosa and Hong Kong, and for the Methodist Youth Fund. Contributions to the Camp Improvement Fund amounted to $157.41. The offering at Senior and Older Youth Assomblies for missions and a project at Lake Junaluska amounted to $140.82.

SUB-DISTRICT ACTIVITIES

A major part of the conference youth program is carried out in sub-district work. We are indebted to our District Directors for keeping in close contact with these groups and for helping with plans for a program that gives information and inspiration to local church groups. In two districts, sub-district rallies for Intermediates are meeting a long felt need. District Directors are: Miles A. McLean, Lee H. Eagle, W. A. Rock, Miss Hollyce Highfill, Miss Elise Crawford, Miss Elizabeth Summersett, Miss Martha Witherspoon, James Clemmer, Mrs. J. E. Yountz, Miss Mary Lee Carter, W. T. Medlin, Jr. (Intermediate), and Miss Lorene Weaver (Intermediate).

PLANS FOR 1952-53

In accord with the resolutions by the General Conference that the Methodist Church plan special emphasis during the quadrennium 1952-56 upon developing, improving, and extending its youth program and upon reaching an increased number of youth for the Christian life and membership in the church, the following objectives for 1952-1953 have been set:

I. Objectives of Conference Council to the MYF

1. Increase attendance through personal evangelism.
 - A. Increase membership in each local MYF by 10%.
 - B. Increase number of churches participating in the sub-district program by 10%.
 - C. Encourage every member of the MYF to become a member of the church.
2. Strengthen program through educational evangelism.
 - A. Stress importance of council meetings for conference, sub-district, and local church Methodist Youth Fellowships.
 - B. Offer thorough training program for youth leaders and adult workers through training schools, midyear institutes, workshops and retreats.
3. Assist in world-wide evangelism.
 - A. Contribute $14,000 to the Methodist Youth Fund.
 - B. Reach district goals in the Methodist Youth Fund.
 - C. Every church in the conference contribute to the Methodist Youth Fund and give and opportunity for every MYF member to pledge.

4. Keep in close touch with sub-district councils.
 - A. Sponsor a conference newspaper.
 - B. Send a complete report of every conference council meeting to sub-district counselors and district directors.
 - C. Schedule a visit from a conference officer in every sub-district.
 - D. Plan for adequate training for adult leaders.

II. Objectives of Conference Director of Youth Work

1. To study interests, needs, and problems of youth of our conference.
2. To work with conference council, district directors, sub-district counselors, and sub-district councils in formulating objectives and purposes for the year and in reaching these goals.
3. To visit district or subdistrict meetings in every district and to cooperate in district rallies or mid-year institutes for training MYF youth.
4. To concentrate on meeting needs of Intermediate age youth through:
 - A. Securing district directors of Intermediate work.
 - B. Offering more training for workers with Intermediates.
 - C. Stressing the importance of separate activities for Intermediates.
 - D. Providing training for leaders in churches planning Intermediate camps.
 - E. Training counselors for Tekoa at a coaching conference held at the camp site.
5. To provide more help on Older Youth work.
6. To enlist more workers with youth.
7. To provide training opportunities for new workers.
8. To promote the use of Methodist curriculum materials and to give guidance in the use of the literature and suggested resource materials.
9. To cooperate with conference and district staffs in joint educational activities.
10. To help local churches through consultation with youth leaders or personal visits.
11. To continue to work and plan with youth for conference activities that will help young people live their motto, "Christ Above All."

MARION CRAIG,
Conference Director of Youth Work

REPORT ON ADULT WORK

Under the leadership of Douglas Corriher, Conference President, adult work has been cultivated through the year. The following conference activities have been sponsored:

1. Conference Council Meeting at Pfeiffer College.
2. Classes on adult work in larger training schools.
3. A series of workshop sessions on the work of adult classes held in each district in March.
4. A Young Adult Workshop, Camp Tekoa, July 3-6, with Dr. M. B. Stokes and Charles Turner as leaders.
5. The Convocation for Presidents and Teachers of Adult Classes, Junaluska, August 16-19.

REPORT ON GENERAL PHASES OF PROGRAM

Church School Membership is reported to be 189,106 in the Journal for 1951. This enrollment is the largest in the history of our conference. It shows an annual increase each year since 1944. A statistical summary prepared by Dr. Walter Towner indicates progress over a period of eight years.

Leadership Training continues to be a major activity in our program. Attendance at training schools, camps, assemblies, and vacation schools was excellent and the quality of work was perhaps the best ever. 5,009 persons were reached with formal teacher-training.

Church School Day returns to date amount to $8,560.96. This fine response from 306 churches makes possible a larger and more effective service by our Conference Board of Education. The Church School Day committee consisted of E. K. McLarty, Jr., Hunter Jones, S. R. Brookshire, J. G. Huggin, Jr., and Howard Wilkinson.

Church School giving to World Service and Conference Benevolences on Fourth Sundays, according to Herbert M. Wayne, was $26,321.23 as of September 13.

Full-time Workers in Christian Education are employed in 40 churches of the conference. These directors, along with ministers and church school teachers, are constantly at work for the advancement of Christian education. A conference-wide meeting for these directors was held in Charlotte last February.

Thirty Volunteer District Directors of children's work, youth work, and adult work rendered invaluable service to the program throughout the year.

Representatives of the General Board of Education constantly give counsel and service through correspondence and with personal visits. Those who came during the year were Dr. Mary Alice Jones, Mrs. Earl Parker, Miss Vera Zimmerman, Miss Margie McCarthy, and Dr. Walter Towner.

The Children's Building, Lake Junaluska, will soon be a reality. More than $41,000 has been contributed by the church schools of the Jurisdiction.

Laurel Lodge, Camp Tekoa, has been constructed this year at the cost of approximately $17,000. We are indebted to the Fred J. Stanback family of Salisbury for this excellent addition to our facilities at camp. Edwin Ford, Shelby, is Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

OUR COLLEGES

Duke University, Duke Divinity School, and Greensboro, High Point, and Breward Colleges have opened with good enrollment for the year. A total of $79,607.76 has been paid to these schools from the College Sustaining Fund, and $28,000.00 from the regular appropriation of the Board of Education making a grand total of $107,607.76 as of September 15.

Pfeiffer Junior College and Bennett College, owned and operated by the Woman's Division, have excellent equipment and a fine program of Christian Education. Dr. C. M. Waggoner and Dr. David Jones are the presidents of these two colleges.

Dr. Harold Hutson, Robert H. Stamey, and Dr. W. A. Kale enter the field of higher education this fall. Each of these men has demonstrated his ability in the cause of Christian education and will render distinguished leadership during the years ahead.

Miss Elizabeth Summersett, who has rendered excellent staff service for six years, has gone to Emory University for a year of graduate study in Christian education.

The Race Relations Offering received the second Sunday in February amounts to $4,618.42 for the current year. This offering is administered by the Department of Schools and Colleges, Nashville, to Bennett and to other colleges for Negro students.

The Methodist Student Day Offering taken the second Sunday in June for the National Scholarship Fund totals $1,534.92 this year. This amount should be increased considerably next year.

 Methodist Board of Education
 Concord, North Carolina

Dear Sir:

We have examined the Books and Records of F. Paul Wiles, Treasurer, Local Church Section, Methodist Board of Education, Western North Carolina Conference, for the period beginning September 17, 1951 and ending September 17, 1952. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and included such tests of the accounting records as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We submit herewith our report consisting of the following-named Exhibits:

Exhibit A—Statement of Cash Receipts and Cash Disbursements—General Fund

Exhibit B—Statement of Cash Receipts and Cash Disbursements—Camp Tekoa Building Fund

The Cash Receipts of record were traced to deposits in the bank and the disbursements were represented by approved cancelled checks which were examined by us with the exception of those outstanding at September 17, 1952. The cash in bank was reconciled with statements furnished by the depository.

During the year $15,000.00 was deposited in a savings account until the immediate need for the funds. The interest income from this savings account was $245.54 which is shown in Exhibit A.

In our opinion, the Exhibits enumerated above, together with our comments thereon, present correctly the Cash Receipts and Cash Disbursements of F. Paul Wiles, Treasurer, Local Church Section, Methodist Board of Education, for the period beginning September 17, 1951 and ending September 17, 1952.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

Your Board of Temperance desires to report to this Conference that during the year which is now closing the work of temperance education has proceeded throughout the conference in the local churches at an accelerated pace. Your Board has tried in a variety of ways to bring to the attention of our ministers and our laymen as well the wisdom of presenting to our people in fair but positive fashion the danger which the use of alcohol creates for the individual and the wisdom of living a life of temperance and sobriety. Your Board realizes that this fight is a continuing one and that arrayed against the Church in this fight are powerful and well financed forces. The brewing and distilling industries in recent years especially have made wide and telling use of advertising media such as the daily newspapers, magazines, radio and television, and it will require the doubled efforts of our churches to offset this flood of propaganda which seeks to convince the people that social drinking is an attribute of good fellowship. We are strengthened in our efforts by our knowledge of the fact that there is no more damning influence to a community or to the individual than the liquor traffic. Crime, corruption, broken hearts and broken lives always follow in the train of this traffic which has perplexed and plagued mankind for many centuries.

During the past year your Board allotted $3,500.00 of its $4,500.00 budget to the Allied Church League, Inc. This organization is composed of and sponsored by the Protestant denominations of North Carolina and affords an organization through which the various churches of our state may make their voices felt in positive fashion in many ways which otherwise would not be possible. We are proud of the fact that a member of our Conference, Rev. R. M. Hauss, continues as the Executive Director of the Allied Church League and in appreciation for his services the Board of Temperance nominates Rev. R. M. Hauss to serve in this capacity for the coming year.

Your Board has realized that one of the grave problems confronting society today is the handling and care of those individuals who are steadily increasing in numbers whose lives have been blighted by the curse of alcoholism. Your Board has felt that the Church can and must render a service to all who are suffering from this disease. To this end your Board has endeavored to secure trained individuals to discuss this problem with members of our ministry and our laymen alike. It is sincerely hoped that in the coming year efforts may not only be continued but intensified for the Church cannot afford to forget nor turn its back upon those struggling souls whose lives have been blighted by alcoholism but for whom the Church and Christ do yearn.

Your Board of Temperance has felt that Commitment Day is serving a very fine purpose throughout the Conference. In many churches this Day culminates our temperance education program in the church schools and in the church. We recommend its continued observance with renewed and intensified efforts.

We call the attention of our people to the fact that the San Francisco General Conference of The Methodist Church re-emphasized the position of Methodism in this field and called upon our people to redouble their efforts in the cause of temperance and sobriety.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

Laymen of the Western North Carolina Conference during the year 1951-1952 have participated heartily in promoting the objectives of our program of lay activities. In local churches and in districts laymen have looked increasingly to the Church for fellowship and renewal of spirit, and through the channels of the Church have devoted themselves to the Christian way of life and to the extension of the Kingdom in the lives and hearts of men everywhere.

Reports from the several districts reveal that stewardship has been given special attention during the course of the year. Not only through letters from district to charge lay leaders but, in some districts at least, study classes in stewardship have been conducted. In the Statesville district, for example, the action of the recent General Conference with reference to tithing was anticipated. In April the Statesville District Board of Lay Activities set itself the special task of educating the people in the facts and meaning of tithing. It has followed through the year a comprehensive plan of cultivation. In every district the lay organization has given wholehearted support to the Conference's financial program. Mission Specials, the United College Appeal, the Home for the Aged, The Children's Home, Lake Junaluska, the construction of new parsonages and churches are some of the causes which have received special consideration and support during the year.

Evangelism, including the support of the regular evangelistic services of local churches and the conducting of special visitation evangelism programs, has continued to be one of the primary interests of laymen. Those who have given themselves to the winning of converts to Christ have experienced a deepening of their own spiritual life. Although the number and percentage of church members have been substantially increased in recent years, the fields are still white unto harvest.

The organization of men's clubs, known as "Methodist Men," has proceeded with encouraging results. A number of new clubs have been organized and chartered. Some old clubs have obtained their charters. It is difficult to know exactly how many have been organized. A more accurate knowledge of the progress of the movement may be had when the legislation passed by the 1952 General Conference goes into effect, which requires that where there is a chartered "Methodist Men" in the local church the pastor shall include in his report to the Annual Conference information on the number of members of the chapter. This information is to appear in the Annual Conference Journal.

Lay speaking, including the filling of pulpits in the absence of the pastor, a systematic plan in some districts having as its goal at least one service in each local church each Sunday, and the observance of Laymen's Day, has enlisted many laymen in satisfying and fruitful service to the Church.

Efforts to increase the circulation of the "North Carolina Christian Advocate" and the "Methodist Layman," letters to the President of the United States and to members of Congress protesting the President's proposal to continue sending an ambassador to the Vatican, the sending of memorials to the San Francisco General Conference proposing a Crusade for a New World Order in 1953-1954, and the holding of zone meetings on Family Life, are some of the other lay activities which have borne fruit during the year. For example, a very large number of memorials to the General Conference were from the Western North Carolina Conference.

Our Conference was represented at the Jurisdictional Laymen's Conference at Lake Junaluska last summer by thirty men and women, who heard inspiring addresses, participated in seminars on vital aspects of the program of lay activities, and made reports back home to official boards and men's clubs. It is hoped that a larger number of our lay leaders may be in attendance upon this great gathering of laymen next summer.

The San Francisco General Conference made four great challenges to all Methodists for the coming quadrennium. They are: (1) that our spiritual life be deepened, (2) that our local churches be strengthened, (3) that missionary and educational enterprises of the Church be extended, and (4) that evangelism be the central effort in all our endeavor. We, therefore, call upon all laymen of the Western North Carolina Conference to support these great challenges with every resource available to them.

Your Board of Lay Activities makes the following specific suggestions and recommendations with reference to the year which is immediately ahead of us:

1. We urge that all laymen support with their prayers and their personal work the plans of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council in the field of evangelistic effort which has as its goal the ingathering of many souls next spring.

2. That we cooperate in every possible way in persuading the district stewards of every district and the official board of every charge to accept the necessary increased allotment for World Service; and to accomplish that desirable end urgently recommend that the District Lay Leader and the District Superintendent in every district call a special meeting of the Laymen of the district either before or on the same date of the meeting to be held by the District Stewards in order that full opportunity may be afforded to present to the Laymen of every district the necessity for the increased allotments for World Service.

3. That we heartily endorse and approve the campaign of the United College Appeal which is designed to raise $1,500,000.00 in our Conference for the Methodist colleges of our State which has been primarily conducted under the leadership of Dr. B. Joseph Martin. We desire to commend Dr. Martin for his zeal and success. We congratulate those districts which have completed or partially completed their work in this endeavor and have either attained or approached the quotas set for them. We urge those churches in those districts which have not as yet undertaken this program or completed it to do so at the earliest practical moment.

4. We commend the Editor and the staff of the "North Carolina Christian Advocate" for the high type periodical which it is publishing and the great service which it is rendering to our church in this state. We are gratified by the large increase in the number of subscribers to the "North Carolina Christian Advocate" and we strongly urge our Laymen to adopt as one their goals the putting of this paper into every Methodist home in North Carolina.

5. We are happy to notice the recent improvements at Lake Junaluska and we urge Methodist Laymen of this Conference whenever possible to attend the Laymen's conferences which are held at Lake Junaluska and to make other frequent use of the splendid facilities there available.

6. We urge that in every city or county of our Conference, city or county mission societies be organized in accordance with Sections 1218-1228 of the Methodist Discipline, and that these city and county mission societies assume the responsibility of surveying the field and organizing and establishing new churches where growing and shifting populations warrant such an undertaking and to reactivate old churches wherever possible to the end that Methodist people in every community within the boundaries of our Conference shall be afforded a church home in their own denomination.

7. We commend the practice of tithing to our people and we especially urge speakers at Laymen's Day service to emphasize the importance and the wisdom of the stewardship of money.

8. We call the attention of our people to the fact that there has been a change in the date for the annual Laymen's Day Service. The date for this year is October

19. Splendid material is available for use on this date which is published by the General Board of Lay Activities. We urge that every District Lay Leader, in cooperation with his District Superintendent and the ministers of his district, see to it that there is a Laymen's Day Service in every Methodist pulpit in our Conference on October 19, which service should be in charge of and under the direction of the Laymen of the Church and at which service a Lay speaker should speak to the people.

Respectfully submitted, this the 25th day of September, 1952.

L. L. GOBBEL, President

T. C. HOYLE, Secretary

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

The Western North Carolina Annual Conference owns and operates, through its delegated trustees, three outstanding healing and helping humanitarian agencies; the Methodist Home for the Aged, located at Charlotte, the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital, located at Elkin, and the Children's Home, located at Winston-Salem. These institutions function in such a way as to not only be a source of pride to our Methodist people, but a decided comfort and sustaining help to thousands of people in need. Pursuant to authority granted by the Discipline of The Methodist Church your Board of Hospitals and Homes recommends that the sustaining procedures for financing the Children's Home and the Methodist Home for the Aged be continued. It recommends that the month of April be designated for holding the annual Golden Cross Roll Call. It further recommends that funds thus received shall be spent for the hospitalization of the deserving needy and to purchase such equipment as may be necessary to best render charitable medical and nursing services.

THE METHODIST HOME FOR THE AGED

In the course of four years the Methodist Home for the Aged of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference has grown to be among the seven largest Methodist Homes in the nation. In the quality of its program and service it also occupies a unique position of leadership.

The Home now offers a well-balanced variety of accommodations. Its members may enjoy the privacy of their own cottage or apartment, or they may have a private room in one of the main buildings. When the frailties of the later years overtake them they have medical and nursing care of the highest order.

The Home has been especially blessed by the presence of a number of ministers in the Home family. Of the 14 ministers memorialized by this session of our Annual Conference, two closed their earthly ministry at the Home of our Conference.

The completion of the South Wing and the George Washington Ivey Memorial Chapel will round out the first group of buildings projected by our Conference. There is mounting pressure from potential donors for the construction of an additional apartment project, and additional cottages. The Board of Managers also contemplates the development of a colony of homes for ministers and other retired persons on the home grounds.

Contributions to the Home during the past year totaled $131,237.74. It is estimated that $300,000 will be needed for the completion of projects which are now under way. At the end of four years of operation the Home has assets totaling $1,216,099.00.

In order to continue the development of the Home and to render the charitable service which is so essential to a Christian institution, your Board requests that an offering for the Home be taken in every church in our conference Mother's Day 1953.

Following his election by the Board of Managers, we respectfully request the presiding Bishop and his Cabinet to appoint Rev. B. Reid Wall as Superintendent and Minister of the Methodist Home for the Aged.

The following persons have been nominated for membership on the Board of Managers of the Methodist Home for the Aged and are herewith submitted for confirmation by the Western North Carolina Conference:

Term to expire in 1953: Mrs. George H. Terry.

Terms to expire in 1955: Sam T. Atkinson, Sr., E. H. Blackard, W. R. Cuthbertson, W. J. Edwards, R. E. Evans, Mrs. W. C. Hammer, J. R. Harris, W. C. Houston, Fletcher Howard, W. B. Kiker, L. A. Love, H. I. McDougale, Dennis Myers, Walter J. Miller, Edgar H. Nease, Frank C. Smith, R. Dwight Ware and B. S. Womble.

HUGH CHATHAM MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

The Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital is one of seventy-one Methodist hospitals operating in twenty-eight states of our Union. These hospitals have done their part through expert use of drugs and highly developed technique of diagnosis and treatment to decrease the average stay of hospital patients during the past fifteen years from thirteen to eight days. A baby born today can expect to live nine years longer than one born in 1939.

Every day miracles of medicine take place in your hospital. Mending broken bodies and restoring health bring peace to disturbed minds. In thus ministering to the health needs of many people in many ways your Methodist hospital follows in the footsteps of our Lord in unstopping the ears of the deaf, the opening of the eyes of the blind and making the lame to walk.

Last year 3,679 patients were admitted into the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital and 7,295 out-patients were treated, making a total of 10,974. One thousand three hundred and thirty operations were performed. Seven hundred and sixty babies were born in the hospital. One hundred and sixty-nine patients received aid from Golden Cross funds, 120 of which were treated in the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital and 49 in other hospitals.

Work begun last February on the two children's wards, new additions to the hospital, one for white and one for colored children, is well along the way towards completion. These wards will provide for sixteen additional beds. Three ice making machines have been bought, which are expected to reduce the hospital's ice bill by $1,000 per year. The management is grateful to those friends who have made possible the widening and hard-surfacing of the entrance to the hospital.

Ours is a general hospital, seeking to do all the work that a first-class, well-equipped hospital is called upon to do. With the addition of a good radiologist, it becomes necessary that new X-ray equipment be secured.

Julius L. Hall, Elkin, North Carolina, has been elected treasurer of the Golden Cross funds for the ensuing year.

Since the Board of Hospitals and Homes has elected Dr. Joseph S. Hiatt as Conference Director of the Golden Cross and since the Board of Trustees of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital has elected him as Superintendent and Minister of said hospital, we respectfully request the Bishop and his Cabinet to appoint him as Conference Director of the Golden Cross and Superintendent and Minister of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital.

The following have been nominated for confirmation by the Western North Carolina Annual Conference to membership on the Board of Trustees of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital:

Term to expire 1954: E. Fuller Sams.

Terms to expire 1955: J. W. L. Benson, Dr. R. B. Harrill, Mrs. Ralph Hanes, Dr. Joseph S. Hiatt.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME

The Children's Home continues to operate to its fullest capacity in providing a good home for boys and girls whose former homes have been disrupted. The total enrollment during the last reporting year was 475 boys and girls, with 150,587 days of charity care recorded. During the year sixty-three new children were admitted and sixty were discharged into either re-established homes, self-sustaining situations or for further training in schools of nursing or college. The average daily enrollment was 412.5.

The daily per capita cost for this reporting year amounted to $1.9526, or $702.84 per year per child. This cost outlay was less than that of any other similar North Carolina child caring institution: Maintenance expenditures for the year amounted to $289,967.00.

Total receipts from our Methodist constituency, including apportionment payments, fifth Sunday offerings and clothing specials, amounted to $247,671.00. Sufficient funds were received during the year from endowment income and special contributions to not only meet the maintenance expense deficit but to provide for some capital outlay expenditures for the renovation of the plant and the construction of buildings whose bequeathed funds were not sufficient to meet the needs involved.

It will be remembered that when the Children's Home was begun forty-three years ago the construction of buildings did not provide for fire-proof safety nor for facilities of convenience now regarded as necessary in rating child caring institutions as satisfactory and safe. The transference of out-moded and unaccommodating facilities for safeguarding the health of our children is requiring quite a bit of financial outlay.

The total value of The Children's Home, including permanent funds, based on pre-inflation figures, is listed by our auditors at $2,884,545.78. The Children's Home is free from debt.

THE NORTH CAROLINA PASTOR'S SCHOOL

The Pastors' School for 1952 was held at Duke University as part of the Christian Convocation June 3-6. Agencies participating in the Convocation are The Divinity School of Duke University, The Board of Ministerial Training of the Methodist Church, The North Carolina Rural Church Institute, and The Board of Managers of the North Carolina Pastors' School.

Attendance at the 1952 Convocation again showed a gratifying increase in registered attendance over the previous year, a total of 413.

Regular instructors were Dr. E. D. C. Brewer, The Work of the Rural Church; Dr. A. J. Walton, Parish Evangelism; Dr. W. D. Davies, The Theology of Paul; and Mrs. W. R. Reed, The Vacation Church School. Special lecturers were Bishop Paul N. Garber, Methodist Missions in Totalitarian Countries; Bishop Costen J. Harrell, Worship; Mrs. E. L. Hillman, The Work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service; Mr. E. L. Tullis, The Church Extension Program of the Church. Morning Devotional services were held in York Chapel of the Divinity School by Dr. H. E. Spence, Dr. W. A. Kale, and Dr. Howard P. Powell.

By a change of plan on the part of the Convocation Management, the James A. Gray Lectures were separated from the evening Services of Worship. The James A. Gray Lecturer, Dr. Listen Pope, Dean of the Divinity School of Yale University, delivered four lectures in Page Auditorium each morning of the Convocation on the subject "The Ministry to the Community." The Convocation Preacher on the John Douglas Pitts Fund was Dr. J. S. Whale of England, Visiting Professor of Systematic Theology at Drew Theological Seminary who delivered three evening sermons in the University chapel.

Dr. Hersey E. Spence retired as Dean of the Pastors' School, coincident with his retirement from the faculty of Duke University. By request, Dr. Spence's address at one of the morning devotional periods, was published in the North Carolina Christian Advocate. The Board of Managers adopted resolutions of appreciation of Dr. Spence's years of efficient service as Dean of the Pastors' School. Dr. William Arthur Kale, newly appointed Professor of Practical Theology in the Divinity School of Duke University, was elected to succeed Dr. Spence.

The Convocation Management has announced that the James A. Gray Lecturer for 1953 will be Dr. Charles W. Gilkey and that the Convocation Preacher will be Bishop Fred Pierce Corson. It is also announced that the Gray Lectures of 1950, delivered by Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, will be published during the spring of 1953 as will Dean Pope's 1952 lectures.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

The work of this Commission is crystalizing into a definite service program that will more and more enhance the influence of Christ and His Church on young people who should consider Christian vocations for their careers.

A philosophy of what constitutes a call is being clarified. Bishop Francis J. McConnell said, "Where the world's needs and your talents meet, there is a call." This is a broad definition, but in a more specific way God persistently lets his call be known by an inner, growing conviction that is felt by those whom he summons into specialized full-time Christian work.

It is our purpose to create a central file of candidates and to carry out a carefully planned program of counseling and guidance for them. This will help to alleviate the loss of those who otherwise may drift into secular work. Pastors themselves must be alert to counsel their own young people who should enter full time Christian vocations. Each District Superintendent will be requested to help secure the names and addresses of candidates. We also hope to set up a committee in each district to whom these persons may turn for guidance and help.

We recommend that Pentecost Sunday, May 17, 1953, be designated as Life Service Sunday and that on this day, or as near thereto as possible, our pastors issue a challenge to youth of their congregations to give serious consideration to the call to full time Christian service.

We recommend that vocational guidance courses be included in our youth assemblies and larger training schools, and that films, literature and such guidance materials be made available to our youth.

We urge district directors of youth to give this matter careful attention and major emphasis in their contacts with youth. We believe that district vocational guidance sessions in anticipation of, and supplementary to the Conference-wide retreat on the call to preach will be of great value.

That the local churches and pastors are in position to challenge and guide youth in this important matter is certain. We therefore believe that the major responsibility for the recruitment of volunteers rests most heavily upon those in the local church situations. These are the people whom we challenge to be alert for Christ in this important work. We believe our pastors should cooperate closely with counselors in our high schools that young people may be led to choose vocations in which they can express Christian convictions.

We commend our church institutions of higher learning, our Board of Education and our Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications for the invaluable service rendered the Church in giving guidance and encouragement to candidates for these Christian positions. In this connection we wish to encourage our laymen to direct to our Methodist schools liberal gifts to be used as scholarships for ministerial candidates.

Respectfully submitted,

BIBLE BOARD REPORT

The members of the Bible Board feel that there are three reasons for the existence of a Bible Board in our Conference. Firstly, we are to witness faithfully to the unique place of the Bible in Methodist history and doctrine. Secondly, we are to encourage, in every possible way the intelligent and earnest use of the Bible in the local Church, community life, and personal devotions. Thirdly, we are to cooperate with the American Bible Society, the Conference and General Boards of Education and other accepted agencies in the distribution and study of God's word.

After prayerful consideration, we respectfully submit the following recommendations for your approval and action.

1. We recommend the wide circulation of the Revised Standard edition of the Bible among our people; and that each pastor and Church School teacher endeavor to explain clearly the merits of the newer translations and the necessity for the continual revision of the Scriptures in the light of advancing scholarship.

In connection with our hearty endorsement of the newly completed Revised Standard Version of the Bible, we wish to point out this important fact. English-speaking Protestantism today stands in a position very similar to that of Protestant England in 1611. At that time the King James Version of the Holy Scripture had just been released after the best biblical scholars of the day had put forth exhaustive efforts. And now again the finest scholarship of our days has been mobilized to produce a version of the Bible which will serve this and subsequent generations even as the King James has. No doubt in 1611 there were many people who looked with askance at this innovation. Some may have even considered the new translation a profaning of the Sacred Word. However, in the end the King James Version gained universal acceptance throughout English Protestantism.

With no prejudice against the time honored King James Version, the value of which is beyond question, and the use of which we hope will continue, we yet urge our people to accept the Revised Standard Version for what it is—the fruits of the finest scholarship and the most exhaustive biblical research ever undertaken. We earnestly recommend full cooperation with our Publishing House in promoting the sale of this new version throughout our churches.

2. We recommend that Universal Bible Sunday be observed the second Sunday in December in every local church; and that stress be placed upon the Daily Bible Reading program during the period from Thanksgiving through Christmas as outlined by the American Bible Society; and that equal emphasis be placed on the use of the daily readings in the Church School literature and the Upper Room.

3. We urge our ministers and laymen to make a special study of the Gospels pertaining to the Passion, Crucifixion, and Resurrection of Christ from Ash Wednesday through Easter Sunday.

4. We suggest the observance of Christian Education Week in each local Church and that the Bible be given a large place in the program.

5. We urge that a course on Bible history, doctrine or study be included in every Standard Training School curriculum.

6. We recommend that the members of our churches be urged to bring their Bibles to Church Services and Church School, wherever Bibles are not supplied by the church.

7. We commend the American Bible Society for a constructive program, and we suggest continued cooperation between this Conference and the Society in all matters which would stimulate Bible study and distribution.

8. Inasmuch as there has been considerable misunderstanding in the minds of some about the printing of passages from the more recent translations in our Church School Literature, we therefore recommend that this conference go on record as requesting the Board of Publications to print the King James translation alongside the newer translations in our regular Church School Quarterly publications.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

In the early days of the Church, Christianity was spread mainly by the word of mouth of its disciples. Hearts were so filled with the good news that the Christians could not remain silent. Men went out in every direction to testify of the Gospel of the grace of God. This is the method which is now being used so effectively in every area of the church.

The Methodist Church along with others is striving to recapture and use a method which has proved to be sane, spiritual, and productive. Again men are going out to bear witness to an experience which has come to them and which they wish to share with others. Reports indicate that we are becoming aroused; we are coming alive to the need of following Christ as he leads us to seek the unsaved and the unchurched.

The Western North Carolina Conference in the last few years has been working more diligently to reach people for Christ and the church. But in the coming year we expect to see the greatest effort yet put forth in our Conference in the field of Evangelism. The program of Evangelism now being introduced by the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council and the General Board of Evangelism will involve more people than any campaign of the kind ever put on by the Methodist Church.

We have the leadership and the know how. But to these must be added the grace of God. We are challenged to furnish the channels through which the grace of God is to flow out to the least and to the last person in the Conference.

In order that we may cooperate fully in the Southeastern Jurisdictional Evangelistic Mission in 1952-53, We recommend the following plan:

That the inter-area reciprocal exchange of pastors be used. This plan involves the division of the Mission into three time phases.

1. The first time phase will be used for leadership training in the Louisville Area, October 24-November 2, 1952; November 14-23, 1952.

2. The second time phase will be April 17-23, 1953. The pastors of the Western North Carolina Conference will be guest pastors in the Virginia Conference.

3. The third time phase will be May 15-24, 1953. The pastors of the Virginia Conference will be guest pastors of the Western North Carolina Conference.

4. Two hundred simultaneous district and sub-district Mass Meetings, Pentecost Aldersgate Sunday, May 24, 1953.

That there shall be simultaneous preaching and visitation evangelism in every church of every charge in the conference, Sunday to Sunday.

That every pastor be both a host and guest pastor.

That the following financial plan be adopted: (The Mission shall be financed on an area basis. All offerings except the Friday night offering shall be sent to the Area Treasurer as directed).

1. The loose offering on each week night in each church where services are conducted Monday through Thursday.

2. The loose offering on the First Sunday morning and evening.

3. Special envelopes should be used for presentation of special gifts toward support of the Mission at the last Sunday morning service in each church.

4. Offerings from the Youth Rallies.

5. Offerings from District Mass Meetings.

6. The Monday night offering will go to the General Board of Evangelism through the Area Treasurer.

7. The Friday night offering will go to the local church.

That every charge be urged to make the necessary preparation as outlined in the Southeastern Jurisdiction Evangelistic Handbook.

1. Spiritual preparation, using the Call to Prayer, October 5.

2. Make a Community Survey.

3. Secure prospects equal to one-third of the membership of the church.

4. Select, commission, and train evangelistic visitors.

5. Promote and publicize services.

That every host and guest pastor attend the periods of power district meetings. To implement this Program of Evangelism, we recommend that four Evangelistic Rallies be held in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1953:

Asheville, February 17; North Wilkesboro, February 18; High Point, February 19; Charlotte, February 20.

We recommend that the following ministers be re-appointed approved evangelists: John R. Church and Roy T. Houts.

We recommend that W. A. Rollins be appointed Conference Secretary of Evangelism.

Adopted: Evening Session
Sept. 25, 1952.

COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE

During the past year, your Committee has undertaken several projects.

1. Your committee met four times during the year.
2. Four mailings have been sent to all pastors and chairmen of Local Church Committees on World Peace whose names and addresses were available to us.
3. Working cooperatively with the North Carolina Conference and the North Carolina Conference, Central Jurisdiction, we held ten 1-day Peace Seminars in various parts of North Carolina.
4. Also in cooperation with the other two North Carolina Conferences, we joined with the Detroit Conference in a United Nations Seminar at UN Headquarters. Twenty delegates from North Carolina attended this 4-day meeting, largely at their own expense.
5. At the Junaluska Assembly, we conducted our fourth annual peace emphasis program. Dr. Charles F. Boss, Jr., Executive Secretary of the Board of World Peace spoke Sunday Morning, June 29th to one of the largest congregations of the year. In the afternoon he conducted a Peace Seminar lasting about 2½ hours. Among those attending the seminar were persons from North Carolina and three neighboring states.
6. A year ago this Conference adopted the Memorial for a Crusade for World Order which had previously been adopted by more than 160 organized groups within the Conference. In order to help bring about the adoption of this Crusade by the General Conference your committee sent two representatives to San Francisco.

NOTE: The expenses of these representatives to San Francisco, as well as most of the other expenses of your Committee have been privately contributed by members of the Committee.

7. We actively followed up in our Jurisdictional Conference the Crusade for World Order adopted by the General Conference. Attached, and constituting a part of this report is a copy of the endorsement adopted by the Jurisdictional Conference at Roanoke on June 29, 1952.

II

CRUSADE FOR WORLD ORDER

The General Conference in San Francisco requested the Bishops to conduct a Crusade for World Order in 1953-54, looking toward Charter revision of the United Nations. More memorials had been received by the General Conference on this subject than on any other subject, and out of the large number of memorials from the various Annual Conferences, there were more memorials on this subject from the Western North Carolina Conference than from any other.

In 1945, our Bishops led in the Crusade for a New World Order, geared into adoption of the program for the United Nations. That did all of us a lot of good and materially contributed to the formation of the United Nations. Since then, we have had seven years experience and by 1955, we will have had ten years experience in developing the United Nations. In 1955 there is upon the agenda of the General Assembly of the United Nations the consideration of the calling of a Charter Revision Conference. This Charter Revision Conference will not happen automatically. It has to be called for. But it will not be called for unless two-thirds of the General Assembly and 7 members of the Security Council call it. Then nothing can stop it. It is not subject to VETO.

The General Conference has authorized a Churchwide Crusade in 1953-54 to study what revisions ought to be made in the United Nations Charter and to support leadership by our country in securing such revisions as would make the United Nations a more effective instrument for peace. The General Conference called upon the Bishops to lead this Crusade. Methodists of the Western North Carolina Conference pledge their support to the Bishops in this Crusade and urge that adult and youth activities throughout the Conference devote discussion and study in the coming months both to what revisions would improve the United Nations and to what our Church can do to make more effective its desire to see spiritual freedom and law and order established in the world.

We concur in the action of our Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in its message of June 27, 1952, to the Council of Bishops relative to the Crusade for World Order, and by reference we incorporate into this report each of the recommendations of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference to the Bishops as the recommendations of this Conference also. A copy of the action of June 27, 1952 of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference is attached to this report.

RESOLUTION ON THE CRUSADE FOR WORLD ORDER adopted by the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference at Roanoke, Va., June 27, 1952.

We rejoice over the General Conference decision for a "Crusade for World Order" in 1953-54, involving charter revision of the United Nations

God is a God of law and order, as well as of love. Law and order are opposed to war and chaos. It is incumbent upon us as Methodists to support and work vigorously for law and order in this world of man that we may have peace, harmony, world brotherhood in REALITY rather than just in wishful thinking.

Accordingly, we respectfully commend to the Council of Bishops, entrusted by the General Conference with the privilege and the responsibility of planning and directing this Crusade for World Order:

(1) That this Crusade be properly recognized as a major project of the Methodist Church during this present quadrennium in accordance with the desires of the General Conference so clearly reflected by its unanimous action on this subject in San Francisco;

(2) That we regard as essential the strengthening of the United Nations. And, in full concurrence with the statement on War and Peace adopted by the General Conference, we call "... for the revision of the United Nations charter in such manner as to enable that body to enact, interpret, and enforce world law against aggression and war."

(3) That we are jealous of the sovereignty of this great Christian nation of ours, but we likewise recognize that in a world where there is no international law and order, only international criminals, those seeking conquest and war, possess sovereignty.

(4) That this Crusade for World Order designated for 1953-54, the year just prior to automatic consideration of charter revision by the United Nations, be planned and established as one of ACTION;

(5) That every worthy instrument, mass meetings, church programs and public education, be employed by the Church to acquaint our people with the need of world unity through the United Nations, against international lawlessness, aggression, and war;

(6) That every effective, practical means be utilized by our people in insisting that the Congress of this United States, through proper legislation, assume leadership in this vital charter revision activity by the United Nations to insure a limited world federation dedicated to and powerful enough to enforce world peace.

We believe that the Church must be dynamic and forceful in opposition to war. We believe that the Church cannot longer remain inactive in the face of the constant threat of war. We see in a dynamic, forceful Crusade for World Order the answer to any suspicion of lethargy, indifference, or inaction.

III

UNIVERSAL DISARMAMENT

We declare our strong belief in the possibility of a world in which all nations are so keenly aware of their dependence upon each other and of their binding responsibilities for the highest welfare of all mankind, that universal peace is the blessed fruit of their dealings with one another. Such a condition as this though, surely cannot come to pass with nations continuously competing for supremacy in a maddened race of armaments. Armed to the teeth, nations are a constant menace to world peace. Military tyranny can never produce human understanding and confidence. It only incites nations to become more thoroughly armed and more fiercely tyrannical. It is our conviction that the strongest defense of all the people of the earth is to be found in the development of the faith of the people of every nation in the dignity and worth of the people of all other nations. Hence, we concur heartily in the following statement from the Episcopal address to the 1952 General Conference in San Francisco:

"We must keep disarmament before the nations as they seek an alternative to war. The theory upon which the Western allies and their communist antagonists are operating is that their only security lies in amassing such a weight of armaments that nobody will dare challenge them. This theory has repeatedly been tested in history. It has never yet brought peace."

And it is never likely to bring peace in the future. As one nation arms in a fanatical manner, other nations resort to similar behavior, and each is a threat to the other always. As an antidote for such stupid folly we urge that we and all nations seek to bring all nations into a world fraternity of nations born of mutual sympathy and understanding and international cooperation.

The ultimate success of this Crusade for World Order and all other peace activities of The Methodist Church depends on the cooperation and active participation of the local churches. For this reason, your Committee again strongly urges that each local church set up an active Peace Committee and that the name and address of the chairman be filed with Committee on World Peace, O. K. Merritt, P. O. Box 310, Mount Airy, North Carolina.

We all pray for peace, now let us organize and really work for peace also.

Respectfully submitted,

Conference Committee on World Peace

O. K. MERRITT, Secretary

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

Section No. 1

The Commission on Town and Country Work makes the following report:

During the quadrennium the Commission has endeavored to take a constructive approach toward its task as outlined in the Discipline, paragraph 1232, namely, that of serving in an advisory capacity to the conference and its various agencies, conducting surveys and research of rural conditions, promoting cooperation between church and other agencies, and working to create a definite status for the town and country church and pastor.

The Commission is indebted to the various agencies within the annual conference for the fine spirit of cooperation and fellowship enjoyed these four years.

1. During the year the Commission cooperated with the Methodist Rural Fellowship in promoting a Rural Life Retreat. We recommend the continued support of the Methodist Rural Fellowship and urge ministers and laymen to subscribe to the Methodist Rural Fellowship Bulletin.

2. Seminars on the Work of the Town and Country Church were held at High Point and Greensboro Colleges. We recommend a continuation of the promotion of interest in this field of service among the young people of our conference.

3. A survey of Swain County was made in cooperation with the District Superintendent and local ministers. We recommend continued assistance in this field, using resources available through Duke Divinity School and Candler School of Theology.

4. Two students from Duke Divinity School, Fred Hill and Charles Owens, worked under the direction of the Commission, conducting youth programs in town and country churches. We recommend a continuation of this program.

5. We recommend that our rural churches use special opportunities for worship at seed time and harvest and that Rural Life Sunday, the fifth Sunday after Easter, be observed by an exchange of pulpits between urban and rural pastors with appropriate services throughout the conference.

6. We recommend that our colleges and smaller churches in their immediate areas make definite effort to cooperate in extending the services of the colleges through deputations of teachers and students, and otherwise.

7. We recommend that the conference continue its interest in and support of the North Carolina Rural Church Institute, Inc., which sponsors the Rural Church Program at Farm and Home Week at State College, the rural church exhibit at the State Fair, and other interdenominational rural church work in cooperation with the North Carolina Council of Churches, and that $100.00 be contributed to its support from funds of the Commission.

8. We commend the Board of Education for its effective leadership training program which has been carried on in our conference. We would like to point out the need for one teacher, non-credit schools or institutes in our small town and country churches. Pastors and other persons should become qualified to teach in these.

9. We commend the Woman's Society of Christian Service for its work and interest in the rural field by providing workers and scholarships to students who are preparing themselves for Christian service in rural areas.

10. The Commission provided $400.00 for scholarships to the Town and Country School at Candler School of Theology. We recommend that this support be continued.

11. We commend the Board of Missions and Church Extension and its executive secretary for the fine work among the smaller churches of the conference, and we pledge our support to the executive secretary in this field of service.

12. We call attention to the fact that the state of North Carolina requires that any public building costing over $20,000.00 must be designed by an architect licensed in this state. We recommend that all churches planning to build or remodel consult with the Board of Church Extension of Louisville, Ky., the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension and the Conference Board of Education. The first pencil sketches of proposed buildings should be discussed with these agencies before final plans are drawn.

13. We recommend that the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions and Church Extension serve as the administrative agency for the Minimum Salary Fund, that all ministers who participate in the schedule below serve full time, that students or part time ministers participate on an adjusted basis according to need and amount of service rendered, and that the schedule be as follows: $2,850.00 for effective conference members, including members on trial; $2,400.00 for approved supplies; and $2,200.00 for supplies, and retired supplies; provided that where a pastoral charge provides an expense allowance for the pastor, the said expense allowance or other monetary compensation shall be counted among the resources making the total minimum. Contributions from the General Board of Missions, District and City Boards of Missions and special contributions shall not be limited by this provision.

14. We recommend that this Commission and the Commission on World Service and Finance cooperate in a study on ministerial support, including the matter of differentials for varying circumstances such as dependents and years of service and the matter of cultivation of a more adequate support for the minister by the pastoral charge.

15. We recommend that Wilson Nesbitt be appointed as part time Executive Secretary of Town and Country Work.

Section No. 2

Responding to the request of the Commission on World Service and Finance, August 5, 1952, that the Commission on Town and Country Work make a study to determine what should be the minimum bases on which to constitute pastoral charges, the following is submitted; not for adoption as a policy of the annual conference, but to be printed in the minutes for publicity of the ideas.

This presentation is in the nature of a progress report and is very tentative. It is recommended that the study be continued until sufficient research can be done to get more definite information.

These facts are to be considered in constituting pastoral charges:

1. Every pastoral charge, in as far as possible, should be self supporting, carrying a full benevolent and service program.

2. There were 506 pastoral charges reported in the conference in 1951. Of these 147 are assisted by the Minimum Salary Fund. Statistics on the cost of living reveal that the minimum salary schedule has not kept pace with the increase in cost of living. With few exceptions men receiving minimum salary support must pay travel expense out of their salaries to serve their charges. In spite of the fact that parsonages are provided, the schedule of net support is less than that of comparable professional workers in other fields.

3. Each year there is an increased demand on the Minimum Salary Fund because of the creation of new charges that do not pay the pastor as much as the minimum schedule.

4. Most newly created pastoral charges make requests to the Board of Missions and Church Extension for aid.

5. The Annual Conference has a shortage of what are usually considered trained and effective ministers. One out of every five pastoral charges is served by a supply.

6. There are many newly developed residential areas in our conference in which it is imperative that new churches be established. Several men capable of developing new congregations should be placed in these areas at once.

7. Rather than divide charges into weak stations and circuits with minimum or near minimum salaries, "strong" charges should be developed with salaries from $3,600 to $5,000 and with as few churches as practicable. This should be the goal toward which all ministers, district superintendents, and pastoral charges should strive rather than small, weak circuits and stations, plagued by the disease of "stationitis," which sets up such an unhealthy, unhappy, and difficult condition in competing for ministers that are not available. Often the addition of staff members, such as directors of religious education, rural workers, youth leaders, secretaries, and assistants, is a better solution than the division of a charge. This is comparable to the way in which urban churches take care of increased need for service.

It should be noted at this point that outstanding progress has been made in areas where the churches and charges work together as a cooperative unit, linked together by a county or subdistrict organization. Our connectional system has been a source of strength for Methodism. It must become our strength on the local levels, first of the churches on a given circuit, and then of the charges in a given area.

8. Special attention should be given to serving those areas where there is either a decline or shift in population in order that Methodism may not retreat from any area, nor fail to serve any group that rightfully falls within her responsibility.

9. Agencies charged with the responsibility for administering funds for ministerial support should be privileged to review proposed changes in pastoral charges before they are made, if proposed pastoral charges will be asking for assistance from support funds. Periodical check up should be made of sub-minimum charges by such administrative agencies to ascertain whether or not they are reaching their potential efficiency. A strategy for working with such charges that fail chronically should be developed.

10. Before setting up any pastoral charge a full survey of the situation should be made under competent leadership. A survey means more than a visit from house to house; it includes taking into consideration the population, economic, social, educational, and other trends and possibilities.

I. PRINCIPLES FOR CONSTITUTING PASTORAL CHARGES BY DIVISION OR RE-ARRANGEMENT OF EXISTING WORK

1. The proposed pastoral charge should pay a salary comparable to the minimum salary schedule or above.

2. The proposed pastoral charge should have a pastoral load approximating the conference average.

3. The proposed pastoral charge should be able to provide an adequate parsonage according to the standards adopted by the Annual Conference. See Journal, 1950, page 147, THE PARSONAGE HOME.

4. The proposed pastoral charge should be able to carry on an adequate church program of service and benevolence and to provide a pastor with needed materials and equipment.

5. No division should be made if it will "orphan" the weaker churches.

6. Unless impossible to arrange otherwise, circuit boundaries should conform within community boundaries as indicated by school district lines, trade areas, geographical boundaries, etc.

II. PRINCIPLES FOR CONSTITUTING NEW CONGREGATIONS

Sufficient information has not been gathered to warrant a statement concerning this all important and challenging field of service.

REPORT OF THE SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT FUND

The Superannuate Endowment Fund of the Western North Carolina Conference is a special incorporated fund of the Conference and its net income is directed entirely to the use of the superannuate preachers and conference claimants. We think of this as a sacred fund, and one which should be materially increased in the very near future. By good investments we receive a splendid return on our investments, but the purchasing power of this income has been cut in half during the past few years.

It is our hope, therefore, that this session of the Western North Carolina Conference will authorize a person to person solicitation with the enthusiastic support of all of our ministers and laymen in order to secure enough money at least to double our invested funds. It should not be necessary to put on a general conference-wide campaign to secure such results. We all know how important this fund is, and we also know how important it is to increase the amount that goes from the income of this endowment to our superannuate preachers and conference claimants. There may be churches who will be glad to put into their annual budget a definite amount for the superannuate endowment fund. Why not discuss this with your finance committees and Boards of Stewards and lead the way in such an endeavor?

Our fiscal agent reports that all the funds are well invested, and that our income continues at a satisfactory rate. The treasurer's report is appended hereto.

Our check given today to the Board of Conference Claimants is for $15,833.17, the largest amount yet paid in any one year by the Superannuate Endowment Fund. Last year the check was for $14,826.70 and in 1950 for $11,545.54. It is a source of real gratification to be able to report that since this fund was started in a small way in 1925, it has paid over $250,000.00 to the Board of Conference Claimants, or an amount exceeding its present entire capital funds. Such great laymen as James A. Bell, J. A. Jones, J. B. Ivey, A. J. Hagood, W. W. Hagood, Julian Little, and others have made that possible.

We nominate for re-election as Trustees the following: J. C. Cowan, Jr.; W. F. Womble; George D. Finch; and N. M. Harrison for a term of four years or until the Conference session of 1956.

Inter-Conference Commission Report of the Student Religious Work (Wesley Foundation) of the Western North Carolina and North Carolina Conferences

The Commission is glad to report well-established Foundations at Duke University, and at the three units of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, and State College at Raleigh. All are operating with trained and competent directors and have the hearty support of Methodist students in each case. R. Harold Hipps has served as State Director, on a volunteer basis, with small honorarium and provision for travel, postage, etc. Help has also been given, as may be found from the report of the Treasurer of the Commission, at Appalachian State Teacher's College, Boone; East Carolina College, Greenville; Davidson College, Davidson, W.C.T.C., Cullowhee; and Catawba College, Salisbury.

We believe no enterprise of the Conference is more significant or important than this contact which the church makes with college and university students, or will pay larger dividends, in proportion to investment, in terms of church loyalty among future leaders of church and community life.

The Commission has held its annual meeting. Prior to that meeting, held in May, six or eight meetings of a sub-committee were held, at Greensboro, Chapel Hill, Durham, and Raleigh, to make, so far as possible, a comprehensive survey of the needs at the various Foundations. Survey Questionnaires were sent to these and other institutions. After long study the sub-committee reported certain recommendations to the annual meeting of the Commission, which after further study, have become a part of the requests presented to the Annual Conference through the Commission on World Service and Finance.

These recommendations embody requests for substantial and yet modest increases in appropriations for annual operation, including small additions to salaries of directors. Furthermore, we have requested an appropriation of $10,000 each year of the quadrennium for erection of Foundation facilities at Duke; at Woman's College in connection with buildings projected at College Place Church; and at State College in similar manner with Fairmont Church, making a total of $30,000.00 per year for the next four years to be divided on a 60-40 basis between the Western N. C. and N. C. Conferences. In each case the constituency of the institution concerned is requested to raise an additional $60,000 during the quadrennium, thus providing for each Foundation facilities costing approximately $100,000.

The Commission believes that conditions, needs, and opportunities fully warrant these requests and these plans for the immediate and longer-term service of our young men and women, and through them of the church and the state and society in general.

It should be said here that all members of the Commission appreciate the support of the conferences up to this time and confidently hope for larger support, and for increased effectiveness of the work with which our several Foundations are charged.

Respectfully submitted,

THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION

The Fiscal year ending August 31, 1952, has been gratifying in many respects. During the year the circulation of the "North Carolina Christian Advocate" has increased 7,000 subscriptions despite an increase in subscription rates. For the year our circulation has had a weekly average of 21,566 copies and stands now at 23,700 copies weekly. This represents a gain of 33% over last year. Advocate income also jumped from $32,770 in 1951 to $49,669, representing a 50% increase. Total costs of the Advocate amounted to $53,777.92, leaving a deficit of $4,108, compared with last year's deficit of $12,262. Income on Endowment funds this year brought the deficit down to $1,620, perhaps the smallest in years.

Our Job Department grossed $80,965, for an increase of 17% over the previous year. Total income for the year amounted to $130,639.85.

Constantly rising overhead costs and depreciation, however, continue to make our operations difficult and precarious. For example, depreciation has jumped from $1,880 in 1949 to $5,495 in 1952, an increase of $3,615. Costs of paper and wages continue to rise. Even so, with increased circulation we have been able to reduce our per subscription cost from $2.72 in 1951 to $2.50 in 1952, a difference of twenty-two cents or .8%. Our net profit from the year's operations amounted to $7,730.92. There is no indebtedness except on the home for the editor, which now amounts to $3,218.50.

During the year valuable additions were made to our equipment. A new mailing system was installed, making far greater efficiency and economy. A new Miehle vertical job press was purchased at a cost of $6,950.

The promotion of the Advocate remains our number one task. Around 25% of our Methodist families now receive the Advocate. Our primary aim is to increase this percentage until every active Methodist family in our two Conferences has access to our church paper.

At the last session of the North Carolina Annual Conference a special committee was appointed to study the feasibility of sending the Advocate to every family on a conference sponsored basis. During the year the Rocky Mount District, upon recommendation of the committee, undertook, as an experiment, to place the Advocate in every Methodist home in the District at a trial subscription rate of $1.50 per family per year to churches that succeeded in placing the Advocate in every home. This project was eminently successful. This District as of September 1, had 4,340 subscribers. Recently pastors and laymen voted enthusiastically to continue the plan and to recommend it strongly to other Districts of the Conference.

The Methodist Board of Publication, therefore, recommends that two additional Districts in the North Carolina Conference and that two Districts in the Western North Carolina Conference set as a goal the placing of the Advocate in every Methodist home in the District during the Conference year 1952-53 at $1.50 per family to churches in the District that reach this goal. It further recommends that other subscription rates be continued as follows: $2.50 for single subscriptions per annum; $6.00 for single subscriptions for three years; $2.00 to pastors; $2.25 per subscription to churches reaching a quota of seven subscribers for every 100 members; $1.75 per subscription for every family in the church. The Advocate is sent free to retired ministers and widows of ministers in our two Conferences.

The Board further recommends that January and February be designated as North Carolina Christian Advocate months and that every church in both conferences use these months or some other appropriate time to engage in a campaign for renewals and new subscriptions.

The terms of C. E. Jordan of the North Carolina Conference and Wilson O. Weldon of the Western North Carolina Conference expire at Conference this year. The Board at its annual meeting nominated Dr. Jordan and Dr. Weldon to succeed themselves for a term of five years and requests their re-election by their respective Conference. It also nominated Lawrence W. Routh, Greensboro layman, to succeed N. L. Eure, deceased, and requests his election by the Western North Carolina Conference.

The following officers were elected: A. J. Hobbs, president; W. B. Hall, vice-president; T. C. Hoyle, Sr., secretary; C. E. Jordan and Wilson O. Weldon, additional members of executive committee; C. W. Robbins, editor and manager; W. R. Thompson, assistant manager.

Report No. 2

The Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications is concerned with the recruitment of candidates for the Ministry and with the evaluation of qualifications and direction of the training of candidates already recruited. We are cooperating with the Presiding Bishop and the Commission on Christian Vocations in encouraging suitable young men for the ministry.

We call attention to the increased number received on trial into our Conference during the past quadrennium, as follows: 18 in 1949; 23 in 1950; 31 in 1951; and 37 recommended in 1952 for a total of 109. Although many of these are in school, the trend is most encouraging for supplementing our pastoral supply.

As a result of legislation enacted by the 1952 General Conference, a larger number are enrolled in the Courses of Study. Our Board is ready to give individual guidance and counsel in interpreting the new requirements, both to Supply Pastors and to the men in the classes.

Two Approved Supply Pastors' Schools will be held in the Summer of 1953, one at Duke University and one at Emory University. We urge our Approved Supplies to enroll in one of these schools.

To Bishop Costen J. Harrell we extend our sincere appreciation of his wise counsel and patient guidance. As Chairman, I should like to express to the members of the Board my sincere appreciation of their most faithful cooperation and labors. I have never worked with a more devoted group of men who have zealously given to each individual every consideration within the bounds of the law of the Church. Harold R. Simpson has served effectively and faithfully as Registrar, and to him goes our high commendation.

WILSON O. WELDON, Chairman

THE BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

Report No. 1

Your Board is happy to report that the annuity rate per year of service for the coming year has been fixed at $48.00 which is an increase of $8.00 per year of service over the previous year. The widows of preachers receive 70% of the rate paid to men or $33.60 per service year. In addition the claimants receive payments from the Cole Foundation and the Duke Endowment. It is believed that our conference leads Methodism in the support of retired preachers and widows.

The Methodist Home for the Aged and Lake Junaluska Assembly paid into the treasury the required sum to make the Superintendents of those institutions eligible for annuity for 1951-2.

The Board designated the following banks as depositories: Concord National Bank, Concord, N. C.; City Savings Bank, Charlotte, N. C.; and the Wachovia Bank and Trust Co., Charlotte, N. C.

The Board requests permission to omit the reading of the allotments to the conference and that they be approved as printed in the Conference Journal.

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

MINUTES OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

September 28, 1951

The Executive Committee of the Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood met in West Market Street Methodist Church, Greensboro, September 28, 1951. Rev. H. G. Allen, President, presided at the meeting. Members of the Executive Committee present were H. G. Allen, J. W. Braxton, R. C. Goforth, C. C. Herbert, Jr., and J. G. Wilkinson.

A motion was made by Rev. J. W. Braxton that $9,000.00 of the surplus be invested in Series G. Bonds of the United States Government. The motion was seconded by R. C. Goforth, and unanimously approved by the Committee. The secretary was instructed to make the investment as soon as possible.

Rev. H. G. Allen suggested to the Executive Committee that definite goals had proved to be of value during the Conference Year that had just closed, and proposed the following goals for the coming year:

1. Endeavor to enroll 500 new lay members
2. Increase benefit paid to deceased minister's family
3. Increase reserve fund from $68,827.50 to $100,000.00
4. Set the first Sunday in November as Brotherhood Sunday in each church of the Conference.

Rev. J. W. Braxton made a motion that all district lay and clergy directors be appointed by the president of the Brotherhood after a conference with the secretary. The motion was seconded by R. C. Goforth and approved by the Committee.

Those selected by these members of the Executive Committee were:

Asheville—Rev. M. A. McLean, F. R. Baker

Charlotte—Rev. J. H. Cooke, Y. P. King

Gastonia—Rev. J. E. Rink, Gordon Goodson

Greensboro—Rev. Ralph Reed, W. B. McEwen

Marion—Rev. J. W. Fowler, Jr., O. J. Mooneyham

Salisbury—Rev. R. M. Hardee, O. S. Hope

Statesville—Rev. O. D. Smith, Flake Sherrill

Thomasville—Rev. W. R. Kelly, Paul Evans

Waynesville—Rev. Delbert Byrum, N. W. Garrett

Winston-Salem—Rev. John Hamilton, G. H. Hastings

On motion of Rev. R. C. Goforth the meeting adjourned.

H. G. ALLEN, President

JESSE G. WILKINSON,

Secretary-Treasurer

Historical

1. Historical Sketch

"The Western North Carolina Conference shall include all North Carolina west of the North Carolina Conference, except Savannah Church, in Alleghany County, North Carolina; and also that part of North Carolina lying north of New River, and including that part of Virginia lying south of that river in the loop in Grayson County, Virginia; including all the territory in Carroll and Patrick Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, and west of the Dan River." (Discipline, 1948, paragraph 1757.)

This territory is identical with that of the Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South. All three branches of Methodism forming The Methodist Church are included in this new Conference. From the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church came thirty-nine ministers and 11,901 church members. The North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church contributed seventy-four ministers and 22,361 church members. The Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, added 377 ministers and 167,028 church members. This gave the new Conference 490 ministers, with twenty-eight others on trial, and 201,290 church members. The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference had held 62 sessions, the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, 112, and the Western North Carolina, 50. (See Journal, 1939, Pages 115, 166).

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

ORGAN PRELUDE—"Rest in Peace" Leo Sowerby
John Morton

QUIET MOMENTS FOR MEDITATION AND PRAYER

MEDITATION

"We need to call to remembrance the great and good, through whom the Lord hath wrought great glory. We need to be reminded of the noble army of good ministers of Jesus Christ who have been the interpreters of faith and have given to us the heritage of freedom and truth. We need to be appreciative of the good example of the men and women who have truly loved and served God in creating the fabric of the Church that is ours today."

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Minister: O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good; for his mercy endureth forever.

People: Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

Minister: O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt him together.

People: It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. Amen.

CHORAL INVOCATION: "Jesus Stand Among Us" Mann

THE COLLECT (Minister and people)

O heavenly Father, thy word is a lamp unto our feet, and a light unto our path; we humbly beseech thee that thou wouldst be pleased to open and enlighten our minds, through Jesus Christ, who is the true light of the world, that we may understand thy word in its plainness and purity, and frame accordingly the whole course of our lives; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN 315—

"How Firm a Foundation Ye Saints of the Lord" . . . Rippon's Selection

A CANTICLE OF THE WORD (Here let the people stand and remain standing until after the Affirmation of Faith)

Minister: How lovely are thy messengers, O Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and a longing for thy word.

People: Thou sendest forth thy prophets in every age, and thy truth runneth swiftly to the ends of the earth.

Minister: The pure in heart have seen thee, O God; the lowly have found thee near at hand.

People: These tell of thy lovingkindness: from the rising of the sun to the going down of the same they keep not silence;

Minister: Publishing peace upon the mountains, and bringing good tidings of great joy,

People: That thou art blessed forever, and in thy will is our peace.

Minister: Thou art the everlasting fountain of life, and they that drink thereof shall thirst no more;

People: Light of our seeing and soul of our souls, within all spirits and beyond all worlds.

Minister: Who sustainest the heavens with the might of thy power, and gladdenest the eyes of all living with the beauty of thy holiness,

People: That the children of men may behold thy glory, and see thy wonders in the green deeps.

THE GLORIA PATRI

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Here let the people, following the exhortation of the minister, unite with him in the creed)

Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there the one true Church, apostolic and universal, whose holy faith let us now reverently and sincerely declare.

THE LESSON FROM THE HOLY SCRIPTURES

THE LITANY OF APPRECIATION (The minister, the people responding)

Let us pray

Almighty and everlasting God, before whom stand the spirits of the living and the dead, Light of lights, Fountain of wisdom and goodness, who livest in all pure and humble and gracious souls;

For all who have witnessed a good confession for thy glory and the welfare of the world, patriarchs, prophets, and apostles, the wise of every land and nation, all teachers and preachers of thy truth.

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

For the martyrs of our holy faith, the faithful witnesses to Christ of whom the world was not worthy, and for all who have resisted falsehood and wrong unto suffering or death,

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

For all who have labored and suffered for freedom, good government, just laws, and the sanctity of the home, and for all who have given their lives for their country.

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

For all who have sought to bless men by their service and life, and to lighten the dark places of the earth,

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

For those who have been tender and true and brave in all times and places, for those who have been devoted ministers and faithful shepherds of souls in thy holy Church, and for all who have been one with thee in the communion of Christ's Spirit and in the strength of his love,

We praise Thee, O God, and bless thy name.

(Here let the minister and the people unite in saying:)

O Almighty God, who in thy mercy hast redeemed the world by the love of thy dear Son; we give thee hearty thanks for thy servants who are in the ministry of thy Church; endue them richly with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and grant that in all their words and deeds they may seek thy glory and the increase of thy Kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JAMES OSCAR BANKS

May 9, 1884 - May 2, 1952

James Oscar Banks, son of M. K. and Harriet Hensley Banks, was born at Mars Hill, N. C., Madison County, May 9, 1884. On the morning of May 2, 1952, he gently slept the quiet, calm and peaceful sleep which knows no awakening.

On December 18, 1904, he was married to Lucy T. Barnette. Four children were born to this union. Surviving are his widow and daughters, Mrs. Clara Johnson of Walnut Cove, N. C., and Mrs. Nell Ward of High Point, N. C.; a foster son, C. Monroe Hunter of Pensacola, Florida; 7 grandchildren; and 4 great-grandchildren.

Funeral rites were conducted at Walnut Cove church by Rev. W. B. Royals, Dr. J. S. Hiatt, and Rev. John Green and the body was laid to rest in Walnut Cove cemetery.

Before entering the Methodist ministry in 1916 Brother Banks spent 8 years with the Salvation Army, visiting the poor and the discouraged, and beating the tambourine. Under the Army tent and on the street corner his voice was heard saying, "Come, your Savior is waiting to save you." He loved mankind and was at his best when calling on sinners to repent and live for Christ.

Uniting with the Western N. C. Conference he served faithfully the following charges: Walnut Circuit, Asheville Circuit, Bethel Circuit, East Flat Rock, Albemarle Circuit, Gastonia (Trinity Church), Davie Circuit, Walnut Cove Circuit, Cool Springs Circuit, East Marion, Lenoir Circuit, Balls Creek Circuit, and Watauga Circuit. New churches and modern parsonages were built by this faithful servant of Christ. In September, 1950, on account of failing health he retired.

The greatest tribute I can pay is to say that Brother Banks was a good man, one who had a passion for lost souls. Goodness is love at work, speaking a word of encouragement to the discouraged, expressing a sympathetic attitude to those in need, loving the unlovely for Christ's sake, bringing sunshine where the shadows of sorrow hang heavily overhead. This Brother Banks did. He was faithful and brought to his ministry and the upbuilding of the church three excellent capacities. He preached with an earnestness that convinced and a sincerity that appealed; he was a pastor whom his people loved and to whom they could look for help with their troubles and problems; and he was an administrator of the business affairs of the church; of such talent and dedication that many churches today bear in their sound organizational lives the stamp of his pastorate.

Though he served some of the most difficult charges in the Conference he never complained but thanked God for an opportunity to tell the story of Christ's redeeming love. He suffered much but in his sunset days he never lost faith but looked forward to that glad morning when he would be at home with God. He had lived well and died well. Brother Banks' gentleness and humility set him apart as one of the choice Circuit riders among us. He was a good soldier of Christ who died at his post.

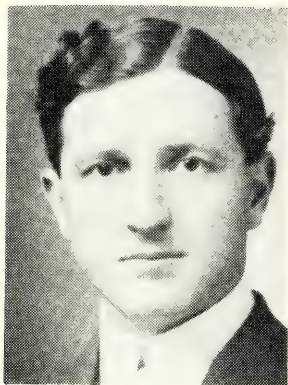

"The battle is ended; the hero goes
Worn and scarred to his last repose.
He has won the day; he has conquered doom,
He has sunk unknown to his nameless tomb.
For the victor's glory no voice may plead,
Fame has no echo and earth no meed;

But the guardian angels are hovering near—
 They have watched unseen o'er the conflict here—
 And they bear him now on their wings away
 To a realm of peace, to a cloudless day.
 Ended now is earthly strife,
 And his brow is crowned with the crown of life."

JULIUS SCALES FOLGER

February 16, 1885 - November 4, 1951

Julius Scales Folger, preacher of the Word of God, lover of mankind, born in Surry County, North Carolina, was the son of Joseph Gray Folger and Amanda Blackwood Folger. At the age of one year he was "loaned" by his mother to his grandmother with whom he lived until he was six. She taught him about the Heavenly Father and Christ; read the Bible to him and at her knee taught his lips to pray. His grandmother had hoped that her son, for whom Brother Folger was named, would be a Methodist preacher, but he turned to other fields. Her hopes were then centered in this little grandson whom she loved as her own. Like Lois did for Timothy she stirred up the gift of God in him. She had a profound influence on his total life especially on his thinking. She instilled in him love for truth, honesty, nobility and Christian living. These high qualities he carried through his earthly career, always teaching, preaching and living them; never compromising high principles.

Early in youth he was converted and immediately heard the call of God to be a minister. He read the Bible through several times during his school years. By necessity he worked his way through high school and one year at Trinity College. Due to lack of funds he taught in public schools for a number of years. In 1916 he hearkened again to God's call and definitely turned his feet toward the pulpit. In that year the Mt. Airy District Conference granted him local license and in the fall he entered Candler School of Theology at Emory University and continued there until 1918 finishing the course of study. He joined the Western North Carolina Conference in 1918 on trial. He was received into full connection and ordained Deacon in 1920 and became an elder in 1922. This steady progress through school and into the conference indicates his attention to essentials and a methodical mind. Thirty-three years of effective service was rendered the church and by reason of ill health he retired in 1951.

During his active ministry he was a constant student of the Bible, world history and current affairs. For every sermon he prepared he searched to the depths the meaning and interpretation of the Scriptures in order to accurately guide his congregation. Everywhere he impressed his listeners as being a competent and qualified preacher of the Gospel. Brother Folger believed that Christianity was a life to be lived daily among one's fellowman. Like his Master he was intensely practical and down-to-earth in preaching, teaching and living. In the pulpit and on the street there was a transparent sincerity in his manner of living. He lived and taught what he believed; and believed what he taught and lived.

The Bible was his sermonic text book and illustrations came from life as he saw it. But fundamentally his sermons were Bible-centered. Secular topics were foreign to his pulpit. The favorite text was, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness." This was the expressional key note of the career of this minister. Not only was the Bible the center of preaching but was used for family devotions. A keen feeling for the beauty and rhythm of the Scriptures abode in his mind. With a soft voice, good diction and a love for the King James version he made his hearers thrill to the beauty of the language.

As an administrator of church affairs he was a master. If any difference arose he listened to everybody with patience; kept his composure under the most trying circumstances and usually calmed the troubled waters. No church cause ever suffered in his hands. With meticulous care he studied every cause and presented it effectively and brought it to a successful conclusion.

A good Shepherd of the Sheep was he, always visiting the people and looking after their spiritual interests with high devotion. Never did he take a vacation nor did he absent himself from his church more than one Sunday at a time and that on rare occasions by necessity. He labored ceaselessly for eight years after cancer laid hands on his body. During those years until his body gave way he preached three times every Sunday and visited the congregation during the week days. The sick, needy, poor and sinning received his first attention. His great desire was to remain "active" for the final full conference year. During the last illness and while in Walter Reed Hospital in Washington he directed by letter the closing of the year's work and it was reported for him at conference, "All paid in full." His successor received the charge in good shape; no indebtedness and with an added net increase in membership. During his last pastorate the former forty-year-old Statesville Circuit with six scattered churches, was successfully divided in two three-point charges well compacted together. He closed his ministry on Trinity charge; a part of the old circuit.

Such is the epic of Brother Folger's early call; response; preparation; quality of character; work of preaching; faithfulness to duty; and effective administration. We turn now to the more mundane matter of appointments and finally to the hope that throbbed in the soul of this minister of God. The following charges received the gifts of his service: Sparta, New London, Wilkesboro, Cullowhee, Spruce Pine, Stanley, Duncan Memorial, Burnsville, Farmington, Statesville Circuit and Trinity.

Brother Folger firmly believed and spoke often that life after death was not an eternity of idleness and "resting in the shade." He thought that we will go on learning more and more through all eternity and that God had a continued work for each to do over there. Never idle in the Master's work, he did not want to be idle in the Great Beyond. Such was the basic belief in an active immortality.

On July 24, 1951, when he started the service in Trinity Church, Statesville, he did not know the nature of his illness and was not aware that it would be his last sermon. The Old Testament lesson was the Forty-second Psalm, "As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after Thee, O God." The search for God was the theme of his life. The New Testament lesson was John 15:9-13, ending with, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." The sermon text was, "That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God." Ephesians 3:17-19. With eloquence he preached to a congregation deeply moved. This was his last utterance from the pulpit and by a strange coincidence was the summation of his whole life. The only concern at the end was that he had not finished his life's work. Only a few moments before his coronation he said to his wife, "It is terrible to leave you and the children when things are not finished." He looked up with eyes wide, bright and soft, all pain and agony gone from his face. God had called him to another task. He is not idle. He is yet doing something for his Master!

His monument is his family: Mrs. Lora Brooks Folger of Decatur, Georgia, whom he married on October 9, 1918, and who climbed the high hills with him for thirty-three years; two sons, Alvin Gray, of Stockbridge, Ga.; James Worth of Columbia, Tenn.; two daughters, Julia Lois of Decatur, Ga. and Mrs. Mary Brooks Folger Tanner of Washington, D. C.

The funeral was conducted in Trinity Chapel, Decatur, Ga., on November 7, 1951, by Rev. J. H. Armbrust of Reidsville, N. C., assisted by Dr. J. W. Veatch, pastor of First Methodist Church, Decatur, and Dr. G. Ray Jordan of Emory University. Brother

Folger's body rests in the cemetery at Decatur, but his spirit climbs the high places in Heaven.

A faithful minister of Christ moves on.

We dare not say he is dead; for death's unknown

To such a ceaseless workman as was he—

To such a Christian as he proved to be.

Yes, we can truly say of him: He just moves on,

Transferring from the earth to Heaven's throne

Where God doth greatly set his big soul free

To work with him through all Eternity.

DAVID WILLIE HAGA

January 8, 1872 - March 29, 1952

On March 29, 1952 the golden tones of the Captain's bugle summoned one of his soldiers of the cross to receive his medal of honor. For fifty years he had faithfully and tirelessly carried the unfurled banner of his Master believing that at the end he would see him face to face. David Willie Haga was born January 8, 1872 in Grayson County, Virginia, the son of Granville and Margaret Haga. Here in his "beloved hills" were laid the foundations for a long and useful life devoted to his church. As a young man he felt the touch of the Master's hand in his life and he joined the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was appointed to the Creston Charge in Ashe County. During the years that followed he served churches at Montezuma, Canton, Leicester, Morehead City, Marion and Linville. For two years he was District Superintendent of the Winston-Salem District in his own conference.

His co-laborers in the parsonage were Amanda Alice Garice who preceded him in death in 1913, Emma Harris Braswell who died in 1936 and Della Miller of Asheboro, North Carolina.

Some men live and pass on to the world beyond leaving no trail marked for those who come after them. But there are others who walk through the world leaving a memory that shines in the minds of men like an eternal light. Some men live for a moment and grow old while others watch the sun of life sink low in the evening sky and the shadows of the evening lengthen and grow not old but younger. The contrasts of life are great and occasionally there are those who exceed the rest of us in the qualities that make men useful to their world.

For three-quarters of a century God in his infinite wisdom saw fit to leave with us a life that inspired us and called us higher. Even though the sun went down to rise on a distant shore the shadows of the night cannot hide the face of our comrade. Whether he worked in the little chapels in the "hills" of his homeland or walked through the streets of the cities, the path that he followed was made brighter because he passed that way. Friend, comrade and brother to all who came to him for aid, no man went away but that he felt that he had not only seen the face of a man but in someway he had been lifted into the presence of God. And now that his voice is quiet and his hand is stilled we may not say that we have given him to God for the everlasting arms of God already held him. We can only lift our hearts in humble gratitude that God loaned him to us for a while. He was God's man called from an appointment on earth to an appointment in Heaven.

LESTER SYLVESTER HELMS

August 14, 1884 - July 4, 1952

The Reverend Lester Sylvester Helms was born on August 14, 1884, in Union County, near Monroe, N. C. He was the son of Henry and Mary Elizabeth Ross Helms.

On August 12, 1904, he was married to Mary Belle Yarborough. To this union were born three children: Mrs. Connie Brown, Henrietta, N. C., Clifton Helms, Asheville, N. C., and Hallie Mae Tessanair, South Carolina. Death visited his home in 1918 and claimed his wife and infant baby. In 1920 he was married to Miss Lula Widenhouse, of Cabarrus County. To this union were born four children: Lester S. Helms, Jr., and Paul Helms, both of whom are in the armed services of their country, Mrs. Sarah Earwood, Henrietta, N. C., and Miss Louise Helms of the home, Caroleen, N. C. Mrs. Helms died in December of 1928.

On January 17, 1930, he was married, the third time, to Miss Elizabeth Townsend of Burke County, N. C., who with the above named children survive. Also a number of grandchildren survive.

Brother Helms was converted and united with New Hope Methodist Protestant Church, in Union County, N. C.

He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of the Pageland Charge in 1917. He received his High School education at Midland High School, and entered the North Carolina Methodist Protestant Conference in 1919, and was ordained an Elder in 1929.

During his active ministry he served the following appointments: Greenville Circuit, 1919-20. In 1920 he was without an appointment. Democrat Circuit 1922-24, Caroleen Circuit 1925-27, Connelly Springs 1928-33, Draper 1934-36, Shelby-Caroleen 1937-38.

Due to ill health he retired from the active work at the Conference of 1938, making his home in Caroleen, N. C.

Brother Helms was loved by all who knew him, and although he was unable to speak, for almost seven years, he would always smile in recognition of a greeting.

On July 4, 1952, at six o'clock in the afternoon, his spirit returned to God who gave it. His funeral was held in Caroleen Methodist Church, on July 6, 1952, conducted by Rev. Theodore W. Hager, being assisted by the Reverend Vero Masters and the Reverend Earl A. Cook. His body was carried to Burke County, N. C., and laid to rest in the Shady Grove Cemetery, near Connelly Springs, N. C., there to await the General Resurrection in the last day.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past,
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

ROBERT ELZIE HINSHAW

January 14, 1887 - December 29, 1951

In the early morning hours of December 29, 1951, the soul of Robert E. Hinshaw passed peacefully from labor to reward. Born in Yadkin County January 14, 1887, the son of I. M. and Frances Winters Hinshaw.

He was married February 3, 1910, to Miss Cassie Lewis, was blessed with five children. Surviving Brother Hinshaw are his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Clifton R. Berrier and Mrs. Percy Bostick, Jr. of Greensboro and Mrs. Charles Logan of Winston-Salem; two sons, Howard E. Hinshaw of Hickory and Harold Hinshaw of Charlotte; four brothers, Rev. M. T. Hinshaw and W. A. Hinshaw of Rutherford College, S. S. Hinshaw of Jonesville, and H. D. Hinshaw of Yadkinville; one sister, Mrs. J. W. Arnold of Jonesville; and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at Hinshaw Memorial Church by Rev. Herman F. Duncan, Dr. J. S. Hiatt, and Rev. J. E. McSwain. Graveside rites were conducted in Harmony Grove Church cemetery at Yadkinville.

Before joining the Western N. C. Conference he taught seven years at Rutherford College and was president three years of the Weddington Industrial Institute. Entering the ministry in 1922 Mr. Hinshaw's first pastorate was at Matthews. Other charges served during his ministry, which extended over 30 years, include Spencer Memorial, Charlotte; Main Street, Belmont; Stony Point; West End, Gastonia; Carraway Memorial, Greensboro; First Methodist Church, China Grove; Ogburn Memorial, Winston-Salem; Pleasant Grove, Charlotte; First Methodist, Draper; Groometown, Greensboro; and Hinshaw Memorial Church where he was in his fourth year. Brother Hinshaw had led the Hinshaw congregation, formerly Midway church, in a building program and out of gratitude for his splendid leadership the congregation named the church in his honor.

Robert Hinshaw possessed a generous spirit; he was quiet and painstaking, and willingly gave unselfishly of himself in serving some of the most difficult charges. He was grateful that, after attending Yadkinville Normal school and special study at the University of Tennessee, his life's work gave him an opportunity to train young men at Rutherford College for the ministry. He moved among people with an unobtrusiveness but his matured wisdom, his distinctive culture, and his faith impressed everyone.

Gentle in manner and sincere in heart he went about doing good. A builder of churches and parsonages he wrought nobly in his day and generation. He was a splendid preacher and pastor, loved and appreciated by the people whom he served. His quiet life left its memorial in the hearts of men, women, and children as they followed him to new ventures for God. He has left an enduring monument builded in life, love and kindly service.

When his Master called for him to come up higher where life shall finally broaden into happy and blessed eternity he was ready and his departed spirit has entered into that endless day which lies just beyond the sunset of time.

"How blest the righteous when he dies
When sinks a weary soul to rest;
How mildly beam the closing eyes,
How gently leaves the expiring breast.

So fades a Summer cloud away,
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er,
So gently shuts the eye of day,
So dies a wave along the shore.

A holy quiet reigns around
 A calm which life nor death destroys;
 And naught disturbs that peace profound
 Which his unfettered soul enjoys.

Life's labor done as sinks the clay,
 Light from its load the spirit flies,
 While heaven and earth combine to say,
 'How blest the righteous when he dies.'

PAUL STRAYER KENNETT

December 4, 1890 - January 21, 1952

Paul Strayer Kennett, son of Rev. W. T. and Anna Hanner Kennett, was born in Kernersville, N. C., December 4, 1890, and died in an Asheville hospital on January 21, 1952. Since his father was a minister his early education was received in a number of schools in various parts of the State. His higher education made him a graduate of Elon College and Westminster Theological Seminary. Later, in recognition of his outstanding work as a teacher in the field of history, Adrian College bestowed upon him the degree of Doctor of Laws. He was married to Miss Bland Trogon; and to this union were born two children: Allen Stanwood and Pauline, now the wife of Rev. C. M. Boggs.

After his graduation from the Seminary he entered the ministry in the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, serving Ann Street, Concord, and the Liberty-Siler City charges. In 1920 he was called to the chair of history and English at Elon College. When High Point College was opened in 1924 he became professor of history in that institution, and was head of that department until 1942 when he resigned to return to the pastorate. He served the Hillside-Merrimon Methodist Church, Asheville, from 1942 to 1945, and was then transferred to the Weaverville station, which he served from 1945 to 1951. At that conference he was asked to undertake the location of a new church in Konnoak Hills, Winston-Salem; but while there his health failed and he was granted retirement status at the Annual Conference 1951. After a great deal of suffering, he passed away on January 21, 1952. The funeral was conducted in the Weaverville Methodist Church, Dr. Dwight Ware, the District Superintendent, Rev. W. C. Clark, and Rev. L. A. Harper, pastor of the local church, having part in the service. His body lies at rest in the Memorial Park in Weaverville.

As we think of the man apart from his record, if such a thing is possible, we are impressed with certain qualities of mind and heart, which set him apart.

Something less than half his life after graduation from the Seminary was spent in the pastorate, but wherever he served he won his people to a love and loyalty that blessed both him and those to whom he ministered. As the result of a physical affliction which he was never able to overcome, he developed a disposition of heart and hand that made him sympathetic with all kinds and conditions of men. What the Apostle Paul's "thorn in the flesh" did for him, this other Paul was made the better minister of Christ because he, too, suffered in the flesh. He was a welcome visitor in every sick room, and the troubled ones came to him for his unfailing help.

But his outstanding contribution was in the classroom, to the generations of students who came and went. He left an indelible impression on their young hearts and growing minds. He had a way of making history come alive. The dry bones were clothed with flesh. He was an interpreter as well as a teacher of history. For him the world did not end in chaos, with civilization in ruins; but in a world redeemed, with Christ triumphant. He was able to instill hope in the hearts of the young people as they went out from their college halls to face the realities of life.

As he lives in the hearts of those students, so he lives in the hearts of all who knew him—a benediction upon our lives. He was a heroic and a kindly soul—an inspiration to us all.

CORNELIUS MILLER PICKENS

January 20, 1867 - November 24, 1951

It is a simple matter to write the factual record of the long and fruitful life of Cornelius Miller Pickens. It is not so simple to try to put into that record the rhythm of the "burning heart" which he carried, and which carried him, from his first conscious moment until it gave its final steady beat on November 24, 1951.

It is a rare heart that is both burning and steady. C. M. Pickens had one. It is even rarer to find such a heart with a clear mind to guide it. C. M. Pickens had that also. This combination gave him a quality of quiet leadership which his church, slowly, but fully, recognized long before his death. It gave his pulpit utterances a sincerity and eloquence which drew and held large and faithful congregations for nearly sixty years. In his pastoral work it enabled him to share in the lives of his parishioners. His sharing of sorrow lightened it. His sharing of joy broadened it. His own sorrows and troubles, and he had them, he kept to himself.

There was no mental embroidery around his belief in God. God was God and that was that, and the only approach to Him was through Jesus Christ, His only Son. To C. M. Pickens there were no back ways to God and no theological short cuts to the Heavenly Throne. You either walked the well lighted straight and narrow way or you didn't get there. To be a successful minister of that kind of gospel took an infinite amount of character. It would have been much easier to offer attractive and more pleasant alternate routes. He knew about those alternates, for he had learning. He just didn't accept them. His mind wasn't a closed one. It just didn't entertain what he considered fallacies. The idea that Christianity was a way of life instead of a religion, or a philosophy based on ethics rather than a demonstration of God's infinite power and mercy, was to him so much trash and was treated as such. Had anyone ever told him that such an attitude was stern and straight laced he would have replied, after consideration, "Well, why not?" He never extended a hand to the easy way simply because it was the easy way. With such a simple and uncomplicated belief as a foundation he built a religious faith that was serene and lofty and proceeded to make it work not only for himself but for thousands of others. His influence for good was tangible enough, anybody could see it, but no one would dare try to measure it. There is no yardstick for that kind of goodness because it goes in all directions and in many instances reaches far beyond the measurements of men's minds.

C. M. Pickens was an evangelist for God in his own particular kind of way. He knew that works spoke louder than words and so he worked more than he talked. He had a secret admiration for those ingratiating, story-telling, easy-going preachers who so often occupy the leading pulpits and places in the church but it wasn't in his nature to be that way, so he didn't try to be. He went his own way in his own time and gradually in the course of that time he found hundreds of others, and no fools among them, going along with him. By this method he got things done while others were still thinking about doing them.

The outstanding example of his belief in works rather than words is the Methodist Home for the Aged in Charlotte. He envisioned it, campaigned for the money for it, watched over the building of it, managed it for two years and finally died within its walls. All of this after he was seventy-five years old and his career as a minister supposedly closed. Many honored and respected men have done less in a lifetime. To add to this record of monumental achievement it must be noted that a world war was raging (three of his sons were overseas) and his beloved wife was in a hospital, incurably ill. He made no effort to lay his burdens on the Lord, as many might have. He simply drew on his inner strength, which could have come only from his God, and went on with his work. At his fifty-ninth and last Annual Conference his Bishop called him before his fellow ministers and paid him this unique tribute: "This man is an old soldier who, hearing the tramp of marching feet, got out and marched again." The full truth was that he had never ceased to march. Retirement for him merely meant that he kept on working but wasn't on the regular payroll.

In his personal as well as his public life C. M. Pickens was a reserved, quiet man, almost taciturn. If he ever went to extremes in his thoughts or emotions no one ever saw it. If he was offended by any action or word his disapproval took the form of silent, Arctic coldness. When pleased his smile danced out of his eyes and flickered all over his face. He was not given to loud laughter or public weeping.

Late in his middle life his doctor ordered him to play golf as a prescription for low blood pressure. Never entirely approving of this use of his time, he played golf as ordered, often with his sons. They all outdrove him and outtalked him. More often than not they were in traps and in the rough. He was always down in the middle of the fairway and at the end of eighteen holes he always had more breath than they had. His life was somewhat like his golf. He never pressed, sliced or hooked, and his eye was always on the ultimate goal. He never boasted of what he was going to do and never gloated over what he had done.

Along with his deep religious faith, his simon-pure personal life and his skilled and adept pastoral work C. M. Pickens brought to his church what many of its ministers lack—a hard-headed practicality and instinctive business sense. He earned and kept the respect of business men and administrators all over Western North Carolina. Had he not devoted his life to the ministry he could have been a very rich man. As it was, he didn't die poor. He spent much time keeping churches in sound financial condition and thousands of hours and considerable amounts of his own money staving off the perpetual danger of insolvency from the small church colleges in which he was so deeply interested.

The son and grandson of Methodist ministers, C. M. Pickens was born at Weaverville, North Carolina, on January 20, 1867. The lives of these three generations of ministers cover practically the entire period of the organized Methodist Church in the United States. He graduated from Weaverville, later Weaver College, and after a short period of teaching joined the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Wytheville, Virginia, in 1892. He served pastorates at Chattanooga, Ducktown, Spring City and Rockwood, all in Tennessee, until 1898, when he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference and served his first pastorate in his native mountain country at Brevard, North Carolina.

In 1899 he was made president of Davenport College at Lenoir, North Carolina. This appointment stimulated an interest in what was then very hard to get—college education for mountain and rural youth. From that time until his death he served on the Board of Trustees for Davenport, Weaver and Brevard Colleges, a period of over fifty years. He also served on the committee which founded the Pastors' School at Duke University and taught at several of its sessions.

In 1901 he returned to the pastorate and served the following charges: Mt. Pleasant, Pineville, where he built a new parsonage, Waxhaw, Brevard Street in Charlotte, Lenoir, Mt. Zion and Cornelius. In 1914 he was assigned to Spencer and during his four years there the present church was built. Following these years at Spencer he served at Morganton, Albemarle and Marion. In 1928 he was appointed Presiding Elder of the Waynesville District and in 1931 went from Waynesville to serve Dilworth Church, Charlotte. He was Presiding Elder of the Winston-Salem District from 1933 to 1936 and pastor of Main Street Church, Thomasville, until his retirement in 1939.

After his retirement he moved to a farm near Charlotte and planted a peach orchard which he never had time to cultivate, as his church called him back to service, first as supply pastor at Matthews, the Brevard Street Church, Charlotte, and finally for almost a year in 1943 as District Superintendent of the Charlotte District. He was one of the teachers of the Men's Bible Class at Dilworth Church for many years until his final illness prevented further activities.

During the middle of his ministry Mr. Pickens was a leader in the fight for the unification of the Northern and Southern Methodist Churches. He always felt that the successful end of that effort did much toward the advancement of Christianity in the country.

In 1931 the Western North Carolina Methodist Conference honored him by electing him a delegate to the General Conference of the Church, held that year in Dallas, Texas.

He was Secretary-Treasurer of the Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood, a mutual insurance plan for ministers, for twenty-seven years, during which time the group made steady growth.

Proof that reward for service is not always withheld until the hereafter is found in the fact that Emma Lucinda Watts, of Atlanta, Georgia, consented to marry C. M. Pickens on October 29, 1895. This gay and handsome woman brought wit and light into his world and made parsonage life as interesting as it sometimes was unpredictable. A brilliant teacher, she for many years was a Godsend to harrassed school principals. Many a man and woman in North Carolina knows well his mathematics and Latin because of her teaching skill. Her five sons she ruled with firmness, kindness and an ever bubbling humor. She planted flowers in every place she lived and when she died a few months before her husband he and their sons were entirely conscious of the fact that she had left her mark on them all and that she was an adequate reason for human beings.

C. M. Pickens is survived by five sons: Wiley M. Pickens, Raleigh, N. C., Robert S. Pickens, Ashburn, Va., Marion W. Pickens, Los Angeles, Cal., Marshall I. Pickens and Stanton W. Pickens of Charlotte, N. C. Also surviving are eight grandchildren: Mrs. Herbert M. Church, Jr., Mrs. Sidney V. Suhler, Mrs. Claud Shankle, Susan Pickens, Lucinda Pickens, Sarah Pickens, Marshall Pickens, Jr., and Peter Miller Pickens. And four great-grandchildren: James Nelson Church, Stephanie Roberts Suhler, Marcia Liddell Suhler and Martha Susan Shankle.

In an eloquent tribute adopted shortly after his death the Board of Managers of the Methodist Home summed up in these words:

"Who can assess the heritage that life like this bequeaths to the future? It can never be done by the reckoning of the materialities of life, only with the scales of eternal judgment. Sermons preached that inspired, prayers offered that changed things, comfort given that transformed dark valleys into green pastures, lives touched which shall always be better, institutions built and blessed which will serve the future, a self offered without question as to reward—all of these shall shine as a bright galaxy of stars in the crown of life which the Lord, the Righteous Judge, has given him; not only to him but to all those who love the Lord because his life has touched theirs."

FRED HERBERT PRICE

June 22, 1891 - October 8, 1951

When it became known that Fred Herbert Price had died suddenly on October 8, 1951, just as he was beginning his second year as pastor of First Street Methodist Church in Albemarle there was a deep sense of loss not only in that congregation but also in every congregation he had served in his ministry of thirty-four years in the Western North Carolina Conference and in the hearts of hundreds of us who knew him and loved him.

Brother Price was born in Union County, North Carolina, on June 22, 1891. He grew up in Unionville Methodist Church of which he became a member in his early childhood. When he was about twenty years of age in a prayer meeting in his home church there was given to him a conscious sense of conversion and the witness of the Holy Spirit that became one of the certainties of his life. He soon felt called to enter the Christian ministry and never doubted so long as he lived that the call came to him personally from God. Though he had already taught in the public schools he felt the need of a better preparation for the work he was willing to dedicate his life to so he became a student in Trinity College, now Duke University, but before he could finish for graduation the first world war had begun. Having already been licensed to preach and finding that he was unable to meet the demands for service in the military camps he turned at once to what was to be his fruitful and lifelong work. He was received on trial in the Western North Carolina Conference at Asheville in 1917. He served as Junior pastor at Main Street in Gastonia and on the Lowesville circuit. These first two appointments were followed in order as pastor in charge of Polkville, Lenoir circuit, Shepherds, Cool Spring, Henrietta, Lowell, Lafayette Street in Shelby, Race Street in Statesville, Granite Falls and First Street in Albemarle. On each charge he had a fruitful ministry. He never tried to seek a definite appointment nor did he complain about any assignment, but accepted each appointment as from God directing through the appointing powers of the church. Loyalty to his work in the church and to the people of whom he became pastor took first place with him. He thought and planned for the kingdom of God rather than for any selfish ambition. He sought to meet every requirement of his church. He passed the full course of study on time and was ordained a deacon by Bishop Darlington at the session of the annual conference in 1919 and two years later was ordained an elder by Bishop Darlington.

Brother Price's ministry was rich in many ways. As a preacher he was sound and clear in his thinking and earnest and impressive in his delivery. His preaching was scriptural and evangelical. His sermons were convincing and often appealing in their delivery. His congregation never tired of hearing him. His sermons were interesting, practical and helpful.

As pastor he was perhaps at his best. He visited the people in their homes and prayed with them. He left no member of his congregation to feel neglected or unappreciated. He was able to help each member to feel his importance and responsibility. He could sympathize until his heart seemed to break. He could reprove in the stern spirit of righteousness but with that reproof there was an appeal for amendment of life. He seemed to know how to comfort the sorrowing, encourage the timid and reclaim any who had gone astray. He occupied a high place in the minds and hearts of not only his own congregation but was recognized and esteemed highly by people outside his own church group. His personality and character were such that he made many strong and lasting friendships. Because of his genuine sincerity, his friendliness and his uprightness people trusted him and often sought his advice.

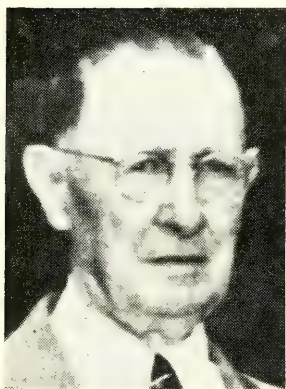

Brother Price was happily married to Miss Amy Amanda Helms on May 15, 1919, who was a wonderful help to him in all his ministry and who survives him with their son, Fred H. Price, Jr. and their daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Anne P. Hickman.

The passing of Brother Price was sudden but he was ready. His funeral was held in First Street Methodist Church in Albemarle and was conducted by Rev. J. C. Cornett, District Superintendent of the Salisbury District and burial was at Monroe. The funeral was attended by not only his own congregation but also many representatives from churches he had previously served and a very large group of his fellow pastors all of whom were ready to express their respect and genuine appreciation and love for this servant of God and faithful minister of the church.

WILLIAM MARTIN ROBBINS

December 23, 1864 - August 3, 1952

It was about 9:45 o'clock on the beautiful Sunday morning of August 3, 1952, in his comfortable home at Lake Junaluska, N. C., that the sudden call came to our dear friend, Reverend William Martin Robbins. But he was ready for the summons of his loving Lord with whom he had walked in loyal fellowship for many, many years.

The entire community was shocked and deeply grieved, for he seemed to have been rapidly recovering from his recent serious illness. He had just enjoyed breakfast with his family, children and grandchildren, when on the insistence of his wife he went to his room to rest. After a few minutes, Mrs. Robbins went to give him his medicine, but he had gone to be forever with his Lord who had "given his beloved sleep," according to His gracious promise.

At the mature age of eighty-seven, Brother Robbins was in full possession of all his faculties, was happy in spirit, alert of mind as he constantly kept abreast of the news of both Church and State. He was optimistic concerning the Kingdom and never adversely criticized his Church. He had a genuine appreciation for what his brother ministers were doing and he was an excellent judge of preaching. He meditated much, was a careful student of the Bible and a good preacher. People heard him gladly, for his sermons were clear, scriptural and effective. He was a very modest person, gentle, cultured, refined, popular and, above all else, he was completely consecrated to Christ and zealous for His Cause. Everybody esteemed and loved him. Holy Scripture describes him accurately: "He was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith; and much people was added to the Lord." "Behold an Israelite indeed in whom is no guile"; "He fought a good fight, finished his course, and kept the faith." Now he has been crowned and has sat down with his Master on His Throne! How wonderful it must be for such saints of God to get home! Shall we not earnestly endeavor to be united again with those of our dear ones "whom we have loved long since and lost awhile?"

William Martin Robbins, son of William and Elizabeth Robbins, was born December 23, 1864, near Old Trinity, Randolph County. He attended the local schools and studied at Pinnacle Academy, near Pilot Mountain, and at Old Trinity College. He had an inquiring mind and was a careful student all of his life. He also retained and used his rich store of knowledge.

He joined the Western North Carolina Conference at Charlotte in 1893, Bishop W. W. Duncan, presiding. For forty-two years he served faithfully and well as a pastor. This record includes two years as an assistant pastor at Central Church, Monroe, and two as a retired supply at Fines Creek and Hazelwood in Haywood County.

The order of his appointments follows: East Uwharrie, China Grove, Jefferson, McAdenville, Summerfield, Madison, Advance, Grace, Winston-Salem, North Charlotte, Forest Hill, Brevard, West Greensboro, Grace, Winston, (second pastorate), Lafayette St., Franklin Ave., Lake Junaluska, Hickory Grove, Sylva, Ogburn Memorial, and Andrews from which charge he retired in 1929. In his retired relation he constantly preached for his brethren whenever and wherever his services were needed. His last sermon was delivered at Hazelwood last June. His ministry was blessed of God by a very large and permanent fruitage.

On December 30, 1896, Brother Robbins was married to Miss Fannie Winecoff, of Mt. Olivet community, near Concord. To this union were born: Annie Mae, Mrs. E. C. Sharpe, of Birmingham, Ala.; Elizabeth, Mrs. John R. Matthews, of Kannapolis; and Louise, Mrs. Joe S. Ragsdale, of Leaksville. All of these survive, together with four grandchildren and two sisters: Mrs. W. E. Bacon, and Mrs. J. A. Cadell, of Charlotte.

In the presence of a large congregation of ministers and other sorrowing friends the funeral services were conducted from Mt. Olivet church on Monday, August fourth, by the Reverends Paul H. Duckwall, C. R. Ross and C. O. Kennerly.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

CHARLES M. SHORT

January 26, 1875 - June 21, 1952

Reverend Charles M. Short was born into an old and distinguished family of Guilford County pioneers on January 26, 1875. The stock from which he came was of that stable and wholesome pedigree that builded our great State, and laid the foundations for a steadfast commonwealth. He was the son of the late Winston M. and Mary Gamble Short and spent his early youth in the Rehobeth community near Greensboro.

After attending schools in his native community, he entered Guilford College in his later teens, taking a high rank among the students and winning the literary honors which always come to those who devote themselves wholeheartedly to the pursuit of education. Later he did some graduate work at the University of Chicago.

During his college days he played on the varsity baseball team, making a record for himself in both batting and fielding ability. His splendid playing helped to make Guilford the State Champions for at least one year.

Following his collegiate career, Mr. Short definitely answered the call of his Lord into the ministry and joined the Western North Carolina Conference in 1904 and was appointed to the Dilworth-Big Springs Charge in Charlotte where he served until 1907. He then served the following appointments: 1907-1911, Holmes Memorial, Salisbury; 1911-1915, Cooleemee; 1915-1917, Forest Hills, Concord; 1917-1918, Park Avenue, Salisbury; 1918-1921, Mt. Holly; 1921-1922, Norwood; 1922-1927, Calvary, Charlotte; 1927-1929, Burkhead, Winston-Salem. In the year 1929 due to an illness which prevented further activity as a minister he sought the retired relationship and moved back to Charlotte, his wife's home, and lived at 1041 Guilford Road. It was quite appropriate that he should return to the scenes of his first pastorate where in his retired relation he became affiliated with the Quarterly Conference of Dilworth Church which was his first appointment.

In these retired years he continued to serve his church in many unheralded ways. It was a rare occasion when he was not in his pew in Dilworth except when he answered the call of some brother in the ministry to fill his pulpit. For twenty-one years he was on our inactive list and yet at all times quite active in the doing of good works and endearing himself to the many people whose privilege it was to know his gentle spirit. He was a source of helpfulness to the congregation of Dilworth.

After many years of semi-invalidism he began to decline rapidly in health and finally the tired heart could stand no more, and on the 21st of June, 1952, it stood still to beat no more. He died as quietly and gently as he had lived. So ended a noble life, one devoted to the best things God has revealed to His children. In the minds of those who knew him will be engraved this living epitaph:

A friend to truth
Of soul sincere
In action faithful
And in honor clear.

His funeral was conducted from Dilworth Methodist Church, which he first served, on Monday, June 23, 1952.

Thus for a quarter of a century Reverend Charles M. Short followed the high-way of an itinerant Methodist. He had the great heart of a good pastor, loving and ministering to his people. This spirit of companionship and helpfulness rose to its height during the "flu" epidemic of 1917-18 when he drove himself ceaselessly and tirelessly to minister to his people when others were too afraid to venture from their homes.

In 1907 Mr. Short was married to Miss Chloe Leota Kerley who traveled the long road of itinerant service with him and shared in his labors. To this union was born one son, Charles M. Short, Jr., who lives to carry on the family name. He was the proud possessor of three fine grandchildren, Charles M., III, George L., and Mary Sue.

If one were to seek words to sum up his philosophy of life it would be found in these words:

Who drives the horses of the sun
Shall Lord it but a day;
Better the lowly deed were done,
And kept the humble way.

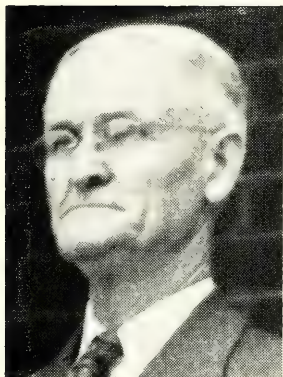

The rust will find the sword of fame,
The dust will hide the crown;
Ay, none shall nail so high his name
Time will not tear it down.

The happiest heart that ever beat
Was in some quiet breast
That found the common daylight sweet,
And left to heaven the rest.

THOMAS GEORGE SMITH

December 8, 1885 - July 6, 1952

Thomas George Smith was born in Union County, North Carolina, December 8, 1885. He was the son of the late William Jasper Smith and Frances Stewart Smith. He was converted in early childhood and joined Mount Moriah Methodist Church. On October 16, 1917, he was married to Janie Jerome Smith also of Union County. To this union were born two sons: Dr. D. W. Smith of Atlanta, Georgia, and Dr. Stokes J. Smith of Rock Hill, S. C.

In his young manhood he answered the call to preach and prepared himself for this life work at Rutherford College. During his ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference he served Judson, Burke Circuit, Marion Circuit, Maylo in Gastonia, Spruce Pine, Highlands in High Point, Trinity, Lexington, East Marion, and North Morganton. He was in his third year of a fruitful ministry at North Morganton when his untimely death occurred.

There were many qualities in his character which endeared him to the people who knew him. He had the happy faculty of maintaining the closest brotherly spirit while disagreeing on matters of even great importance. One of the members of his last Official Board made this observation: "There were times when we did not agree in some of our meetings, but there never was a time when our spirit of brotherhood was impaired."

Brother Smith was characterized by a simple and open sincerity that made no claim to spiritual heights he had not attained. He shunned the first appearance of pretense.

"Not those late upon the mountain height
Of his transfiguration, who declare
Their will to rear crude tabernacles there,
Are worthy liegemen in the Master's sight.
True ministers of grace are those who dare
Descend with him into the irksome night
Below, where blind souls whimper for the light,
And tortured bodies wait their healing care."

The people whom he served knew he loved them, not because of pretentious professions of his pastoral concern, but because of the unselfish service he was continually giving to them in their daily lives.

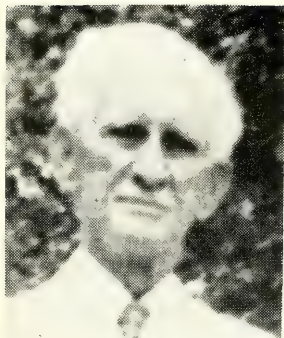

He was a pastor whose effectiveness the calendar did not influence. In his middle sixties it was remarked how he attracted the children and youth of his church, and one of his outstanding abilities was to rally the young adult groups of his churches and direct their activities in the work of the church and kingdom.

His earthly pilgrimage with us has enriched our fraternity, and his transfer to the brotherhood on high has made the unseen world more inviting. We shall know where to find him.

JOHN IVEY SPINKS

January 4, 1861 - August 12, 1952

"My God, we thank thee for the opportunity of living in this beautiful world." This was the final prayer of my father before God took him to be more perfectly at home.

The Rev. John Ivey Spinks was born in Burke County, North Carolina, on January 4, 1861. He died on August twelfth of this year. I am a child of his old age and knew him, not primarily as a farmer, nor as a preacher, but as the man that all of his life's activities had formed. I knew him as a father and as a man grown tolerant and wise in the way of the very old.

We who are young pride ourselves on our acceptance of whatever life has to offer. It is illusion. We reject so much in ignorance; so much more in pride. I believe that my father in his eighties was the most completely 'alive' person I have ever known. Even at the end of a long life he could still count this as the greatest of privileges: To be still in life.

My father was a farmer before he entered the ministry, and he never lost his farmer's love of his fields; or the true countryman's sense of the mystery of life. I don't believe he knew the meaning of 'boredom.' Even on his death bed he asked me about the crops on the Pennsylvania farm where I had spent my vacation. Knowing so surely the glory with which God has invested His creation, how could he grow tired of life? Life in God is sweet, whether it be in this world, that changing, glorifies Him; or in that abiding heavenly world where He is made more perfectly manifest to His own.

My father was not a critic. As a father he was amazingly patient. But neither was he a complacent person. As a farmer he knew that both the full ear and the perfect soul rest in God. God, unto whom all hearts are open, alone knows the perfections of His creatures. He knew that any man who came to him, as a child of God, was greater than the man he saw. He noted in a sermon that "The present attainments of anyone lose half their excellence and influence if viewed as final. They are great only as forerunners of greater yet to follow."

To see all things—all the actions of the body, all the events in society, the earth and the creatures therein—to see all as within the merciful, all-knowing and unfolding plan of God; this is the only wisdom and the only way of perfection. He believed simply and firmly our Lord's promise: "I, if I be lifted up, will lift all things unto me." All things: cattle and horses, fields of clover and grain, strong houses, cities and the bodies and souls of men. I have heard my father bless God in one breath for the dedication of a soul to God and for the safe birthing of a calf.

This simple fusion of the physical and the spiritual is a quality that our generation has lost. We feel so sure that we are able to distinguish between the spirit and the flesh that we forget that God became flesh for that very reason. We could not distinguish so well. My father knew better than any man I know the ambiguous relationship between the physical and the spiritual. No chasm exists; no universe intervenes between what God has done and what He will do. This world is good because it is our way to God. Through Christ, all things are made to lead to God. Without Christ, the world may become a dead weight, depressing but not filling the soul. With Christ, the world may become the soul's pure joy—her way to God.

(From a Sermon About 1920)

"God has made the soul capable to contain Himself. The soul is so large that, although it may be occupied by many things; occupied by all sorts of labor, or knowledge, or vanity, yet the world can not fill it; for the soul which can contain God, nothing can fill which is less than God."

May he rest in Peace.

A Son

SAMUEL WALTER TAYLOR

October 1, 1873 - April 30, 1952

Samuel Walter Taylor, son of John and Minerva Taylor was born near Advance in Davie County on October 1, 1873, and departed this life from the Methodist Home for the Aged at Charlotte, N. C. on April 30, 1952. He lived in Davie county until he was about sixteen years of age when the family moved to Yadkin College in Davidson county. Here he identified himself with the community and prepared for college at the Yadkin Collegiate Institute. Brother Taylor entered Western Maryland College in the fall of 1901, graduating four years later. He graduated from Westminster Theological Seminary in the spring of 1907 and immediately entered upon the work of the ministry in the former Methodist Protestant Church. He was assigned to the Littleton circuit by the annual conference, meeting in November 1906, the charge waiting for him until he graduated the following May. The annual conference of 1907 sent him to a new church which was being established in Rocky Mount, N. C. Here he remained for two years, returning to the Littleton circuit in 1909. While on this charge, on Nov. 23, 1910, he was united in marriage with Miss Lillie Huffines of Rockingham county who proved to be a great asset to him in the work of the ministry.

From the very beginning of his ministry Brother Taylor was in great demand. Within a very few years we find him serving what was considered some of the best appointments in the conference. He was secretary of the annual conference from 1908 to 1911 and treasurer from 1914 to 1924. He became a member of the Conference Board of Education when the board was created in 1914 and remained a member until the charter of the board was annulled following Methodist Union. He was a member of a committee to make recommendations to the board concerning the location of a college which the board was promoting. After the college was built at High Point he became the first man to receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from the institution which he had helped to establish. He was a Trustee of the college from 1927 to the time of his death.

Dr. Taylor was elected President of the North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church at Asheboro, N. C., in 1927 and was reelected from year to year until he had served for five years which was the constitutional limit. Going back into the pastorate after going out of office as President he continued to serve in that capacity until Methodist Union when he was appointed District Superintendent of the new High Point District. He served this for four years and when this district was discontinued and the new Thomasville district was set up he was assigned to this district and served for two years. This brought him to the end of his active years and he was retired in 1945. But he served as a retired supply for four years, finally giving up his work in 1949. His complete record of service is: 1906 to 1907 Littleton circuit; 1907 to 1909 Rocky Mount; 1909 to 1911 Littleton circuit; 1911 to 1915 First church, Winston-Salem; 1915 to 1920 First church, Henderson; 1920 to 1927 First church, Burlington; 1927 to 1932 President of the conference; 1932 to 1934 Lebanon in High Point; 1934 to 1939 Central church in Asheboro; 1939 to 1943 Superintendent High Point district; 1943 to 1945 superintendent of the Thomasville district, 1945 to 1947 retired supply of Rankin Memorial in High Point, 1947 to 1949 retired supply West Bend in Asheboro. After giving up the pastorate Dr. Taylor turned to writing and for two years or more he was responsible for a column once each week in the Courier-Tribune of Asheboro, N. C., on the subject, What did Jesus mean? This series was widely read and threw considerable light on the sayings of Jesus.

Dr. Taylor was a devout student of the Bible and preached the Word in all its purity. He had great faith in Jesus Christ and His power to change the lives of men.

He also lived that which he preached and was a great example to those he served. He made friends wherever he went and held them until the end of his life. He had an inquiring mind and was always trying to find out more of the meaning of what Our Lord said when he was here upon the earth. Quite frequently while in conversation with his close friends in the ministry he would ask the question: What do you think Jesus meant when he said so and so? This inquiring spirit doubtless led him to adopt the subject for his newspaper articles, "What did Jesus mean."

Dr. Taylor also thought, lived and prayed in terms of the future life. To him heaven was as real as the earth on which he walked. He believed in it with all his heart and had difficulty in understanding the position of any who did not so believe. This belief in the reality of the future life, doubtless, brought him great comfort and enabled him to be of great service to the sick and the bereaved. His ideas of the future life were much in common with the poet when he said:

"Ten thousand times ten thousand in sparkling raiment bright,
The armies of the ransomed saints throng up the steepes of light:
'Tis finished, all is finished, their fight with death and sin,
Fling open wide the golden gates and let the victors in.
What rush of alleluiahs fills all the earth and sky,
What ringing of a thousand harps bespeak the triumph nigh!
O day for which creation and all its tribes were made;
O joy for all its former woes, a thousand-fold repaid."

Great as was the faith and great as were the works of Dr. Taylor in the regular ministry yet perhaps his greatest work was in connection with serving on the Joint Commission which worked out the plan of union on which the three larger bodies of Methodism united to form the Methodist Church. Very few men made a greater effort to familiarize themselves with the plan of union than did Dr. Taylor. This knowledge of the plan was a great help to him interpreting the new church to the people over which he presided.

During Dr. Taylor's last year as district superintendent he and Mrs. Taylor moved to their own home three miles west of Asheboro on the Lexington highway. Here, in view of the beautiful mountains of western Randolph they lived in great happiness. Many friends from other places where they had served came to see them from time to time. But with the advancing years, followed by some hospital experiences they decided to go to the Home for the Aged at Charlotte where they entered just before Christmas of 1951. They continued here with great contentment until the end came to Dr. Taylor on April 30th. Funeral services were conducted in the Central Methodist Church of Asheboro, a church which Dr. Taylor served for five years and where they attended services during their stay in Asheboro, on Friday, May 2, 1952, under the direction of the pastor, Rev. Walter R. Kelly, assisted by Rev. George B. Clemmer, District Superintendent, and J. E. Pritchard. Burial was in the Oaklawn cemetery in Asheboro.

Dr. Taylor is survived by Mrs. Taylor and by one daughter, Mrs. Robert Davis at High Point, two sons, John C. of Asheboro and S. W., Jr. of Wilmington, one sister, Miss Sallie Taylor of the Home for the Aged at Charlotte, and one brother, J. H. Taylor of Maxton.

"Servant of God well done,
Thy glorious warfare is past;
The battle's fought, the victory won
And thou art crowned at last."

ROBERT SIDNEY TRUESDALE

March 26, 1874 - November 25, 1951

Robert Sidney Truesdale was an epic of Christian certainty written in the hearts and minds of discerning persons throughout the South. And, rightly so, for no finer blending of New Testament graces was ever pictured in a man.

In the glow of his reverence you could see the face of God; and in his compassion everybody felt at home: the high and low, the rich and poor, the black and white. "Bob" Truesdale felt himself to be the minister of the good things of Jesus Christ to all God's children. There was a directness and purpose in his disciplined preaching, for he had learned that the intent of a college education is to teach one to study; but, most of all, you were impressed with the natural eloquence which flowed from constant companionship with one whom he called Master. When you heard his messages you believed God to be alive, and you accepted life as a worthwhile venture. You never left his presence with a frown since his native humor was so fresh, and clean, and apropos; and the road of life seemed less formidable for somehow he had washed the dirt and fog from the window of your soul. He was the peer of any story teller, and sometimes he improved on Uncle Remus as he entertained children gathered around. He was a shepherd with concern for his sheep; and anyone who had experienced his pastorate could later turn the page of memory and rest within his presence as in a quiet room, though circumstance raged outside. His friendship never wavered and his counsel given to-day proved authentic for to-morrow.

This nobility of spirit was not fortuitous for his ancestry was grounded in pioneer courage and the democratic Christian tradition. The War between the States had left the Kershaw area in S. C. rather impoverished; and so James Truesdale and his family along with the Baileys, migrated to Mississippi in search of economic opportunity. There it was that Thomas Truesdale, son of James, married Olivia Bailey; and to this couple was born Robert Sidney Truesdale, March 26, 1874, at Poplar Springs, Montgomery County. Later the family returned to Kershaw, S. C., which accounts for the fact that scores of people proudly claim their beloved "Bob" as a Carolinian.

Robert attended Rutherford Military Institute under Captain W. R. Bell, at Rutherfordton, N. C. While at Wofford working for his A.B. degree, his interest in evangelism on the campus, his illustrious record, his close association with Dr. James H. Carlisle, all of these, betokened his future effectiveness in the ministry of the Church. (Wofford later conferred the D.D. degree upon him and repeatedly called him back as leader of student revivals.) While securing his B.D. degree at Vanderbilt University, he served Fillmore Street Mission in Nashville, now a noted institution in Methodism.

Upon his graduation he joined the South Carolina Conference and went to his first appointment, Edgefield Circuit, and a happy one it proved to be, for while stationed here he met and married Miss Bessie Arial, daughter of a distinguished Methodist clergyman. She, a graduate of Columbia College and a teacher, has proven through her constant devotion and worth the wisdom of that marital choice. The vows were spoken at Rock Hill, South Carolina.

Bob and Bessie believed in the prayer room and the play room, and the children found it fun to grow up in this parsonage, where their friends were welcomed day or night. These children are illustrious in their own rights and it would be an impertinence to do other than name them: John Robert, who died as an infant; William Thomas Truesdale, violinist and contractor; Mrs. W. R. Simpson, homemaker at Rock Hill; Dr. James Truesdale, Professor, Duke University; Mrs. H. H. Ogburn, home maker at Greensboro; Sidney Louis Truesdale, lawyer, Canton.

Being a true soldier of the itinerant system, Dr. Robert Sidney Truesdale faced each new work with faith and vigor, and the process proved a spiraling experience of signal successes: Green Street, Columbia, where he built the church edifice; Anderson; Central, Spartanburg, four most fruitful years where he accomplished rebuilding of church edifice; Trinity, Charleston; Trinity, Sumter; Main Street, Columbia, where he also rebuilt the church edifice during expanding years; Saint Paul, Greenville; Saint John's, Rock Hill, which registered as another happy pastorate and the building of a new church edifice.

We are familiar with the fact that Bishop Mouzon transferred him to Lincolnton, North Carolina, in the fall of 1927. Then followed pastorates at Hawthorne Lane, Charlotte; First Church, Asheboro; Waynesville; Mount Holly; Green Street in Winston-Salem. He retired at the Winston-Salem Conference, 1941. I shall never forget that day, when with red necktie and indomitable spirit he took the natural step so gracefully without fear or resentment, despite the fact of failing eyesight. He seemed to say:

"Though giant rains put out the sun,
Here stand I for a sign;
Though earth be filled with waters dark,
My cup is filled with wine . . ."

His fraternal nature could not be confined to a congregation, and so we see him as Shriner, Orange Lodge, Charleston, S. C., whose members paid his dues constantly as a gesture of love. He was active in Kiwanis, Rotary, and many other civic groups. But one of the most heartening relationships was that with the Exchange Club of Greensboro, which not only selected him as Chaplain, but celebrated a "Bob Truesdale Night" and presented him with a beautiful diamond pin. The paragraph from their official bulletin ran thus.

"It was Bob Truesdale Night. This was a program that we all enjoyed a great deal. We find the opportunity to say in a small way what we thought of "Our Bob" and there is no other "Bob" in our midst. Words, gifts, and thoughts cannot express what he has meant to us in the past months. Oh that we had more men in our club and land like him."

Up to the time of his death he was assistant teacher of the Ireland Bible Class at West Market Street Church, as upon retirement he and his wife made their home at Westover Terrace, Greensboro. In fact, throughout this town he has been known for his contagious, unobtrusive purity; and people who called upon his for one service after another found him always willing and expendable. He brightened everything and everybody he touched except sin and sin seemed more churlish after witnessing the good life in him.

God called "Bob" Truesdale home, November 25, 1951, and the trip was neither frightful nor long; for he knew deep down that just as truly as he found love, and protection, and preparation upon arrival in this world he would find love, and protection, and preparation beyond the veil.

From the day of his conversion in 1892, Bob Truesdale was an argument for immortality, demonstrating its quality and believing in its timelessness. He often used this expression at the funeral of a friend: "Anything as universal as death cannot be bad."

"Therefore, to whom turn I but to thee, the ineffable Name?

Builder and maker, thou, of houses not made with hands!

What, have fear of change from thee who art ever the same?

Doubt that thy power can fill the heart that thy power expands?"

BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS — MODERATE RATES — SPLENDID EQUIPMENT

Lake Junaluska Assembly, Inc.

LAKE JUNALUSKA, N. C.

The central institution of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, located in the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, offers recreation, spiritual enrichment, and intellectual stimulation to the Methodists of the Southeast. The successful progress of the Greater Junaluska Campaign for $600,000 has made a new service available. In addition to the Terrace Hotel and Lambuth Inn, which have been renovated and now have splendid management, the Assembly has provided:

CAMP ADVENTURE

Now owned by the Assembly, the Camp is available to churches on a weekly rental basis. Rustic and in a natural setting, the Camp has two dozen cabins, recreation hall, dining hall, bath houses, and hospital. Churches may rent the Camp in whole or in part, providing their own management and personnel.

JUNALUSKA APARTMENTS

These fine modern apartments consist of two-room suites for four people. Most of them have kitchenettes. Reasonable rates. Extra cots for parties of more than four persons. Reservations must be made in advance, with deposit.

For information about these and all other services of the Assembly, write to:
